Foreword

Veda Bhashya by Prof. Tulsiram – A step to make Vedas available to the English World

I have had the privilege of going through some of the chapters of Yajurveda Bhashya written by Prof. Tulsiram, a well known Vedic scholar and author of English language and literature. I congratulate him because he has done this translation for an average English reader who is keen to know the Vedas. Knowledge of the Vedas is like the knowledge of science. Vedic language is a scientific language and nobody can understand that without the profound knowledge of Vedangas, especially Nirukta of Maharshi Yaska and the grammar of Panini and Patanjali. Nobody can interpret the Veda mantras without these two. This translation proves that Prof. Tulsiram has done this insightful translation after doing hard work in both Vedangas.

In translating the Vedas, only literal meaning is just not sufficient, sometimes it may create confusion and contradiction. Prof. Tulsiram deeply merges himself into Vedic Mantras, thinking deeply about words, derivatives and analyzes the hidden nuances of meaning in their context. For example, ‘Sumitriya na aapa oshadhayah santu.....Yajur. 36, 23’: If we take literal meaning in the ordinary sense, “may the waters, vital forces of life, and herbs be friendly to us and may they be enemies to those who hate us and whom we hate”, it will not make acceptable sense. After raising some questions, he says, “How can we accept this?” So, after going deeply into the words and context he gives this meaning of the said mantra: May waters, tonics, pranic energies and medicinal herbs be good friends of our health system and immunity and let the same waters, tonics, pranic energies herbal medicines act against those ailments, diseases and negativities which injure us, which we hate to suffer and which we love to destroy, moreover let them have no side effects because side effects too help the negativities and injure us.

After giving the actual sense of the Mantra he writes that this Mantra is a reasonable prayer for the health programme of an advanced society, and then, logically in the next Mantra, follows the prayer for a full hundred years and more of life and healthy living (Tacchakshurdevahitam purastat-Yajur.36, 24).

The translation by Prof. Tulsiram is without any extraneous motive and without any extra-academic intention. The translation has been done purely as communication of the Vedic message for the welfare of mankind.

While giving his opinion on the Vedas Prof. Tulsiram writes in his Introduction....Veda is the Voice of God revealed in scientific Vedic Sanskrit free from local color and historical facts, therefore Vedic language is to be interpreted and understood according to its own laws and structure, and the only key available for such interpretation is the Nirukta of Maharshi Yaska and the grammar of Panini & Patanjali. According to Maharshi Dayananda Saraswati, ‘without reference to these bases of Vedic interpretation certain words have been given a distorted meaning in the translations of Max Muller, Griffith, Whitney and even Sayana.’ Actually the torch light for proper translation today, as Aurobindo says, is the Arsha tradition followed by Maharshi Dayananda Saraswati.

At the end I will say that this translation of Yajurveda, based on Nirukta and Grammar, follows the known ancient Indian tradition. It is factual, without prejudice or hidden motive. Prof. Tulsiram thinks deeply on every word of the mantra, looks into the context and etymology according to Nirukta and then does the translation. I congratulate him on this one more pioneering step to make the knowledge of Vedas available to the western world and the average English knowing reader. May God give him long and healthy life so that he continues to do this kind of stupendous work.

About Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma's English translation of the Rgveda

I feel myself fortunate and blest with the Grace of God that I received a few pages of the English translation by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma with introduction of the Yajurveda. The comparative views expressed by him about the Vedas are essential for every student of the Veda since it is a further pointer to scientific research in the field of Vedic interpretation.

Its conclusion is true: "In short Veda is an eternal articulation of omniscience, the voice of God". Each work of Prasthan Trayi i.e. Vedanta, Upanishads and Gita is not a take off from the Vedas but a continuation of Vedic studies in its own context of meditation, meditative teaching and a rousing call to action in a situation of karmic crisis. This English translation is a welcome addition to Vedic studies opening truly a new path establishing with ease the Vedas in the service of humanity.

English Translation of Vedic Hymns: An Opinion

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has taken an uphill task of translating all the four Vedas in lucid and thought provoking English. Most of the translations of Vedas by European scholars depend on the ritualistic meaning given by the medieval commentators like Sayana and others. But Dr. Sharma has taken a new course of translation. He agrees with the idea that the Yajurveda basically propounds the theory of Karma which it explains as Yajna, which neither denotes sacrifice nor mere ritual (Agnihotra etc.). The term Yajna carries a threefold meaning: the worship of God, unification of diverse factors of human society, selfless charity and replenishment of nature and the environment.

The hymns of the Yajurveda carry lofty ideas of spiritual and ethical significance. Most of these mantras are, however, complicated and tough. It is difficult to make out useful meaning and draw important conclusion out of the text. But Dr. Sharma has fully succeeded in drawing out the natural and meaningful content of these mantras. In brief I can say that the present translation of the Vedas will be appreciated by the scholars of this Vedic lore as well as by the lay man who wants to understand the deep meaning of the Vedic texts or at least the basic knowledge hidden in these ancient works. It is all the more satisfying that Dr. Sharma has followed the dicta laid down by Maharshi Yaska and Swami Dayananda Saraswati in translating and explaining the inner wisdom of the sacred mantras.

AUM

It has been gratifying to go through the English translation of the Vedas rendered by Dr Tulsi Ram Sharma in as much as it conveys to the English-knowing world effectively the profound meaning and transcendental secrets enshrined in the Vedas. The most salient feature of this translation is its simple and lucid English. The Vedic words have been expounded here following the yaugik method of the Arsh tradition set up by Yaska, Panini and Patanjali (as opposed to the rudhi method which takes only the historically fixed meanings of words caring little for the context and the subject). As per the Arsh tradition name words like Agni, Vayu, Indra, Marut, etc., are synonyms indicating the various attributive names of the One that is the greatest and the most comprehensive 'Tattva' of existence, the Cosmic Spirit. It was Maharshi Dayananda who for the first time after Yaska and Patanjali advocated and followed this principle of interpretation on the basis of ancient supporting material. Dr. Sharma has religiously stuck to this theory while unfolding the truths enshrined in the Vedas. Obviously Dr Sharma's interpretation of Vedic hymns enjoys the authenticity of the Arsh tradition and challenges the western Vedic perspective and the medieval Indian interpretations of the Vedas which now need to be seriously reviewed in our present day context of science and inter-cultural communication.

MESSAGE

Above the narrow boundaries of country, time, caste and creed, the Vedas have been a treasure house of eternal universal knowledge and spiritual wisdom. There have been numerous attempts by Indians and foreigners to make the knowledge of these Vedas available to the people at large. Among them the Vedic commentaries of the great social and spiritual leader, Maharshi Dayananda are the best works in this field. Inspired by Swami Dayananda, the translation of the Yajurveda into English by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma is a commendable work in this line. Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has been a great devotee of sacred literature, especially Vedas, Upanishads, and various philosophies. His life long study of the Vedas has given him deep insight into Vedic philosophy. His translation of the Yajurveda reveals it fully. Here he has translated the Yajurveda, the Veda of Karma, in such a way that even a common reader can grasp its essence. He has very effectively brought out how this Veda teaches us to apply spiritual knowledge in practical life. Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma deserves our congratulations and best wishes for having done translation of all the four Vedas in simple and clear English for the international community.

APPRECIATION

I have gone through some chapters of the English translation of Yajurveda by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma. As he has stated at the very beginning of the Introduction, this translation of Yajurveda is meant for an average English-knowing reader who is keen to know: What is Veda? What is it about? Is it old or new? To achieve this object, he has followed the Arsh method of interpretation. Accordingly, for example, he has mostly followed the etymological method of literal translation. But whenever he finds that the literal is not helpful in achieving his intended objective, he adds the implied explanation so that the essence of the Vedic hymn is quite clear. For example, his translation of, ‘Yathemam Vacham Kalyanimavadani janebhyah’ is rendered as follows—‘Just as I speak (reveal) this auspicious holy Word of the Veda for all people (without discrimination of high or low), so should you too communicate it to all people of the world, whosoever, whatsoever, where so ever they be’. That is the technique of Swami Dayananda also.

I regard Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma as one in the commendable line of Pundit Damodar Satavalekara who studied Sanskrit at a mature age and did unique work in that language. Dr. Sharma has also mastered the Sanskrit language after his retirement and done full justice to the translation of the Veda. He richly deserves our gratefulness, our expression of gratification and our appreciation for succeeding in his sacred mission of presenting an understandable, logical and above all sensible English translation of Vedas which hitherto was unavailable. Thus a long felt need has been fulfilled. I am sure Dr Sharma’s method of translation will not only be widely approved but will also be followed by others while translating the Vedas in other languages.

Sadbhavana (Good wishes)

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma, is a profound scholar of English, Hindi, Sanskrit and Urdu. But his heart felt devotion goes to sacred literature, especially Vedas, Upanishads, Darshan Philosophy, Puranas, Ramayana, and Mahabharata with concentration on the Bhagwad Gita, Greek, Roman, Sumerian and English Epics, Gathas of Zarathustra, Bible, Quran and the writings of Swami Dayananda and Swami Vivekananda, in search of the essential values of Veda and Sanatan Vedic Dharma. It seems his real spirit and scholarly interest lies in the interpretation of the Vedas. I have gone through some portions of his English translation of Yajurveda and on perusal of this translation, I have marked two characterizing features:

1. His language is perfectly lucid and
2. His translation is faithful to the word and spirit of the Mantras.

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has very correctly observed, “Veda is knowledge of existence, pure and simple, as Science is knowledge. Science is the knowledge of nature as nature is and as it works according to its own laws. In Science, there is no story, no history. Similarly, in the Vedas, there is no story, no history. And just as Science is knowledge in Scientific language, free from local colour and historical variations of form and meaning, so Veda too is knowledge in scientific language, free from local colour and historical variations.”

Veda is ‘Knowledge’ and knowledge is eternal. The interpretation of the Vedas requires the knowledge of the Arsh technique as explained by the Rshis like Yaska, Panini, Patanjali, Dayananda and Aurobindo.

As Veda is pure knowledge, so is this translation in the Arsh tradition, free from myth and history with no local colour, no attitude, no motive, except pure communication of the Original for all.

With best wishes to the author and specially to the readers,

—Umakant Upadhyaya

Formerly Professor of Economics, Calcutta University.

To the Reader

This translation of the ‘Hymns of Yajurveda’ is an English Version of the Yajurveda for the common reader who wants to acquaint himself or herself with the content of this divine message of the dynamics of Karma, both human and divine, in the context of the nature, structure and purpose of the universe and the condition and position of the human being in it. While the opening mantra launches the human being on life with the exhortation: “Be vibrant as the winds”, the closing mantra seals the success of vibrant humanity in action with the final achievement of “Om Kham Brahma” with Grace Divine.

Life according to the Yajurveda is a journey from the beginning-less beginning to the endless end with the message:

Immortal child of Divinity,
Your roots go deep to Eternity,
Your reach is unto Infinity.
And your path is up and onwards,
Never never downwards.

This version is a scientific translation of the text within the parameters of Yaska and Dayananda with rational understanding of Sayana at the one end and the western scholars at the other. Sayana’s translation is ritualistic especially with reference to yajna. It came at a time when the “Renaissance, Re-awakening of Learning” was far off, not yet just at the next door. Even communication between the East and the West was not as hectic as it became after the advent of the East India Company into India. Thus mutual criticism and appreciation too was silent rather than vocal. Hence Ritualism was just the thing acceptable to a society settled on the side of stagnation more than of fermentation.

Ritual, of course, is sacred. It is the most meticulous programme of action in pursuit of a holistic plan of life and living which arises from a spiritual vision of Divinity. It is conducted with unreserved commitment of will in faultless action, and completed with total surrender in absolute faith. For this reason yajna in Veda and Upanishad, is described as the highest human action, “Shreshthatamam karma”. This view is accepted in this translation too. But in addition, an extended interpretation of the same view of yajna is incorporated and followed in the light of Swami Dayananda, and also as warranted by the exhortation in the opening mantra: “Apply yourself to the highest form of action, yajna, in the service of Indra, lord of the universe, for the glory of the human nation”. The highest actions in the world of existence, the creative evolution of the universe under the immanent presiding presence of Divinity, and the total corporate action of humanity for progress, peace and freedom, all this is yajna. And this idea leads us to discover for ourselves and understand the science, art and technology of participative living for progress, from the individual level, through the social, to the cosmic, as universal Yajna, human, natural and divine.

There may or may not be an escape from Sayana, but there is no possible escape from Dayananda, and even from westerners especially for the sake of caution and self correction.

I respect the western translators for their clarity and their art of communication. In addition, I find that they did recognise that the ideal way to interpret and explain the Sanskrit words of Indian scriptures such as Vedas was to trace back every word to its root, deconstruct and reconstruct it with the addition of the affixes, and then structurally explain its meaning. That precisely was the approach of Yaska, Panini, Patanjali and Swami Dayananda. Monier Williams, author of the well known Sanskrit English Dictionary, himself admired the Indians for their scientific approach to language, specially Sanskrit:

“I draw attention at the very threshold to the fact that the Hindus are perhaps the only nation, except for the Greeks, who have investigated, independently and in a truly scientific manner, the general laws which govern the evolution of language.” (Introduction, p. xii)

He continues in relation to Sanskrit: “The synthetical process which comes into operation in the working of those laws may be well called Samskarana, ‘putting together’, by which I mean that every single word in the highest type of language (called Sanskrita) is first evolved out of a primary ‘Dhatu’—a Sanskrit term usually translated as ‘Root’, but applicable to any primordial constituent substance, whether of words, or rocks, or living organisms, and then, being so evolved, goes through a process of ‘putting together’ by the combination of other elementary constituents.” [Sanskrit, thus, becomes a language correspondence of the evolution, structure and dynamics of the world of reality, and Veda as articulation of the reality of existence.]

“Furthermore, the process of ‘putting together’ implies, of course, the possibility of a converse process of vyakarana. by which I mean ‘undoing’ or decomposition (deconstruction), that is to say, the resolution of every root-evolved word into its component elements. So that in endeavouring to exhibit these processes of synthesis and analysis, we appear to be engaged, like a chemist, in combining elementary substances into solid forms, and again in resolving these forms into their constituent ingredients.” (p. xii). And in respect of this special character, Sanskrit, he says, is a different language from the Semitic languages (of which the Bible and the Quran are expressions).

And yet, in spite of this clear understanding of Sanskrit, an Arsha dictionary remained with him only “a beautiful philological dream, a dream, however, which could not receive practical shape without raising the Lexicon to a level of scientific perfection unsuited to the needs of ordinary students.” (p. xiii)

Why unsuited? The answer lies in his mission and the main object of his mission. The scientific way of interpretation and explanation was counter to the purpose for which Monier Williams was appointed Professor of Sanskrit at Oxford where he occupied the Boden Chair after H.H.Wilson who had been a member of the Committee of Public Instruction in India under Lord Macaulay as Chairman and Lord William Bentinck as Governor General of India. And then English had been accepted and introduced as the medium as well as the content of Education.

Monier Williams says: “One consideration which led my predecessor (Professor H.H.Wilson) to pass on to me his project of a root-arranged Lexicon was that, on being elected to the Boden Chair, he felt that the elaboration of such a work would be incompatible with the practical objects for which the Boden Professorship was founded. . . The main object was really a missionary one, as I have shown in the Preface of this volume." (p. xi)

The object, Professor Williams explains in the Preface to his Dictionary (p. ix): "I must draw attention to the fact that I am only the second occupant of the Boden Chair, and that its founder, Colonel Boden, stated most explicitly in his will (dated August 15, 1811) that the special object of his munificent bequest was to promote the translation of the Scriptures (that is, the Bible) into Sanskrit, so as 'to enable his countrymen to proceed in the conversion of the natives of India to the Christian Religion'.

"Surely then it need not be thought surprising, if following in the footsteps of my venerated master, I have made it the chief aim of my professional life to provide facilities for the translation of our sacred Scriptures into Sanskrit, and for the promotion of a better knowledge of the religions and customs of India as the best way to a knowledge of the religious needs of our great Eastern Dependency (India). My very first public lecture delivered after my election (to the Boden Chair) in 1860 was on 'The Study of Sanskrit in Relation to Missionary Work in India' (published in 1861)". (pp. xxi)

For any student of Veda, specially in India, in fact anywhere, it is difficult to overlook the words of Monier Williams in the Preface and Introduction to his Dictionary of Sanskrit, for the reason that from translation of Christian Scriptures into Sanskrit with a missionary motive, the translation of Sanskrit Scriptures into English was but the next and 'logical' step with that same missionary motive of conversion, one to extol, the other to denigrate:

One example, of extolment, is the following translation of the Bible, 'The Gospel according to John':

Yohana-likhitah Susamvādah; Īshvarasya vākyam Yishor mahatvam avatāra kathā ca.

Jesus here is presented as an Avatara, someone a very God for the traditional Hindu, although the Gospel does not mention the incarnation at all. (The translation of The Bible in Sanskrit by J.Wenger is available on the internet.)

The other example, of denigration, is given here below from W.D. Whitney's translation of the Atharvaveda (7, 107, 1) edited and revised by K.L. Joshi, published by Parimal Publications, Delhi, 2004:

*Namaskṛtya dyāvāprthivībhyāmantarikṣāya mṛtyave.
Mekṣāmyūrdhvastiṣṭhan mā mā hinsīṣhurīśvarāḥ.*

“Having paid homage to heaven and earth, to the atmosphere, to Death, I will urinate standing erect; let not the Lords (Ishvara) harm me.”

I give below an English rendering of the same mantra translated by Pundit Satavalekara in Hindi:

“Having done homage to heaven and earth and to the middle regions and Death (Yama), I stand high and watch (the world of life). Let not my masters hurt me.”

An English rendering of the same mantra translated by Pundit Jai Dev Sharma in Hindi is the following:

“Having done homage to heaven and earth (i.e. father and mother) and to the immanent God and Yama (all Dissolver), standing high and alert, I move forward in life. These masters of mine, pray, may not hurt me.”

I would like to quote my own translation of the mantra now under print:

“Having done homage to heaven and earth, and to the middle regions, and having acknowledged the fact of death as inevitable counterpart of life under God's dispensation, now standing high, I watch the world and go forward with showers of the cloud. Let no powers of earthly nature hurt and violate me.”

‘Showers of the cloud’ is a metaphor, as in Shelley's poem ‘the Cloud’: “I bring fresh showers for the thirsting flowers”, which suggests a lovely rendering.

The problem here arises from the verb ‘mekshami’ from the root ‘mih’ which means ‘to shower’ (sechane). It depends on the translator's sense and attitude to sacred writing how the message is received and communicated in an interfaith context with no strings attached (or unattached).

This extolment and denigration was happening around the time when the English language, English education and missionary work had been introduced into India and was raging on top. Swami Dayananda faced this challenge with boldness and caution, still with an open mind, all prepared even for correction. He based his interpretation of the Vedas on Nirukta and the etymological principles of word interpretation, and interpretation of the word in the context, both local and total, because the local is an integral part of the total whole.

We are living in an age of science and reason, democracy and freedom, globalism and global communication, and we feel the need for a free and frank interfaith dialogue. In such an age, ritualism and mythology is not enough. If we want to understand and present Veda as a body of universal knowledge and articulation of divine awareness of existence, there is no escape from Yaska, Panini, Patanjali, Dayananda and Aurobindo, because they provide the key principles and practice of scientific interpretation of an ancient scientific language such as Vedic Sanskrit which has no historical parallel for comparison. The language of science tells no stories, no myths. It states the truth pure and simple. Hence the resort to Swami Dayananda, either before or after Sayana and the western scholars, is indispensable.

There is one observation I must make on Swami Dayananda. Swami Dayananda has given a socio-economic orientation to the Vedic mantras because he underscores the relevance of the Vedas to the social, economic and political situation of humanity, especially in India, which was necessary and highly meaningful. For example, the Ashwins, in general, are the complementary powers of nature and humanity working as twin forces like the positive and negative currents of electricity, or like the theoretician and the laboratory man, or the curative and recuperative powers of medicine and nature's powers of rejuvenation. Swami Dayananda often explains such powers in the interest of practical understanding: he defines them as teacher and preacher, or father and mother, sun and moon, fire and water, prana and Apana energy, ruler and council, scientist and engineer, and so on, depending on the mantra context. Sometimes it appears as if he is delimiting the open-ended general meaning of the Veda. But we should be careful before we say so, and realise that the definiteness of his meaning is illustrative and in no way exhaustive. In this translation such situations have been appreciated and the meaning has been kept open ended, inclusive of the meanings given by Swami Dayananda, as suggested by Yaska and the etymology of the terms. In short, this translation has been done with cautious reference to Sayana, under the guidance of Swami Dayananda, with respect for Pundit Satavalekara and with very careful observance of the western anglers.

Pundit Satavalekara comes in between Sayana and swami Dayananda for his excellent syntactic structures of mantra meanings in continuous Hindi. But he explains words such as Indra, Agni, Ashwins, Vrtra, Trita, Bhujyu, Kashyapa, Jamadagni, etc. as proper names so that the mantra appears to be a mythical or historical statement of either fact or fiction. But Swami Dayananda interprets these terms in the yaugic manner and explains them as scientific terms of the forms, functions, orders and attributes of the powers of existence representing the manifestive diversity of one Divinity and one Prakrti in the state of objective existence. These words are not historical names, because the time context of the creation of the Vedas remains unknown beyond history and imagination as even Max Muller confessed in his Gifford lectures in 1890.

This translation respects the entire tradition of Vedic interpretation, and under the guidance of this tradition takes Vedic interpretation to the original level of scientific rationality in the context of modern consciousness, modern language and global culture, a message both sanatan and, at the same time, modern (ref. Atharva, 10,8,23).

Take just one example of the problem I have faced, with the solution I have suggested: Yajurveda (36, 23) says, if we take the literal meaning in the ordinary sense: “May the waters, pranic energies and herbs be friendly to us and may they be enemies to those who hate us and whom we hate.” How can we accept this? How can the same waters, tonics and herbs be good friends to us and enemies to those we hate or those who hate us? Medicine is medicine after all. This is excellent stuff for a translator who believes that Vedic poetry is nothing but the voice of a tribal society in the barbaric, not civilized, state of social evolution. But let us think deeply. What is the context? Who are our enemies in that context? Who or what are those that injure us? What are those we hate or want to injure and destroy? The context is health. In the context of health, they are the ailments, diseases, germs and bacteria, viruses, negativities and side effects of medicines in our system. So the correct and scientific interpretation in the context of health would be: “May waters, tonics, pranic energies and medicinal herbs be good friends of our health and immunity system and let the waters, tonics, pranic energies and herbal medicines act against those ailments, diseases and negativities which injure us, which we hate to suffer and which we love to destroy. Moreover let them have no side effects because side effects too aggravate the negativities and injure us.” This is the reasonable prayer and health programme of an advanced society. And then, logically in the next mantra, follows the prayer for a full hundred years and more of life and healthy living (Yajurveda, 36, 24). Veda thus is food for thought.

In human terms: If a legendary celebrity can admire another human figure as “inscrutable, apocalyptic, a mysterious poem written in flesh and blood”, how much more – infinitely more – mysterious, inscrutable, apocalyptic would be the Cosmic Poem (Devasya Kavyah) created in the language of the Ultimate Vision?

Veda is a Cosmic Poem: the more we know, the more we know the Veda, and the more we know the Veda, the more we know.

Indeed, every reader should stand before the Veda, every verse of It in fact, as Arjuna stood before the Cosmic Krishna, waiting and watching intently, for the burst of a thousand suns, for the Dawn on top of the Earth, for the Revelation.

May the light burst forth, I pray.

Introduction to Rgveda

This translation of Rgveda is meant for an average English knowing reader who is keen to know:

What is Veda? What is it all about? Is it old or new?

If it's old, what is its relevance today? And if it is relevant, is it relevant to me also? Or is it relevant only to some particular community in some particular country at some particular time?

These are relevant questions especially in an age of science, democracy and globalism.

Veda is Knowledge. The very word 'Veda' means knowledge. It is derived from the root 'vid', which means: 'to be, to know, to think, and to benefit from'.

So whatever is is Veda, the very world of existence is Veda. The knowledge of the world of existence is Veda. The extension of knowledge through thought and research further is Veda. And to use that knowledge for the benefit of mankind with the protection and preservation of nature and the environment, without hurting any form of life, that is Veda.

Veda is knowledge, pure and simple, as science is knowledge. Science is knowledge of nature as nature is and as it works according to its own laws. In science, there is no story no history. Similarly in the Veda, there is no story, no history. And just as science is knowledge in scientific language free from local colour and historical variations of form and meaning, so Veda too is knowledge in scientific language free from local colour and historical variations. Therefore Vedic language has to be interpreted and understood according to the laws and technique of its own structure as stated by seers such as Yaska, Panini and Patanjali and as explained by Swami Dayananda in his grammatical works and his notes on Vedic words in his commentary on the Vedas.

But there is a difference between scientific knowledge and Vedic knowledge: While science is knowledge of nature to the extent that man has been able to discover it, Veda is the quintessential knowledge of all that is, including nature, all that happens, all that we are, all that we do, and all that we reap in consequence of our action. It is the Original and Universal knowledge of the Reality of Existence and the Ideality of our aspirations, covering the facts and processes of existence, their interaction and the laws that operate in the interaction. In short, Veda is an eternal articulation of Omniscience, The Voice of God.

Vedic knowledge is classified thematically into three: Stuti, Prarthana and Upasana. Stuti, praise, is solemn reverential remembrance and description of the attributes, nature, character and function of divine powers. Prarthana, prayer, is an autosuggestive resolution to realise our limitations and rise above those limitations by calling on Divinity for aid and blessings when we have exhausted our effort and potential. Upasana is meditation, the surrender of our limited identity to participate in the Divine Presence. Stuti implies knowledge (Janana), Prarthana implies humility and action (Karma), and Upasana implies total love and surrender (Bhakti). In consequence, formally, Vedic knowledge is divided into four:

Rgveda is the Veda of Knowledge, Yajurveda is the Veda of Karma, Samaveda is the Veda of Bhakti, and Atharvaveda is Brahma Veda, an umbrella, celebrating the Divine Presence as in Book 10, hymns 7 and 8.

Rgveda is the Veda of knowledge revealed by Parameshvara, Lord Supreme Himself. All the four Vedas were received by the primeval Rshis from That Supreme Divinity (Rgveda, 10, 90, 9). That Supreme power and presence is One and only one, wise sages call it by many names such as Agni, Indra, Mitra, Varuna and others. That one Lord creates this wonderful world of many forms and pervades it simultaneously (6, 47, 18). The creative evolution begins from that and when one cycle is complete, the involution ends up therein (10, 129, 7). The light of the sun radiates from there (10, 37, 3), the streams of life flow from there through the medium of five elements (1, 164, 3). We too come from there and retire unto That when the existential sojourn terminates (8, 44, 23), that is the covenant of man and God. The truth of Vedas is eternal (5, 25, 2). Law is eternal (4, 23, 8).

Our life is a lovely sojourn of our active and intelligent choice (5, 1, 2; 6, 15, 9) in the fivefold body (5, 47, 5), or outside the body (1, 164, 30), in a homely paradise on earth (6, 120, 3), or in a fools paradise (9, 64, 20-1). Therefore the one basic commandment of Vedas is “Be man”, intelligent human being (10, 53, 6), be a visionary which you ought to be (1, 31, 6), in the category of Deva, godliness (1, 68, 2), remembering fully well that each one comes alone for a short time (10, 97, 5), to live in a house of clay (8, 44, 23) which is not our ultimate destination. Therefore our self-fulfilment lies through breaking the threefold bonds of body, mind and spiritual ignorance (1, 24, 15), rise beyond the darkness and reach the light Divine (1, 50, 10). The Light is our real potential as children of Immortality, unhurt, imperishable (1, 148, 5).

Rgveda begins with an invocation and prayer to Agni, Lord of light and energy, giver of life and light, the first, original and ultimate High-priest of the yajna of creative evolution and ends with a prayer to Agni for the gift of the fragrance and nectar of yajnic life from the vedi of the earth. It exhorts humanity to live together in creative and cooperative unity, to act and move together, to speak together, and to think together for a united decision and common achievement, knowing each other's mind in harmony in the same tradition as the ancient wise followed in the performance of Dharma.

Rgveda gives a clear picture of the socio-political and economic organisation of humanity from the local to the international level. The Vedic word for a brilliant, enlightened, sovereign republic is Swarajya (3, 49, 2; 3, 46, 1; 3, 45,5; 1, 36, 7). The word for such an organisation is Rashtra. For such a Rashtra, efforts have to be made (1, 80,9), there should be three assemblies: the Executive, Legislature, the Law and Order and Defence forces (3, 38, 6), and the Educational Authority. The ruler and the assemblies have to be elected by the people from amongst the educated and socially dedicated people (Atharva, 3, 4, 2). Yajurveda and Atharva-Veda provide further details. The Vedic ideal of any human organisation and its law is that the organisation, in order to be just, creative, productive and egalitarian, must be an organism, a living, intelligent, self-organising, autonomous sovereign system.

The universe, the social system too, is a Purusha, a person (10, 90,2) of which the intellectual is the spokesman of values, of knowledge, rectitude and piety, the law and order and defence forces are the guards, the produces are providers, and the ancillary services are assistants, all governed by law which should be a human version of Rtam, the law of Nature and Divinity governing the universe.

There are many other Themes as prayers to Parameshvara, divine attributes of the forces of Nature, attributes, potential and limitations of the individual soul, life and death, individual freedom, marriage and family life, free social mobility under the Verna-Ashrama Dharma based on merit, precreation stage of existence (10, 129, 1-7) which was the Zero state which we can describe neither as existence nor as non-existence: There 'was' or, may be, there 'was not':

It was the state of Zero Absolute,
The Hour beyond the hour.
No night, no day, no life nor death,
No existence, nor no-existence,
Darkness beyond the dark.
Silence, mother of speech,
Void, mother of space and time,
THAT One beyond the name,
Breathing alone without breath
Ever awake.

The flow consumed in the point of no dimensions Potential Infinity.

This is Vision beyond the vision of mind, the mystery of Rgveda.

Between this point of Potential Infinity for creation and the time of cosmic dissolution there is the evolutionary and involuntary interplay of natural forces Agni, Indra, Soma, Pusha, Vaishvanara, Ashvins, Savita, Maruts, Sarasvati, heaven and earth, and the social dynamics of humanity for four billion and three hundred and twenty million years, a drama of infinite variety, ultimately all sucked in into the mysterious Black Hole, and then the breath out, back again.

So, says Rgveda, be good, do good, and make the world noble (Rg. 9, 63, 5).

Samaveda is Bhaktiveda in song, a symphony of Veda mantras chiefly from Rgveda in celebration of the Truth, Beauty and Goodness of life and the Power, Glory, Sublimity and Beatitude of Divinity. It begins with an invitation to Agni, Light and Life of the universe, moves to Indra, the Power and Glory of Divinity and then to Beatific Soma, divine Spirit of peace and universal joy, and ends with thanks and prayer to All-listening Indra, All-embracing Pusha, inviolable Tarkshya, and Brhaspati, Lord of Infinity, for the gifts of peace, progress, prosperity and total well being.

Yajurveda is Karma Veda, knowledge of the application of knowledge in practical living in a positive, creative and constructive manner at both the individual and the collective level. This way of living and working is “Yajna” which, in simple words, means a selfless and participative way of living and thereby creating the maximum out of the minimum for all, including nature, humanity, the environment and the whole universe, with complete faith in the living, breathing, intelligent self-organising, self-conscious, Sovereign System. Living the yajnic way, we realise that Nature is an organism, a tree, Ashwattha, and the entire cosmos including ourselves is a Purusha, and we as human beings are but cells in this Divine Purusha. Without living this way in a state of full awareness, we cannot realise that you and I, Mother Nature and the Supreme Brahma are all together, one in union and communion.

Vedic knowledge then is the Divine knowledge of existence from the dimensionless point and particle unto Infinity. And prayerful living and communion in meditation and yoga means: Self-integration of the particle, Re-integration of the part with the whole, and Re-Union of the finite with the Infinite.

This is the climactic close of Yajurveda: The light and life that shines in and beyond the sun is that Supreme Purusha. That is there, and that is here, in me too.

Om is the saviour. Om is Bramha. Bramha is Infinite, Sublime!

The message of Yajurveda begins with the rousing divine call to live: “Be vibrant as the winds!” But we must be gratefully vibrant: “O Lord we pray for and thank thee for the gift of food and energy for life, for the health and efficiency of body, mind and soul.” All of us must dedicate ourselves to Savita, giver of life and light, with devotion to the highest, yajnic, action, we must not hurt the ‘Cow’, and we must not allow a thief to boss over us and deprive us of our creative freedom of thought, word and deed.

Atharva-Veda is Brahma Veda, umbrella knowledge of existence both Murta and Amurta, concrete and abstract. It is the knowledge of Prakrti, Mother Nature, as well as of Purusha, the Soul, the individual Jiva as well as the Cosmic Soul Brahma. It begins with a celebrative description of the thrice-seven variant evolutes of Prakrti and a prayer to Vachaspati, Lord of Nature and the Word of Knowledge, to bless us with strength, energy, intelligence and knowledge emanating from those thrice-seven forms of the world of Nature and Spirit. It covers the world of humanity from the individual to the total collective personality of humanity, including social structures from the family, community and the nation up to the international United Nations. It pays homage to Divinity, Jyeshtha Brahma, Supreme Presiding Spirit and Power, immanent and transcendent, which creates and sustains and winds up the world of existence in each cycle of creation, eternally (10, 7-8, and 19, 6). Towards the end Atharva-Veda pays homage to Brahma and Mother Veda with thanks for the gifts of good health and full age, vibrant pranic energy, noble progeny, ample wealth, fame, lasting achievement and divine lustre of life. These are the gifts of Vedic knowledge in life, and when one cycle of existence reaches the hour of completion, the Mother Knowledge returns to her eternal and Original abode, Jyeshtha Brahma Itself, the mighty, mysterious, awful Silence, impenetrable Darkness, Smaller than the smallest conceivable, yet Greater than the greatest imaginable, the Original and Ultimate Home of all that matter, energy, thought and Speech is, beyond time and space.

As you open the text of Rg-Veda, you find the words: Agni, Madhucchanda Rshi. 'Devata' here means the subject which is dealt with in the mantra. 'Devata' as a Vedic term means a presence, a power, a force, which is brilliant, illuminative, and generous. The 'Devata' of a mantra may be God, the One Sacchidananda Brahma as in the closing mantra quoted above, or Savita, the same One self-refulgent God as in the opening mantra of Yajurveda, or it can be a generous divine power of Nature such as the sun, moon, earth; or it can be a noble person of brilliant quality of nature, character and performance as a ruler, leader, commander, teacher, etc. What the 'Devata' means in any particular mantra depends on the total context that emerges from the mantra in its thematic environment of the hymn.

Madhucchanda is the Rshi of the opening mantra. The Rshi in the Arsha tradition is not the author of the mantra, Rshi is the exponent of the meaning of the mantra. As Maharshi Yaska says in the Nirukta, Rshis are the 'seers of the mantras: they are the sages who went into deep meditation unto the universal frequency of the Cosmic Mind and experienced the voice of Divinity speaking in the mantra, the mantra, a semantic correspondence of the Divine Voice, the Divine Voice, a sound correspondence of Divine Awareness of the Reality of Existence in the modes of Being and Becoming.

Who then is the poet of the Vedas? The answer is in Yajurveda 40, 8: That Cosmic Spirit which pervades and rules every moving particle in the moving universe is “the poet, thinker, all-comprehending, and self-existent”. That is the Lord who creates the world of existence, ordains the Laws of its dynamics, and reveals the poetry of its beauty and majesty, the Vedas. “From that Lord of universal yajna were born the Rks and Samans. From Him were born the Chhandas of Atharva-veda and from Him were born the Yajus”, (Yajurveda 31, 7). The Vedic lore comes in Pura-kalpa, the beginning of the world of humanity (Shvetashvataropanishad, 6, 22) and when its function is over at the end of the kalpa, one cycle of existence, it retires into Brahma-loka (Atharva-veda 19, 71, 1).

The Vedas were revealed by the Lord Omniscient to four primeval Rshis: Rgveda to Agni, Yajurveda to Vayu, Samaveda to Aditya, and Atharva-veda to Angira, directly in their spiritual consciousness. The Sage Brahma received and collected the four from them and passed them on to other sages.

When were the Vedas revealed? What is their age? How old are they? As old as the age of humanity on earth. The Lord who creates humanity leaves them not to nature like animals. He enlightens them with the knowledge of existence and their place in the world with the vision of their journey and its culmination. Swami Dayananda works out the age of the Vedas on the basis of Surya Siddhanta which in the year 2010 A.D. comes to 1,96,08,53,110 years.

If someone does not accept it and insists on historical proof, let us listen to Max Muller from whom we learn of the problem of the date or dates but with no possibility of solution on scientific and historical grounds.

Max Muller is known as a world renowned Vedic scholar and exegesist of the West. Max Muller once ventured to pronounce a purely arbitrary date based on unproven assumptions that around 1200 B.C. was the date of the Rgveda. Later, he himself warned his students that “Whether the Vedic Hymns were composed in 1000 or 1500 or 2000 B.C., no power on earth could ever fix Whatever may be the date of the Vedic hymns... they have their own unique place and stand by themselves”. Such daring presumptions of western scholars about the date of the Vedas are exposed by Graham Hancock in his latest researches, in his explosive book: Underworld: The Mysterious Origins of Civilization (2002).

Hancock first gives the range of dates accepted by Western scholars such as Max Muller and Dr. Mitchiner, a great authority on ancient Sanskrit texts: Vedas 1500-800 BC, Brahmanas 900-600 BC, Aranyakas 700-500 BC, Upanishads 600-400 BC, Mahabharata 350 BC-50 AD, Ramayana 250 BC-200AD, Puranas AD 200-1500. “Amazing!” says he: “Whether starting in 1500 BC, 1400 BC or 1200 BC, the timelines, suggested for the compilation and codification of the Vedas, all rest on the now thoroughly falsified and bankrupt (and rejected) idea of an Aryan invasion of India around 1500 BC”. He continues: “There was no such thing as an Aryan race that spoke Indo–European languages and authored the Vedas, there was no such event as an Aryan invasion of India. ‘Arya’ does not mean a race, it means a noble, educated and cultured person. So once the hypothesis of the Aryan invasion is rejected, the structure of the supposed dates of the Vedas and other texts crumbles like a house of cards.’ And then he sums up his view of the Western approach to the Vedas and Indian civilization: “Almost everything that was ever written about this literature and civilization before five years ago (i.e., before 1997) is wrong.” (See pp. 131, 116, 129)

Max Muller himself in his Gifford Lectures in 1890 had confessed that “no power on earth could ever fix” the date of the Vedas. Even Mitchiner himself concedes that “the dating of Sanskrit texts is a notoriously difficult problem” (Quoted Ibid p. 131).

Who could then possibly speak the truth about ancient Indian civilisation and the Vedic literature? Says Hancock (p. 105): “Perhaps we are coming to a time when ancient India will speak for herself again after millennia of silence.” It was Swami Dayananda who spoke for India and the Vedas in the Rshis’ tradition after millennia of silence to correct the distortions of Indian history and redeem Vedic literature and the Vedic tradition.

If no history, no Science, no human imagination can help, better follow the sages tradition, Surya Siddhanta, and the daily sankalpa of the dedicated Brahmanas. And lastly follow the internal evidence of the Vedas themselves: Vedas are the Original, Universal, Eternal articulation of Divinity, by Divinity, for humanity at the beginning of human creation. (Yajurveda, 26, 2; Shvetashvataropanishad, 6, 18)

Since Vedas are the oldest recorded knowledge of the world, no one can guess how much time, even ages, might have passed between the Vedas and the next work in Sanskrit. If so, there is no other work in Sanskrit comparable to the Vedas. Consequently the language of any other work would not provide any clue for the interpretation of Veda mantras. Vedic language then has to be interpreted on its own, and the only key available for such independent interpretation is the Nirukta and Nighantu of Maharshi Yaska, the grammatical works of Panini and Patanjali, and Swami Dayananda’s notes in his commentary on Vedic verses explaining the structure and meaning of the words. Without reference to these bases of Vedic interpretation, certain words have been given a very distorted meaning in other translations by Max Muller, Griffith, Whitney, and even Sayana. The torch light for proper translation today is the Arsha tradition followed by Swami Dayananda.

The Arsha way is the only right way, the key, to discover the truth of the Vedas. According to Shri Aurobindo, Swami Dayananda alone, in modern times, possessed this key to the secret of the Vedas. Interpreted this way the Vedas shine in their essential scientific refulgence. As science is pure knowledge, no story, no history, no mythology, so are the Vedas, pure knowledge: knowledge of nature, mind, spirit, human society, Dharma, the dynamics of existence and the right way of living as individuals and as members of organised society upto the international level. Even Max Muller, though he was once committed to uprooting the religion of India by his arbitrary translation of Rgveda, had to admit in his Biographical Essays that: “To Swami Dayananda, everything contained in the Vedas was not only perfect truth, but he went one step further and, by their interpretation, succeeded in persuading others that everything worth knowing, even the most recent inventions of modern science, were alluded to in the Vedas. Steam Engines, Electricity, Telegraphy and Wireless Marconogram were shown to have been at least in the germ known to the poets of the Vedas”. In fact Shri Aurobindo in his essay on “Dayananda and the Veda” goes even further: “There is nothing fantastic in Dayananda’s idea that Veda contains truth of science as well as truth of religion (i.e., Dharma). I will even add my own conviction that Veda contains other truths of a Science the modern world does not at all possess, and in that case, Dayananda has rather understated than overstated the depth and range of the Vedic wisdom (see ‘Bankim, Tilak, Dayananda’, p. 57).

The basic requirement of scriptural interpretation for us is faith and intellingetical solemnity, not doubt and cynicism. This way, if we want to confirm our faith in the scientific vision of the Veda, refer to Rgveda 1, 34, 7 and 9 for three-stage rocket chariot of the Ashwins, to 1, 36, 18 for Agni missile, to 1, 37, 3 for winds and communication, to 1, 46, 10 for concentration of light, to 1, 52, 1 and 1, 36, 1 for the science of missile defence and space-craft, to 6, 46, 11 for missiles and war heads, and so on. The position of the solar system with planets and satellites, earth's and sun's gravitation, solar healing, parliamentary democracy, organisational structure of the nation and the international world, water and electric energy, and so many other subjects are hinted at in Vedic verses. We need serious research to work out the details. Had even Einstein read the Purusha Sukta of the Vedas, Brahma Sutras and Sankhya Vaisheshika philosophy, probably he would have found clues to his search for Unified Field theory of the universe.

Beyond faith and intelligential solemnity we need vision, potential Darshan of the Vedic Rshis. Once you have had the vision of truth, doubts disappear and questions recede into silence because, then, nothing shines but the Truth, and Divinity Itself reveals It's Reality with showers of Grace. In this mood and in this spirit, I suggest, you start your search for Vedic Truth and the Mystery of Existence.

Lastly, if the Vedic lore is as old as humanity itself, what is its relevance today in the modern world? Ask yourself other questions: What is the relevance of Galileo or Newton or the Theory of Relativity, two plus two makes four, Swaraj, the Vedic word for freedom and self-discipline? Truth is truth, when the statement was or is made is irrelevant. Vedic truth, if you find it convincing and acceptable, is relevant not only for today but also for all time, to every person, everywhere.

Yajurveda itself says (26, 2):

“Yathemam vacham kalyanim avadani janebhyah”:

Just as I speak (reveal) this auspicious holy Word of the Veda for all people (without any discrimination of high or low), so should you too communicate it to all people of the world whoever, whatever, wherever they be.

18. *Apo devīrupa hvaye yatra gāvaḥ pibanti naḥ.
Sindhubhyaḥ kartvaṁ haviḥ.*

I invoke the celestial waters whereby the rays of the sun suck up the vapours in order to create holy materials for our yajna.

19. *Apsvantaramṛtamapsu bheṣajamapāmuta praśa-

There is nectar in the waters. There is health and medicinal efficacy in the waters. General scholars of eminence, rise and act fast for special studies and appraisal of waters.

20. *Apsu me somo abravīdantarviśvāni bheṣajā.

Soma, the moon and the herbs, creates and shows there is universal medicine in the waters for me. And the waters, universal medicine, create the vital heat of life which is the universal sustainer of us all.

21. *Āpaḥ prṇīta bheṣajaṁ varūthaṁ tanve mama.

Waters create the best medicine for my body for a long life time for me to have a sight of the sun, universal light, everyday.

Let us to-day taste of the holy waters mixed with vital juices. And whatever I have drunk, whatever I have performed in action as my Karma, Agni, come to me and recreate me with the power and splendour I deserve accordingly.

Agni, Lord omniscient and omnipotent, recreate me with power and splendour, with family, with good health and age. May the divinities know me as I am. May Indra, lord of splendour and honour, know me, along with all the seers of the universal eye. They know.

Who, which one, is that supreme lord of the many immortals whose auspicious name we adore and worship? Who is that for sure who sends us back to the great earth so that we may again behold and be with our father and mother?

अग्रवयं पथमस्यामृतानां मनामह चारुं द्वस्य नाम ।

2. *Agnervayaṁ prathamasyāmṛtānāṁ manāmahe

We adore and worship the auspicious name of Agni, lord of light and life, first of the immortals and the highest. He it is who sends us back to this great world of Prakṛti so that we may behold and be with our father and mother again.

3. *Abhi tvā deva savitarīśānaṁ vāryāṇām.

Of all the immortals, we worship you alone, Savita, glorious lord of light and life, ruler of the regions and favourite things of our choice, eternal protector and adorable dispenser of universal justice.

Whatever your gifts of dispensation thus, whether admirable wealth as a result of former adoration and worship, or otherwise as a result of blame and censure, I deliver into your hands without hate or anger.

5. Bhagabhaktasya te vayamudaśema tavāvasā.

Lord of glory, we pray, let us receive our share of divine dispensation with your protection and grace in order to rise to the top in wealth and reach the glory of your presence.

All those that move in space comprehend not your order and dominion, nor violate your power or force or constancy. Nor do these waters and currents of universal energy ever on the move surpass your presence. Nor even the velocities of the wind can ever violate the immensity of your power which is eternal and immortal.

7. Abudhne rājā varuṇo vanasyordhvaṁ stūpaṁ dadate pūtakṣaḥ. Nīcīnāḥ sthurupari budhna eṣāmasme antarnihitāḥ ketavaḥ syuḥ.

The ruling lord Varuna, the brilliant sun, pure and generous, radiates a flood of light in the bottomless astral sphere over the atmosphere, flowing down, the rays of light stop over the atmosphere and filter down to the clouds and impregnate them over the earth. May the rays of the sun, the clouds and the vapours absorbed in the clouds be for our good.

8. Uruṁ hi rājā varuṇaścakāra sūryāya panthāman-vetavā u. Apade pādā pratidhātave'-karutāpavaktā hṛdayāvidhaścīt.

Varuna, ruling lord of the universe, carved out a wide path for the sun to move and thus created an orbit-path in the pathless space for His deputy wielder and sustainer of the sub-system, meticulously averting, as if, a pinhole in the heart of the cosmic system, like a surgeon.

Glorious ruler, hundred are your healing balms and medicaments, thousands your wide earths, and deep is your noble intelligence. Drive off adversity far away. And whatever sin is committed by the wicked, keep away, and liberate us.

10. Amī yā ṛkṣā nihitāsa uccā naktam dadṛśre kuha ciddiveyuh. Adabdhāni varuṇasya vratāni vicāka-saccandramā naktameti.

Those constellations of stars such as the Great Bear set in motion high and far, which are seen at night — where do they go in the day?

Fixed, inviolable are the laws and rules of Varuna, rules of the stars. So the moon shines at night and moves on in its orbit.

Varuna, lord ruler of the stars, praised and celebrated by many, I come to you singing in worship the hymns of divinity, offering holy fragrances in yajna with faith and reverence. Lord kind and gracious, give us the light of life here itself. Let not our life waste away.

Of that the wise men nightly speak to me. Day in and day out they sing of that for me. And the same presence this voice of the heart reveals to me. The sagely scholar, inspired and possessed, proclaims His honour and dominion. May the same ruling lord of glory, Varuna, deliver us from sin and slavery unto light and freedom.

Shunah-shepa, man of knowledge dedicated to light and happiness, inspired and possessed by ambition, bound within the yajnic pillars of knowledge, action and meditation, should invoke and develop Aditya, power of sun and wind. May Varuna, lord omniscient ruler of the world, shape him (as a maker and saviour of humanity). May He, inviolable lord omnipotent, deliver us from bonds of sin, ignorance and poverty.

Varuna, self-refulgent lord of omniscience, giver of knowledge, life of our breath, we pray for the gift of your light and favour with acts of homage, yajnas and holy offerings. Reducing and destroying our sins as you are, we pray, be kind and gracious to loosen the bonds of our actions performed.

Varuna, dearest lord of our choice, we pray, loosen the highest, middling and the lowest bonds of our sin and slavery so that, O Lord Supreme of light, free from sin and slavery and living within the rules of your law, we may be fit for the attainment of the ultimate freedom of Moksha.

1. *Yacciddhi te viśo yathā pra deva varuṇa vratam.

Varuna, brilliant and generous lord of creation, since after all we are your children, and we do (out of ignorance) violate your rules of discipline and conduct day by day, we pray for your compassion as our father.

मा ना व्रधाय ह्रत्नव जिहीळानस्य रीरधः ।

2. *Mā no vadhāya hatnave jihīḷānasya rīradhaḥ.
Mā hrṇānasya manyave.*

Lord of compassion, let us not feel excited to take up a deadly weapon against the person who offends us and excites our passion for revenge, and save us from the wrath against the person who feels ashamed of his action against us.

3. *Vi mṛḷikāya te mano rathīraśvaṁ na saṁditam.

Kadā kṣatraśriyaṁ naramā varuṇaṁ karāmahe.

वद नवः समुदियः ॥ ७ ॥

7. *Vedā yo vīnāṁ padamantarikṣeṇa patatām.

17. *Saṁ nu vocāvahai punaryato me madhvābhṛ-tam.

Let us speak together again and again since you give me dear sweet food for knowledge collected from versatile sources just as a priest gives honey-sweets to the yajamana for dispelling his ignorance with knowledge.

दर्शं नु विश्वदशतं दर्शं रथमधि ममि ।

18. *Darśaṁ nu viśvadarśataṁ darśaṁ rathamadhi

They envision, proclaim and disseminate the divine voice, eternal truth and ruling law of the world and humanity. Agni, ruling lord, you are the protector and promoter of the man of yajna who creates wealth and contributes to prosperity. Lord of all round vision and power, you shine within for the man of objective wisdom and judgement. You are the creator and giver of wealth and prosperity for the non-violent man of action and generosity, and you listen with love and accept that prayer and mantra of the celebrant which springs from the heart.

And bring us all-round wealth, and in-vest and exalt us with holy, creative and dynamic intelligence of a positive and victorious order.

Mandala 1/Sukta 32

Indra Devata, Angirasa Hiranyastupa Rshi

इन्द्रस्य नु वीयाणि प वाचं यानि चकार पथमानि वृजी ।
अह हिमन्वपस्ततद् प व णा अभिनृत्यवतानाम ॥ १ ॥

1. Indrasya nu vīryāṇi pra vocaṁ yāni cakāra prathamāni vajrī. Ahannahimanvapastatarda pra vakṣaṇā abhinat parvatānām.

I recite and celebrate the first and highest exploits of Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, refulgent ruler, which he, like the sun, performs with the shooting rays of His light. He breaks down the cloud like an enemy, releases the waters and opens the paths of mountain streams. (The ruler too, similarly, breaks down the enemies holding up the powers of the nation for movement, releases the energies and resources of the nation, and carves out the paths of progress.)

अ॒ह॒ हिं॑ प॒व॒त॑ शि॒श्रि॒या॒णं॑ त्व॒ष्टा॒स्म॒ व॒जं॑ स्व॒र्यं॑ त॒त ॥
वा॒श्रा॒इ॒व ध॒न॒वः॑ स्य॒न्द॒माना॑ अ॒ञ्जः॑ स॒मु॒द्र॒म॒व॑ ज॒ग्मु॒रा॒पः॑ ॥ २ ॥

2. Ahannahim parvate śiśriyāṇaṁ tavaṣṭāsmāi vajraṁ svaryaṁ tataḥ. Vāśrā iva dhenavaḥ syandamānā añjaḥ samudramava jagmurāpaḥ.

Indra, lord of shooting rays of light, breaks the cloud resting on the mountain. Tvashta, creative power of the Divine, making fine forms and subtle energies, creates the catalytic power for Him and His shooting rays against the cloud. And, like cows eager for the calves, rushing to the stalls, the waters instantly rush down to the sea.

वृ॒षा॒य॒मा॒णा वृ॒णी॒त॒ सामं॑ त्रि॒क॒दु॒क॒ष्व॒पि॒ब॒त्सु॒तस्य॑ ।
आ सा॒य॒कं॑ म॒घ॒वा॒द॒त्त॒ व॒ज्र॒म॒हं॑ तं प॒थ॒म॒ज॒म॒ही॒ना॒म ॥ ३ ॥

3. Vṛṣāyamāṇo'vrṇīta somaṁ trikadrukeśvapibat-sutasya. Ā sāyakam maghavādatta vajramahānenaṁ prathamajāmahinām.

Indra, generous lord of showers of light and rain, receives and drinks up the vital essences present in heaven, earth and sky, three regions of the created world. The sun, glorious possessor of heat and water, takes up the thunderbolt of electric energy and strikes and breaks up the first born of the dense clouds of vapours.

(So does the ruler hold and rule and enjoy the rule over his dominion. He takes up his forces and deploys them to destroy the worst of the nation's enemies. And just as the sun is mighty and generous for the earth, so should the ruler be for his subjects and dominions.)

यदिन्द्राहन्पथमजामहीनामान्मायिनाममिनाः पात मायाः ।
आत्सूर्यं जनयन्द्यामुषासं तादीक्षा शत्रुं न किला विवित्स ॥ ४ ॥

4. Yadindrāhan prathamajām ahināmānm āyinām amināḥ prota māyāḥ. Āt sūryam janayan dyāmu-ṣāsam tāditnā śatruṁ na kilā vivitse.

Indra, since you break up the first born of the clouds of dark vapours and also disperse the powerful forces of these wonder demons, creating and revealing thereby the sun and the dawn and the heavens, you will not, for sure, encounter any enemy.

(So should the ruler too eliminate the enemies of the land and ensure peace and security for his people.)

अहन्वृत्रं वृत्रतरं व्यंसमिन्द्रा वज्रेण महता वधेन ।
स्कन्धांसीव कुलिशेना विवृक्णा हिः शयत उपपृक्पृ-

5. Ahanvṛtram vṛtrataram vyamsamindro vajreṇa mahatā vadhena. Skandhāṁsīva kuliśenā vivṛkṇā'hiḥ śayata upaprṁkṛthivyāḥ.

Indra, sun and vayu energy, breaks up Vrtra, the dark thick cloud, denser than demonic, with the fatal blow of the thunderbolt of lightning. Its shoulders chopped off by the shooting sharpness of the sword-like waves of sun-rays, the cloud lies flat on the floor of the earth (its body turned to rain water).

अ॒या॒द्ध॒व॒ दु॒म॒द॒ आ॒ हि॒ जु॒ह्व॒ म॒हा॒वी॒रं॒ तु॒वि॒बा॒ध॒मृ॒जी॒-

6. Ayoddheva durmada ā hi juhve mahāvīraṁ tuvibādhm rjīṣam. Nātārīdasya samṛtiṁ vadhā-nāṁ saṁ rujānāḥ pipiṣa indraśatruḥ.

Like a naive warrior gone mad, Vrtra, the cloud dared and challenged the sun, great and valiant Indra, vanquisher of many, reducing them to juice. But he could not take the force of the blows of Indra, failed and lay crushed. The streams flow over hills breaking down mounds of earth.

अ॒पा॒द॒ह॒स्ता॒ अ॒पृ॒त॒न्य॒दि॒न्द्र॒मा॒स्य॒ व॒ज्र॒म॒धि॒ सा॒ना॒ ज॒घा॒न॒ ।

7. Āpādahasto apṛtanyadindramāsyā vajramadhi sānau jaghāna. Vṛṣṇo vadhriḥ pratimānaṁ bu-bhūṣan purutrā vṛtro aśayad vyastah.

Legs now lost, arms lost, Vrtra had challenged Indra. Impotent fool he was, desiring equal rivalry with the mighty hero. Indra struck the lightning thunderbolt on his shoulder. Beaten and broken all over, Vrtra lies flat on the earth.

नदं न भि र्ममुया शयानं मना रुहाणा अति यन्त्यापः ।
याश्चिद वृत्रा महिना पयतिष्ठत्तासामहिः पत्सुतःशीब-

8. Nadam na bhinnamamuyā śayānaṁ mano ruhāṇā ati yantyāpaḥ. Yāścid vṛtro mahinā paryatiṣṭhatāsāmahīḥ patsutaḥ śīrbabhūva.

Like a flood let loose, the showers of rain, so soothing and beautiful to the mind, defy Vrtra, the cloud, which is now lying shattered on the ground — waters which, earlier, the cloud had held up with its own might. Their master now lies trampled under feet on the ground. (This is the fate of a presumptuous man who proudly and foolishly challenges the Almighty.)

नीचावया अभवद वृत्रपुत्रन्दा अस्या अव वधजभार ।
उत्तरा सूरधरः पुत्र आसीद्धानुः शय सहवत्सा न धनुः ॥ ९ ॥

9. Nīcāvayā abhavad vṛtraputrendro asyā ava vadharjabhāra. Uttarā sūradharahḥ putra āsīd dānuḥ śaye sahavatsā na dhenuḥ.

The earth is the mother of the cloud, below. The other is the sky up on high. Indra, the sun, strikes Vrtra, the cloud, with its thunderbolt in the sky and the cloud comes down with the showers. The earth lies with the cloud like a cow sleeping with its calf.

(The presumptuous ruler who, thrown up by his forces, challenges the world ruler meets a fate like the cloud's with his forces.)

अतिष्ठन्तीनामनिवशनानां काष्ठानां मध्य निहितं शरीरम् ।
वृत्रस्य निष्यं वि चरन्त्यापा दीर्घं तम् आशयदिन्द-

10. Atiṣṭhanṭīnām aniveśanānām kāṣṭhānām madhye nihitam śarīram. Vṛtrasya niṇyaṁ vi carantyāpo dīrgham tama āśayad indraśatruḥ.

In the non-stop ever flowing streams of the tracks of the sky is diffused the mysterious body of Vṛtra, the cloud, in the deepest dark. The same rival of Indra which covered the sun now lies flat on earth and the water-streams flow (open and beautiful).

(Indra, the ruler, should strike the hidden forces which cover the light of the order, condense them and make them flow out openly for the good of the nation.)

दासपत्नीरहिगापा अतिष्ठिरुद्धा आपः पणिनव गावः ।
अपां बिलमपिहितं यदासीद वृत्रं जघन्वाँ अप तद्ववार ॥ ११ ॥

11. Dāsapatnīrahigopā atiṣṭhanniruddhā āpaḥ paṇineva gāvaḥ. Āpām bilamapihitam yadāsīd-vṛtram jaghanvāñ apa tadvavāra.

Like women supported by their husbands, the waters stay supported by the cloud, hidden in its darkness like cows in the stall guarded by the cowherd or the trader. The water-hold that was hidden and closed was opened and released through the door by the slayer of Vṛtra, Indra, the sun.

अश्व्या वारा अभवस्तदिन्द्र सृक यत्त्वा प्रत्यहन्द्व एकः ।
अजया गा अजयः शूर साममवासृजः सतव सप्त

12. Aśvyo vāro abhavastadindra sṛke yattvā pratyahandeva ekaḥ. Ajayo gā ajayaḥ śūra soma-mavāsrjaḥ sartave sapta sindhūn.

Tempestuous of speed and power of defence and offence and as the choice lord and hero do you arise, Indra, then when the one unique rival, Vrtra, throws its darkness over your rays of light and catalysis. Arising then you conquer the earth, you win and collect the vital soma of life, and you release the seven streams of nectar to enrich the seven seas of existence as they flow.

13. Nāsmāi vidyunna tanyatuḥ siṣedha na yāṁ mihamakiraddhrāduniṁ ca. Indraśca yadyuyudhāte ahiścotāparībhyo maghavā vi jigye.

Neither lightning nor thunder, nor storm and shower, nor the roar and rumble which Vrtra produces does resist and stop Indra. When Indra and Vrtra both battle—Vrtra with inadequate forces—then Indra, powerful and glorious, comes out victorious.

अहयातारं कमपश्य इन्द्र हृदि यत्त जघ्नुषा भीरगच्छत ।

14. Aheryātāraṁ kamapaśya indra hr̥di yatte jaghnuṣo bhīragacchat. Nava ca yannavatiṁ ca sravantīḥ śyeno na bhīto ataro rajāṁsi.

Indra, who ever sees anyone else other than you as the killer of Vrtra, since in every heart it is your fear, the victor's fear, that prevails? And like a victorious hawk not-afraid you shine and rule over regions of the world and feed nine and ninety streams of water that flow and sustain life.

15. Indro yāto'vasitasya rājā śamasya ca śṛṅgiṇo vajrabāhuḥ. Sedu rājā kṣayati carṣaṇīnāmarāṇna nemih pari tā babhūva.

Indra, lord of thunder force of arms, is the ruler and illuminator of the moving world, settled and peaceful humanity and the animals. The same ruler holds and sustains the order of humanity and the world together and keeps it going.

Come ye, come all, seekers of health and brilliance of mind and sense, let us approach Indra, lord supreme of light and knowledge, who feeds, increases and refines our intelligence along the right lines. Undying, unborn and eternal, great is He. He increases the beauty and grandeur of the wealth and grace of this earth in many ways and then He bestows on us supreme knowledge and the possession of it.

Just as a falcon flies to its favourite haunt and home, so bowing and praying with exemplary songs and offerings I yearn to reach Indra, lord of honour and splendour, giver of wealth, but invisible and incomprehensible, who alone is adorable for the worshippers in the world of time.

3. Ni sarvasena iṣudhīñrasakta samaryo gā ajati yasya vaṣṭi. Coṣkūyamāṇa indra bhūri vāmam mā pañirbhūrasmadadhi pravṛddha.

Indra, lord of hosts and battle, take up the bow and quiver, shine as you will and win. The victor carries the prize. Generous and profusely rewarding to the noble and the splendid, be not ungenerous to us, lofty and great overlord as you are over us.

4. Vadhiṛhi dasyuṁ dhaninaṁ dhanenaṁ ekaścara-nnupaśākebhīrindra. Dhanoradhi viṣuṇakte vyāyannayajvānaḥ sanakāḥ pretimīyuh.

Indra, lord of power and justice, marching ahead by yourself, strike down the wicked affluent hoarder alongwith his supporters with a single blow of the thunderbolt. Eliminator of smugglers and infiltrators, fix the selfish fun-lovers on the point of your arrow and let them meet their end.

Indra, lord of light and justice, firm and steadfast, mighty strong, commander of horse power and armoured force, just as the sun, blazing lord of light and sustainer of earth, heaven and the middle skies, breaks up and scatters the cloud, so do you blow off and scatter the top-notch selfish, uncreative and lawless elements who rival and stall the yajnic creative, constructive and productive powers of your dominion.

Settled heroes of the nation, brave fighters, trained in the latest arms and tactics, experts of offence and defence, strengthening and elevating the striking power of the admirable commander of the ruler and supreme commander, try to fight and fight on so that the enemies, defeated and demoralised, flee away from Indra down hill by the swiftest course, like emasculated cowards.

7. Tvametān rudato jakṣataścāyodhayo rajasa indra pāre. Avādaho diva ā dasyumuccā pra sunvataḥ stuvataḥ śamsamāvaḥ.

Indra, ruler and commander, fight out these ogres and those, weeping and wailing, away from the middle regions of the dominion. Throw off the wicked from the higher regions, and from higher positions. Raise those who are creators of soma, peace and joy. Protect those who appreciate and raise the honour of the world and humanity.

The fighting forces of the sun, beautified by golden jewels of light by the sun, messengers of peace and joy of the earth, do not break the protective cover of the earth, nor do they violate the purpose of the sun, and by virtue of the same sun they serve and glorify Indra, lord ruler of the earth and her children.

(Similarly, the dynamic forces of the earth's dominion, invested with the golden jewels of royal robes, dedicated to service and well-being, do not violate the bounds of the earth's protective laws and, as messengers and agents of the universal lord of light, they uphold the ruler and the rule of law.)

Just as Indra, the sun, with its own power and glory, holds both earth and heaven in orbit all round in a state of equilibrium by the force of its gravitation and throws off the unwanted forces by its own laudable forces of heat and light, so you, Indra, lord ruler of the earth, with your power and glory, hold and sustain the earth and the people and, with the assistance of responsible and respectable people of knowledge and divine wisdom, control and correct the unruly elements, and throw off the selfish and the wicked.

There are those who do not understand the end and purpose of the earth and heaven, nor can they, with all their magic and power, conquer or insult the mother giver earth. Indra, virile and generous lord ruler of earth and heaven, uses his ready weapon of the thunderbolt of light and force, kindles the sense and mind of the people and delivers the earth from the darkness of ignorance and evil.

11. Anu svadhāmakṣarannāpo asyā'vardhata madhya ā nāvyānām. Sadhrīcīnena manasā tamindra ojiṣṭhena hanmanāhannabhi dyūn.

The waters of this cloud flow according to their nature, in response to this Indra's power after the yajnic offers of holy havi, and they collect in the navigable lakes, rivers and seas. Indra, lord of lightning power, strike that cloud of darkness pregnant with waters with your own essential and most lustrous fatal weapon fast as mind, break the darkness, and release the light and waters to flow to the earth.

12. Nyavidhyadilībiśasya dṛḍhā vi śṛṅgiṇamabhinacchuṣṇamindraḥ. Yāvattaro maghavan yāva-dojo vajreṇa śatrum avadhīḥ prtanyum.

Just as Indra, the sun, lord of light and power, breaks and scatters the dense cloud into rain water lying in the depressions of the earth such as lakes and oceans, and scatters and condenses the mountainous cloud in the sky which has sucked up the waters from the earth, similarly, O lord ruler of the earth's wealth and glory, strike the underground enemy forces with thunder and destroy them. Don't give up while your strength lasts and your lustre and morale sustains.

Just as the never-failing triumphant light of this sun goes straight and takes on the cloud like an enemy and, with penetrating but generous force, breaks up the cloud like enemy fort, just as Indra, solar energy, with its lightning force, scatters the clouds proclaiming its distinguished power to the world, so should the ruler take on and destroy the enemies of the dominion and proclaim the generous power of his sovereignty.

Indra, as the sun desirous of protecting the earth takes to the thunderbolt in the battle and engages the roaring fighting cloud full of showers of rain filling all the directions, and as the dust raised by the hoofs of the cows and horses rises to the sky, so may the ruler, son and protector of the earth, stand firm for the protection and promotion of humanity.

Indra, Maghavan, lord of power and glory, just as in matters of the prosperity of the various fields of the earth the sun directs its catalytic rays of energy to engage the cloud in battles of precipitation to rain down the soothing life sustaining showers, so may you, like the sun and showers, help the people settled here in peace so that they may for long carry on their earthly chores. Like the sun, bring the hostile elements of the dominion to book and keep them down to suffer as they deserve.

1. Triścinno adyā bhavataṁ navedasā vibhurvām yāma uta rātiraśvinā. Yuvorhi yantraṁ himyeva vāsaso'bhyāyaṁ senyā bhavataṁ manīṣibhiḥ.

Ashvins, brilliant experts of eminence like the sun and moon, working together complementarily, be three ways good to us today: May your chariot be universal in movement. May your gifts of wealth, too, be of universal value. May your machine too be of universal purpose in design, structure and performance. Carry on together with the scholars and thinkers as a team like the night and day of winter or like the cold and warm cover.

Ashvins, scientists and engineers of eminence, three are the thunderous wheels and dynamos in the chariot which brings you honey-sweets of wealth and comfort. The scholars of eminence know the pleasure of soma and beauty of the moon. Three are the sustaining beams and pillars fixed in its motive system. By this you can reach your destination thrice in the day and thrice in the night.

Ashvins, scholars of science and locomotion, covering your gaps and weaknesses, in one day complete the threefold yajna of science (in food, energy and speed of locomotion with fire and water). Both of you develop for us thrice powerful food and energy, and let the days and nights abound in food, energy, speed and progress.

Asvins, scholars of knowledge and practice, come our way thrice to guide us. Follow thrice in the way of an easily accessible man of noble discipline and dedication and lead us too, teaching us three ways the art of defence, industry and automation. Conduct the programmes of joy and celebration three ways for body, mind and soul. And like the flowing waters augmented by showers of rain, develop the knowledge of mixing, compounds and mutual contact threefold.

Ashvins, generous as earth and heaven, bring us, develop and sustain threefold wealth of knowledge, power and protection. Brilliant and godly scholars of science, technology and yajna, three-way benefactors by inspiration, action and achievement, give us threefold enlightenment, protection and sustenance of body, mind and soul. Give us threefold beauty, honour, and grace of prosperity, well-being and noble family. Give us the threefold capacity of listening, reflecting and meditating on Vedas, Shastras and the economics and polity of practical living. And lo! by virtue of your inspiration, action and achievement, the dawn, daughter of the sun, would ride your chariot of glory and in-fuse strength and peace and joy into our body, mind and soul.

Ashvins, scholars of knowledge, light and progressive expansion, protectors of all that is good and blissful, create for us and give us threefold heavenly essences such as soma, three earthly ones and three from waters. For my child create something soothing and all-round protective, a three-metal tonic panacea for a healthy and comfortable state of health in which the three humors of vitality are balanced in peace, without agitation, anywhere.

Ashvins, expert powers of science and technology, truthful, devoted to yajna and working together like fire and water, and masters of the three-metal chariot, day by day go round the earth and sky thrice for us and then come to sleep on the earth. Just as the soul goes from one body to another, as winds blow from one place to another, so by the threefold, three way, three speed chariot, move from one chariot to another and go to the destinations of your choice.

Sail across life, triumphant. Destroy evils. Drive off jealous hostiles. Be friends, unifiers.

Listeners as you are, I call upon you for protection and promotion. Be favourable to us for advancement and victory in the battles of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 35

1. *Hvāyamyagnim prathamam svastaye hvayāmi

I invoke Agni, vital heat, first basic sustainer of life, for physical well-being. I invoke Mitra-and-Varuna, pranic energies of the breath of life, for protection and immunity. I invoke the night which envelops the world in restful sleep. And I invoke Savita, the sun, lord of light, refreshment and inspiration for the sake of protection, promotion and advancement here upon the earth.

2. *Ā kṛṣṇena rajasā vartamāno niveśayannamṛtaṁ

Savita, lord of life and light, existing and abiding with the regions of the universe, sustaining them with his centripetal force of gravitation, enveloping the mortals and the immortals, goes on and on in self-reflecting glory in his golden chariot, watching and illuminating the worlds of existence.

(The mantra is applicable to both Ishvara, Lord creator, and the sun, sustainer and illuminator of the solar world.)

3. *Yāti devaḥ pravatā yātyudvatā yāti śubhrā-bhyām

The lord of light, adorable and in company, goes on by lower and higher paths, descending and ascending, by beautiful horses, white and glossy (i.e., day and night, bright and dark fortnights). Savita, lord effulgent, goes on travelling hitherward and far off away dispelling the darkness and evil of the world.

Savita, adorable and companionable lord of wondrous light, commanding enormous power, holding the world regions by his subtle waves of gravitation, rides the vast, beautiful and autonomous world of infinite forms brighter than gold.

In the lap of Divine Savita, eternal Lord of the universe, reside all the worlds of existence and the children of the divine. So in the gravitational field of the sun, heavenly light, are held all the regions of the solar system alongwith the living beings ever abiding therein. And the rays of the sun, white and brilliant, bearing the world-chariot of the golden yoke, shine and proclaim the glory of the lord to the people.

6. Tisro dyāvāḥ saviturdvā upasthāṁ ekā yamasya bhuvane virāṣāt. Āṇim na rathyamamṛtādhi tasthuriha bravītu ya u tacciketata.

Three are the lights: sunlight, fire and universal electric energy. Two of these, sun-light and fire (which is of the earthly sphere) are in the sun's field of power and gravitation. The third, universal energy which holds the spirit and soul of the brave resides in antariksha, the middle region of yama, the vital wind (which overtakes and carries the soul after death of the body). Like the pin of a chariot wheel axle in battle, all these, fixed in their place with their role, abide by the Immortal Supreme Savita. Whoever here really knows the secret, may speak.

7. Vi suparṇo antarikṣāṇyakhyad gabhīravepā asuraḥ sunīthaḥ. Kve dānīm sūryaḥ kaściketa katamām dyām raśmirasyā tatāna.

The sun is mighty brilliant, illuminates the middle regions, awfully vibrating with fusion, gives pranic life to nature and humanity, holding and guiding things in orbit. And then, where is the sun now, (when it is no more there)? In what heaven does its light shine now? Who knows?

Kah knows. The Lord Supreme only knows.

Savita, generous lord of golden light, comes illuminating the eight directions and sub-directions of the earth, the three sustaining regions of earth, heaven and the middle skies, and the seven seas of space, holding and bringing choicest gifts for the man of charity and yajna.

Savita, the sun, lord of the golden hand of generosity, creator of the sap of life, shines across the regions of heaven and earth. It destroys and eliminates disease and dirt, spreads its light all over, blazes in the heavens and over-reaches the regions of darkness.

celebrated as we ought to praise and celebrate the Divine Lord.

With songs of praise and words of worship we adore Agni, Lord and light of the universe, whom other devotees too adore in many ways, and we pray to the lord of light and power and instant action, worthy of the love and devotion of many people far and wide who are seekers of divine knowledge and bliss for themselves.

The ancient people of vision and wisdom hold on to Agni, Lord of light and knowledge. We have the will and devotion, and we have the offerings, with these we worship you, lord giver of strength and courage more and ever more. Lord of wealth and generosity, we pray, be good and kind to us here and now, be our saviour and protector in the battles of life.

Agni, light and fire of yajna, harbinger of blessings Divine and carrier of the fragrance of yajna, we opt for you, we kindle you. You are the yajaka, you reach the world over and over. Great and true you are, the flames and lights of your power reach the heavens and, like the rays of the sun, bless everything with a touch of new life and inspiration.

He works for the settlement of his people in spacious homes and, invited and celebrated among the intelligent, he shines as generous and prosperous, while his fame resounds like the roar of the victor in battle.

9. Saṁ sīdasva mahāñ asi śocasvadevavītamah. Vi dhūmamagne aruṣaṁ miyedhya sṛja praśasta darśatam.

Agni, Lord of light and power, brilliant, admirable, adorable, divinely superb, you are great. Come be seated, wipe out evil, shine and create the light without smoke, and beauty most sublime.

10. Yaṁ tvā devāso manave dadhuriha yajisṭhaṁ havyavāhana. Yaṁ kaṇvo medhyātithirdhanaspr̥tam yaṁ vṛṣā yamupastutaḥ.

Agni, lord of light and fire, most dedicated to yajna, loved and honoured, creator and harbinger of the noblest wealth of life, you — whom the brilliant, intelligent and generous people accepted for enlightened rule, whom the scholars and teachers with their disciples and yajnic friends accepted as the man of wealth and knowledge, whom the generous pious people accepted, whom the popular and respected people accepted — such as you are, we accept, elect, appoint and consecrate you as the ruler and commander of the nation.

11. Yamagniṁ medhyātithiḥ kaṇva īdha ṛtādadhi. Tasya preṣo dīdiyustamimā ṛcastamagniṁ var-dhayāmasi.

The fire and energy which kanva, expert scholar of science and practical work, karma kanda, in company with his disciples of technical yajna, captured and lighted from the waves and waters over the sky, and whose flames reach beyond the sky over the clouds, these hymns of celebration illumine and the same we develop and augment.

Agni, lord of power and wealth in your own right, fulfil our life with honour and prosperity, so friendly and accessible you are among the noble and the generous. You shine in battles and your fame resounds. Be good to us for our well-being. Great and glorious you are indeed.

13. Ūrdhva ū ṣu ṇa ūtaye tiṣṭhā devo na savitā. Urdhvo vājasya sanitā yadañjibhirvāghadbhirvihvayā-mahe.

Agni, lord of light and life, brilliant as the sun, stay high with grace in glory for our protection and progress. Rise high as the hero of life's battles of honour and prosperity. It is for the reason of your glory and generosity that we invoke and pray to you along with the scholars with holy offers of yajna and celebration.

Agni, high and great, save us from sin and evil with the gift of intelligence and knowledge. Burn up all grabbing and robbing of other's food and freedom. Help us rise to the heights of knowledge, comfort and happiness for a full life. Accept our prayer that we may rise to our place among the noble and the brilliant.

15. Pāhi no agne rakṣasaḥ pāhi dhūrterarāvṇaḥ. Pāhi rīṣata uta vā jighāṁsato bṛhadbhāno yaviṣṭhya.

Agni, lord of light and fire, youthful and blazing with mighty glory, save us from the destroyers. Protect us from the wicked and the ungenerous. Protect us from the cruel and the violent. Protect us from the killers. (Let these negative and destructive elements be eliminated.)

Agni, lord of fire and justice, whosoever is jealous and destructive toward us, whosoever is ungenerous and an exploiter, destroy wholly with the blow of the thunderbolt. Whosoever bleeds humanity with instruments of torture and death, such an enemy must not rule over us.

Agni is mighty power for one who cares and prays for it. It is great good fortune for the man of knowledge. It is a great friend and protector in battle, and provides all help and encouragement to the man who is loved and admired by his colleagues and disciples.

By the might and splendour of Agni, we challenge from afar the fast invader, robber, ferocious warrior who hides in new hideouts and suddenly emerges in a big chariot with the intention of instant kill. May Agni, great and blazing, destroyer of the wicked, take on such demons and throw them off.

Agni, lord of universal light and power, I, Manu, man of thought and intelligence, enlightened in truth and divine Law, consecrated in the joy of piety, hold on to you in the heart. Shine, eternal light, in the heart of Kanva, man of knowledge, for the sake of humanity. The devotees bow to you in obedience and obeisance.

Agni, lord of light and power, like blazing and fearful flames of fire, burn all the ailments and destroy all the thieves and demons of the world and, for the knowledge and enlightenment of people like us, protect us and the world.

1. Kṛīḷaṁ vaḥ śardho mārutamanarvāṇaṁ ratheśubham. Kaṇvā abhi pra gāyata.

Men of science and knowledge, sing and celebrate the playful, superior and irresistible power of the wind harnessed in the chariot without the horse.

2. *Ye prṣatībhirṛṣṭibhiḥ sākāṁ vāśībhirāñjibhiḥ.
Ajāyanta svabhānavaḥ.*

Those men who, like the winds, with liquid thrusts of motion in smooth, refined, chiselled and lubricated language and style, express themselves and their ideas, rise with their own brilliance like the rays of the sun.

3. *Iheva śrṇva eṣāṁ kaśā hasteṣu yad vadān.

Whatever I hear here wherever I am, whatever the stimulation of the nerves and motions of the muscles in the hands, whatever people speak, whatever varied and wonderful they straighten, realise or obtain in the business of life, all that is by the motion of these winds.

(Research into the energy, power and uses of the winds.)

For your strength, for your refinements, for light and prosperity, for health, food and plenty, study the divine gift of the winds and sing in thanks and praise of the sacred hymns of the Veda.

5. Pra śamsā goṣvaghnyam krīḷam yacchardho mārutam. Jambhe rasasya vāvṛdhe.

Study and celebrate that refreshing and inviolable strength and power of the winds which operates in the earths and cows and in the wind and senses and which issues forth in the juices pressed out by the jaws in the mouth and soma press and which increases the strength and vitality of the body.

का वा वषिष्ठ आ नरा दिवश्च गमश्च धृतयः ।

6. Ko vo varṣiṣṭha ā naro divascha gmaśca dhūtayaḥ. Yatsīmantaṁ na dhūnutha.

Ye men, energetic as the winds, movers and shakers of earth and heavens, who is the mightiest so great of you that you shake the world around you to the very end like the leaves of a tree or the hem of a gown?

नि वा यामाय मानुषा दध उगाय मन्यव ।

जिहीत पवता गिरिः ॥ ७ ॥

7. Ni vo yāmāya mānuṣo dadhra ugrāya manyave. Jihīta parvato giriḥ.

The mightiest great man among you sustains your passionate morale and directs your might and main for the onward march of life. Shake the clouds. Cross the mountains.

यषामज्मषु पृथिवी जुजुवाँइव विशपतिः ।

भिया यामेषु रजत ॥ ८ ॥

Yeṣāmajmeṣu pṛthivī jujurvāṇ iva viśpatih. Bhiyā yāmeṣu rejate.

Just as on the stormy movements of a heroic leader's armies the decrepit ruler of a broken nation shakes with fear and flees, so under the force of the motions of the winds, electric energy of the lord of the universe, the earth moves and goes whirling round and round in orbit.

स्थिरं हि जानमषां वया^१ मातुनिरतव ।

यत्सीमन् द्विता शवः ॥ ९ ॥

9. Sthiram hi jānameṣāṃ vayo māturniretave.
Yat sīmanu dvitā śavaḥ.

Still is the cause of these winds, i.e., space (akasha) whence they have their birth. By virtue of their mother source, their power is two-fold: Sound, which is the property of space which the winds carry, and motion which is their specific property, so that things such as birds may move in space by the force of the winds.

उदु त्य सूनवा गिरः काष्ठा अज्मष्वत्नत ।

वाश्रा अभिज्ञु यातव ॥ १० ॥

10. Udu tye sūnavo girah kāṣṭhā ajmeṣvatnata.
Vāśrā abhijñu yātave.

Those children of space, the winds, in their motions, carry and expand the waves of sound and the currents of waters and other energies across the spaces so that they reach their destinations like the mother cows hastening on their legs to their stalls.

त्यं चिद घा दीर्घ पृथुं मिहा नपातममृधम ।

11. *Tyaṁ cid ghā dīrghaṁ pṛthuṁ miho napātama-

The winds, by their motions of mighty currents, drive the dark and deep and heavy clouds holding the waters and make them rain down in incessant showers.

मरुता यद्ध वा बलं जनीं अचुच्यवीतन ।

गिरीरचुच्यवीतन ॥ १२ ॥

12. *Maruto yaddha vo balaṁ janāñ acucyavītana.

Maruts, warriors of the nation, just as the powers of the winds shake up the clouds, so may your power and force inspire the people to do great deeds in the world.

शृणाति कश्चिदेषाम ॥ १३ ॥

13. *Yaddha yānti marutaḥ saṁ ha bruvate'dhvannā.
Śṛṇoti kaścideṣām.*

The Maruts, wind powers of nature, like the dynamic heroes of humanity, go together, and as they go by the paths of their movement, they speak together and proclaim their presence and their work. But only some exceptionally perceptive people listen to their voice.

प यात शीर्भमाशुभिः सन्ति कण्वेषु वा दुवः ।

14. *Pra yāta śībhamāśubhiḥ santi kaṇveṣu vo duvaḥ.
Tatro ṣu mādayādhvai.*

Maruts, dynamic heroes of the nation, go fast by the straightest paths set out for you. Your honour and achievement lies in the heart of the learned and the wise. And there, with the learned and the wise, we'll celebrate.

अस्ति हि ष्मा मदाय वः स्मसि ष्मा वयमेषाम ।

15. Asti hi śmā madāya vaḥ smasi śmā vayameṣām. Viśvaṁ cidāyurjīvase.

Surely life is for the joy of living for all of you. May we too enjoy and be happy. Indeed life is for the joy of living for all living beings of the world.

दधिध्व वृक्तबहिषः ॥ १ ॥

1. Kaddha nūnaṁ kadhapriyaḥ pitā putraṁ na hastayoḥ. Dadhidhve vṛktabarhiṣaḥ.

Heroes of yajna, lovers of the stories of life and nature, you have collected the sacred grass for the yajna vedi. When for sure are you going to take the work of the nation in hand like a father taking up the child in arms for its nurture and nourishment?

क्व नूनं कद्धा अर्थं गन्ता दिवा न पृथिव्याः ।

2. Kva nūnaṁ kad vo arthaṁ gantā divo na prthivyāḥ. Kva vo gāvo na raṇyanti.

Heroes on the move, Maruts incarnate, where for sure is the end and purpose of your march, when are you going to reach it like the end and purpose of heaven and earth? Where is the place of destination whence the purpose calls you like cows lowing for their calves? Where do your mind and senses and spirits direct you?

4. Yadyūyaṁ pṛśnimātaro martāsah syātana.

5. Mā vo mṛga na yavase jaritā bhūdajāṣyaḥ.
Pathā yamasya gādupa.

As the deer takes delight in the grass, so should you take delight in learning. May your teacher never be unwelcome to you. May he have full life before he goes by the divine path. May he never go close to the path of the wind prematurely, early in life.

6. Mo ṣu ṇaḥ parāparā nr̥tirdurhaṇā vadhīt.
Paḍiṣṭa tṛṣṇayā saha.

May the fatal adversity of life far or near never strike us. Instead, O Winds, powers of the Immortals, let it fly away from us alongwith the thirst and deprivation of life.

7. Satyam tveṣā amavanto dhanvañcidā rudriyāsaḥ.
Mihaṁ kṛṇvantyavātām.

The bright and blazing lightning winds, strong and impetuous in the sky, sustained benefactors of living life, cause ceaseless showers of rain on the thirsty earth. And that is truly the divine work of nature (which the human beings should emulate).

वाश्रव विद्युन्मिमाति वत्सं न माता सिषक्ति ।

8. Vāśreva vidyunmimāti vatsam na mātā siṣakti.
Yadeṣāṁ vṛṣṭirasarji.

Just as the mother cow hastens to the calf, overflowing with milk, just as the mother suckles her baby, so does the bright blazing lightning, roaring and raining powers of the winds, bless the living beings when the showers released by them fall upon the thirsty earth.

दिवा चित्तमः कृण्वन्ति पृजन्त्यनादवाहन ।

11. *Maruto vīḷupāṇibhiś citrā rodhasvatīranu.

12. *Sthirā vaḥ santu nemayo rathā aśvāsa eṣām.

Let the wheels of your chariots be strong and steady. May your chariots of horse and fire be strong by wind and electric energy. Let the reins and steering be very sensitive and sophisticated.

13. *Acchā vadā tanā girā jarāyai brahmaṇaspatim.

14. *Mimīhi ślokaṁāsyē parjanya iva tatanaḥ.

Receive the sacred words, fix them in your speech and mind, specify the sense, expand the knowledge, language and communication further as the cloud holds and expands the vapours of water. Sing and speak of the sacred knowledge extensively.

15. *Vandasva mārutaṁ gaṇaṁ tveṣaṁ panasyu-

Honour the powers of the winds and Marut-group of nature and prana, brilliant, admirable and awful source of light and energy. Reverence the brilliant, dynamic scholars of light and energy rich in possibilities of growth and nourishment. Honour and respect power and these people so that great men may arise among us here.

Maruts, heroes of light and power, movers and shakers, just as the sun radiates its rays of light from afar, so by whose idea and purpose is it that you thus strike your light and weapons far off? By whose thought and action? By whose energy, strength and power? Who do you wish to reach? Who do you want to shake?

3. *Parā ha yatsthiraṁ hatha nara vartayathā guru.

Men of heroic character as the winds, whatever stands unmoved and inflexible against you, move and throw off. Whatever is dense and impenetrable, break through and scatter. Like rays of light and currents of winds, go round the earth in all directions, reach the clouds and cross over the mountains unto the skies.

Just as Maruts, the winds, shake up the mountains, scatter the clouds and uproot the trees, so you, brave heroes, intelligent, brilliant and creative, together with all the people, throw off the evil and the wicked like drunkards lost in intoxication.

O Rudras, heroes of might and rectitude, we choose comfort and well-being for you and for posterity. We choose freedom and security for ourselves and for the man of knowledge and wisdom. And we call upon you for safety, security and well-being. Come soon with protection and freedom for us all as you came ever before post-haste for the protection and progress of the wise suppressed in fear.

Heroic yajakas, brilliant men of knowledge and wisdom, mighty heroes of the speed of winds, just as flashes of lightning bring showers of rain for us, so with spontaneous, unqualified and unreserved powers and protections give us peace, freedom and comfort, whole, complete and undisturbed. And to suppress the evil and the wicked, go to the man of wisdom and vision for light and guidance.

1. Uttiṣṭha brahmaṇaspate devayantastvemahe. Upa pra yantu marutaḥ sudānava indra prāśūrbhavā sacā.

Arise Brahmanaspati, Master of Divinity, seer blest and lord of universal knowledge. Lovers of Divinity, we approach you and pray. Let the Maruts, heroes of valour and splendour fast as winds and liberal men of yajnic charity come and march ahead. May Indra, lord of knowledge and power bless them with light and success.

2. Tvāmiddhi sahasasputra martya upabroute dhane hite. Suvīryaṁ maruta ā svaśvyāṁ dadhīta yo va ācake.

Child of valour and victory, courage incarnate, tolerance and endurance, in the interest of wealth and well-being, people invoke and call upon you. Maruts, heroes of knowledge and divinity, whoever may sincerely invoke and call upon you to your satisfaction, for him you bear the gift of heroic manliness and effective battle power and achievement.

3. Praitu brahmaṇaspatiḥ pra devyetu sūnṛtā. Acchā vīraṁ naryam paṅktirādhasam devā yajñam nayantu naḥ.

May the lord of divine knowledge move forward. May the lady scholar of divine truth and law move forward. May the generous and brilliant men of yajna carry and conduct our yajnas of the achievement of manly heroes for five-fold gifts of wealth and well-being.

या वाघत ददाति सूनरं वसु स धत्त अति श्रवः ।

4. Yo vāghate dadāti sūnaram vasu sa dhatte akṣiti śravaḥ. Tasmā iḷāṁ suvīrāmā yajāmahe supratūr-timanehasam.

The man who gives to the scholar of divinity and the high-priest of yajna wealth by which noble people arise commands imperishable honour and fame. For him we pray and work for the gift of divine speech and sacred earth, inviolable, holy and instantly productive, which creates and raises noble heroes.

5. Pra nūnaṁ brahmaṇaspatirmantram vadatyukthyam. Yasminnindro varuṇo mitro aryamā devā okāṁsi cakrire.

Surely the master of divinity and high-priest of yajna and Vedic speech chants the celebrated hymns of the Lord of the Universe in whose infinite presence Indra (electric energy), Varuna (sun, moon and oceans, etc.), Mitra (prana energy), Aryama (winds) and other divine powers of nature such as earth find their abode and sustenance.

6. Tamidvocemā vidatheṣu śambhuvaṁ mantraṁ devā anehasaṁ. Imāṁ ca vācaṁ pratiharyathā naro viśvedvāmā vo aśnavat.

Noble and generous people, in yajnas and holy congregations, if we chant that sacred blissful and imperishable mantra of science and divine mystery of Veda, and you, O men and women, if you receive, realise and follow this holy speech in action, it would bring you all the splendid wealth of the world.

7. Ko devayantamaśnavajjanaṁ ko vṛktabarhiṣam. Pra pra dāśvān pastyābhirasthitā'ntarvāvat kṣayaṁ dadhe.

Who would reach the man of divine love? Who would go to the man of yajna who has collected the holy grass for the vedi? Who is the generous giver that finds a settled home with noble presences on open airy land and holds the fort? (Answer: Brahmanaspati).

8. Upa kṣatram prñcīta hanti rājabhīrbhaye citsukṣitīm dadhe. Nāsyā vartā na tarutā mahādhane nārbhe asti vajriṇaḥ.

Brahmanaspati consolidates the ruling power. With warriors and statesmen he eliminates the enemies. In a state of fear and challenge he maintains his cool constancy. Wielder of the thunderbolt as he is, none can turn him, none can defeat even in the greatest battle. In little skirmishes? No question.

Feel reverence and awe, without fear, for the man who gives you four: Dharma, Artha (wealth), Kama (fulfilment), Moksha (ultimate freedom). Respect the parent. Love not the man of evil tongue.

The abundant lights of the dawn, blest with sun-rays and the speed of divine energy, move to the earth to usher in the morning and stir their cows and horses to start their day, as the sunrays illuminate the world. O dawn, bring me the blessed voice of truth. Inspire the munificence of the rich to charity and social creativity.

As the brilliant dawn arrives and shines in splendour, it sets the wheels of life's chariots in motion. On its arrival the yogis concentrate their minds in meditation as rich merchants send their ships over the sea. (As the sea is vast for the ships, so is the Divine presence vast for the yogi's mind.)

And, as thieves of the night steal away at dawn, so do all those stars steal away along with the darkness of the night so that the world may see only the sun, lord supreme of the heavens.

The sun, bright and illuminant, yokes the seven pure, immaculate, purifying and infallible sunbeams like horses to his chariot of motion, and with these self-yoked powers moves on across the spaces to the regions of light.

So does the Lord of the Universe with His laws and powers of Prakṛti move the world like His own chariot of creative manifestation.

1. Abhi tyam meṣam puruhūtam ṛgmiyam indram gīrbhirmadatā vasvo arṇavam. Yasya dyāvo na vicaranti mānuṣā bhuje maṁhiṣṭham abhi vipram arcata.

Worship Indra, lord of power and glory, destroyer of enemies. Celebrate and exhilarate Him who is generous and virile, universally invoked and honoured, master of the Rks, wielder of wealth, deep as ocean, greatest of the great, and lord of knowledge and wisdom. People roam around Him, approach and meditate on His presence for a vision and experience of the presence as the rays of the sun do homage to their source and master.

Powers of protection, expertise and excellence shower love and honour on Indra, lord of power and glory, giver of desire, pervasive and blazing in the skies, clad in his own might and splendour, giver of showers of joy and hero of a hundred noble acts of creation. And may the youthful and inspiring voice of Eternal Truth see him rise to the heights.

3. *Tvaṁ gotramaṅgiroḇhyo'vṛṇorapotātraye śata-

Indra, you open up the cloud-showers for the sake of pranic energies. Lord of the earth and master of motion and dominions of the earth, you open up a hundred outlets into wealth for the alleviation of want and threefold suffering of body, mind and soul. You bear wealth and comfort with food and energy for joy of the people in a state of sobriety. And reeling the dense forces of the overwhelming enemy into confusion, you throw off the adversaries in battle.

The vapours hold up the wealth of waters in the cloud. Indra, you open up the cloud-hold of waters when you break up the cloud with the thunderbolt. And then you raise up the divine and brilliant sun high up in space for the world to see.

With your intelligence and tactics, blow off the cunning fellows of wicked designs, who cheat the sleeping unwary people and who offer the oblations into their own mouth. Admirable hero, pride of all, break down the forts of the demons, and in the conflicts of good and evil, protect those who follow the paths of rectitude.

In the battles against exploiters and destroyers, protect the men and materials of defence. Destroy the demon and the highway man for the safety of travellers. Crush with your feet the great serpentine bubbles of poison. You always rise and stand for the destruction of the wicked enemies.

In you is concentrated all the force and power together with your love of service. Your wealth, power and success exhilarates the lover of soma-yajna. Your thunderbolt in hand is held for the enlightened. Protect all the powers of generosity, as you destroy all the inimical negativities.

Know the good, know the evil too, eliminate the wicked, for the sake of the man of yajnic action.

Ruling over and controlling the lawless, be a source of strength and inspiration for the yajamana. May all your actions in yajnas and pious homes be for success of the good. This is my prayer and earnest desire.

Subduing the lawless for the law-abiding, fixing the traitors by proper acts of the patriots, appreciating and honouring the seniors, the progressive, and the growing and rising ones to the heights of knowledge and light of heaven, rejecting the scoffers and eliminating the skeptics, Indra, ruler, fighter and saviour marches on.

Ushana, power of love and honour, with courage and dignity tempered and sharpened, your valour and grandeur, and your valour and splendour with its speed and sharpness bounds the heaven and earth. Indra, admirable hero of humanity, may the currents of wind fast as mind elevate you, lord of fulfilment, and amply fulfilled, may they carry your fame to the heavens.

Indra, most rejoicing and specially delighting in the exciting exhortations of the poets, with his own essential force and versatile perception of the crooked, rules over the crooked and the wicked. And, just as the sun breaks the cloud and drains out the vapours in floods of rain, so does he, bright and blazing with passion, advance upon the strongholds of the social suckers, breaks open their dens and marches ahead with his noble exploits great as the sun's.

Indra, in the soma-celebrations of humanity you ride the chariot of glory won by the brave and the intelligent and rejoice in the celebrations. And as you rejoice in the delightful celebrations of blessed achievements, you pilot the celestial car worthy of praise and ascend to the heights of heaven.

Indra, wondrous lord of science and vision, knowledge and power, you gave just a limited amount of new knowledge of analytical and creative technology in short indicative formulae to the distinguished and dexterous man of discipline keen to listen and create. And that word of yours, generous lord of noble yajnic action, became worthy of proclamation and celebration in world meets for eminent achievements. Generous lord of vision and wisdom, carry on the order of creation.

Indra, lord of power and governance, who invites and maintains high intellectuals in the study and practical programmes of definite sciences has his reputation among people as sure and prominent as a column at the door or a sacrificial post in the yajna. Progressive and advancing, developing the wealth of cows, lands and intellectuals, horses and other modes of fast communication, chariots and other modes of travel and transport, he augments, manages and rules over all forms of national wealth and takes the country forward.

This salutation in words of homage is offered to Indra, lord virile of generosity, sovereign lord of indestructible power, universal protector, so that, O Lord Adorable, in this world we may live in happy homes, blest with brave children, in the company of high and sagely intellectuals.

Honour that Indra, lord of glory and virile generosity who takes us high to the skies. Hundreds of noble and creative craftsmen together with their expert performance work on and engineer his glorious chariot which can cover the spatial paths across the skies for the sake of protection and defence. I wish I too could fly by that chariot.

Unshaken like a mountain within the bounds of its own hold, providing a thousand ways of protection and promotion for life, that Indra, sun/wind/ electric charge, waxes in strength and power when it kills Vritra, breaks the demon cloud holding up the streaming waters, when it releases the showers of rain, and rejoices with the food and energy that it creates through the showers. (So is the ruler for the demons and the people.)

Indra is deep and grave among the serious. In the light of the dawn, he is a cloud of generosity. He is brilliant and blissful as the moon in the firmament. Sober in joy, he is surrounded by sages and intellectuals. With the best of my intelligence and action I invoke and call upon this lord Indra, extremely generous and munificent of food and energy.

Indra is in his heaven of light and justice. The high-priests sitting on seats of grass in his house of yajna, his own values, his own well-wishers, his own people assist, complete and promote him, Indra who is the ruler, guide and protector, in the same manner in which the lovely streams and mighty rivers join and fill the sea. In his battles against Vritra, clouds of darkness, hoarders of national wealth and natural resources, his fighting forces of defence, powerful, undisturbed and unopposed, straight and sincere in action stand by him and follow him steadfast in the battle.

Like streams rushing down to the sea, the defence forces of this warrior hero, Indra, rush to him to join in his celebration by soma, Indra, wielder of the thunderbolt, daring the enemy, who showers the enemy with a rain of arrows and breaks down the threefold defence lines of the enemy three ways, up, down and cross-wise.

Vritra, the cloud that holds and confines the vapours of water sleeps in body in the sky. Indra, the sun, strikes the thunderbolt of lightning on the jaws of Vritra, a real formidable adversary for the release of the showers of rain. And then the splendour of Indra spreads around, glory of power blazes.

Indra, lord of power and ruler of the world, just as streams of water reach the sea augmenting it, so do all the wealths of the world and all the songs of divine celebration converge to you, centre as well as circumference of existence, and glorify your sublimity. Tvashta, maker of the forms of existence, designs and creates the thunderbolt of lightning to augment your force of arms to use in battle, and he provides that splendour of valour for you which breaks open the might of Vritra, hoarded wealth of nature, for the joy of humanity.

Indra, prosperous lord of noble actions, breaker of the clouds with currents of lightning energy to let the streams of rain showers flow on the earth for humanity, take up the thunderbolt of steel in arms and strike, and rise to the heavens so that all may see the sun in all its glory.

When humanity, stricken with fear of Vritra and drought, raises great, heavenly, beautiful, enlightened and powerful songs of praise and prayer rising to the heavens in honour of Indra, and when the protective forces of nature such as winds and pranic energy fighting for humanity move into action and bring showers of joy from heaven for humanity on earth, then all these forces and humanity rejoice with thanks and praise to Indra.

Indra, lord of power and ruler of the world, when under the inspiration of soma your thunderbolt with terrible force breaks open the peak of Vritra, the cloud overcasting the earth and skies, then with thunder and lightning, the powerful heavens shaking in the operation catalyse and turn the vapours into rain showers.

Indra, lord of power, wealth and glory, if the earth, which is enjoyable with the ten senses, and all the people were to wax in peace and joy all days and nights by virtue of the light of your knowledge and justice and your power of protection and progress, then your fame and splendour on earth would touch the heights of heaven.

Lord of omnipotent force, master of your own essential splendour, you are beyond this world of earth and sky. You create the earth, a symbolic measure of your power, for the sake of life and protection. You pervade the earth, the waters, the regions of bliss and the heavens of light and you are transcendent even beyond.

You are the ultimate measure of the earth and the skies. You are the highest lord and master of the wondrous world of heroes. Having pervaded the world, having measured the spaces and transcended, you are the ultimate truth of eternal reality. No one is like you, none in image, symbol or measure, none, nothing.

The heaven and earth approach not His infinite expanse. Nor do the oceans of waters and spaces find the end of His universe of glory. Nor can any one rival the power and passion of the generosity of this warrior against Vritra, the demon of darkness and drought, in matters of the joy of living. Nor has He Himself, sole Lord as He is, created any one else, or any other world, like Himself or like the world He has created.

Indra, lord of universal power, when you strike on the jaws of Vritra with the fatal thunderbolt of dazzling force in all the battles against darkness and drought, then the Maruts, high-priests of nature and humanity, sing hymns of praise for you, and all the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice with you.

1. Nyū3 ṣu vācaṁ pra mahe bharāmahe gira indrāya sadane vivasvataḥ. Nū ciddhi ratnaṁ sasatām ivāvidan na duṣṭutir draviṇodeṣu śasyate.

In this great yajnic house of Vivasvan, lord of light, we raise our voice of celebrations in honour of Indra, lord of power and action, for the sake of honour and prosperity. Rarely is the jewel obtained by the lazy loons asleep. And slander finds no favour among the givers of wealth.

Indra, lord of knowledge, wealth and power, you are the gateway to speed and fast advancement. You are the giver of divine speech and wealth of cows, earth and prosperity of life. You are the treasure house of food and energy. You are the lord giver of wealth and splendour. You are the leading light of education and scholarship. You are the refulgent lord of light. You are the chastiser of the lazy, an inspiration for the ambitious. And you are the friend of friends. Such is Indra whom we praise and celebrate in song.

Indra, lord of power and glory, lord of wisdom, Word, and action, versatile giver of success and victory, most brilliant and omniscient, the wealth all round is yours, you know. Therefore, O lord of victory, take that up and bear it along to bless us. Neglect not the desire and ambition of your celebrant, discount him not.

Indra, lord of power and glory, pleased at heart, with these lights of knowledge and these streams of soma, preventing our want and poverty of wealth and knowledge, bless us with cows and horses, gifts of divine speech, lands and wealth of mind and wisdom, and speedy movement in progress, so that, subduing the evil and wicked enemies, and free from the jealous and hateful, we may enjoy and live happily with plenty of food and energy and joyous drinks of soma in a state of power and prosperity.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, honour and prosperity, let us begin well, advance, succeed and celebrate with noble wealth and power, food and energy, knowledge and speed, universal beauty and joy and the light of brilliance. Let us advance and enjoy with divine wisdom, forceful arms of the brave, prime lands and cows and sophisticated intelligence, and all this at the top speed of advancement.

Lord of truth and protector of the people of truth and piety, when in the battles against Vritra, demon of darkness and evil, for the defence of the hero of yajnic action you resolutely overthrow tens of thousands of the forces of darkness, then those joyous and generous fighters and lovers of soma celebrate the victories with you.

With the courage and arms of a mighty warrior you go forward, engage the enemy and with your valour and splendour destroy the hostile fort yonder. With your friends and disciplined warriors, in the far off country, you uproot the guileful adversary who, otherwise is a constant challenge and terror to humanity.

By your ardour and brilliance you destroy the man who troubles the pious, who steals others' money and property, and who waylays the travellers and prevents hospitality. By your own strength you rout a hundred strongholds of the purveyors of poison and exploitation and you protect the good creations and productions of people by disciplined expert masters of management.

Indra, mighty sovereign, far and wide is your fame. Twenty are these rulers of the republics in need of help and they too are of noble fame, come here for protection. Indra, lord omnipotent of the world, dedicated as we are to the light of the Rks, we are protected by the divinities. All friends of yours, we pray, may we be at perfect peace in holy comfort and sing in praise of your glory. And by your grace, may we be blest with noble children and live a long, full and happy life.

Indra, lord of the universe and the wealth and grandeur of life, let us not be boggled in sin and conflicts of the world. You make the rivers roar, streams to flow and the springs to sing in praise. Shake us not with fear. Why shouldn't the earth and her children, then, attain to you?

Offer homage to Indra, lord of strength, power, knowledge and wisdom. Sing songs of praise glorifying the Lord who, with His mighty strength and power of knowledge and wisdom, creates both heaven and earth and the sky, and with the same strength and generosity showers His blessings on us.

Offer resounding words of strength and creative imagination in honour of Indra, great lord of light and grandeur. Great is the sovereign republic of the lord of awful power, awful in his mind capable of wondrous acts of wisdom. The lord is a good listener and giver of vital energy and fresh life, and subduer of enemies. He rides and rushes forward in a chariot drawn by the winds and sunbeams.

From the great regions of light, feeling passionate and indignant, you strike the top of the cloud and break it with the shattering thunderbolt of sunbeams. Similarly, righteously and conscientiously feeling passionate and indignant, with your formidable actions, subduing the forces of the wicked and guileful powers, you raise an army to fight for light and justice.

Just as the sun strikes the thunderbolt of sunbeams on top of the cloud which holds the life-giving waters but deprives the earth of rain, so you, striking the thunderbolt on the head of the living rich but hoarding wicked powers of society, with your ancient and advancing powers of knowledge, make them cry even to-day. Since you were earlier, and now you are, the hero of action, who can be superior enough to act against you? No one.

6. Tvamāvitha naryam turvaśam yadum tvam turvītiṁ vayyam śatakrato. Tvam rathametaśam kṛtvye dhane tvam puro navatiṁ dambhaya nava.

Indra, lord and hero of a hundred noble actions, you protect the good among humanity, the best of them, the industrious, who destroys the evil and who knows.

Now that the battle is on and almost won for success and prosperity, protect the tempestuous chariot of advance and progress and break down the ninety nine forts of the enemies of humanity.

He surely is the king, the man, who protects the good and the true, who knows, enlightens and advances, who liberally offers in yajna and himself commands reverence, who advances every unit of the human order and himself advances in response, who chants the hymns in honour of Divinity, who is rich and liberal in prosperity and bright in law and justice, and a liberal giver over all else. For such a man as this, the higher powers from above shower rains of grace in generosity.

Indra, unique is your order of governance. Your intelligence and imagination is unique. May all the citizens, lovers of soma as they are, prosper by their karma who, generous and giving, advance your great strength and system, stability and generosity.

Indra, lord of power and governance, for your service are these many warrior heroes, overflowing with generosity like the clouds, strong as adamant, formidable in battle and embodiments of national genius fit for service and sacrifice for the honour and glory of the nation. Accept these, grant them the desire and ambition they have, and make up your mind and resolve for the growth of honour, prosperity and generosity.

The darkest dark mountainous body of vapours stays enclosed in the depths of Vritra, the dense cloud. Indra, lord of light and lightning energy, releases the waters in the form of all the streams earlier withheld by Vritra and makes them flow in their usual course.

Indra, lord of power and glory, friend and protector of the people, bring us the most felicitous honour, rule over the great republic, protect us, advance us to power and fame, support the wise, let us march to plenty of food and energy, and wealth and prosperity for our noble generations to follow.

The splendour of this Indra, lord of rule and light, extends to the lights of heaven. The earth too cannot rival his greatness with all its expanse. Lord of strength and power, he is fearsome for the enemies, warm for the good, and hot and blazing for others. He radiates light for the dark and strikes the thunderbolt into the hoarded waters of Vritra and walks around as the leader among people as leader of the flock.

Just as the ocean with its bottomless depths receives and holds the streams of water flowing over the expansive lands and heading towards the sea, and just as the sun, with its expanse of heavens, receives and holds the streams of vapours flowing across the spaces of the skies and then, like the most generous lord of life, showers the rains for the earth to have a drink of the soma of joy, so does the ruler lord of light and power receive and hold the streams of incoming wealth heading to the vast expanse of the treasury, and then like a generous lord of fertility showers the rain of wealth upon the people for them to have a drink of the joy of life. This ocean, this sun, this ruler, mighty warrior and protector rises in strength with his glory since time immemorial.

Just like that cloud of rain, you rule and govern the great wealth and the rules and laws for the enjoyment and well-being of life on earth and shine. Thus mighty and blazing by your own power and splendour, leader in front of all noble action, you are celebrated as a very god among humanity.

Celebrated is Indra, far and wide in town and forest and in distant lands, by his admirers in worship and reverence, lord and bold as he is, expressing his knowledge and power among people gracefully. Generous he is, joyous and free, full of blessings for those who are keen to learn and earn the wealth of life. And generous of knowledge, power and protection, glorious all round, he commands the voice of praise and appreciation everywhere.

5. Sa inmahāni samithāni majmanā kṛṇoti yudhma ojasā janebhyaḥ. Adhā cana śrad dadhati tviṣīmata indrāya vajram nighanighnate vadham.

Great warrior as he is, fighting with the brilliance of his knowledge, wealth and power against ignorance, injustice and poverty, he wins great battles for the people. He strikes the thunderbolt against evil, wickedness and hoarding for the glory of the order, and then the people vest full faith in him, lord of splendour and majesty as he is.

He, ruling lord of power, hero of noble actions, keen to hear the Shastras for knowledge and food for the soul, developing projects of growth and progress, growing stronger and stronger by the earth, destroying evil and wickedness with his valour and splendour, creating the lights of art, science, beauty and culture, rendering the homes and highways free from danger and highway men, should set the wheels of humanity in motion and keep the waters flowing abundantly for the yajamana and the yajnic nation.

Indra, lord creator of soma and lover of the drink of joy, may your heart and mind concentrate on giving. Lord of fame commanding admiration and reverence, direct your dynamic and magnetic forces this way for progress and stability. May your charioteers, leaders and guides of the nation, be experts on the steering wheel and in the direction of Dharma. Realise your noble and brilliant intentions. May no enemies be able to injure and suppress or terrorize you.

This Indra, lord protector of the land, advances to meet, guide and protect his people just as the smartest young man advances and wins the hand of his lady love. And, holding them as sacred libations in the ladle for offering into the yajna fire, he ascends the excellent, golden chariot prepared by experts and driven by the fastest fuel power, and advances to protect the glory of the Lord of humanity for them.

2. Taṁ gūrtayo nemanniṣaḥ parīṇasaḥ samudraṁ na sañcarane saniṣyavaḥ. Patim dakṣasya vidathasya nū saho girim na venā adhi roha tejasā.

Just as the streams flow to join the sea in common and waters glide round the mountain, so hosts of admirers, loving and loved and eager to join Indra, lord and protector of the mighty and versatile order of humanity, rise and, with their strength and splendour, augment his power and majesty deep as the ocean and high as a mountain peak.

He, Indra, blessed and blissful, great, inviolable, shines in his bloom of youth like the peak of a mountain with the force and brilliance of his knowledge and power, by which he, formidable hero of the armour of steel, delights and rules a strong and enlightened nation in a state of joy and self-restraint in all situations of existence.

If a generous and brilliant beauty were to come and join Indra, a brilliant young man of culture, education and universal values of Dharma, join him as life partner and inspire him to advance for the safety, security and progress of society, then, just as the sun having joined the wonderful dawn, dispels the world enveloping darkness with his blazing splendour so would Indra dispel the darkness and suffering of humanity with his power and splendour.

5. *Vi yat tiro dharuṇamacyutam rajo'tiṣṭhipo diva

Mighty is Indra, blazing in splendour and rejoicing in the light of heaven. In the vast spaces of the universe, he wields and sustains indestructible life supports such as earths and skies. He catalyses the vapours of water held in the depths of space, breaks the clouds, and in the mood of power, glory and joy makes them shower the rains on the earth, thereby forming the ocean.

6. Tvaṁ divo dharuṇaṁ dhiṣa ojasā prthivyā indra sadaneṣu māhinaḥ. Tvaṁ sutasya made ariṇā apo vi vṛtrasya samayā pāṣyārujaḥ.

Indra, with your splendour of omnipotence you wield the sustaining powers of heaven and earth. You are all great and glorious in the halls and homes of the earth. With your power of catalysis you break the clouds and release the waters by the season, and then in celebrations of soma yajna you bless the devotees with joy.

To the most generous lord of the world, Indra, great, awfully wealthy, truly fragrant blissful, and mighty strong, I offer my homage of faith and celebration whose universal gift of wealth, knowledge and efficiency of karma, released and open to all for strength and enlightenment, flows freely like streams of water rushing down to the sea.

Just as the golden glorious thunderbolt of Indra struck at the cloud reaches to the heart of the vapours and the treasure streams of water flow down to the sea, so may the fruits of the holy works of yajnic people and the wealth of the world flow to you like streams of water for your fulfilment and freedom. (The ruler is the nation's centre and chief yajamana of the nation's yajnic activity.)

O man of knowledge, come to the auspicious yajna like the glorious dawn bearing gifts of food power and energy for this awful lord of majesty and charity, whose house, famous for gold and chant of the Word, emanates the light and power of science and knowledge as the spaces in the morning reflect the light and glory of the dawn.

Other than you there is no one else, lord of holy Word, who would listen to our prayer. Hear our prayer as the voice of earth and humanity and respond with grace.

Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, you break that mountainous cloud of vast dimensions part by part with the thunderbolt of lightning energy. You release the held up waters for downward flow in the streams. Eternal and absolute lord of omnipotence, you alone wield and sustain the universe and universal energy.

Agni Devata, Nodha Gautama Rshi

नू चित्सहाजा अमृता नि तुन्दत हाता यदूता अभवद्विवस्वतः ।

1. Nū cit sahojā amṛto ni tundate hotā yad dūto abhavad vivasvataḥ. Vi sādhiṣṭhebhīḥ pathibhī rajo mama ā devatātā haviṣā vivāsatī.

Agni, surely born of strength and omnipotence, and immortal, never hurts. Giver and receiver of oblations, it is the carrier of yajna and inspirations of the Divine. Coexistent with other powers of nature, it traverses the paths of spaces from earth to heavens. Divine among divinities, when it is fed on holy offerings, it shines itself and shines others with light.

2. Ā svamadma yuvamāno ajarastr̥ṣvaviṣyanna-taseṣu tiṣṭhati. Atyo na pṛṣṭhaṁ pruṣitasya rocate divo na sānu stanaya-nnacikradat.

Unaging and immortal, instantly consuming its food, it protects the environment and abides in the winds and the vast skies. Like a courser on the wings, it flies and shines on top when it is sprinkled with ghrta, and as on the peak of heaven, it thunders as lightning.

3. Krāṇā rudrebbhirvasubhiḥ purohito hotā niṣatto rayiṣāḷamartyaḥ. Ratho na vikṣyṛñjasāna āyūṣu vyānuṣagvāryā deva ṛṇvati.

Immortal agent of nature's karma, living and acting with pranic energies and the abodes and supports of life, it is the high priest of cosmic yajna both offering and receiving the oblations in the dynamics of existence, and it is the treasure source of wealth. Beautiful and moving like a chariot, mixing with people, it integrates with life and age and, brilliant and generous, it creates and provides the choicest gifts of life.

Impelled by Vayu, Agni abides in its natural abodes, in wind and air and in its own flames, moving on loud and bold by its yajnic actions. Agni, unaging and ever young, refulgent with your own light, since you instantly shower the supplicants with favours, may we, we pray, share your love and protection.

Voracious power of the jaws of flame, enveloped in the rays of its own light, inspired by the energy of Vayu, it moves around bold and fearless like a bull in the herd of cows in the forest far and near. It moves across the moving and undecaying world of earth and sky up and down with its force, and the world feels afraid of it whether it stays or flies like a bird.

Agni, eminent scholars of science among humanity hold and install you as precious wealth for the people, Agni, divine yajnic power, welcome as a cherished visitor, worthy of choice, deserving of hospitality like a dear friend, bliss incarnate. They install you so that you kindle, rise and blaze like a divinity of heaven.

Intelligent men of knowledge and divine speech offer to invoke Agni, as generous yajnic power of seven beautiful tongues of flame, worthiest of adoration in yajna. That same power, a very jewel, giver of all wealths of the world, which they invoke in yajna, I too serve and attain.

Save the devotee from sin and crime with protection from within and without. Agni, you are the lord of intelligence, wealth and knowledge, come post-haste in the morning and bless me.

1. Vayā idagne agnayaste anye tve viśve amṛtā mādayante. Vaiśvānara nābhirasi kṣitīnām sthūṇeva janāṇ upam id yayantha.

Agni, light and life of the universe, other agnis, lights, fires and vitalities are reflective branches of you only. All the immortals of the world, devas, jivas and lights such as the sun rejoice in you. Vaishvanara, vitality and leading light of the earthly worlds, you are the navel, centre-hold of the earths and the people, and, like the pillar of a house or the hub of the wheel of existence, you hold the people in the law of Dharma and keep them in their orbit.

2. Mūrdhā divo nābhiragniḥ pṛthivyā athābhavadarātī rodasyoḥ. Taṁ tvā devāso'janayanta devaṁ vaiśvānara jyotiridāryāya.

Agni is the top of heaven and the centre hold of the earth, and it is the ruler of the earths, the skies and the heavens all. Vaishvanara, leading light of the universe, such as you are, the brilliancies of nature such as sun and moon reveal your presence and the nobilities of humanity celebrate you as light of the Word and life of the world for the good and the pious.

3. Ā sūrye na raśmayo dhruvāso vaiśvānare dadhi-re'gnā vasūni. Yā parvateṣvoṣadhīṣvapsu yā mānuṣeṣvasi tasya rājā.

Just as the sun-rays abide in the sun, so do the stars and planets and the Vasus, abodes of life, abide in Vaishvanara Agni, self-existent power and force of the universe. Lord supreme, whatever wealth and vitality is there in mountains, herbs, waters and humanity, you are the ruler and ordainer of it all.

4. Bṛhatīva sūnave rodasī giro hotā manuṣyo na dakṣaḥ. Svarvate satyaśuṣmāya pūrvīrvaiśvānārāya nṛtamāya yahvīḥ.

Just as the wide and expansive heaven and earth honour and serve the sun, source of light and inspiration, so should the hota, the yajaka, like an expert man of yajna, offer great, eternal and divine hymns of praise in honour of Vaishvanara, life universal, self-existent, ever truly powerful and the best friend of humanity.

5. Divaścīt te bṛhato jātavedo vaiśvānara pra ririce mahitvaṁ. Rājā kṛṣṭīnāmasi mānuṣīṇāṁ yudhā devebhyo varivaścakartha.

Vaishvanara, lord omniscient and omnipresent life and leader of the universe, your greatness and majesty exceeds the light and grandeur of the heavens. You are the lord ruler of the classes of humanity, and with your warlike exploits create treasures of wealth for the divinities of nature and humanity.

Spontaneously I celebrate the greatness and grandeur of the mighty and generous Vaishvanara Agni, Lord Omnipotent and Omnipresent, whom all people of the world seek and worship. Lord of light, breaker of the cloud, dispeller of darkness and destroyer of the wicked, He shakes the quarters of space and terrifies the demons of evil.

Vaishvanara, lord pervasive and leader of the world of existence, is the lord of world humanity by virtue of His might and grandeur. Among the sources of life sustenance such as earth and showers of rain, He is the light and glory of the man of yajna. Lord of the reality of existence and the word of truth, in the world of hundredfold splendour, Agni is praised and worshipped in a hundred manners in choric songs by the celebrants.

Matarishva, Vayu energy existent in space and operative in wind and electricity, bears Agni, carrier of oblations, mark of fame and honour, honour flag of the yajna of the world, worthy of preservation and advancement, instant mover and messenger, always valuable, twice born of Heaven and Vayu for earth and the skies. Vayu bears it like a real celebrity and beauty and generous giver in life and conducts it to Bhrgu, scientist and technologist, for heat treatment from cooking to tempering of sophisticated materials. (The Bhrgu collects and develops the fire.)

are ambitious for noble yajnic acts, abide by the law and order of this ruler of truth and justice. self-control, keeper and protector of the home, creator and protector of wealth, such a person shines as fire on top and commands the nation.

In honour of this lord Indra, mighty power, great leader, holy celebrity and commander of the brave, formidable to the enemies, I offer an excellent song of praise in adoration and holiest offerings of the most spontaneous and liberal homage.

You offer to this Indra, lord of life and power, libations of homage and reverence like gifts of dainty food. So do I bear and offer to him songs of praise well-structured and formulaic modes of defence and protection against the enemies of humanity. Come ye all, cleanse your mind honestly by heart, mind and soul for Indra, ancient and eternal lord of life and light, and serve him.

For this Indra, ruling lord of knowledge and power, master promoter of divine speech and veteran of wisdom, I create and float a song of praise of universal and persuasive purport and use words of discriminating wisdom to strengthen his power and control over the land and people just as an engineer creates a strong structure for the chassis of the master's chariot.

5. Asmā idu saptimiva śravasyendrāyārkaṁ juhvā samañje. Vīraṁ dānaukaśaṁ vandadhyai purāṁ gūrtaśravaśaṁ darmāṇam.

As a driver yokes the horse to the master's chariot to drive him on, so, in honour of Indra and in order to celebrate and exalt him, the brave hero as he is, treasure home of charity and destroyer of enemy strongholds, whose fame rings far and wide, I compose a song in my own words and offer it as a libation to him with my own ladle in homage.

अ॒स्मा इ॒दु त्व॒ष्टा॑ त॒ इ॒द्वजं॑ स्व॒र्षस्त॑मं स्व॒र्यं॑ र॒णाय॑ ।

6. Asmā idu tvaṣṭā takṣad vajraṁ svapastamaṁ svaryaṁ raṇāya. Vṛtrasya cid vidad yena marma tujannīśānastujatā kiyedhāḥ.

Let Tvashta, the Maker, design and form for this Indra, ruling Lord of power and defence, the thunderbolt of lightning force blazing for the battle so that he (Indra), striking with this fatal weapon, taking many enemies on, may reach the mortal centrespot of Vritra, the cloud of darkness and ignorance (and release the showers of rain and prosperity and the light of knowledge).

अ॒स्यदु॑ मा॒तुः स॒र्व॒नेषु॑ स॒द्या म॒हः पि॒तुं प॑पि॒वाज्चाव॑ ।।

7. Asyedu mātuh savaneṣu sadyo mahah pitum papivāñcārvannā. Muṣāyad viṣṇuḥ pacataṁ sahīyān vidhyad varāhaṁ tiro adrimastā.

In the yajnic programmes of this Indra, lord of rule and power who measures everything to size, Vishnu, the great sun pervading everything with its light, drinks up the delicious holy foods prepared and sent up sanctified from the yajna, and then, challenging the mountainous cloud hoarding up the wealth of the same yajnic foods in the form of vapours, breaks up the cloud and throws it down (releasing the showers of rain).

8. Asmā idu gnāscid devapatnīrindrāyārkamahihatya ūvuḥ. Pari dyāvāprthivī jabhra urvī nāsyate mahimānaṁ pari ṣṭaḥ.

For this Indra, blazing as the sun with light and grandeur, holy voices served and preserved by noble sages and scholars composed hymns of praise and offered homage to Indra on the break up of the cloud. Indra holds both the vast heaven and earth, but these two do not comprehend his grandeur and greatness (which exceeds heaven and earth both).

9. Asyedeṇa pra ririce mahitvaṁ divaspr̥thivyāḥ paryantarikṣāt. Svarāḷindro dama ā viśvagūrtaḥ svariramatro vavakṣe raṇāya.

Surely the greatness and grandeur of this Indra exceeds the heaven, skies and earth. The self-refulgent hero, universal warrior, brilliant and brave, infinitely strong and bold, resounds in the universe for battle against evil and negation.

अस्यद्व शर्वसा शुषन्तं वि वृश्चद्वज्रण वृत्रमिन्दः ।

10. Asyedeṇa śavasā śuṣantaṁ vi vṛścād vajreṇa vṛtramindraḥ. Gā na vrāṇā avanīramuñcada-bhi śravo dāvane sacetāḥ.

O lord of power and law, with the strength and rectitude of this Indra, the universal force of Divinity uproots the exploitative forces, just as the sun breaks down the cloud which holds up the rain and scorches the earth. And just as held up cows are released from the stalls, so the ruler releases the streams of life on the earth, enlightened hero as he is, who releases food and justice for the powers of generosity.

अस्यदु त्वषसा रन्त सिन्धवः परि यद्वज्रण सीमयच्छत ।

11. Asyedu tveṣasā ranta sindhavaḥ pari yadvajreṇa sīmayacchat. Īśānakrd dāśuṣe daśasyan turvītaye gādhaṁ turvaṇiḥ kaḥ.

By the might and splendour of this Indra, the rivers flow and seas roll at will since he gives the blow (to Vritra and releases the waters below). Ruler, controller, and giver of power and honour, instantly victorious, giving liberally to the generous, he creates firm standing ground for the speedy success of generosity all round.

अस्मा इदु प भरा तूतुजाना वृत्राय वज्रमीशानः कियधः ।

12. *Asmā idu pra bharā tūtujāno vṛtrāya vajramī-

Indra, ruling lord of manifold power, fast and impetuous, wields the thunderbolt of sunrays for this Vritra, cloud of vapours and darkness, and releasing the waters for the streams to flow on earth, breaks the layers of vapours with the thunderbolt as lightning breaks things into pieces bit by bit.

Sing and celebrate the old and new exploits of this fast and powerful Indra in songs of praise, Indra who, passionate and tempestuous, updating and wielding the weapons for battle, strikes and destroys the enemies.

14. Asyedu bhiyā girayaśca dr̥ḷahā dyāvā ca bhūmā januṣastujete. Upo venasya joguvāna oṇim sadyo bhuvad vīryāya nodhāḥ.

By the power and holy fear of this omnipotent Indra, the mountains stay firm and fixed, and the heaven and earth and the people shake with awe. The leader, abiding in the protective shade of this intelligent and handsome power and chanting words of praise immediately rises and grows capable of great action.

15. Asmā idu tyadanu dāyyeṣāmeko yad vavne bhūrerīśānaḥ. Praitaśaṁ sūrye paspr̥dhānam sauvaśvye suṣvimāvadindrah.

Indra, sole one lord of himself is the absolute ruler of many. Whatever he wills of these and commands, the same is rendered in reverence and obedience. And Indra himself advances and protects the hero of power and honour who, fighting for victory in the battle of horse, spurs on his steed in the direction of the sun.

16. Evā te hāriyojanā suvr̥ktīndra brahmāṇi gota-māso akran. Aiṣu viśvapeśasaṁ dhiyaṁ dhāḥ prātarmakṣū dhiyāvasurjagamyāt.

Indra, O Lord of sunbeams, these are the songs divine, purest and serene, offered by the highest souls of faith and vision. Bless these souls with universal brilliance of vision and intelligence, lord omniscient. Lord Omnificent, reveal your presence in our mind instantly with the light of the dawn.

Indra Devata, Nodha Gautama Rshi

प मन्मह शवसानाय शूषमाङ्गूषं गिवणस अङ्गिरस्वत ।

1. Pra manmahe śavasānāya śūṣam āṅgūṣaṁ girvaṇase aṅgirasvat. Suvṛktibhiḥ stuvata ṛgmīyāyā'rcāmārkaṁ nare viśrutāya.

With selected words of purity and pious deeds we offer songs of adoration to Indra, lord omnipotent, poet of Divine omniscience, universal object of worship, celebrated in the Rgveda, sole guide of humanity and celebrated in story all over the world, and we pray for strength and knowledge as for the very breath of life.

2. Pra vo mahe mahi namo bharadhvam āṅgūṣyaṁ śavasānāya sāma. Yenā naḥ pūrve pitaraḥ pada-jñā arcanto aṅgirasō gā avindan.

All ye men and women of the world, bear and offer to Indra, great lord of strength and power, celebrative songs of adoration and holy offerings in Samans and hymns of knowledge and enlightenment, by virtue of which our ancient forefathers, who knew the life stages of Dharma, Artha, Kama and Moksha and who were scholars of divine knowledge and worshippers of the Lord, received the gift of holy speech and universal knowledge.

इन्द्रस्याङ्गिरसां चष्टा विदत्स्रमा तनयाय धासिम । बृहस्प-

3. Indrasyāṅgirasāṁ ceṣṭau vidat saramā tanayāya dhāsim. Brhaspatirbhinadadriṁ vidad gāḥ samusriyābhirvāvaśanta naraḥ.

Just as a mother gives milk to the child, as Brihaspati, the sun, breaks the cloud with its rays and the light reaches the earth, so you, men and women of the world, in the yajna of Indra and the yajnic programmes of the scholars of science and society, shining and advancing like sun-rays, spread the light of knowledge and the joy of life.

स सुष्टुभा स स्तुभा सप्त विपः स्वरणादिं स्वयाज्ञेनवग्वः ।

4. Sa suṣṭubhā sa stubhā sapta vipraiḥ svareṇādriṁ svaryo navagvaiḥ. Saranyubhiḥ phaligamindra śakra valaṁ raveṇa darayo daśagvaiḥ.

Just as the bright sun breaks the powerful clouds with its fresh, all embracing, all expansive, sustaining and sustained but resounding rays of light, similarly Indra, powerful ruler of the world, shining and resounding, with balanced and all-sustaining order, seven orders of the wise, his rolling voice, new and all expansive radiating powers and burning and roaring weapons, breaks down the thick and powerful clouds of darkness which hoard the system's life and progress.

गृणाना अङ्गिराभिदस्म वि वरुषसा सूर्येण गाभिरन्धः ।

5. Gṛṇāno aṅgirobhirdasma vi varuṣasā sūryeṇa gobhirandhaḥ. Vi bhūmyā aprathaya indra sānu divo raja uparamastabhāyaḥ.

Indra, lord of wondrous deeds, proclaiming his power and presence by the pranic energies of nature, the dawn, the sun and the sun-rays, dispels the darkness and creates the food for life and growth. He expands the earth and the hills and mountains of the earth and stabilizes the heights of the skies and the heavens.

So should the ruler proclaim his power and presence dispelling the darkness of ignorance, injustice and poverty, create food and prosperity and thereby expand the character, power and potential of the land and stabilize the common wealth of humanity.

तदु पयं तममस्य कम दस्मस्य चारुतममस्ति दंसः ।

6. Tadu paryakṣatamam asya karma dasmasya cārutamam asti daṁsaḥ. Upahvare yaduparā apinvan madhvarṇaso nadyaścatasraḥ.

The most charming act and the most admirable achievement of this lord Indra of wondrous deeds is that in the business of life on the earth all the streams and rivers and all the four directions of space are full and abundant with delicious waters and flow for all the people freely.

7. Dvitā vi vavre sanajā sanīḷe ayāsyah stavamā-nebhirarkaiḥ. Bhago na mene parama vyomanna-dhārayad rodasī sudamsāḥ.

Indra, valiant lord of infinite action, concealed and held and then revealed a duality of creation, two complementarities, both born of the same mother, Prakṛti, and both coexistent and cooperative, both held by waves of energy (light and dark), both doing homage to the lord creator. He, Bhaga, lord of existence and master of materials, held the two in space as two co-workers, complementary like the sun holding heaven and earth and the skies in eternal space.

8. Sanād divaṁ pari bhūmā virūpe punarbhuvā yuvatī svebhirevaiḥ. Kṛṣṇebhiraktoṣā ruśadbhir-vapurbbhirā carato anyānyā.

Since time immemorial, from the same eternal cause, co-existent and cooperative from heaven to earth, the two complementarities of distinctive forms, night and day, both ever young and born again and again, move on and on by their own path together yet separately, the night in the forms of darkness and the day in the forms of light. Both move in and on serving the heaven and earth.

9. Sanemi sakhyam svapasyamānaḥ sūnurdādhāra śavasā sudamsāḥ. Āmāsu cid dadhiṣe pakva-mantaḥ payaḥ kṛṣṇāsu ruśad rohiṇīṣu.

Lord of the thunderbolt, eternal creator, master of wondrous actions, beatific in performance by his own might holds and maintains equality of company and cooperation between the light and the dark, raw and ripe, just as he holds the same herbal juice in the mature as well as the maturing vegetation and the same white milk in the white, dark and ruddy cows.

10. Sanāt sanīlā avanīravātā vratā rakṣante amṛtāḥ saḥobhiḥ. Purū sahasrā janayo na patnīrduva-syanti svasāro ahrayāṇam.

Since time immemorial, born of the same cause, Prakṛti, coexistent and cooperative, thousands of earths immortal in their own nature, undisturbed even by a breath of wind, observe the eternal laws of their existence with their innate powers. And as mothers nourish their child, wives love and serve their husbands, and sisters love and cooperate with their brothers, they do homage to the bold and intrepidable Indra.

11. Sanāyuvo namasā navyo arkairvasūyavo matayo dasma dadruḥ. Patiṁ na patnīruśa-tīruśantaṁ spṛśanti tvā śavasāvanmanīṣāḥ.

Indra, lord adorable of wondrous action, bright and generous, people of intelligence, faith and meditation, desirous of wealth and food for the body, mind and soul, lovers of yajna, rush to you offering gifts of homage with hymns of praise and prayer as loving wives in passion approach the loving husbands and feel immortalised by the beatific touch of your presence.

Since eternity, O lord of infinite light and generosity, the wealths in your open hand never decrease, never will they exhaust. You are the lord supreme of light and knowledge. You are the lord of omnipotence. You are the master of the dynamics of existence. You are calm and constant. You are the lord of kindness, favour and grace. Enlighten us with the light of knowledge. Bless us with your favours and grace.

Indra, lord of omnipotence and infinite action, lord omnipresent of infinite motion, since eternity you are ever present just at hand. Nodha, the poet of constant adoration, Gotama, spirit of fastest thought and imagination, creates the latest songs of celebration in honour of you, lord of universal light and humanity, lord giver of infinite freedom and joy. May the lord of eternal wealth and joy, may the spirit of eternal vision and imagination be with us upon the instant with the light of the dawn.

Indra, lord omnipresent, great you are indeed who, manifest in creation, hold the heaven and earth in your power and law of omnipotence. It is by that eternal power and awe that all the mighty mountains and the impetuous rays of light do not deviate from their fixed course.

Indra, lord almighty of immaculate action, universally invoked, when you deploy your forces of movement and advance, observing the rules and discipline of your universal law, your worshippers and admirers too hold in their arms the same thunderbolt of law by which you destroy the many strongholds of the enemies of life and humanity.

Indra, you are ever true, constant destroyer of these negativities of life and nature. You are the protector and promoter of the wise artists and scientists. You are the leader and friend of humanity. You are ever patient and forbearing. In the great battles of unity and fulfilment, you eliminate want and drought for the sake of the young generation, bright and brave wielders of the force of the thunderbolt of plenty and righteousness.

You only, for sure, Indra, are the universal friend, wielder of the thunderbolt, and hero of vast operation who take on the cloud of darkness and want, overthrow the demon of want and darkness and shower the blessings of plenty and fulfilment and who, O brave one, generous at heart, by nature and instinct nip evil and wickedness in the bud itself.

Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, you surely are he who is unwilling to injure the strong and firm among humanity and the strong and stable system of the order. Fall like a hammer upon the disagreeables of humanity, fix them, and scatter the unfriendly as the sun scatters the clouds, and open the paths of advancement for progress in all directions.

In the tumult of the battles of the brave for victory and the showers of peace and joy, the leaders of humanity call upon you, Indra, to join the strife and win. Lord of innate wealth and power, may this help and protection of yours be available to us in our joint ventures and our battles for food, knowledge, science and social progress.

Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, ruler of the world, fighting seven evils and defending the seven-fold power of the order, you break down the strongholds of sin and crime for the sake of the generous and the many splendoured social order. Uproot the sin and crime like grass and deliver the wealth to the people for the sake of joy and fulfilment and take the order to the heights of the sky. (The sevenfold powers are: the council, councillors, president, army, commander, services and the people.)

Indra, brilliant lord of generosity, ever present and all protective, brave hero, ruler and holder of the world, like the flow of nature's waters, let that various and wondrous energy, mind and means flow freely for us for the expression and fulfilment of our spiritual self by which you again and again direct and guide the conduct of our soul as well as the psychic flow of our energy.

Indra, lord of the world, by the most eminent sages of vision and intelligence, like fast motions of light rays for the sun, songs of homage have been presented with heart and soul with offerings of faith and reverence and sung for you.

May the same lord of wealth and intelligence come to us and bless us with wondrous wealth of food, light and energy at the break of dawn.

1. Vṛṣṇe śardhāya sumakhāya vedhase nodhaḥ suvrktiṁ pra bharā marudbhyaḥ. Apo na dhīro manasā suhastyo girāḥ samañje vidatheṣvā-bhuvah.

Nodha, poet of vision and wisdom, come and sing a song of celebration in selected words of pure beauty for the generous, mighty and omniscient lord of universal yajna and in honour of the Maruts, divine energies of universal motion. Settled and constant, pure and fluent as waters, dexterous of hand in structure and form, with heart and soul I compose, adorn and chant holy voices revealed in meditation, presenting themselves as celebrants of the Lord.

2. Te jajñire diva ṛṣvāsa ukṣaṇo rudrasya maryā asurā arepasah. Pāvakāsaḥ śucayaḥ sūryā iva satvāno na drapsino ghoravarpasah.

Those Maruts, waves of winds, children of the light of heaven, reveal the light of knowledge. Friends of humanity, they are the breath of Rudra, cosmic energy of prana, generous, inspiring, pure and unpolluted, pure and purifying, brilliant as sunbeams, replete with vitality, carrying particles of living energy, they are awful and sublime in form.

In various colourful shapes they manifest and

5. Īśanakṛto dhunayo riśādaso vātān vidyutastaviṣī-bhirakrata. Duhantyūrdhdivyāni dhūtayao bhū-miṁ pinvanti payasā parijrayaḥ.

Creators and makers of ruling powers on earth, they are the movers and shakers of things and people. Destroyers of the destroyers, they generate winds and lightning with their blazing splendour. They distil the essence of energy from the celestial sources of nature and, vibrating every particle of matter and energy, they feed the earth with the nectar of vitality while they go round in spaces at their tempestuous speed.

6. Pinvantyapo marutaḥ sudānavaḥ payo ghr̥ta-vad vidatheṣvābhuvāḥ. Atyam̐ na mihe vi nayanti vājinamutsam̐ duhanti stanayantamakṣitam.

The generous Maruts, waves of cosmic energy, feed the vitality of waters. Instantly present at the yajnas of nature and humanity, as they radiate the ghr̥ta across the spaces, so they feed and augment milk and juices from spaces. And for the sake of rain, like a horse in the reins, they rule the floating cloud and the lightning thunder and milk the cloud like a perennial spring for life.

Mighty strong and strengthening, magical stimulators of intelligence and performance, various and versatile in heat and light, innately powerful and firmly rooted as mountains and inherently rich as clouds, the winds are impetuous in motion as the shooting deer and mighty as the elephants which destroy the forests. If you use these brilliant powers of light and winds in your fieriest forces of creation and defence you would destroy the destroyers and protect the beauties of life and nature and enjoy yourselves.

Like lions, the Maruts roar and proclaim the nature of nature (since, as waves of energy, they are in touch with everything in existence and hence know what it is). Powerful as they are possessed of minute particles of energy they possess the world and put you in touch with everything if you know them. Keeping everything in its own shape and order, coexistent with the clouds in their action of sun and shower, they vitalise the nights with the showers of their waves like mists.

(If you know the Maruts, you know what they touch and proclaim.)

9. Rodasī ā vadatā gaṇaśriyo nṛṣācaḥ śūrāḥ śasā-himanyavaḥ. Ā bandhureṣvamatirna darśatā vidyunna tasthau maruto ratheṣu vaḥ.

Maruts, scholars, soldiers, leaders of humanity, organised in graceful classes, friends of mankind, brave, breakers of the clouds, with your own power reach over earth and heaven, address them and proclaim of them. And may the Maruts, energies of winds, like lightning, electric energy, in beautiful body form, come and sit in the strong structure of your cars to take you over earth and heaven.

Heroic men, mighty powers, cosmic energies,

Maruts, voracious eaters, excellent and exuberant, who know and rule the world live together with all their wealth together, mix together in equal homes with all their light and power of the elements, hold immense strength in their hands, fix the arrow on the bow and shoot. They are the real men, the Maruts.

11. Hiranyayebhiḥ pavibhiḥ payovṛdha ujjighnanta āpathyo na parvatān. Makhā ayāsaḥ svasṛto dhruvacyuto dudhrakṛto maruto bhrājadrṣ-ṭayah.

Maruts, creators and promoters of water, juice and milk, powers of cosmic yajna, advancing, self-driven, shakers of the fixed, makers of the firm, brandishing their burnishing steel, shatter the mountains and scatter the clouds like leaves on the pathways by the golden wheels of their chariots.

We invoke, praise and celebrate in song the band of Maruts, nature's powers of grinding and crushing, purifying as fire with refinement, generous, ever active, children of Rudra, i.e., products of cosmic metabolism in the process of joining, disjoining, consuming and creating. You too love, study and serve the Maruts, most active energy of the universe, fiery and powerful, creative and collective forces which bestow the gifts of life on us. Do so for beauty, prosperity and grace.

O Maruts, surely that person soon surpasses other people with power and merit and settles whom you protect and promote with your favours. He achieves food, energy and success with the fastest means of movement and progress, gets the desired wealth for the asking with the people around, and collects and advances the wealth and beauty of yajnic life.

O Maruts, heroes of the world, bear for us valour and virility of sustained value for work, strength and courage irresistible in battles, and brilliant excellence among people of power and honour. Bless us with a son and a grandson, winner of wealth and victory, worthy of praise and universally admirable, whom we may nurse, nourish, protect and promote for a hundred years to advance in life.

May the spirit of pious intelligence and wealth of mind and soul visit and bless us instantly with the light of dawn.

पश्वा न तायुं गुहा चतन्तं नमा युजानं नमा वहन्तम ।

1. *Pasvā na tāyūṁ guhā catantam namo yujānam

Tracing and following the foot-prints of the animal, the master finds where the cattle carrier is hiding in the cave. So do all the yajakas, loving together and dedicated, patient and constant in their search, follow you, Agni, by yogaic stages and find you where you are hiding in the cave of the heart, creating and commanding food and energy, bearing and bestowing food and energy of life, and they sit close around you, preparing and feeding the fire, seeking and finding.

2. R̥tasya devā anu vratā gurbhuvat pariṣṭirdyaurna bhūma. Vardhantīmāpaḥ panvā suśiśvimṛtasya yona garbhe sujātam.

Noble yajakas dedicate themselves to the Law of Truth in sacred vows. The search for Agni goes on. They augment the waters, exalt the earth and, with their noble actions, promote the agni born in the vedi at the centre of the womb of nature and the Laws of Divinity. And the earth grows bright and blest as heaven.

Delightful as the glow of health, vast and happy dwelling as earth, generous as a cloud, sanctifying as waters, fast as a flying horse in rapid motion, deep and rolling as the sea, who can stop it, just at hand as it is?

4. Jāmiḥ sindhūnām bhrāteva svasrāmibhyānna rāja vanānyatti. Yad vātajūto vanā vyasthāda-gnirha dāti romā pr̥thivyāḥ.

It is a friend of the seas, dear as a brother of his sisters. It rules over the wealthy as over its attendants, and devours the forests. Driven by the winds, it abides in the waters, clouds and the sunbeams. And it is only Agni which matures and harvests the grasses and herbs of the earth.

It breathes in the waters, vitalising them, playing with them like a swan. Most intelligent and wide-awake, it awakens the people at dawn with its light and yajnic action. Born of Divine Law and Truth of Nature, it is an inspirer and energiser like soma. Playful as a calf, it is omnipresent, shining far and wide.

Wondrous as wealth and beauty, illuminating as the sun, breath of energy as life itself, ever present and essentially constant as a son, restless as a falcon, abiding with the forests and sunbeams, a very mother cow, nourishing and life-giving as milk, it is pure and blazing, shining and revealing all.

It is the treasure of peace and welfare. Soothing as a home and food as barley, it is the winner of victories for humanity. Worthy of reverence as a seer, it is admired of people. It is worthy of admiration as a war-chariot and bears life, energy and long age for us.

Lord of awful light for all places, eternal like the yajna of creation, beauty of the home like the wife, for all, wondrous of form and character that shines among people like the very sunlight, it is magnificent as a warrior's chariot, blazing in battles with victory.

Like an army sent up to advance in battle, it wields power and force. Like an electric missile of fire it is blazing and voracious, a symbol of light and fire. It is the guide, controller, and destiny of all that is born, and the guide, controller and destiny of all that is on way to life. It is the paramour of maidens and the protector of wives.

Just as cows return to their stall, just as rays of the sun withdraw to the sun, just as streams and rivers flow down to the sea, so may we all, moving as well as settled people, attain to you, Agni, light of the sun, and the Lord Almighty.

Just as a ruler selects a young, unaging and enthusiastic worker, best of the desirable lot and friendliest among people, so does Agni select and bless a devotee for the divine mission of life's yajna. May this Agni, Lord of yajna, Itself the giver and receiver, carrier of the fragrances across life and the world, immanent in forests and manifest in sunbeams, friendliest power among living beings, good like happiness incarnate, creative and blissful as yajna itself be our sustainer, protector and promoter in life and select us for the sacred mission of Divinity.

2. Haste dadhāno nṛmṇā viśvānyame devān dhād guhā niṣīdan. Vidantīmatra naro dhiyamdhā hṛdā yat taṣṭān mantrāñ aśaṁsan.

People of faith and dedication, possessed of sacred intelligence who chant and meditate on mantras, divining into the secrets of nature and divinity with their heart and soul, come to know and realise here itself in actuality the presence and attributes of Agni which is immanent in the depth of the soul, reveals Itself, holding the wealths of the world for the devotees, and establishes the dedicated generous brilliancies in knowledge, power and wealth of the world and protects and promotes them in life.

3. Ajo na kṣāṁ dādhāra pṛthivīm tastambha dyām mantrebhiḥ satyaiḥ. Priyā padāni paśvo ni pāhi viśvāyuragne guhā guhaṁ gāḥ.

The eternal lord of existence, Agni, light and life of the universe, holds the earth as He holds the sky and sustains heaven in space with true mantras of Rtam

(which are identical with His thoughts and laws of nature). Agni, lord and spirit of the universe, deepest in the depth of the soul as you are, protect the steps of the growth of the soul's vision of divinity, guard them against the violence and vulgarity of brute force.

य ईं चिकत गुहा भवन्तमा यः ससाद धारामृतस्य ।

4. Ya im ciketa guhā bhavantamā yaḥ sasāda dhārā mṛtasya. Vi ye cṛtanyṛtā sapanta ādidva-sūni prāvavācāsmāi.

One who knows Agni existent in the cave of the heart, takes the shower in the stream of Truth and life flowing from Divinity. Those who tie the knot with the presence, serve It and shine the path of realisation along the steps, to them Agni reveals the secrets of the wealths of life and light of the Spirit.

5. Vi yo vīrutsu rodhanmahitvota prajā uta prasūṣvantah. Cittirapāṁ dame viśvāyuh sadmeva dhīrāḥ saṁmāya cakruḥ.

Agni, that universal spirit and energy of life which manifests in form and measure in the shoots that come forth in the herbs and trees and in the child in the womb of the mother, that superconsciousness, the realised souls experience when they have collected their consciousness as if behind closed doors, when even the motion of their pranas has been stilled.

(The energy of life which is the heat, vitality and glow of health in life forms, which is universally active, the scientists and yogis realise in a state of total concentration.)

1. *Śrīṇannupa sthād divaṃ bhuraṇyuh sthātu-

The blazing, vibrating, ripening, perfecting power and energy of the Lord, Agni, that sustains and beautifies the world pervades and abides by the moving and non-moving forms of existence and covers as well as brightens and defines the day and night with His presence. He is the sole one lord and light of all the brilliancies of the universe by virtue of His own might.

Brilliant lord of existence, most generative support of life-force arising from dry sources of energy, all the brilliancies of the universe join your sacred act of creation. All of them worship your divinity in truth and faith. All of them with all their manners, customs, rituals, in short with every motion of their thought and body, do homage to your laws of existence and your immortal presence.

Agni, first impulse of creative intelligence, wielder of the laws of Truth and laws of evolution, life of the universe, all the forces of existence do your bidding and perform their action. Lord all percipient and omniscient, whosoever be intelligent and give away charity in homage to you or learn from your eternal Word and universal acts, bless him/her with the wealth of the world.

4. Hotā niṣatto manorapatye sa cinnvāsām patī rayiṇām. Icchanta reto mithastanūṣu saṁ jānata svairdakṣairamūrāḥ.

Lord of light, high-priest of the cosmic yajna of creation and generation, receiver of oblations and creator and begetter of blessings, immanently seated in humanity, Agni is the lord ruler and controller of these wealths of life, and its yajnic creations. Ye men and women of intelligence and generative science mutually desirous of creative energy and fertility together in your body system, know the science of generative yajna with your knowledge, education and expertise.

If men of genius and action were to dedicate themselves to yajna and listen to the divine voice and obey the discipline and command of this divine Agni as children listen to the father and do his behest, then the omnificent Lord of wealth and omnipotence would bless them with showers of wealth and open the beautiful doors of heaven and happiness to them.

1. Śukraḥ śuśukvāñ uṣo na jāraḥ paprā samīcī divo na jyotiḥ. Pari Prajātaḥ kratvā babhūtha bhuvo devānām pitā putraḥ san.

Bright and blazing, pure and purifying as the sun, lover of the dawn, filling both earth and heaven like the light of the sun, Agni, emerging and rising, shines over all with its light and power, being both generator and generated of the divinities of the earth.

2. Vedhā adrpto agnirvijānannūdharna gonām svādmā pitūnām. Jane na śeva āhūryaḥ san madhye niṣatto raṇvo duroṇe.

Lord of light and intelligence, free from pride and infatuation, knower of right and wrong, light and dark, generous as cow's udders overflowing with milk, Agni ripens and sweetens the food of life. Like a benefactor of humanity, worthy of invocation and invitation, sanctified in the middle of the home, it adds to the delight of the family.

Rising like a darling son, delight of the home, beautiful and joyous as a horse, Agni takes people across the hurdles of life. To whatever creative and productive yajnic programmes people invite and invoke Agni, It joins the people with Its light and divinity of power and blesses them with all the wealths of life.

Agni, none of these people violate your laws and discipline since you do good to them, for them. Agni, Lord of light and life, it is your grand act of generosity that you, joining with people of equality, repair their infirmities and ward off their sins without doing violence to anyone or anything.

Agni, bright and blazing like the sun, lover of the dawn, is the dispeller of darkness like the first ray of morning light and reveals the beauteous forms of things, opening the doors of yajna, and destroys suffering. Carrying gifts of homage for it with their heart and soul in every noble act of yajna, let all the people know It and bow to it.

Agni abides at the heart of the waters and the pranic energies of the universe. It is at the heart of forests, sunbeams and all the lovely and beloved beauties of the world. It is at the heart of all that is still and all that moves. It abides in the cloud and in the mountain and it is the centre of the homes of people. Universal, immortal, free and absolute, it is the very life and ruler of everything in nature as it is the life and ruler of all the people for their sake only.

3. Sa hi kṣapāvāṁ agnī rayīṇāṁ dāśadyo asmā aram sūktaiḥ. Etā cikitvo bhūmā ni pāhi devānāṁ janma martāṁśca vidvān.

That Agni is the lord of night and day. It is the giver of wealth and power in ample measure for anyone who adores it with hymns of divinity. It is aware of all, knows the manifestations and operations of all the divinities of nature, and it knows all that are mortal. Lord of knowledge, wealth and power, protect and promote all these children of nature and the earth.

The nights and days of various hues and forms since time immemorial serve this Agni born of constant Prakṛti inspired and energised by the Divine Laws of Rtam, which is the delight and impeller of all that is still and on the move. Let the man of the yajna of science and research study and advance the knowledge of this Agni abiding in light and the sun, doing all the real actions and operations of the natural world.

5. Goṣu praśastiṁ vaneṣu dhiṣe bharanta viśve balim svarṇaḥ. Vi tvā naraḥ purutrā saparyan piturna jivrvēdo bharanta.

Agni, lord sustainer of life and the world, you in-vest the cows and forests and the earth and sunbeams with excellence of quality, virtue and wealth. May all powers of nature and humanity bear and bring joy for us. May all people doing homage to you in various ways receive from you and bear and advance knowledge like children receiving patrimony from the parents.

6. Sādhurna ḡṛdhnurasteva śūro yāteva bhīmastve-ṣaḥ samatsu.

Immensely loving, generous and venerable as a saint, heroic like a brave archer, terrible like the dispenser of punishment, and blazing and brilliant in the battles of life: such is Agni, light, life and might of the world.

Like married women in a state of love and desire meeting the loving husband for the joy of living, like cows of the same stall going up and out to welcome and feel the sallow, ruddy, wonderful and brilliant dawn, harbinger of light, for a fresh lease of life, let all the people together in love and faith always worship the wondrous, loving protector, Agni, eternal father, for a fresh lease of life and the joy of living.

Our forefathers sustain our strength and constancy. The Angirāsas, sustainers of life, the winds, and our fathers with Veda-mantras, break the cloud for us with the voice of thunder. They create the path to the vast heaven and the space and show us the way to rise to the sun. They know the light of the dawn, the brilliance of the day and the bliss of heaven. They give us the light, the day and the bliss and vest us with an identity of splendour, a banner of recognition and a ruler and the law.

Holding on to Truth and Dharma, wielding the knowledge and power of Agni, lord of light, then possessing wealth as the Vaishyas, giving nourishment and help without thirst or selfishness, doing good acts with generosity of giving food and social service and promoting nobilities, specially children, the people and specially Brahmacharinis move on in life with grace.

If the wind, bearing the wealth of agni, and others were to churn out and produce fire and electricity which then emerges bright and victorious in every home, then the scholars of science would refine and develop it for the purpose of communication and transport and use it as ambassador for the grand ruling power and order of the society between one people and another in friendship.

It is the sun, self-refulgent giver of comfort and bliss, reaching all with its rays, knowing all and revealing all, who creates the nectar of life for the great fatherly lord of heaven, Agni, who radiates light like a mighty hero of the bow shooting arrows for the purpose of humanity, and who vests the light and splendour of the morning in its daughter, the dawn, dispelling the darkness. Who can get away from it or steal the light? None.

Agni, lord of light and life, who ever lights the fire in the home in the vedi, whoever in fervent love and faith offers food and reverence in yajna every day, you, giver of twofold advancement in knowledge and valour, grant him full age of honour and glory. Who ever you inspire and send up to battle of the chariot, you bless with the all-round wealth of life.

All foods, all that move and ripen go to Agni like the seven restless streams heading to the sea. The web of our life is incomprehensible to those on the move. May the Lord of Omniscience direct our will and intelligence and establish us among the wise and the brilliant sages of vision.

When pure light and lustre, living and sanctified, come to the ruling soul for the fulfilment of desire and perfection, then Agni creates the strong, praiseworthy, healthy and self-dependent youth, perfects and guides him in the battle of life.

The sun that instantly goes on its course in orbit all by itself as at the speed of mind and rules over all the Vasus, and Mitra and Varuna, brilliant powers of universal love and justice of the Divine with hands of generosity, which protect and promote the cherished immortal values of life on earths as milk in the cows: all this is the gift of Agni.

Agni, lord giver and protector of life, let not our ancestral values of love and friendship be destroyed, all-knowing and visionary creator as you are. Old age destroys the health and beauty of life as the cloud covers and hides the sun and sky. Lord protector and preserver, come before the onslaught of that, stop that and help us preserve ourselves.

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

नि काव्या॑ व॒धसः॑ श॒श्वत॑स्क॒हस्त॑ दधा॑ना न॒या पु॒रु॒णि ।

1. Ni kāvyā vedhasaḥ śaśvataskarhaste dadhāno naryā purūṇi. Agnirbhuvad rayipatī rayiṇām satrā cakrāṇo amṛtāni viśvā.

Agni, the man of faith and devotee of Agni, lord of life, light and wealth of existence, holding in hand the many hymns of the poetry of the eternal poet of omniscience, all-time beneficial to humanity, observing the rules of Dharma, and doing all the essential acts of immortal value becomes the highest master of the wealths of life and existence.

2. Asme vatsam pari śantam na vindannicchanto viśve amṛtā amūrāḥ. Śramayuvaḥ padavyo dhiyamdhāstasthuḥ pade parame cāvagneḥ.

People ordinarily do not attain to our darling Agni, immanent and transcendent lord of existence. But all the immortal souls, men of divine intelligence dedicated to divine love, relentlessly following the paths of Divinity, holding on to piety of faith in reason and passion both, reach and abide in the beatific state of supreme bliss in Agni's direct presence.

3. Tisro yadagne śaradastvāmicchuciṁ ghr̥tena śucayaḥ saparyān. Nāmāni cid dadhire yajñīyānyasūdayanta tanvaḥ sujātāḥ.

Agni, lord of light and cosmic yajna of evolution, those people of pure and dedicated soul who serve you, lord of purity, for three years with oblations of ghr̥ta in yajna would justify their name with fame and yajnic karma and also perfect their physical existence in perfect bodies reborn in happy and enlightened homes.

4. Ā rodasī brhatī vevidānāḥ pra rudriyā jabhritre yajñiyāsaḥ. Vidanmarto nemadhitā cikitvānagnim pade parame tasthivāmsam.

Dedicated yajnic souls, lovers of Rudra pranas and devotees of Rudra, lord of justice and dispensation of karma, know, reach and replenish the vast heaven and earth with the fragrance of yajna. Such a man in mortal body finds the objects of his desire and, rising to divine knowledge, attains to the beatific vision of Agni abiding in the highest state of man's spiritual experience.

5. Sañjānānā upa sīdannibhijñu patnīvanto nama-syañ namasyan. Ririkvāmsastanvaḥ kṛṇvata svāḥ sakhā sakhyurnimiṣi rakṣamānāḥ.

Knowing well the science of yajna, let men of yajna with their wives sit on their knees doing homage to the adorable Agni and to others, parents, teachers and seniors. Men of purity, they would be purifying their own bodies, and they would abide as friends protecting each other in yajnic action and protected by yajna every moment of their life.

Agni, lord of life and positive living, those devotees established in you and dedicated to yajna, who know and achieve the thrice-seven deep and secret stages of yajna and abide therein, protect and preserve thereby the immortal wealth of life. Lovers of yajna and the yajniks, protect and promote all movable and immovable wealth of life, humans and animals all.

(According to Swami Dayanand the thrice-seven are: reading, reflection and meditation across the four Vedas, knowledge, practice and industry through Dharma, universal values of life, Artha, economic and social achievement, Kama, love and emotional fulfilment, and Moksha, ultimate freedom. Another way to explain it is to refer to the threefold meaning of yajna: reverence and worship, socialisation and social service, and charity including protection and replenishment of the environment, and then apply those to the seven stages of existence: Bhuh, Bhuvah, Swah, Maha, Janah, Tapah and Satyam. This mystique of yajna is described in detail in the Brahmana works on the Veda and briefly in the Upanishads, Katha and Chhandogya specially.)

7. Vidvāñ agne vayunāni kṣitīnām vyānuṣak churudho jīvase dhāḥ. Antarvidvāñ adhvano devayānānatandro dūto abhavo havirvāt.

Agni, lord omniscient of the sciences and ways of the world, you continuously provide nourishing foods, healing herbs and means of comfort for the life and sustenance of the children of the earth. You know the divine paths of spiritual evolution between earth and heaven. Pray, be the harbinger of holy fragrance of Divinity like a prophet for us without relent or delay.

8. Svādhyo diva ā saptayahvī rāyo duro vyrtajñā ajānan. Vidad gavyaṁ saramā dr̥lhamūrvaṁ yenā nu kaṁ mānuṣī bhojate viṭ.

Men of noble thought and action, who know the seven streams of light flowing from heaven, who know the paths of Divine truth and spiritual evolution, who know the celestial doors of existential wealth and divine bliss, realise and bring to the earth all good for the cows, for the mind and senses, message of knowledge, strength and constancy, and immunity against suffering, virtues by which the human community enjoys peace, health and comfort in life.

Just as all parents abide by their children, men of noble action abide by the way of knowledge and virtue for the attainment of the nectar of salvation, the earth abides by her children with her great virtues and universal generosity, the mother abides by her children, the vast heaven abides for the support of her creations, and the sun light abides by the birds, so do I abide with life for the sake of good actions in the yajna of life.

The Immortals, realised souls with the vision of Divinity, create the beauty of knowledge, honour and happiness here on earth itself as if the light of heaven is blessing the world with its benign eyes through the divinity of Agni. Agni, like streams released from the waters of space flowing on the earth and blessing it with joy, the rays of light and flames of fire: all constantly revitalise humanity like the light of the dawn resurrecting life and nature after the cover of darkness.

Protector and promoter of truth like the bright sun, he saves from sin and evil and defends and augments all the strength and powers of humanity. Highly praised and revered like light and beauty, he knows the essences of things and traverses the right paths of life. He is kind and helpful like the very soul of the community, and like the conscience of the people he wields, supports and commands the nation in every respect. Such is the ruler.

Holding the world like the brilliant sun, ruling over the heart like a sincere friend, he closely abides by the earth. The people of the state live together in unison like young and brave children of the house living together in a blessed home. The women are pure and worthy of praise like wives dedicated to the husband. Such is the leader.

Agni, such as you are, people serve you, lighting you every day in the home in the land of peace and stability and winning ample knowledge and power, wealth and honour. Lord of universal energy, life of the world, be the treasure home and giver of the wealths of existence for all in this life in this world.

Agni, lord of light and life, may the men of wealth and power be blest with abundance of food and energy. May the brilliant men of knowledge, generous teachers, be blest with long and full age and good health. May the people engaged in economic endeavour win science and success in their battles of the people, playing their part among the brilliancies of the nation for the sake of honour and fame.

Cows yearning for their calves and overflowing with milk in the udders drink of Agni's law of nature and follow it in love. Rays of light, sharing the splendour of the sun from afar bring favours to the earth by the law of Agni. Rivers flow from the vicinity of the mountains to the far off seas by the law of Agni. Sunbeams break the cloud by the law of Agni. (So should mankind follow nature's law of generous Agni in yajna and shower love and favour on all life and the environment.)

Agni, lord of cosmic yajna, praying for will and intelligence and sharing your immanence of power and splendour, the high-priests of nature sent up their oblations into the vedi of heaven and created the night and the dawn, both different in form as flame and smoke. They filled the dark into the night and the blazing red into the dawn.

Agni, lord of cosmic yajna, praying for pious will and intelligence, the high-priests of human yajna sent up the fragrance of their oblations into heaven and realised the mystery of night and dawn, both different in form like flames and smoke arising from the vedi. They associated the dark with the night and the blazing red with the dawn.

(Note: To understand this mantra further, reference may be made to Rgveda 10, 90, Yajurveda 31 and Atharva-veda 19, 6, and 10, 8, 23.)

Agni, the mortals whom you inspire and guide for the achievement of wealth, may they all and we all be blest with wealth and honour and the favours of Divinity. Lord omnipresent, pervading the earth, the skies and the heavens, the entire universe abides with you inseparably since you are one with it as body is with the shadow and you shelter them all.

Agni, lord of light and wealth of life, we pray, under your shelter and protection, let us continuously have horses with horses, brave men with men, and heroic children with children. Inheritors of the wealth and knowledge of our ancestors, let us be good managers of our heritage and move ahead. And may men of heroic vision and wisdom give us protective guidance for hundreds of years.

May we, holding holy foods and blest by words of divine souls, be steady on our path of life and be able to conduct the management of life's wealth in proper yajnic manner.

Let all together with unanimity honour Indra, the ruler dedicated in faith and honour to the freedom and sovereignty of the Republic and the law and constitution in force under the rules of Veda, universal knowledge and universal values of humanity. Let a council of twenty assist and support him for work and stability of the government. Let hundreds of commanders obey and admire him for the success and glory of the land and the people.

Indra, lord mighty as the force of lightning, with his courage and valour breaks down and eliminates the force and power of Vrtra, demon of ignorance, injustice and poverty. Great is that manliness and virility of his. Destroyer of the forces of darkness and slavery, he releases the spirit of freshness and the waters of new life in dedication and reverence to freedom and sovereignty of the grand world order of humanity.

Indra, lord of law and the thunderbolt of strength and power, both these, the great earth and the vast environment, feel stirred with awe in reverence to your spirit and passion when you, O lord of stormy troops, with your valour and blazing brilliance, attack and destroy Vrtra, demon of darkness and want, to defend and maintain the sanctity and glory of the freedom and sovereignty of the republic.

Neither by thunder nor by lightning can Vrtra, the cloud, terrorize Indra, the sun. Similarly neither by force nor by fear can the forces of evil, injustice and violence shake Indra, the ruler, who is dedicated with faith and reverence to the freedom and self-government of the people and the republic. Instead, the thunderbolt of inviolable steel and a hundred-fold lightning blaze overwhelms this demon of destructive forces from all round.

Indra, heroic ruler, dedicated in reverence and faith to the freedom and sovereignty of the republic, when you fight Vrtra, the cloud of evil and violence, shoot the force of lightning with your thunderbolt killing the demon, then your valour and fame as killer of the serpent of evil reaches heaven and abides there.

Indra, lord ruler of the republic, dedicated to the freedom of the people and sovereignty of the state, when in the resounding fame and reverberations of your power, everything non-moving and everybody moving shines with brilliance, and the artists and technologists, Tvashtas of the nation, creators and makers of beautiful things, move with awe in homage to your spirit and passion for freedom and governance, then your dedication to the republic would be complete and wholly fulfilled.

Who would not approach Indra? We all approach and admire him. Supreme are his virtues and attributes. Who can surpass? The divinities vest in him all the wealth desired by humanity, noble yajnic action and all the valour, splendour and heroism, dedicated as he is in reverence and faith to freedom and self-government. In him and under his rule all good people are blest with wealth of knowledge, action, valour and fame.

That intelligence, knowledge and enlightenment which Atharva, men of love and settled peace, Manu, men of thought and science, Pita, parents and teachers, and men of attainment and acquisition developed and spread across the land in faith and service to the sovereign republic of the peoples' freedom and self-governance, and, like the ancients, vested in Indra, the ruler, the same multiple sciences and songs of celebration, the same intelligence, knowledge and enlightenment, you all, people of the land, acquire and develop in furtherance of the freedom and sovereignty of the republic with faith and reverence.

achievement of strength and joy of the land of freedom and self-government. And him we invoke and exhort in the battles of life, great and small, so that he may defend and advance us in all our struggles for progress and lead us to victory.

You lead the creative and generous yajamana to knowledge and power. Hero of the battles of existence, may your wealth, power and honour grow higher and higher.

Lord of abundant wealth, power and joy you are. May we, we pray, know you and be with you at the closest. Lord and master of the people, you know the very heart of them inside out. Bring us the wealth of knowledge and spirit. Restore the wealth and knowledge of those ungenerous miserables who have lost it.

O Indra, lord ruler and protector, in a horse-powered chariot the pioneer goes forward first over lands and oceans in the world, man of zeal and courage as he is, protected by all your means of safety and defence. And him you bless with abundant wealth and fame which come to him as prominent rivers from all round join and flow into the sea.

Just as holy waters go to the sea and the vapours concentrate in the cloud, so do holy people go to yajna and to Indra, lord of yajna, and as they see the yajna spread around from the vedi as shelter of life's protection, so they conduct themselves in the tradition of ancient scholars and go forward to the holiest of the holies of existence and, like the best people of knowledge, action and devotion, love the divine lord and the divine lore as the highest boon of life.

Even the loose and the wanton, under your care, find shelter and protection and grow. The gracious power of yajna creates and offers everything for the yajamana.

And then the scientists of fire and energy, leaders of mankind who light the fires and who first offer the libations into the fire with holy acts of love and peace, win their share of praise and fame with the reward of horses, speed and motion, wealth of cows, sensitivity of mind and senses and the joy of life and celestial vision.

As Atharva, scholar of sustained constancy like energy in stasis, discovers and creates the prime path of motion by yajnic research, the noble solar scientist brilliant as the sun dedicated to his vow rises in knowledge and discovers the path of the earth. Then the poetic sage prophetically inspired sings of the beauty of Venus and satellites born of the sun. And we meditate and pray for immortality of the state of moksha.

Maruts, the winds, currents of energy, tempestuous warriors of noble action, children of Rudra, lord of justice and dispensation, move on their highways and shine like graceful beauties and coursers of lightning speed. They fill the heaven and earth with their vibrations and actions for the sake of progress and expansion. Heroes of mighty power, they fight and rejoice in yajnic acts of creation and growth of life.

Maruts, children of Rudra, lord of might and justice, born of space, showerers of fertility over the earth, they win grandeur for themselves and build their home high over the skies in heaven. Worshipping the sun and creating wealth of mind and material, they shine with grace over the wealth and beauty of the mortal world.

Maruts, children of the earth, shining with noblest sciences and actions, commanding glowing health and handsomeness, bear light and grace of body and mind. They stall all their opponents in the world, and wherever they go, life's nectar, ghrta and waters flow in abundance and follow in their footsteps.

They are the heroes, Maruts, who shine with their own lustre, powers of noble yajnic action and scientific achievement who, moving at the speed of mind, shake even the unshakable with their mighty weapons, using the energy of wind, water and electricity. Ye, rulers and commanders of the forces, powerful tacticians and organisers, deploy the maruts and use the power of versatile wind, water and electricity in your cars and battle chariots.

O Maruts, heroes of the nation, when in the battle of life you apply the versatile winds and water which move the cloud to shower the rains, then the brilliant streams issue forth and cover the earth with water just as the streams of soma flow and soak the filter spread out for distillation.

Maruts, may superfast vehicles transport you here and everywhere. May the flying planes at top speed take you anywhere by the force of their arms. Come, the chamber is made ready for you. Come and be comfortable in the seats. Enjoy yourselves with honey sweets of food and drink.

They surely grow and advance by their own strength and high merit, abide in regions of bliss and expand their home whom Vishnu, lord of knowledge and science, protects while they ride a luxurious plane powered by wind and water and, seated in a beautiful and comfortable chamber, they fly like birds.

Tvashta, the expert maker of weapons, tools and instruments for defence and development, provides the thunderbolt, total infrastructure, well-done, golden and capable of countless possibilities of performance. Indra, mighty ruler, defender and creator, wields that thunderbolt and apparatus for the accomplishment of desired and planned actions in the world of humanity. He strikes Vrtra, the cloud holding waters of fertility, the resources of materials and energy, and thus releases the oceanic flow of wealth. (This is how scientific, technological and economic development of the human nation goes on for the achievement of economic prosperity, political stability and generous happiness and well-being for all. All through, the Maruts are active since they are nature's forces ever at work anywhere and everywhere.)

With their lustrous power and valour, up and high they impel the cloud holding the reservoir of water, drive it on and break it to release the flow of energy for earth's fertility. Blowing the conch, they call upon the nation and, playing the veena and burnishing their weapons, the tempestuous Maruts, commanders of Indra, generous heroes of humanity, perform delightful acts of joy and martial celebration in the midst of life's ecstasy.

Thus do the powers of beneficence come to the earth with protection and progress fulfilling the need of noble humanity with their power and potential.

By virtue of the joy of being and the sight and light of the sun, the tongue celebrates and advances the language of knowledge. Those researching and activating water and energy study the Rks and realise the knowledge and power, and then define the names, properties and yajnic uses of these in peace for progress.

The Maruts, high born, abundant and exuberant in the wealth and knowledge of nature and mind, enrich the cloud and the mountain to bear fruit and provide comfort and joy for you.

May the wind, refreshing and delightful, blow good and bring us that healthful medicinal freshness and joy. May mother earth and father sun give us that fresh lease of life. May the clouds, showers of joy, and the soma press of yajna rain down peace, health and happiness on us. O Ashvins, both nature's powers of growth, complementarity and enlightenment, innately vested with universal wisdom, listen to our prayer.

good fortune. And may Brhaspati, lord of universal knowledge and wisdom be good and bless us with knowledge, wisdom and sweet language.

Noble people dedicated to yajna, may we, by your favour and kindness see with our eyes what is good and elevating. May we, enjoying with firm and strong bodies and body parts, thanking the Lord Divine and praising the things given by Him live a full life fit for and blest by the divinities.

O Devas, powers of nature and divinity, hundred years is the proximity of our life in which are also provided the years of our old age. In that very period, our children will grow to be the fathers of their children. We pray, let not the life line of a person moving on to the hundred year mark be snapped on the way.

Heaven, the region of light, the lord of light, is eternal, imperishable. Akasha, i.e., the sky region is eternal. Mother is eternal. The father is eternal. The son is eternal. All the divinities of nature and humanity are eternal. The five orders of society are eternal. All that is born is eternal. All that is being born and will be born is eternal.

Note: Eternal, imperishable, permanent: these terms are to be understood in the context of Vedic philosophy, and not in the context of daily life. Things are eternal in two ways: essentially and existentially. God, i.e., Ishvara/Brahma, jiva/ the soul, and Prakrti, these are eternal essentially. They are there when the universe is created and they remain after the life of one creation is over at the time of pralaya, annihilation. But the things that come into existence at the time of creation, such as light, sun, sky, air, water, earth, human and other forms of life, human relations such as father, mother, son, daughter, classes of people etc., go out of existence to annihilation at the time of pralaya. And yet, at the time of the next creation, they come into existence again. Thus they come into existence and go out of existence, and this flow of existence-non existence continues for all time, eternally. This flow is eternal. This flow is called Pravaha. These things are eternal in relation to this flow of existence. They are eternal existencially. The three, God, soul and Prakrti (nature) are eternal essentially.

The lights of the dawn over there in the eastern half of the sky over earth reveal the sun and proclaim the day. Like resolute warriors burnishing their swords, the flames of the dawn, shining scarlet red, move forward with the rising sun bringing a fresh breath of life for humanity, like mother cows.

Up rise the red flames of the dawn, naturally and spontaneously like willing red horses yoked to the chariot. The ruddy lights of the dawn awakening humanity to their daily chores as before proclaim the rise of the brilliant sun in obedience to his command.

3. Arcanti nārīrapaso na viṣṭibhiḥ samānena yojanenā parāvataḥ. Iṣaṁ vahanīḥ sukṛte sudānave viśvedaha yajamānāya sunvate.

The lights of the dawn, like blessed women expert in their noble work, serve and illumine from afar with equal brilliance various regions of the world, bearing vital food and rejuvenating energy for the pious and generous yajamana dedicated to the creative service of life and nature everywhere every day.

Just as a dancer puts on various costumes and characters and just as a cow waxes its udders full of milk for the calf, so does the dawn assume many forms and bares her bosom of light to illuminate the whole world with lights as the flames dispel the darkness from all places reaching there as cows reach their stalls.

The brilliant light of the dawn arises in the east, radiates and expands, it stalls and dispels the deep dark of the night. And just as an artist decorates a yajnic post in great congregations so, adorning the wondrous sun as an ornament of light, this daughter of heaven reveals the glory of the sun.

6. Atāriṣma tamaspāramasyoṣā ucchantī vayunā kṛṇoti. Śrīye chando na smayate vibhātī supratīkā saumanasāyājīgaḥ.

At the rise of the dawn, we cross this dark of the night. Rising and radiating, the brilliant dawn awakens us to the bright business of the day. Like the joyous hymns of the Veda for the beauty, prosperity and graces of life, it smiles, shining, consumes the darkness and, itself beautiful of form, it reveals the beauties of the world for our refreshment and rejuvenation.

Brilliant and radiating, inspiring the devotees of truth and piety, the Dawn, daughter of light, is celebrated by divine scholars. So do I sing in honour of her. She brings over the foods, energies, inspirations and noble aspirations and battles of action which lead to awakening of family people and leaders of men to speed of advancement, planning for land and cows, human development and family management.

O Dawn, daughter of sunlight, divine and charming, who shine with the morning splendour of action and glory of fame and generosity, I pray, with your inspiration and initiation, may I be blessed with that great growing and highest wealth of life which is full of honour, maintained by brave heroes and multitude of manpower, and characterized by speed, advancement and achievement.

Dawn, brilliant daughter of light and heaven, eye of the eye, watching all the regions of the world, shines and moves to the west in relation to the earth, awakening all the forms of life to daily activities, speaking as if and inspiring the language of the people of thought and imagination.

Old and ancient, born and reborn again and again, ever a new, the Brilliant Dawn, shining in glory with the same refulgence of beauty, an artificer of eternity consuming time today and tomorrow collects the stakes at play and counts out the age of mortals day by day.

The Dawn wakes up, illuminating and revealing the bounds of heaven and expanse of the sky, and constantly dispels her sister, the dark night. Wearing away and counting out the ages of humanity, she shines by the light of the sun like a maiden blooming and blushing at the sight of her admirer.

Wonderful and glorious, waxing like animals spreading and roaming around out of the stalls, like a river in spate and like swell of the sea, the Dawn radiates and expands over the expanse of the earth. Transgressing no laws of Nature and holy observances of Truth, shining with the rays of the sun, she reveals herself to our eyes.

Of these, Matarishva, electric energy that rolls in space, derives from and holds another, i.e., the subtle energy from the sun in heaven. And Agni, moving like a celestial horse at the speed of light, holds the other, that is, the subtle Soma, from the sun and the cloud.

Agni Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. *Imam stomamarhate jātavedase rathamiva sam

This song of celebration and worship in honour of venerable Jataveda, Agni, omnipresent in the created world and lord omniscient, we sing in praise of his glory with our mind and soul in sincerity and offer it to him as a joyous holiday chariot fit for his majesty. Blessed is our mind in his company, while we sit in the assembly of devotees.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, we pray, may we never come to suffering while we enjoy your company and friendship.

2. Yasmai tvamāyajase sa sādhatyanarvā kṣeti dadhate suvīryam. Sa tūtāva nainamaśnotyañ-hatiragne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayan tava.

Agni, whoever you bless grows in strength and competence. He lives and moves undisturbed, irresistible, wins power and valour, and rises to greatness and prosperity. Want, anxiety and poverty touch him never. Agni, we pray, we may never suffer want and misery while we enjoy your friendship and company.

3. Śakema tvā samidhañ sādhayā dhiyastve devā haviradantyāhutam. Tvamādityāñ ā vaha tān hyuśmasyagne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayan tava.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, we pray, may we be able to kindle and develop the fire power of yajna. Pray refine our intelligence and bless us with success in our intellectual endeavours. Whatever we offer in yajna, the divinities receive and share. Bring over the scholars of the highest order of brilliance and realise the light of the stars on earth. We love them, honour and cherish them. Agni, we pray, may we never suffer any want or misery in your company.

Lighting the fire, observing and learning step by step, yajna by yajna, the full and fuller preparation, we collect the fuel and create the inputs of yajna for Agni. Agni, lord of light and fire, refine our mind and intelligence to be more subtle and sophisticated for the sake of better and better life. Agni, we pray we may never suffer a set back or loss of success while we are in your company.

Agni is people's protector. By the rays of this Agni's light, living creatures, bipeds such as humans, quadrupeds such as cows, and others move around days and nights.

Agni, various and brilliant you are, greater than the dawn and the days. Lord of light and action, may we never suffer misery in your company and friendship.

You are the high priest and the yajamana, ancient and eternal, of the yajna of creation. Teacher and ruler, sanctifier, invoked and worshipped since creation and manifestation, omniscient leading priest of creation, lord of universal knowledge, constant and imperishable, you nourish all. Lord, we pray, may we never suffer under your protection.

Agni, you are the lord who are universally beatific of form and constant of eye. You may be far off, yet you awfully blaze like the explosion of lightning. Even in the darkness of the night you shine and see and reveal things for all. Lord of light and revelation, we pray, may we never suffer ignorance and misery but ever enjoy your company and friendship.

Scholars of science and technology, may the chariot of the man of yajnic project be the first and foremost, the same as ours, so admirable, yet difficult for the ill-intentioned even to understand. Therefore, know the word, the secret of it, feed it with more research and knowledge, grow and let us grow too. Agni, lord of light, power and speed, may we never suffer any misery, injury or onslaught from anywhere under your friendship and protection.

With punishments and even with the thunderbolt, strike away, even eliminate, the despicable, evil intentioned and those who are enemies of the society whether they be far away or lurking close by. Clear the path for the dedicated who chant and work in faith for the yajna of development and progress. Agni, lord of light, knowledge and progress, may we never suffer any set back, injury or defeat under your guidance and friendship.

10. Yadayukthā aruṣā rohitā rathe vātajūtā vṛṣabhasyeva te ravaḥ. Ādinvasi vanino dhūmaketunā'gne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayaṁ tava.

Agni, lord of light and nature's power, when you yoke, employ and ignite the red and fiery power at the speed of wind for your chariot, your roar is like the thunder of clouds. You cover the forest trees with grey smoke and leave it behind like the trail of a shooting star. Agni, lord of knowledge, power and speed, may we never suffer any mishap or injury under your power and friendship.

When on the roar of the chariot the birds fly in fright, when the flames of fire shake the grass and rise to the optimum, then the path is clear for the flight of your chariots. Agni, lord of light, fire and flight, may we never suffer any set-back or mishap under your power, guidance and friendship but fly on and on.

This Agni is the power for the support of Mitra and Varuna, friends and the best people among humanity. It is also the awful terror of the Maruts, forces of defence and justice, against the people of anti-human values. Lord of light, justice and generosity, such as you are, be kind and gracious and a source of peace and joy to the mind of these good and law-abiding people. We pray that we may not suffer any want and misery under your guidance and control as friends.

Agni, lord of light and peace, you are the divinest of divinities, a friend of friends most wonderful. You are the shelter of shelters for all and the treasure of all treasures. In your vastest and supreme order of yajnic existence, we pray, we may enjoy perfect peace of mind and soul. May we never face any suffering or misery under your rule of friendship, gracious as you are.

Agni, lord of light and grace, it is the highest blessing of yours that, self-lighted and self-manifested in your own house, this house of existence of your own creation, worshipped with oblations of soma in yajna, you spontaneously become gracious to bless the admiring devotee and bestow jewels and wealths of the world upon the generous yajamana. Lord of generosity, we pray, we may never suffer any misery of poverty for the body, mind and soul under the control of your grace and friendship.

Lord of wealth and generosity, we pray, bless us with that same wealth and good fortune.

and giver of all good fortune, honour and glory of life, give us a happy and full life here and let it thrive and prosper. The same may Mitra, prana energy, Varuna, udana energy, Aditi, Mother Nature, the sea, the earth, the heaven and the skies support, strengthen and promote. The same, lord Agni, giver of life, bless and let us cross the seas of existence with grace divine.

Night and day, two different forms of nature, two divisions of time, two different states of Agni, one direct, the other reflected, move on with their priest-like task. Both, co-existent and continuous but separately, like two women, feed and nurse each other's child as their own. In one, the night, the moon grows on with its inherent character of beauty, peace and bliss, while the sun in the other, the day, blazes with light and fire, pure, immaculate, glorious. The sun sleeps at night and the moon sleeps in the day.

2. Daśemaṁ tvaṣṭurjanayanta garbham atandrāso yuvatayo vibhrtram. Tigmanīkaṁ svayaśasaṁ janeṣu virocamaṇaṁ pari ṣīm nayanti.

Ten directions of space, young and unaging, and ever-vigilant, create, produce and manifest this sun, child of Tvashta, Vayu, cosmic energy. It is of versatile action and purpose and sustains the various forms of existence. It is blazing and beautiful, self-refulgent with inherent glory, glowing and showing among the people, and the same directions move it around for the accomplishment of the tasks of creation.

3. Trīṇi jānā pari bhūṣantyaśya samudra ekaṁ divyamekamapsu. Pūrvāmanu pra diśaṁ pārthivānāmṛtūn praśasadvī dadhavanuṣṭhu.

Three manifestations of this Agni shine in nature, space and time, the womb of the universe: one is in the oceans, another one is in the heavenly region of light, and yet another is in the waters in the middle region. Accordingly, it creates and controls the seasons in relation to the sun and earth and, in relation to the earth and her people, it creates the directions such as east and others.

4. Ka imaṁ vo niṇyamā ciketa vatso mātṛjanayat svadhābhiḥ. Bahvīnāṁ garbho apasāmupasthān mahān kavirniścarati svadhāvān.

Who among you could know this mysterious nursling of the day and night, the sun born of Agni and Vayu, cosmic energy, who creates its own mothers, the day and the night? It is the creature of many forces of nature and itself the womb of many, being the measure of physical time and creator of the directions of space. Great, visionary, and innately powerful, it moves on and across the regions of water and air in space.

5. Āviṣṭyo vardhate cārurāsu jihmānāmūrdhvaḥ svayaśā upasthe. Ubhe tvaṣṭurbibhyaturjāyāmānāt praṭīcī sinhaṁ prati joṣayete.

Having entered these directions of space and the objects therein, it grows and expands. Present within the oblique and wavy motions of wind, air and the rays of light, it rises above by its own power. On the rise of the sun, the day and night split up as if out of fear. The same split marks the west. And yet the night and day again nurse the hero of light as a favourite hero.

6. Ubhe bhadre joṣayete na mene gāvo na vāsrā upa tasthurevaiḥ. Sa dakṣāṇām dakṣapatirbabhūvāñjanti yaṁ dakṣiṇato havirbhiḥ.

Both night and day, noble and loving, nurse and serve the sun, Agni, just as lowing cows stay by the calves with all their love and care. Of those dedicated experts of yajna who serve Agni with oblations, he rises above all who offers the oblations from the south.

7. Ud yamyamīti saviteva bāhū ubhe sicau yatate bhīma ṛñjan. Ucchukramatkam ajate simasmā-nnavā mātṛbhyo vasanā jahāti.

As the sun, this Agni raises its rays upward as two arms continuously and, growing awful and blazing, it joins both the horizons, brightening them both together. All round it radiates its light as if it offers new clothes to its mothers, the day and the night or the heaven and earth which hold the light in their lap.

8. Tveṣaṁ rūpaṁ kṛṇuta uttaraṁ yat saṁpṛñcānaḥ sadane gobhiradbhiḥ. Kavirbudhnam pari mar-mṛjyate dhīḥ sā devatātā samitirbabhūva.

When Agni, sunlight, assumes a brighter and higher form mixing the rays of light and vapours of water in its own region, then, shining as lord of celestial light and vision, it purifies the sky, elevates intelligence and refines knowledge and science, and that state of intelligence and knowledge is divinely pious and supreme.

9. Uru te jrayaḥ paryeti budhnam virocamānaṁ mahiṣasya dhāma. Viśvebhiragne svayaśobhird-dho'dabdhebhiḥ pāyubhiḥ pāhyasmān.

Agni, mighty as the sun, the vast expanse of your sphere travels and reaches across and over the bright regions of the skies. Bright and blazing with all your own powers and irresistible modes of protection, protect and promote us.

Agni as electric power and vital heat of life creates paths over the deserts and in the skies, makes waterways to flow with rippling waves, and with bright rays of light illuminates the earth. It creates all the foods and vitalities for the internal organs of the living body systems and vibrates in all the new and upcoming forms of nature and human generations.

These, O Agni, light, life and vitality of the world of existence, pure and purifying, treasure and dispenser of universal wealth, growing by fuel and making us grow, pray shine and illuminate us with nourishments, light and honour. Thus also may Mitra and Varuna, sun and air and pranic energies, the skies, the sea and the earth, and the light of heaven and the electric energy of Agni may shine and make us shine.

1. Sa pratnathā sahasā jāyamānaḥ sadyaḥ kāvyāni baḷadhata viśvā. Āpaśca mitraṁ dhiṣaṇā ca sādhan devā agniṁ dhārayan draviṇodām.

That is Agni, light and fire of life, instantly rising as ever with power and force for the devotee. He bears the strength, vision and wisdom of the world and helps the dedicated person to realise the values of life with waters, energy, intelligence and friendship in the society. The devas, divinities of nature and humanity dedicate themselves to Him, lord giver of universal wealth, and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

2. Sa pūrvayā nividā kavyatāyorimāḥ prajā ajanya manūnām. Vivasvatā cakṣasā dyāmapaśca devā agniṁ dhārayan draviṇodām.

With the ancient and eternal poetry of omniscience and from the eternal cause, He, the lord of light, creates these children of Manus, men of thought and vision. And with the brilliant light of the sun, he creates the regions of light and waters and others such as the earth. The devas, divinities of nature and the noblest of humanity, hold on to him and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation, universal giver as He is.

3. Tamīlata prathamam yajñasādham viśa ārīrāhutam ṛñjasānam. Ūrjaḥ putraṁ bharataṁ sṛpradānum devā agniṁ dhārayan draviṇodām.

O grateful and dynamic people, serve and worship Him, Agni, first and highest of existence, invoked and loved with homage through yajna, visualised and realised through vision and discrimination, manifested in energy and products of energy, sustainer of all and inspiring all with knowledge. Devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, hold on to Him and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation, universal giver as He is.

4. Sa mātariśvā puruvārapuṣṭirvidad gātum tana-yāya svarvit. Viśām gopā janitā rodasyordevā agniṁ dhārayan draviṇodām.

He, Agni, is Matarishva, universal breath of life replete in the middle regions of space. He is the inexhaustible treasure-home of energy and nourishment. He revealed the Holy Word of the Veda for His child, the humanity. He is the giver of light and happiness. He is the protector of the people and creator of heaven and earth and the skies. Devas, divinities of nature and humanity, worship Him, universal and generous creator and giver of wealth, and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

The night and the day both of different light and form like two nursing mothers together feed the same one child. The child, Agni, the sun, pervades and shines in heaven and over earth. The devas serve and worship Agni, giver of universal wealth, and move on bearing the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

Agni is the foundation and magic mantra of wealth and power. It is the companion of the Vasus, sustainers of life such as the earth, and our guide to achieve them. It is the flag-post and light-house to the yajnic projects of life, and means to the fulfilment of cherished desires. The seekers of immortality and protectors of eternal values hold on to this giver of universal wealth and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

7. Nū ca purā ca sadanaṁ rayīṇāṁ jātasya ca jāyamānasya ca kṣām. Sataśca gopāṁ bhavataśca bhūrerdevā agniṁ dhārayan draviṇodām.

Agni is the new as well as the old and eternal cause and the haven and home of all the material wealth of the created universe already born and what is continuously being born. It is the holder, sustainer and protector of the constant and the mutable forms of the vast creation. The devas, divinities of nature and humanity, hold on to Agni in faith and maintain the fire of yajna from generation to generation, giver of universal wealth as It is.

8. Draviṇodā draviṇasasturasya draviṇodāḥ sanarasya pra yaṁsat. Draviṇodā vīravatīmi-ṣaṁ no draviṇodā rāsate dīrghamāyuh.

Agni, universal creator and giver of universal and omnipresent wealth, may, we pray, grant us the wealth of knowledge and piety. The creator and giver of social wealth may, we pray, grant us our share of material wealth. The creator and giver of food and energy may, we pray, grant us the food and energy which gives rise to a community of heroes. The creator and giver of life and health may, we pray, grant us our full share of life and age with health and plenty.

9. Evā no agne samidhā vṛdhāno revat pāvaka śravase vi bhāhi. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahantāmaditiḥ sindhuḥ pṛthivī uta dyauh.

Thus may Agni, lord of wealth, pure and purifying, flaming and growing with fuels and oblations, shine for our honour and fame. And may Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the air and pranic energies, Aditi, the sky, the sea, the earth and the light of heaven, bless us with health, wealth, knowledge and piety.

May we abide in the pleasure and good will of Vaishvanara Agni, ruler of humanity and indeed the spirit and vitality of all life on earth. The ruling power, for sure, is the order, beauty and grace of the world, the real wealth and life of existence. Born of the original cause, Prakṛti, and manifesting here, this Agni shows this world and acts in unison with the sun and prana.

It is sanctified: sanctified as light in heaven, as heat in fire, as energy in earth, as vitality in all the herbs in which it has entered. Vaishvanara Agni, sanctified and replete with strength, energy and courage, may, we pray, protect us against hate, enmity and negativity day and night, both in the waking and in the sleeping state.

For the sake of Jatavedas Agni, lord omnipresent and omniscient of creation, we love and respect the abundant things of the world and, in a spirit of thanks to Him, distil every drop of soma joy from it. Indeed, He burns off the easy wealth of those who are jealous, hateful, ungrateful and wasteful. Just as a boatman helps us cross the river by boat, so does the omnipresent lord help us cross all the evils and the most difficult problems of life.

With his left hand he overcomes even the strong oppositions, and with the right he holds and secures the fruits of his success. With his acts of success and assessment, he manages and distributes the wealth of the nation. May he, commander of the Maruts, be our protector for freedom and progress.

He shares the wealth of the nation with the farming people in the villages, warriors of the chariot, and all sections of the people without exception, and thus he faces and overcomes all shades of criticism and opposition with the strength of his body, mind and soul and his noble actions for the sake of mutual confidence and understanding for harmony. May he, commander of the Maruts, be our protector for progress and prosperity in unison and freedom.

When invoked and called upon by many, Indra goes to battle with his friends, opponents and the indifferent ones with all his might and main, he fights at his best for victory for the future generations of sons and grandsons of the nation. May Indra, commander of the Maruts, be our leader and defender for our protection and progress.

Indra is the wielder of the force of the thunderbolt, destroyer of the wicked, fierce, passionate, knowledgeable of a hundred things and problems, versatile with a hundred plans and policies, mighty, concentration of the force of armies as the centre of yajna congregations, manager of all the five communities with his power and intelligence. May be, commander of the Maruts, he our ruler and protector for freedom and progress.

The thunderbolt of Indra is vocal and effective appropriately: It is a call to action for the warrior, roar of terror for the wicked, soothing shower of rain for the generous, blaze of the sun for the hero, song of the cuckoo for the artist, and whirring of the wheels for the industrious. Varieties of wealth abound in him, streams of generosity flow from him. May Indra, commander of the Maruts, be our leader and protector on way to progress and prosperity in peace with freedom.

May he, lord of Maruts, be our protector and saviour.

Indra, lord of power and prosperity, this is that song of praise which the children of divine voice alongwith friends and companions sing as a gift of love and homage for the lord of eternal prosperity and infinite generosity: they are Rjirashvas, sages of simple thought and honest conduct, Ambarisha, scholar of holy word and knowledge, Sahadeva, who loves to be with lovers of divinity, Bhayamana, who fears the Divine and whom the wicked and the crooked fear, and Suradha, man of honest wealth and versatile genius.

May Indra, lord of power, justice and knowledge be the supreme speaker and adviser for us. Let us too, simple, straight and honest in thought, action and material support, cooperate with him. And we pray: May Mitra, the sun and human powers of friendship, Varuna, powers of justice worthiest of choice, the sky, the seas, the earth and the heavens bless and promote this union of ours with success.

May this union last for all time!

1. Pra mandine pitumadarcatā vaco yaḥ kṛṣṇa-garbhā nirahannrjīśvanā. Avasyavo vṛṣaṇam vajradakṣiṇam marutvantam sakhyāya havāmahe.

All ye men and women of the earth, offer words of welcome and hospitality to joyous Indra, lord giver of the power of knowledge, who, in a simple natural manner, breaks open the secret treasures of the dark womb of nature and makes the streams of knowledge flow. We, seekers of protection and knowledge, invoke Indra, lord of light and power, rich and generous, expert in the use of the thunderbolt of knowledge against the demon of darkness, and commander of the tempestuous Maruts of social dynamics, and we pray for his love and friendship.

For friendship and support, we invoke Indra, lord of justice, power and generosity, commander of the Maruts, tempestuous guarding soldiers of humanity, Indra who, with overwhelming passion and righteousness breaks the shoulders of Vṛtra, dark demonic cloud of hoarded vapours, and releases the showers of rain, who destroys the selfish Shambara and Pipru, undisciplined demons of social unrighteousness, and who overthrows the mighty but callous and voracious eater of the nation's wealth who causes a drought and famine of the people's resources for life and progress.

For love, friendship and support, we invoke and pray to Indra, omnipotent lord of the Maruts who post across the universe and maintain the kingdom. Mighty is the force in his Law of Dharma for nature and humanity. The heaven and the moon in their orbits move as fixed by Law. The seas roll and rivers flow in accordance with the Law. (We pray, help us, lord, to follow the Law and enjoy the divine grace.)

For our protection, friendship and support, we invoke and pray to Indra, lord ruler of the universe and humanity. He is the lord of horses. He is the lord of cows and controller of the moving earths and fluctuating mind and senses. Ever conscious and wide-awake, he is constant and active in every act and every movement that happens in nature and humanity. Mighty powerful is he, friend of the pious, and the very stroke of death for the selfish uncreators and violators of yajna.

Indra is the lord ruler, controller and sustainer of all the moving and breathing universe. He is the first, creator manifestive in expanding space who created the mind and senses and the moving earths for the living creatures. He is the lord of law and justice who throws down the wicked to the darkest caverns. We invoke and pray to Indra, lord of Maruts, for our protection and support as his dear ones and friends.

Indra is invoked and worshipped by the brave, and he is called upon by the timid as well as by the fearless, and he is called upon by the victors as well as by those who flee. Him, all people and worlds in existence hold at the centre of their being. That Indra, lord of Maruts, we invoke for support, sustenance and friendship.

Lord of intelligence, Indra, acts by the paths of Rudras, that is, Maruts, powers of law and dispensation and the process of formation and reformation. With the Rudras, waves of Maruts' energy, the dawn expands the lights of the day. Intelligence and mind invoke the famous powers of Indra, waves of Maruts, as they act in thought. That Indra, lord of the Maruts' motion and energy in space, we invoke for support as divine friend and benefactor for progress and prosperity.

Lord of light and the power of joy, come to our yajna of the will to live, and come well, happy and rejoicing. We are your own, lord of real wealth of success and giver of bliss. We are ready with holy and fragrant yajnic havi.

Divine harbinger of universal wealth, let us create the means and materials of yajnic living with you. And then, lord of all-competence, allies and equipment, come with the Maruts, lightning carriers of fragrance, join, enjoy, and bless us on the holy seats of grass in the yajna.

Lord of noble helmet, let your horses of the speed of lightning transport you hither. Come to us and, in a mood of love and ecstasy, celebrate and bless our gifts of action and homage in our yajna of life.

May Mitra, universal friend, Varuna, our choice lord of justice and dispensation, the sun and moon, congregations of the learned, the rolling seas and flowing rivers, mother earth and generous skies, and the bright heavens help us in that yajnic mission.

I hold on to this great and adorable knowledge and wisdom of yours, Indra, which, loud and bold, is revealed in this divine song of yours in praise. That mighty lord Indra of valour and courage, the noblest leaders and teachers of humanity celebrate with all their might and wisdom in all yajnic projects for the expansion and elevation of human life and culture. In consequence, they too enjoy themselves and feel blest.

Him, the men of admiration invoke for company and protection.

Indra, lord of might and power, more than hundred, more than most, more than thousand exceeds your fame and power among the people. Great is your intelligence and action and noble is your voice which makes you shine immensely more than brilliant. And then you break the clouds of rain for the showers and rout the strongholds of the hoarders.

Indra, Nṛpati, lord of the people and ruler of the world, in you, threefold is the existence of elements such as earth, water, fire, air and space, of the order of matter, motion and mind (sattva, rajas and tamas). You are the measure of omnipotence. Three are the regions of space, heaven, sky and earth. Three are the orders of heat and light, vaishvanara fire in earth, taijasa electric energy in the sky and Aditya light in heaven. O lord, Indra, you transcend this entire universe, and by nature since eternity you are without an enemy, contrariety and contradiction.

In the battles of the elements and conflicts of humanity, you are the unmoved victor. Lord Indra as you are, in our yajna of life for progress and prosperity, we pray, advance our chariot made of earthly materials to the front and raise our technologist maker and respected worker close at hand among us to high status.

In all the battles great and small, we invoke you, lord of power and passion, for protection and advancement, deplete the enemies and glorify you. Then, lord, inspire us in our yajnic programmes for joint progress and universal prosperity.

And may we, obedient and protected, straight and simple, offer him homage, support and perfect service. We pray, may Mitra and Varuna, sun and shower, Aditi, saints and skies, Sindhu, rolling seas and rippling rivers, the earth and heaven protect and promote this holy programme of ours.

1. Tat ta indriyaṃ paramaṃ parācairadhārayanta kavayaḥ puredam. Kṣamedamanyad divyanyadasya samī prcyate samaneva ketuḥ.

That glory of yours, lord, which is supreme and eternal, which is essential, subtle and mysterious, and this which is actual and existential, the poets of vision and imagination realise by its manifestations. Of this glory of Indra, this which is on earth is one and distinct, and the other which is in heaven is distinct and another. The two mingle in form and mature as one just as two parties meet in the assembly, each with its identity, and become one community.

Indra, lord of light and power, like the sun, with his actions, i.e., waves of gravitation, holds the earth and manifests its vast expanse. Striking the electric thunderbolt of his energy, he constantly creates the waters of space. He breaks the cloud formed in the Rohini constellation, striking over its shoulders and releases the showers of rain on earth.

3. Sa jātūbharmā śraddadhāna ojaḥ puro vibhindannacarad vi dāsīḥ. Vidvān vajrin dasyave hetimasya'ryam saho vardhayā dyumnamin dra.

Indra, lord of knowledge and wielder of the thunderbolt, sustainer of all that is born, faithful and valourous, routing the strongholds of evil, roams around. Heroic Indra, having struck the thunderbolt on the wicked, develops wealth and valour for the noble ones.

4. Tadūcuṣe mānuṣemā yugāni kīrtenyaṁ maghavā nāma bibhrat. Upaprayan dasyuhat-yāya vajrī yaddha sūnuḥ śravase nāma dadhe.

Surely that honour and fame for actions, the lord of power and wealth, Indra, maintains for the admirers for ages of human memory, which he, wielder of the thunderbolt, of omnipotence, achieves in action for the sake of wealth and fame while he advances for the destruction of the evil and the wicked.

5. Tadasyedaṁ paśyatā bhuri puṣṭaṁ śradindrasya dhattana vīryāya. Sa gā avindat so avindadaśvān tsa oṣadhīḥ so apaḥ sa vanāni.

Watch the mighty action, this great achievement of this lord Indra and take it on with conviction for the attainment of honour, fame and valour. He develops lands and cows. He acquires horses and develops modes of transport and communication. He develops herbs and trees, creates waters and develops water resources, and he creates all kinds of wealth and expands the forests.

6. Bhūrikarmanē vṛṣabhāya vṛṣṇe satyaśuṣmāya sunavāma somam. Ya ādr̥tyā paripanthīva śūro'-yajvano vibhajanneti vedah.

We create wealth and distil the soma-joy of life for Indra, lord of abundant action, brave, generous and truly brilliant. Heroic and fearless, he respects the wise and, like a detective, uncovers the black money of the hoarders, shares it with the community and moves on.

7. Tadindra preva vīryam cakartha yat sasantam vajreṇābodhayo'him. Anu tvā patnīrhr̥ṣitam vayaśca viśve devāso amadannanu tvā.

Indra, joyous hero, you show your prowess then when you take on the sleeping cloud with the thunderbolt. And then the house-wives, the wise seniors, and all the noble pious people rejoice with you.

8. Śuṣṇam pipuṁ kuryavam vṛtramindra yadāva-dhīrvi puraḥ śambarasya. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahantām aditiḥ sindhuḥ pr̥thivī uta dyauḥ.

Indra, when you break down Vrtra, the mighty cloud which can raise green fields of barley and create prosperity for the farmers, and when you shatter the deep caverns of Shambara, the dark cloud pregnant with vapour as if destroying the formidable forts of an enemy, then Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the oceans, Aditi, the sky, the rivers, the earth and heaven rise and inspire us with reverence and faith.

1. Yoniṣṭa indra niṣade akāri tamā ni ṣīda svāno nārvā. Vimucyā vayo'vasāyāśvān doṣā vastorva-hīyasah prapitve.

Indra, this seat of high office is prepared and reserved for you. Come, take it, rejoicing as a victorious knight of horse. Come post-haste to join for refreshments and holy food, leaving behind the birds, horses and the celestial carriers of the night and day.

2. O tye nara indramūtaye gurnū cit tāt tsadyo adhvano jagamyāt. Devāso manyuṁ dāsasya ścamnan te na ā vakṣan tsuvitāya varṇam.

Those people who approach Indra for protection and pray for advancement, he leads, all of them, by the right path at once and always. May the devas, noblest powers of nature and humanity, allaying the passion and fear of the demon of opposition, open the path of progress and bless us with inspiration and guidance for onward movement and protection.

3. Ava tmanā bharate ketavedā ava tmanā bharate phenamudan. Kṣīreṇa snātaḥ kuyavasya yoṣe hate te syātām pravaṇe śiphāyāḥ.

The clever financier carries away the wealth of others for his heart's desire. He syphons away the nation's wealth down to the scum with a passion and wallows in the milky waters of his bath. But bathed and anointed with milk, like the rival mistresses of a swindler both dying of violent jealousy, he would drown in the whirlpool of the flood of his own creation.

The life-string of the people's energy, like the centre of the waters of the cloud, is implicit and hidden. And just as the sun breaks open the energy of the cloud with its rays and shines, so does Indra, the ruler, with the people themselves, release that energy and shines as a hero. And then, just as the straight and rapid, brilliant rivers fed by the heroic Indra, collecting streams of water, full to over flowing, move on, so the people, dynamic and brilliant, protected and guided by the heroic ruler, grow to their full capacity and, creating and collecting wealth and power, move on their way.

Seen is the path, the people know: like the one to the house of the robber and that which leads to the house of the good in full knowledge. Indra, lord of wealth and power, take us not away from the path of good action, throw us not away like the wealth of a wastour.

Indra, lord ruler of light and power, give us the brilliance of the sun. Give us the coolness and plenty of waters. Establish us firmly in sinlessness for a full life of joy. Pray do not hurt our people, they are worthy of protection. We are dedicated in faith to you for the sake of wealth and prosperity.

And I believe in you. We have reposed full faith in you for this life of joy. Great lord of strength and generosity, inspire us to achieve great wealth and honour. Honoured and invoked by many, O lord, do not deliver us, our life and descendants, unto an ignoble state of existence. Indra, provide ample food and soma drink for the hungry and thirsty.

Indra, destroy us not, deliver us not unto aliens. Deprive us not of our cherished dreams and desires. Lord of great action and power, wealth and honour, destroy not the future in the womb. Neglect not those who deserve, let them not be lost in oblivion. Alienate not our brethren, descendants and traditions.

Indra, come right here and now. They say you love soma. Distilled is the soma of life's joy, drink of it to your fill for the bliss of life. Lord of great honour and universal reverence, invoked by all with love in faith, listen to our prayers as a father and shower the rains of bliss.

The moon glides in the middle regions of Antariksha in the midst of waters and pranic energies. So does the sun of wondrous rays run fast in the heaven of light. But the golden-rimmed flashes of lightning reveal themselves not to your state of consciousness. May the heaven and earth know the secret of this mystery and reveal it to men, the ruler and the people.

Those who love things of value get the thing they cherish just as a wife fascinates her husband she loves. They vitalise the fluent waters of life, distil the soma of ecstasy and giving themselves up to the spirit of life, taste the nectar of existence. O heaven and earth, know the secret of this mystery of love and life and reveal it for me.

O divinities of life and nature, may that ecstasy and bliss of our life never fall below the top of heaven. May we never suffer frustration in vacuum of the peace and joy of the soma of existence. Heaven and earth, know the secret and mystery of living in the state of bliss and reveal it to me for all, the ruler as well as the ruled.

Lord of knowledge, you are the harbinger of truth and the message of Divinity. I ask you of that supreme yajna of life's protection and promotion which sustains existence. Where is that eternal water and law of life hidden or gone? Who at the present time observes that same ancient and eternal yajna and law of life, and how? May the heaven and earth know and reveal the truth for us.

O lords of knowledge, who or what are those divine powers of existence abiding in the light of heaven by their name, identity and state of being in the three regions of the universe? Where is the law of cosmic dynamics of evolution? What is truth and what is untruth? What is eternal and constant? What is existential and mutable? What was the first mutation of Prakṛti in the cosmic yajna? What is going to be the last and closing oblation in the cosmic vedi? May the heaven and earth know and reveal it for us.

O divinities of existence, what and where is the ultimate cause of the original life and law, what is that omnipotence? What and where is that omniscient all-seeing eye that watches the created forms and their karmic movement? What and where is that awful path of the great sun by which we may comprehend and cross the challenges of existence? May the heaven and earth know of this and reveal the knowledge to me.

I am the same who chant some songs of Vedic adoration at the dawn of the cosmic yajna of the Divine. And yet the loves and cares of existence overwhelm me as a wolf pounces upon a deer thirsting for life and existence. What is this mystery? May the heaven and earth know and reveal it to me!

The knives and sickles of life all round cut into my vitals as rival mistresses consume the lover's heart and soul. Just as mice eat up the warp and woof of cloth in the making, so do the cares of life eat away the original wealth of me who am, in reality, your admirer and worshipper, O Lord of a hundred yajnas of the universe. What is this mystery? Let heaven and earth reveal it to me.

The self-realised soul who knows the time past, present and future upon the instant knows that and proclaims for the realisation of universal brotherhood of souls. May the heaven and earth know and reveal the secret of this universal brotherhood for me.

They are simultaneous, coexistent and worthy of being researched, analysed and explained by and to the noblest of generous scholars. The rivers flow and the sea rolls the waters while the sun creates and expands the vapours and again sucks up the vapours. This mysterious cycle may the heaven and earth know and reveal to us.

We pray may new and newer facts of nature and divine law arise. May heaven and earth know and reveal the knowledge to us.

And may Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the moon, Aditi, the sky, the river and the sea, the earth and heaven strengthen our resolve and advance us on way to freedom and bliss.

Come, devotees of knowledge and wisdom and leaders of noble action, and drink of it to your heart's content.

O Rbhus, leaders of science and commanders of the forces, create and refine the wealth of the nation for us. Create speed and power for the chariot, and strength and speed for movement and transport. Create and heighten our capacity for victory and advancement over the challenging enemy known or unknown, equal or unequal, in the battles of life.

I invoke Indra, lord of glory and master friend of the Rbhus, for protection and progress. I invoke the Rbhus, experts of the art of living and creator of the beauty of life. I invoke these pioneers of intelligence, Vajas, leaders of knowledge and power, and the Maruts, spirits and forces of tempestuous movement forward. I call upon them all for protection, promotion and enjoyment of the beauty, wealth and excitement of life. May Mitra, spirit of love and friendship, Varuna, light of excellence, and surely both the Ashvins, complementary currents of divine energy, inspire and exhilarate us for wealth and dignity, intelligence and passion for victory in the struggle for progress in spiritual evolution.

Usha Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

इ॒दं श्र॑ष्टं॒ ज्योति॑षां॒ ज्योति॑रागा॒च्चि॒त्रः प॑क॒ता अ॑जनिष्ट॒ विभ्वा॑ ।

1. Idaṁ śreṣṭhaṁ jyotiṣāṁ jyotirāgāccitraḥ praketo ajaniṣṭa vibhvā . Yathā prasūtā savituḥ savāyaṇ Evā rātryuṣase yonimāraik.

Here comes this dawn, light of lights, supreme, wonderful, bright and enlightening, rising and expanding. Just as the night comes over for regeneration of the sun, so does it uncover the womb of darkness for the coming of dawn.

रुशद्वत्सा रुशती श्वत्यागादारंगु कृष्णा सदनान्यस्याः ।

2. Ruśadvatsā ruśatī śvetyāgādāraigu kṛṣṇā sadanā-nyasyāḥ. Samānabandhū amṛte anūcī dyāvā varṇaṁ carata āmināne.

The bright dawn comes shining with light, bearing the bright sun new born. The dark night leaves its regions open for the light. Both, like sisters of the same one brother, immortal, assume their own form of light, one bright, the other covered and both come in succession, each retiring and succeeding the other.

समाना अध्वा स्वस्वारनन्तस्तमन्यान्या चरता द्वशिष्ट ।

3. Samāno adhvā svasroranantastamanyānyā carato devaśiṣṭe. Na methate na tasthatuḥ sumeke naktoṣāsā samanāsā virūpe.

One and the same is the path of the two sisters, which is space, endless and infinite, existentially speaking, which they follow one after the other as ordained by the Divine. They neither overlap, nor encroach, nor clash, nor stand still for a moment. Fixed and firm, each on its own, and of harmonious nature are they, although the night and the dawn are of different forms which are apparently contradictory as light and darkness.

4. Bhāsvatī netrī sūnṛtānāmaceti citrā vi duro na āvah. Prārpyā jagadvyu no rāyo akhyaduṣā ajīgarbhuvanāni viśvā.

Brilliant shines the dawn, leading inspiration and revelation of divinity for spirits of piety. Wonderful and splendid, it opens the doors of intelligence and consciousness. Taking the world over, it reveals the wealth of nature and envelops the worlds of existence in beauty and splendour.

5. Jihmaśye caritave maghonyābhogaya iṣṭaye rāya u tvam. Dabhrāṁ paśyadbhya urviyā vicakṣa uṣā ajīgarbhuvanāni viśvā.

O dawn, lady light of wealth and beauty, inspiring, vast and bright, for the lazy loon oversleeping or the squint eyed one, for moving around, for enjoyment of living, for the attainment of desire and yajna, for the achievement of wealth, for the weak-eyed one, and for the revelation of things on earth, you shine and wake up the worlds of existence into light, beauty and activity, revealing even the tiny things.

6. Kṣatrāya tvaṁ śravase tvaṁ mahīyā iṣṭaye tvam artham iva tvamityai. Visadr̥śā jīvitābhipra-cakṣa uṣā ajīgarbhuvanāni viśvā.

O dawn, for governance and administration of the social order, for food, energy and national prestige, for honour and grandeur, for reaching the desired goal in life, and for the attainment of the various and versatile ways of life, you shine, wake up and envelop the worlds of existence in light and beauty.

7. Eṣā divo duhitā pratyadarśi vyucchantī yuvatīḥ śukravāsāḥ. Viśvasyeśānā pāthivasya vasva uṣo adyeha subhage vyuccha.

Dawn, this daughter of heavenly light, appears on the horizon, shining bright, a maiden clothed in light, over-whelming the entire beauty and wealth of the world. O dawn, lady of noble good fortune, come here for us and shine.

8. Parāyatīnāmanveti pātha āyatīnām prathamā śaśvatīnām. Vyucchantī jīvamudīrayantyuṣā mṛtaṁ kaṁ cana bodhayanī.

The dawn follows the path of those that have gone before since eternity. It is the first pioneer of those that would follow for eternity. Shining bright, waking up, inspiring, exciting, even reviving life asleep as dead, it comes on and shines on.

O dawn, what you do for lighting of the fire of yajna early morning, what you do to reveal the beauty of the world with the light of the sun, what you do to awake and inspire the devotees of yajna, all that you do is noble action for the divinities of nature and humanity among the divinities.

How long did the dawns last which came and shone earlier? How long would they shine and last which, lovely and brilliant as the earlier ones, remind us of the past ones and brighten up the present around? The dawn would last for ever thus in company with the preceding and the following.

11. *Īyuṣṭe ye pūrvatarāmapaśyan vyucchantīm-

The mortals who saw the bright and blazing dawn saw the light and passed away. By us too the lovely and shining dawn has been seen for the light. And those too who would see the light of life in the dawns that would follow, would go but with the light of life. (Life and light thus go together continuously in succession in the continuum that existence is.)

O Dawn, warding off the jealous, guardian of divine truth and yajna, born of divine truth and cosmic yajna, harbinger of peace and comfort, high-priestess of truth, inspiring and exciting, messenger of felicity, bearing joy and prosperity fit for divinity, arise and come, best and highest of lights, shine, inspire and bless us all with freshness.

13. Śāśvat puroṣā vyuvāsa devyatho adyedaṁ vyāvo maghonī. Atho vyucchāduttarāṅ anu dyūna-jarāmṛtā carati svadhābhiḥ.

The bright dawn, ancient and eternal, shines since eternity. Bright and generous mistress of wealth, lights up this world this day and then brightens up the days following till eternity. Unaging and immortal, the dawn moves on and on with its own divine powers and gifts of generosity.

14. Vyañjibhirdiva ātāsvadyaudapa kṛṣṇāṁ nirṇijam devyāvaḥ. Prabodhayantyaruṇa-bhiraśvairoṣā yāti suyujā rathena.

With her soothing celebrities, shining from heaven across the quarters of space, the bright dawn dispels the darkness of night and adorns and reveals the beauty of the world. Waking up the sleeping humanity she comes in the early morning by the celestial car of luxurious light drawn by the glorious sunbeams of fiery speed and splendour.

Bearing and bringing choice nourishments for body, mind and soul, waking those who sleep, lighting the dark, the dawn creates wonderful brilliance. Following upon the heels of the by-gones, first shining of the succeeding lights, measure of the eternal recurrent lights of the dawn, she goes on by her chariot of light drawn not by horses but by sunbeams.

Awake ye all who sleep, arise ye all who wake, life has come, and the energy of life-prana flows for all. Darkness is gone. Light has come, having cleared the path for the sun to rise and move. Let us reach there, enjoy life and elevate life and ourselves.

The admirer, poet of fiery imagination, sings inspiring songs in praise of brilliant dawn. O Dawn, lady of light and harbinger of wealth, shine for the worshipper and give him the light. And give us the health and age blest with progeny.

Bright are the dawns, rich in sunbeams and wealth of cows, creators and inspirers of all the brave on earth. Generous are they for the man who gives and sacrifices, giver of horses fast as sunbeams. And when men of truth and law meditate on them, then, flying as the wind, they come and bless the man who performs the soma-yajna of creative joy for life.

Whatever creation and wonderful inspiration the dawns, lady lights of divinity, bear and bring for the zealous yajaka, may Mitra, universal friend of life, Varuna, lord of eternal peace and justice, Aditi, mother nature, the rivers and the sea, the earth, the sky and the light of heaven expand and elevate for humanity.

1. Imā rudrāya tavase kapardine kṣayadvīrāya prabhārāmahe matīḥ. Yathā śamasad dvipade catuspade viśvaṁ puṣṭaṁ grāme asminnanā-turam.

We offer these songs of prayer and adoration to Rudra, omnipotent lord of mercy and justice, father and protector of the brave, for the sake of the brahmachari student of the Rudra order so that all may be peace and joy among the humans and animals and all life on earth and the environment be healthy and happy in this settlement, this world and the universe.

2. Mṛḷā no rudrota no mayaskṛdhi kṣayadvīrāya nāmasā vidhema te. Yacchaṁ ca yośca manurāyeje pitā tadaśyāma tava rudra praṇītiṣu.

Rudra, be kind to us, be good and give us peace, comfort and good health. We do homage to you, leader and protector of the brave, with oblations and salutations. The peace and freedom which Manu, father guardian of humanity, procured and secured for us, may we, we pray, attain under your kind guidance and discipline.

3. Aśyāma te sumatiṁ devayajyayā kṣayadvīrasya tava rudra mīḍvahaḥ. Sumnāyannid viśo asmākamā carāriṣṭavīrā juhavāma te haviḥ.

Rudra, good and generous, protector of the brave, may we attain the favour of your wisdom and advice by worship and homage to you. With our heroes of the nation unhurt and protected, we offer gifts of oblations and homage to you. Come, we pray, be kind and gracious to our people.

4. Tveṣaṁ vayaṁ rudraṁ yajñasādhaṁ vaṅkuṁ kavimavase ni hvayāmahe. Are asmad daivyaṁ heḷo asyatu sumatimid vayamasyā vṛṇīmahe.

For our protection and guidance we invoke Rudra, blazing brilliant, destroyer of enemies, giver of success in the yajnic projects of life, lord of instant motion and action, and seer of universal vision. May He ward off all furies of nature from us. We choose and pray for His vision and wisdom for our conduct in life.

5. Divo varāhamaruṣaṁ kapardinam tveṣaṁ rūpaṁ namasā ni hvayāmahe. Haste bibhrad bheṣajā vāryāṇi śarma varma cchardirasmabhyaṁ yaṁsat.

With offerings of food and salutations we invoke Rudra from the regions of light, generous as a cloud, brilliant, master controller of the gambler's dice and blazing magnificent of form. May he come bearing in hand the choicest herbs for medicine and bless us with gifts of a peaceful happy home, protective armour, and preventive and deterrent arms and armaments.

6. Idaṁ pitre marutāmucyate vacaḥ svādoḥ svādiyo rudrāya vardhanam. Rāsvā ca na amṛta marta-bhojanam tmane tokāya tanayāya mṛḷa.

This exhilarating song of homage, holiest of holies, is offered in honour of Rudra, father and protector of the Maruts, heroes of the nation. Lord of immortality, give us the best nourishing food for the mortals, sweetest of sweets, for our body, mind and soul, for our children and for our youth. Lord, be kind and gracious to bless us.

7. Mā no mahāntamuta mā no arbhakam mā na ukṣantamuta mā na ukṣitam. Mā no vadhīḥ pitarām mota mātaram mā naḥ priyāstanvo rudra rīriṣaḥ.

Rudra, lord of mercy and justice, frustrate not our great men, saints and scholars, and our seniors. Strike not our children. Slay-not our youth. Kill not the fetus in the womb. Kill not our father, nor our mother. Hurt not our lovely bodies, nor hurt our beloved wives.

Rudra, lord eternal of mercy and justice, strike not our baby, nor our child. Snap not our life short. Kill not our cows, nor horses. If ever you feel angry for our trespasses, forgive, we pray, strike not our brave. With our hands raised in prayer with holy offerings, we always invoke you and pray for kindness and grace.

9. Upa te stomān paśupā ivākaraṁ rāsva pitarmarutāṁ sumnamasme. Bhadrā hi te sumatirmṛṣayattamāthā vayamava it te vṛṇīmahe.

I bring these songs of praise in homage to you, father and protector of the brave Maruts, heroes of nature and humanity, just as a shepherd brings milk and curds to offer to his master. Lord, we pray, give us peace and joy. Blissful is the vision of Divinity, most beatific. Therefore we choose to pray for your protection and guidance, only that and none else's.

Lord protector and shelter of the brave, let the butcher of cows and murderer of men be off by your protection and grace. May the peace and joy of your blessings be for us. Be kind and gracious to us. Speak to us in the heart from above. Lord of the world of here and after, give us peace and joy on earth, and the ultimate freedom after.

Seekers of protection and bliss, let us sing in praise of the Lord. May Rudra, omniscient lord omnipotent, listen to our call and prayer. And may Mitra, Varuna, Aditi, the sea and rivers, the earth and heaven raise and sublimate our word of salutation and prayer to the divine presence. (The word is Namaste.)

Surya Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

चित्रं दवानामुदगादनीकं च ऽ मित्रस्य वरुणस्याग्रः ।

1. Citraṁ devānām udgād anīkaṁ cakṣurmitrasya varuṇasyāgneḥ. Āprā dyāvāprthivī antarikṣaṁ sūrya ātmā jagatastasthuṣāśca.

Lo! there rises the sun, wonderful image of Divinity, the very eye of Mitra, heaven, the soothing cool of Varuna, the waters, and the beauty of the moon. It pervades and fills the heaven and earth and the middle regions of the sky. It is indeed the very soul of the moving and the unmoving world.

2. Sūryo devīmuṣasaṁ rocamānāṁ maryo na yoṣām abhyeti paścāt. Yatrā naro devayanto yugāni vitanvate prati bhadrāya bhadram.

The sun follows the brilliant and beautiful dawn just like a youthful lover who pursues his beloved. And therein, with reference to that, the leading astronomers of the stars extend their noble vision for the calculation of ages for the good of humanity.

3. Bhadra āśvā haritaḥ sūryasya citrā etagvā anumādyāsaḥ. Namasyanto diva ā prṣṭhamas-thuḥ pari dyāvāprthivī yanti sadyaḥ.

The blissful rays of the sun, reddish, various and wondrous, exhilarating, invigorating overspread the expanse of heaven and constantly go over the regions of space across the sky and the earth.

तत्सूर्यस्य दवृत्त्वं तन्महित्वं मध्या कताविततं सं जभार ।

4. Tat sūryasya devatvaṁ tanmahitvaṁ madhyā kartorvitataṁ saṁ jabhāra. Yadedayukta haritaḥ sadhasthādādrātrī vāsastanute simasmai.

That Lord of the universe, Omnipotent Light of creation, is the Sun, Savita, who holds and sustains the light and grandeur of the sun pervading in the world of action. And it is He who withdraws and folds up the same divinity and grandeur of the sun. And when the Lord withdraws the light of the sun, then the Night of Pralaya absorbs everything of existence into her fold of darkness. (This is the story of the eternal round of evolution and involution of the universe.)

When the sun, in the daily round of day-light and darkness at night, collects the rays of light from down below then the night spreads her cover of darkness over all. (This is the story of the daily round of the day-night cycle.)

5. Tanmitrasya varuṇasyābhicakṣe sūryo rūpaṁ kṛṇute dyorupasthe. Anantamanyad ruśadasya pājah kṛṣṇamanyaddharitaḥ saṁ bharanti.

The Eternal Lord, in order that Mitra and Varuna, day and night, be seen, creates light and shade and form. And so, the sun, which is light incarnate, in the close space of heaven, shows the forms of things. Endless, different and blazing is its power of one sort, while the shade of darkness is another, which the rays of the sun bear in the quarters of space.

6. Adyā devā uditā sūryasya nirāṇhasaḥ pipṛtā niravadyāt. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahantām-aditiḥ sindhuḥ pṛthivī uta dyauḥ.

O powers divine and vitalities of nature born of the rising sun, pure and immaculate, save us to-day from whatever is sinful and despicable. And may the day and night, the wide space, the rivers and the sea, the earth and the heavens of light, we pray, bless us to rise in our hopes and endeavours.

Ashvins Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

नासत्याभ्यां बहिरिव प वृञ्ज स्तामौ इयम्यभियव वातः ।

1. Nāsatyābhyām barhiriva pra vṛñje stomāñ iyarmyabhriyeva vātaḥ. Yāvarbhagāya vimadāya jāyām senājuvā nyūhatū rathena.

Just as the priest selects and plucks sacred grass and spreads it over and around the vedi in celebration, and just as the winds move the vapour laden cloud across the sky, so do I select words of appreciation for the Ashvins, scientist and technologist, sincere and true, compose them into songs of praise and air them over the skies, for the Ashvins, who fly troops of the army by a carrier plane over the mountains like friends flying a damsel for the youthful sober lover.

2. *Vīḷupatmabhirāśuhemabhirvā devānām vā jūti-

Ashvins, ever sincere and true, flying by the wings of powerful birds, fast at the speed of clouds, by the tempests of wind and fire splitting the currents of winds, eminent scholars and aeronauts, the power applied, controlled and directed in your chariot would win victories in a thousand battles of wealth against the deadly enemy.

Ashvins, commanders forceful as wind and lightning, if a great ruler and governor launches a fighter and pioneer beneficiary of the nation on the bottomless sea but then abandons hope like a dying man giving up his wealth of a life-time, you rescue him by self-driven, waterproof, flying boats.

Ashvins, undeviating from truth and reality, you carry the ruler beneficiary across the unfathomable ocean and over the desert three-nights and three days non-stop by three flying chariots fitted with hundred wheels and six engines.

Ashvins, scholars dedicated to truth and humanity, in the ocean of space where there is no beginning and no end, where there is no foothold and nothing to hold with hand, you carry the man of earthly enjoyment riding the carrier-boat worked with a hundred propellers to his haven of rest where there is no want, no pain, nothing beyond desire. That is great, heroic!

Ashvins, experts of velocity and motion, the brilliant white solar car which you provide for the adventurous traveller is all-time auspicious. That gift of yours is great, admirable all over the earth. The super-fast car is of undiminishing value and adorable in the economic world of business and industry.

Ashvins, leading teacher and scholar of herbal science, you reward the faithful disciple of pious discipline ever ready in harness with exceptional knowledge and insight into the science and technology of restorative nectar by which you can fill a hundred jars of drink from one horse-hoof measure of virile essence distilled through the filter.

8. Himenāgniṁ ghraṁsam-avārayethāṁ pitumatīm-ūrjam-asmā adhattam. Ṛbīse atrim- aśvināvanītam-unninyathuḥ sarvagaṇaṁ svasti.

Ashvins, scholars of heat and energy, fight out fire and heat with ice and cool, and bear edible energy concentrate for us. Pull out the man fallen into the earth's womb of fire and despondency and free him and his community from physical, mental and spiritual suffering for their common good.

9. Parāvataṁ nāsatyā nudethām-uccābudhnaṁ cakrathurjihmavāram. Kṣarannāpo na pāyanāya rāye sahasrāya tṛṣyate gotamasya.

Ashvins, high-priests of nature and truth, lift up the waters from the bottom at the lowest level, raise it to a higher level by oblique channels, and let the streams flow for drink for a thousand people, and for the scholar and the administrator, to quench their thirst and for the production of wealth.

Ashvins, recuperative powers of nature, masters of medicine and psychiatrists, you free the ageing man from wrinkled skin, remove fear complex from the escapist running away from life, give a new lease of life to the depressed heading to suicide, and mature adolescent girls to grow and match with the right husband in marriage.

Ashvins, leading lights of humanity dedicated to truth and reality, the protective and promotive work you do is appreciable, adorable and blissfully desirable. Leaders of knowledge and secrets of nature, it is so far hidden from view like an underground treasure. Let it come forth so that all may see and admire and do you the honour you deserve.

Ashvins, leaders of men in knowledge and action, that marvellous work of yours in the interest of social good, I explain and proclaim in detail like thunder and lightning raining showers from the cloud, work and knowledge sweet as honey which the man of love and reverence, Dadhyang, child and disciple of the sober sage of non-violence, Atharvan, taught you from his mind inspired with wisdom and passion for superfast action in the form of a full treatise on the subject.

Ashvins, lovers of truth and reality, munificent powers of action and knowledge, liberal givers of joy and prosperity for all, let the woman of noble intelligence invite you for the sake of abundant peace and prosperity, listen to her invocation as a commandment of the world Ruler, and give the fortunate woman that superior knowledge which showers the joys of life with golden hands of generosity.

Ashvins, defenders of truth, light and justice, leaders of humanity and creators of peace and prosperity for all, in the human search for progress and enlightenment, you save the poor bird from the devourer's mouth, and give the poet a compassionate heart for a comprehensive vision of life.

Ashvins, when the battle is raging for the defence and sustenance of the people but the issue is wavering in the night of uncertainty, you instantly take to the armour of steel for advance, strike and break down the enemy's force as you cut off the wing of a bird.

If a person were to sacrifice a hundred generous and creative contenders, meshas, for the pleasure of a wolfish thief and his wife, even though such a person were otherwise very intelligent and dynamic, the fatherly ruler should throw him into the darkness of prison. And yet, O Ashvins, lovers of ultimate truth, dispellers of untruth and darkness, generous showers of bliss, bring the eyes for the waking blind so that he could see what is real and true and good and be released from the dungeon of ignorance. (It is better to make the blind see than keep them in the prison. It is better to redeem the criminal and the sinner than throw him in the prison.)

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth in the battle of life and health of the world, let the dawn, daughter of the sun, arise and ride your chariot drawn by horses of light and win the battle. Let all the divinities of the world heartily applaud the beauty and power, and may you shine with the beauty and glory of the rise and may you win the victory.

Ashvins, generous givers and protectors, ever on the move, when you come to the house of Divodasa, the giver of light and knowledge, and to Bharadvaja, bearer and giver of food, energy and the fighting force, let the chariot that transports you be delightful, laden with wealth, powerfully equipped, victorious and killer of the enemy.

Ashvins, protectors of truth and leaders of equal and agreeable mind, come with food, energy and powerful forces, bearing wealth, good social order, noble progeny, good health and age, courage and valour, and free flowing streams of water for the people performing their daily duties full three times of the day.

Ashvins, defenders and saviours of truth and right, young and unaging, when the commander or a section of the army or the ruler is besieged on all sides, launch, and attack by an invincible killer chariot, rescue the besieged force by easy but misty paths and take over the caverns and mountains by night.

21. Ekasyā vastor-āvataṁ raṇāya vaśam-aśvinā sanaye sahasrā. Nirahataṁ ducchunā indravantā prthuśravaso vṛṣaṇāvarātīḥ.

Ashvins, brilliant as sun and moon, forceful as lightning and thunder, generous as showers of rain, leaders of the land and commanders of the army, protect and promote the freedom of the land for a hundred gifts and acquisitions of peace and happiness. Protect and develop the army for battle for the sake of freedom and advancement. And in a single day rout the destructive force of the frustrative enemy even if it be of commanding fame in the world.

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth and the facts of life, with your noble actions of science and husbandry, you raise the water from the lowest level as that of a well or lake to the higher level for the drink of the violent as well as of the worshipper, and you develop the dry cow to fertility for the drooping, depressed and the exhausted humanity.

Ashvins, lovers of truth and humanity, with your noble words and acts of wisdom give that sagely vision and knowledge to the protective, worshipful, attractive, simple and sympathetic visionary with which the sages are blest in a state of samadhi communion with the divine. Give it like a lovely pet or a valuable treasure lost but then found and then restored to the master.

24. Daśa rātrīr-aśivenā nava dyūn-avanaddham śnathitam-apsvantaḥ. Viprutam rebham-udani pravṛktam-unninyathuḥ somamiva sruveṇa.

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth and right, just as a boat is tied and transfixed under water for ten nights and nine days by an envious person, or it is held up, or drifts over water, but then is upraised and brought on the track by a noble ferry man, so if an admirer of truth and right and devotee of divinity feels suppressed by adverse forces, feels depressed or distempered or drifts from the right track, then, O Ashvins, give him a hand and raise him like a soma libation raised in the ladle ready for offering into the fire of yajna.

Ashvins, noble divinities of truth and right action, generous givers of good health and purpose of life for a full age, I pray I may sing in praise of your great actions with gratitude and, blest with cows, noble speech and abundant land, in the company of brave children, seeing the world and the light of divinity, enjoying long and full age, and giving up this ageing body I should retire, set like the sun and go home.

Ashvins Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth, givers of health and joy, the veteran yajaka, high-priest of knowledge, invokes you for the honey sweets of soma's joy for the health and ecstasy of living. Brilliant and blissful is your gift of peace and prosperity, celebrated is your voice and wisdom. Come with your gifts of food and energy and the vibrant ways of living and advancement at the fastest.

2. Yo vām-aśvinā manaso javīyān rathaḥ svaśvo viśa ājigāti. Yena gacchathaḥ sukrto duroṇaṁ tena narā vartir-asmabhyaṁ yātam.

Ashvins, leaders of the people, faster than thought is your chariot which reaches the people with you. Wondrously made it is, drawn by horses fast as sun beams and lightning, by which you go home to the man of noble deeds. Riding that same chariot come home for us too (and bless us with light and speed).

3. Rṣiṁ narāvaṇhasaḥ pāñcajanya-mṛbīsād-atrīm muñcatho gaṇena. Minantā dasyor-aśivasya māyā anupūrvam vṛṣaṇā codayantā.

Ashvins, leaders of humanity, generous and inspiring as ever before with universal knowledge and human values, destroyers of the envious demonics and their crooked powers, you save Atri, visionary scholar free from the three bonds of physical, mental and spiritual ailments, self-realised soul with mastery over all the five pranic energies and dedicated to all the five classes of universal humanity without discrimination, and you deliver him along with his band of teachers and scholars from the evil of prison in utter darkness, against the light of reason, knowledge and rectitude, into which, such men of light and freedom are thrown by the envious and wicked blood suckers of society.

Rebha, eminent scholar of knowledge and wisdom, dynamic and productive proclaimer of the secrets of science, is obscured among the lesser stars and kept back, by manipulators of evil design, straying around lost like a horse in the jungle. Ashvins, brave and generous heroes and leaders of humanity and guides of knowledge, redeem that seer of light with your noble actions, he would otherwise be lost and gone. All your actions, old and ancient as well as new, never fade away nor die out.

5. Suṣupvāṁsaṁ na nir-ṛterupasthe sūryaṁ na dasrā tamasi kṣiyantam. Śubhe rukmaṁ na darśataṁ nikhātmudūpathuraśvinā vandanāya.

Ashvins, heroic and generous powers of action, destroyers of want and suffering, like the soul's awareness covered in deep sleep, like the dormant seed enfolded in the soil, like the sun resting as if in the night cover of darkness, like the lovely shining fold buried in the folds of the earth, the face of beauty and truth is hidden. Awaken the awareness of life divine, generate the life of the seed, let the sun arise, bring out the hidden gold of the earth, and sow the seeds of life, energy and light so that all may see, honour and admire the grandeur of existence.

Ashvins, harbingers of many things for good and comfortable life, assuming various forms of workers and designers, you give to the traveller and transporter the instant motive power such as electricity, fast, serving a thousand purposes, invisible, present in earth and consumable fuels, breaker of the cloud and capable of crossing the seas.

The infinite and omniscient lord, Brahma, is the home and sustenance of heaven and earth, whom you and your friends and admirers invoke and worship. Move on, powers of life and light divine, with your will and gifts of food for life and soul and with the vision divine for the man and seeker of knowledge.

Ashvins, children of light, generous and brave, guardians of sleeping humanity, moving on the paths of divinity, where do you find celebration in poetry and discover the golden vessel of spiritual treasure buried under the folds of earthly existence, on the tenth day of yajnic performance, and then sow the seeds of piety? (The answer is: among the lovers of knowledge, children of divinity).

and age, for the sake of vitality and energy and by the acts and achievements of the ancients, you grow young and come to know each other again, and you carry the man of joy and tonics of rejuvenation from and beyond the bottomless ocean of water and air by transports flying like birds straight and unobstructed.

Ashvins, harbingers of life and joy, destroyers of anti-life forces, travelling by the fastest sophisticated chariot from the heights of heaven, down the clouds over the mountain slopes across the valleys, listen to this rumble of the cloud and mountain echo: Ashvins, darling friends, going to fight out want and suffering at your fastest, didn't the first-born wisest of the sages exhort you to move this way? And that is the rumble of the cloud, that is the voice of thunder, that is the mountain echo. That is our prayer.

Ashvins, leading lights of nature and humanity, for the sake of a long life and full living and for the desired aim of life, I invoke you and admire your chariot wonderfully made, quick as mind, drawn by swift horses, a vehicle for yajnic action, distinguished by a thousand flags, beautiful and luxurious, giver of a hundred kinds of wealth, superfast and a very home and treasure of divine bliss. (I love it for a heavenly ride for this existential journey.)

Ashvins, leading lights of humanity, generous and brave, when your chariot moves forward, our mind and thought rises in admiration. The quarters of space are made small and the noblest people come together. I taste the sweets and beauties of the warmth of yajnic life. Accordingly protections and paths of progress open and expand. May heavenly light, wisdom and energy ride your chariot and rise on earth.

Ashvins, brave and generous heroes of the chariot and tempestuous speed, when countless, great sacrificing, and victorious heroes excelling one another come together in the splendid battle for justice and progress, then surely your chariot in which you carry the noblest hero of valour and wisdom shines with distinction in its onward march.

Ashvins, brave and generous heroes, with your own powers and plans and with your chariots flying like birds, take a powerful force to the protector and defender of the nation gone to a state of isolation, rescue him and carry him home to the parental seniors and sustainers of the people. Your support and protection for the giver of light and knowledge, who is a servant of heaven, is great and well-known.

Ashvins, brave, generous and friendly heroes, to raise your dignity and grandeur, your voice controls and directs your own chariot and its power and force. And as the bright and beaming maiden of the morning, the dawn, victorious over the dark, desirous of your friendship and protection, opts to join you on the chariot as her lords, so does the bright and beaming nation select you as guardians and defenders of the land.

Ashvins, heroes of noble action, destroyers of suffering, with knowledge and admiration you reinvigorate the noble reverend scholar stricken with age and adversity as you would repair and recondition a chariot with your knowledge and expertise. With appreciation and praise regenerate and elevate the veteran of knowledge from his place of birth. Let your marvellous power and action be dedicated to the lord of humanity.

So does Aushija, child of light and grace, invoke and celebrate you in the ecstasy of soma. Come both, enlighten and inspire the mind of Dadhicha, the sagely seeker of knowledge and Dharma, and then, at the head of the seers he would proclaim the Word of cherished wisdom and enlightenment.

What call, Ashvins, leaders and commanders, would rouse you to action and victory? Who could, if he were ignorant and unintelligent, lead you to victory and win your pleasure, and how? (None of the ignorant and unintelligent.)

2. Vidvāmsāvid durah prcchedavidvānitthāparacetāḥ. Nū cinnū marte akrau.

Let the ignorant man and the imperceptive unintelligent person ask the Ashvins, men of intelligence and wisdom, the way forward for progress. Similarly another, the intelligent and the learned person too in his own way should ask the way forward for further advancement. In any case, let them ask the way out and onward for the sake of the man who would otherwise stand still doing nothing, in the state of doubt and inaction.

O man, when would you be like Indra, a protector, ruler, saviour and friend of the people? When, in order to help and protect the people, you would hear the voices of the lovers of light and knowledge who are keen to rise to divinity, when running to join the people you would reach their homes over the wide earth, and when you would raise your voice and inspire them in their yajnic task of love, cooperation and creation as the performer of yajna yourself.

Just as Indra, the sun, self-refulgent lord of light and sustainer of the earth, wields the heaven and showers the wealth and waters of life for the creation of food and energy, so should the ruler, luminant with the light of knowledge and justice and sustainer of the world system of the earth and environment, uphold Dharma, justice and rectitude and create the wealth and waters of stability and progress with nourishment and energy for the maintenance of the social order. And just as the mighty sun lights and watches its own creation, the dawn, beauteous glory of the solar system and nurse of mother earth, so should the ruler light up and watch the word of knowledge and the light of justice created by the social order itself which, in turn, would be the beauty of the system and sustenance of the order.

Like the sun illuminating the brilliant dawn every day, let the ruler follow, illuminate and extend the brilliant ethics and policies of eternal value and shine, inspiring the best and dearest people, day by day. Let him have the armaments deployed, serviced and sharpened and, as the sun holds the regions of heaven, let him maintain the light of justice for the quadrupeds, bipeds and humans and all that concerns the humans.

4. Asya made svaryaṁ dā ṛtāyāpīvṛtam-usriyāṇām-anīkam. Yaddha prasarge trikakum-nivarta-dapa druho mānuṣasya duro vaḥ.

Just as the sun, in the excitement of the morning, releases the flood-light of its brilliant rays held up at night for the yajna fire of the day, and, pervading three quarters of space (leaving off the nether hemisphere of the earth), returns and stands firm in the battle of light, and breaks through the gates of the dark enemy forts, so should the ruler, for the joy and prosperity of the social order, release his resounding force of light and power held in reserve for the occasion to extend the yajna of justice and rectitude and, raising the resources of eloquent and brilliant teachers, preachers and scientists, should break down the strongholds of opposition in the battle for the development of cows for the white revolution.

O man, when for your sake yajnic people offer oblations of pure milk and ghrta of the all-blessing cow as the wealth of their choice, then for you, O living and vibrant humanity, the brilliant heaven and earth, both generous givers of health and nourishment like mother and father, bring you showers of rain full of virility, fertility and all round success and fulfilment.

Let Indra, the noble soul, self-redeemer from suffering, arise, rejoice and shine like the rising sun close upon the heels of the dawn. Blest with grace like the beauty of the moon, sprinkling the vedi with ladlefuls of holy offerings and singing songs in praise of Divinity by which you attain to the city celestial, let the soul rise, rejoice and shine.

Noble soul, brave and shining, whatever famous you have done, whatever preservation of forests or cow protection you have achieved, you shine thereby. Now whatever further you wish to do for the sake of transport, animal husbandary or superfast travel try to do for the value of love, non-violence and yajna day in and day out.

Indra, O ruler, the rays of the sun pervading the great heaven, reaching here on earth, churn and absorb the delicious, vitalising fragrances of yajna, soma strengthened with cows milk and reinforced by the earth's energy, and then, swelled up by the wind and fighting with the clouds rain down showers of wealth for your growth and advancement.

(So does the yajnic ruler and the pious creative soul absorb the yajnic production of the earth and society and returns the same through hundred and thousandfold production and creation adding thereby to the wealth and beauty of life.)

Indra, lord of light, power and justice, you go round earth and heaven, wielding the thunderbolt made from steel and stone and tempered with heat and electricity procured and refined by Rbhu, master of metals, speed and range. Invoked and invited by all for the defence of the sagely man of wisdom, you go about with the fatal weapon striking countless blows upon the wicked and destructive demons. Lord of light and force, having used the weapon and achieved the aim, be gracious and call it back.

Indra, brilliant sun, brave ruler of the world, lord of mountains and the clouds, as earlier, before the elimination of darkness, you struck the thunderbolt and broke the cloud of darkness, so now strike the same thunderbolt, destroy the power and darkness of the demon that covers the world unto the borders of heaven, and restore the light that is blissful and enduring across the heavens and the farthest quarters of space.

Indra, may the great, protective and irresistible heaven and earth rejoice with your exploits. With your mighty thunderbolt of sun-rays you break the inert cloud of darkness in showers and make it flow in streams of water as it has been hoarding vapour and then flowing, earlier.

Indra, first of men, guide and leader of the social order, manage, protect and abide by those men who, like children of the wind, are cooperative carriers of the burdens of the state, and protect and abide by that impassioned lover of Dharma, son of the wise and poetic creator, who creates, sharpens and gives to you the thunderbolt, that invincible weapon of defence and law, which helps you destroy the enemies of light and leads you to the delight of victory.

And take the uncreative and non-yajnic, across the ninety navigable streams and engage them in labour jobs like digging of wells and canals.

Indra, lord of light, justice and glory, wielder of the thunderbolt and mover of the chariot wheels of the nation, we pray to you, protect us from this difficult army of evil and this sin in our battle of life and, for the sake of will and resolution, food and energy, honour and reputation, truth and justice, bless us with dynamic experts of motive power and velocity across the earth and the quarters of space.

May all people have the best choice of will, food and energy for life. Lord of noble humanity, bless us with advancement with wealth of cows, land and the Word of knowledge. Lord of grandeur, may we ever enjoy the ecstasy of your love.

All ye men of high spirit, vibrant as the winds of earth and skies, along with the brave, ever ready like the archers of the bow and arrow, bear and offer nourishing holy food and yajna in honour of Rudra, generous lord of life and joy. Offer the light of knowledge to the ignorant suffering in the dark. And with you all I offer homage to the lord of heaven and earth and the skies.

Let the dawn and dusk, light of day and peace of night, clothed in beauty of the sun, beatific with the rays of light, dressed like a lady of fulfilment in apparel of golden hue, bearing rich gifts of life and wealth, come in response to our invitation to yajna with a shower of light for our growth and enrichment.

3. Mamattu naḥ parijmā vasarhā mamattu vāto apāṁ vṛṣaṇvān. Śiśītam-indrāparvatā yuvaṁ nastanno viśve varivasyantu devāḥ.

May the light of the sun and heat of fire, all radiating, all consuming and creating, give us joy. May the winds, harbingers of rain showers, give us joy. May Indra, cosmic energy, and the clouds, both, sharpen our intellect, and may He, the Lord Almighty, and all the generous divinities of nature and humanity bless us with the wealth and joy of life.

For honour and glory with reputable action, I, child of noble ambition, invoke the two, fire and wind, one the product, the other, the giver of waters, both universal and protective as well as promotive of life and humanity. And I call upon you all: create and promote the child of waters, the fire energy, and the mother of waters, the winds.

Listen ye all, scholars of science and technology, I, son and disciple of the man of knowledge and noble ambition, call upon you and, like a voice from above, proclaim the admirable word of the gifts of the heat and light of Agni in resounding tones: its form and structure, analysis and break up, its creative re-structure for life-support and the gifts for the protection and promotion of life.

Listen ye Mitra-Varuna, friends, and all men of the chosen few, listen well to this invocation and exhortation, listen ye members of the yajnic assembly all round to this gift of wealth and well-being in the words of one who himself listened well to the voice Divine, and listen like the river receiving the waters of rain from above for the onward gift of life and growth to the fields and the farmers and so on for us.

Mitra and Varuna, lord of light and lord of water, friends and chosen comrades, I worship you, I honour you, for the gifts of your power and generosity. The gifts of your benevolence and hundred voices of the Divine and a hundred cows of milky nourishment in the battles of speed and progress are showered on those who ride and advance in stout chariots of the Divine Word and chariots of love and beauty, always and instantly bearing gifts of nourishment and growth, ruling out all negativities and nonsense.

I honour and admire the wealth and generosity of this man of power and prosperity, and pray, we join the noble man in a spirit of friendship, blest as we are with noble and brave progeny and friends. I wish the heroic man of knowledge and the chariot, possessed of fast conveyances, power and speed, and horses and horse-power were to share the secret for me.

9. Jano yo mitrāvaruṇāvabhidhruḡapo na vāṁ sunotyakṣṇayādhruk. Svayaṁ sa yakṣmaṁ hṛdaye ni dhatta āpa yaḍīm hotrābhirṛtāvā.

Mitra and Varuna, lords of friendship and liquid generosity, whoever hates you, whoever opposes you in crooked ways, whoever does not support you and life with nourishment and energy, such a man would himself wear the canker in his heart. But the man of truth and generosity supporting life all round with love, charity and sacrifice would be blest with peace and joy.

The man of love and generosity, the real man, inspired by the brave, of exceptional strength, of universal reputation among men of power and honour, giving in charity liberally, heroic in performance, always moves forward over the opponents fast in all the battles of life.

O Divinities of nature, generous powers of humanity, brilliant and joyous, flying across the skies with your own power and grandeur, listen to the prayer and invitation of the charitable man, brave and immortal of fame and honour, leave the wealth of the uncharitable and unprotective unprotected and let it pass on to the man of love and charity for noble causes.

O Lord, let me attain to the house of the man of tenfold knowledge of the Veda, Vedangas and yajnic liberality of which the wise and pious may say: This is the great house of the brave and generous man of fame wherein may all the wealths of the world abound and in whose rich oblations may all the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice and partake of the fragrant nourishment.

We praise and celebrate the generous man of tenfold food and knowledge since people come and go receiving nourishment for body and mind from his house. And such a man blest with desired power and speed in life, well in control of his desired reins of power and prosperity, generous as the flood of the ocean, and such men as he, of power and discipline worthy of governance, bring the grace of culture and beauty to the people's life.

And may the generous producer of wealth always try to create the knowledge of living languages of communication and the wealth of cows for himself and for us all.

The four classes and the four orders of society and the three councils of the ruling order, destroyer of evil, prosperous and victorious may, I pray, protect and advance me. Mitra and Varuna, friendly ruling powers of our highest choice, may your chariot, far-reaching, bright and beaming like the rising sun, shine on and brighten us up in life.

1. Pṛthū ratho dakṣiṇāyā ayojyainam devāso amṛtāso asthuh. Kṛṣṇādudasthādaryā vihāyā-ścikitsantī mānuṣāya kṣayāya.

The great and wide chariot of the glorious dawn is ready, which the divine immortal powers of nature would ride. The great noble maiden is arisen from the dark, radiating health and freedom from disease for human settlements.

2. Pūrvā viśvasmād bhuvanādabodhi jayantī vājam brhatī sanutrī. Uccā vyakhyad yuvatih punarbhū-roṣa agan prathamā pūrvahūtau.

The great and generous dawn wakes up before the world, winning, collecting, and carrying health, wealth and beauty. Ever young, rising again and again, watching us from far and above, she arrives in response to our earliest invocation.

3. Yadadya bhāgaṁ vibhajāsi nṛbhya uṣo devi martyatrā sujāte. Devo no atra savitā damūnā anāgaso vocati sūryāya.

O Dawn, high-born of heaven, inspirer of humanity, whatever share of your generous gifts you bring here to-day for men, let the divine Savita, best of men among friends, brilliant giver of life, say of us to the sun: These are sinless people.

(Swami Dayanand gives an applied interpretation of this mantra: Usha is the bride beautiful as the dawn, Savita is the groom, Surya is God, and the 'sinless' are members of the family. This interpretation prevails through the whole Sukta.)

4. Gṛhaṁgṛhamahanā yātyacchā divedive adhi nāmā dadhānā. Siṣāsantī dyotanā śaśvadāgā-dagramagramid bhajate vasūnām.

The light of the dawn radiates from home to home gracefully day by day clothed in the beauty and glory of her own name, inspiring and beatifying, shining bright, new as ever every day. She goes on and on from place to place, sharing the joy of life.

Sister of glory, daughter of the highest light, O Dawn, lady of truth, first shine and brighten and be praised, and then hold him who is the supporter of sin and then we shall catch him with the gift of your light and win by the chariot.

Let the ladies of high truth and generous munificence sing songs of Divinity. Let the fires of yajna shining and blazing stay and go on burning. The brilliant dawns light up and reveal the cherished wealths of life hidden in the dark.

One goes away at dusk, the other comes over in the morning, thus the lights of the day-night cycle both different of form move together and coexist. Of these two cyclic coexistents of the world, the dark covers and hides things in the cave, the other, the dawn of light, reveals them in their true form with the beauty of its chariot.

They are the same today as they will be tomorrow, and in the same manner together, both brave and beautiful, they go round in the region of the sun, each traversing thirty stages of its travel time ever and on in the yajnic cycle of their circulation. (Each stage of time is of twenty-four minutes.)

She knows and reveals the first, morning, part of the day and its holiness. Pure and brilliant is she, risen from the darkness of night. Young and maidenly, following her daily chores fixed by nature day by day and hour by hour, she never relents in her observance of the Law of the Divine.

Sweet and soothing beauteous, unique in form and figure of body as a virgin, O brilliant Dawn, you rise to meet the effulgent lord you love and desire, and then, charming bright in the splendour of youth, O maiden, smiling amorous, you stand before him and bare your bosom for love and adoration.

Glorious and comely in appearance, a bride as if anointed by the Mother, O youthful Dawn, you reveal the light of your beauty and majesty for the world's love and adoration. Shine and radiate, O maiden, in all your glory, and may the sublimity of this glory never fade but ever abide as now in future manifestations also.

12. Aśvāvatīrgomaṭīrviśvavārā yatamānā raśma-bhiḥ sūryasya. Parā ca yanti punarā ca yanti bhadra nāma vahamānā uṣāsaḥ.

Riding the rays of the sun, commanding the beauties of the earth, inspiring the chants of the holy Word, dispelling the darkness without and within by the vision of sunlight, arousing universal love and adoration, bearing the name and spirit of Divinity, the blissful lights of the Dawn go round, ascending far above, descending again for the world, and in the end transcending the world of existence to nameless Eternity.

13. Ṛtasya raśmimanuyacchamānā bhadrambhadram kratumasāsu dhehi. Uṣo no adya suhavā vyucchāsmāsu rāyo maghavatsu ca syuh.

O Dawn, going round by the light of Eternity in pursuit of the Law Divine, bring us the bliss of goodness, give us the vision of truth and beauty and the will to yajnic action. Listen to our invocation and prayer, shine and bring us the light. May the wealths of the world abide in us. May the wealths of existence abound in those who adore the wealth of Eternity.

1. Uṣā ucchanṭī samidhāne agnā udyantsūrya urviyā jyotiraśret. Devo no atra savitā nvarthaṁ prā-sāvīd dvipat pra catuṣpadityai.

The dawn is breaking, the fire is burning, the sun is rising, and light is radiating over heaven and earth. May Savita, lord giver of light and life, inspire the humans and animals to move to activity and create new wealth and new meaning and purpose in life.

अमिनती दव्यानि वतानि पमिनती मनुष्या युगानि ।

2. Aminatī daivyāni vratāni praminatī manuṣyā yugāni. Īyuṣīṇāmupamā śaśvatīnāmāyatīnāṁ prathamāṣā vyadyaut.

Not violating the laws of Divinity, counting out the ages of humanity, shines the dawn, last picture of the dawns gone by, first of the dawns coming, an instance of the original and eternal Dawn recurring every morning.

एषा दिवा दुहिता पत्यदशि ज्यातिवसाना समना पुरस्तात ।

3. Eṣā divo duhitā pratyadarśi jyotirvasānā samanā purastāt. Ṛtasya panthāmanveti sādhu prajānatīva na diśo mināti.

Yonder shines this daughter of heaven clothed in light, rejoicing at heart, following the path of nature's law well like a lady of omniscience measuring as if but not overstepping the bounds of space.

4. *Upo adarśi śundhyuvo na vakṣo nodhā ivāvira-

The Dawn, she appears to stand so close like the treasure chest of purest sunbeams, open, radiating and revealing the dearest things like the latest versatile scholar, giving the wake-up call to the sleeping partners living and eating together. It appears as if, of all the dawns coming and rising, she is the most real and original of the Eternal that has come this morning.

5. *Pūrve ardhe rajaso aptyasya gavāṃ janitryakṛta

Radiating the rays of light in the eastern half of the sky, the dawn has unfurled her banner of morning glory. And sitting as if in the lap of her parents, the heaven and the earth, she expands the noblest light of bliss showering on both.

6. *Evedeṣa purutamā dṛśe kaṃ nājāmiṃ na pari

And this dawn most comely to the sight and blissful to the heart, neither precludes her own nor excludes the aliens. Similarly, shining unique and exceptional by her immaculate body of light, she neither ignores the small nor neglects the great, but shines bright and smiles equally on all, giving them the feel of bliss.

7. Abhrāteva puṁsa eti pratīcī gartārugiva sanaye dhanānām. Jāyeva patya uśatī suvāsā uṣā hasreva ni riṇīte apsaḥ.

Just as a brotherless woman returns to her man, just as a man reduced to aversity goes to the court to rejoin his money, just as a wife in all her finery, loving and passionate, opens her secret charms to her husband, so does the dawn in all her splendour reveal her beauty and majesty to the world everywhere.

8. Svasā svasre jyāyasyai yonimāraigapaityasyāḥ praticakṣyeva. Vyucchantī raśmibhiḥ sūryasyā-ñjyaṅkte samanagā iva vrāḥ.

Just as a sister surrenders her place for her elder sister and having seen her vacates it for her and goes away, so does the dawn, with the rays of the sun, move her soothing brilliance from one place to another, of her own choice.

9. Āsām pūrvāsāmahasu svasṛṇāmaparā pūrvā-mabhyeti paścāt. Tāḥ pratnavannavyasīrnūna-masme revaducchantu sudinā uṣāsaḥ.

Of all these sister dawns of the past age, the latter, the elder, follows after the former, the younger, in cyclic succession day after day. May all these dawns, each new one like the former, bring us happy days bearing the wealth of the world and illuminate our days with the light of the world.

10. Pra bodhayaṣaḥ pṛṇato maghonyabudhyamā-nāḥ paṇayaḥ sasantu. Revaduccha maghava-dbhyo maghoni revat stotre sūnṛte jārayantī.

O Dawn, abundant in light and wealth, wake up the generous and giving. The miserly and the ignorant lost in daily chores would sleep, wake up these too. Lady of light and wealth, let the wealth of the generous shine in charity. Mistress of Truth and Law, rousing and praising the singer of songs divinely blest with wealth, enlighten him, bless him.

11. Aveyamaśvaid yuvatīḥ purastād yuṅkte gavāma-ruṇānāmanīkam. Vi nūnamucchādasati pra ketur-grhaṁ grhamupa tiṣṭhāte agniḥ.

This Dawn, young maiden, rises yonder in front from the east, yokes her team of crimson sun-rays and, fully self-assured, emerges, her banner blazing in the dark. And as she rises, yajna fire kindles in every home, giving the heat and light of life all round.

O Dawn, as you rise and shine, birds fly up from their nests and men move out in pursuit of food and sustenance for life. Brilliant lady of piety and sanctity, for the man of generosity and for the inmate of the home you strive to bear the holiest labours of love and joy.

O Dawns, loving and inspiring, adorable lights of Divinity, with the holy voice of Vedic adoration, pray for me and help me grow in life and piety, and you grow too in brilliance and sanctity. May we all by your favour, prayer and grace achieve food for life, energy, progress and prosperity a hundredfold, thousandfold and more.

1. Prātā ratnaṁ prātaritvā dadhāti taṁ cikitvān pratigrhyā ni dhatte. Tena prajāṁ vardhaya-māna āyū rayaspoṣeṇa sacate suvīrah.

The morning bears and brings the jewels of wealth for us. That wealth, the man of knowledge and wisdom, rising early, receives, and having received keeps safe. And by that, this brave man, growing and advancing in health and age and progeny, lives well with wealth, nourishment and comfort.

He is blest with good cows, good gold and good horses, and Indra, lord of life and power, brings him liberal gifts of food and energy for body, mind and soul for a long life time, who, rising early, binds you, the needy and deserving man, in a bond of thanks with a gift of ample means and money, like a calf bound with a rope to the post, while you come to him for help and assistance.

3. Āyamadya sukṛtaṁ prātaricchanniṣṭeḥ putraṁ vasumatā rathena. Amśoḥ sutam pāyaya matsa-rasya kṣayadvīraṁ vardhaya sūnṛtābhiḥ.

Generous Indra, lord giver of every gift of life, nourishment, training and honour, by the most precious chariot I have come today early morning for the reason of an honest desire, wishing to have a son growing to be capable of noble yajnic deeds. I pray, nourish and promote the son born of the most delightful essence of my life, and with holy words of truth, wisdom and Law develop the young man to be a centre and shelter of the brave.

Streams of joy, peace and prosperity flow from all round to the man performing the yajna of social charity and divine dedication now and in the future. Cows for love of food and care stand round the man feeding and satisfying the needy. And streams of water, milk and ghrta flow to the charitable man incessantly from all round.

The man dedicated to knowledge abides in inviolable peace and joy. The man who feeds and maintains children and scholars moves with the noblest men of knowledge and divinity. For him the waters, rivers and the seas create showers of ghr̥ta, and this earth with her generosity always creates the joy of fulfilment.

For the men of charity and yajna are these wonders of the world. For the men of honour, service and sacrifice shine the stars in heaven and abide. The men of knowledge, education and charity enjoy immortality beyond death, in life and after. And the men of courage, protection, fearlessness and charity cross the seas of suffering and slavery in their life of full age.

May the generous never come to sin and suffering. May the brilliant people of holy vows never suffer the disabilities of old age. May the orbit of their Karma be something different from evil and pain, since sorrow and suffering is the lot of the ungenerous and selfish.

I always accept and approve of the ruler's ways of charity, a man glorious, generous as the cloud and a protector of the pranic energies of life, and I admire his gifts of a hundred golds, hundred horses fast and well-trained, and a hundred cows and pieces of land. Rightly the man who knows the various ways of knowledge and charity extends his immortal fame to the heights of heaven.

Agni Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

अग्निं हातारं मन्य दास्वन्तं वसुं सूनुं सहसा जातवदसं विपं

I worship, serve and meditate on Agni, lord of light and knowledge, spirit of life and heat and inspiration of noble action, yajaka, generous giver, treasure of wealth and universal shelter, inspirer and creator of courage and courageous action like the sun, omniscient lord of all that is born in existence, master of knowledge as the supreme scholar of the Veda, organiser of yajna with love and non-violence with divine knowledge and awareness, refulgent with heavenly light and power, loving and consuming with flames of fire and light the blaze of the purest and most powerful ghrta offered into the fire of yajna, physical, mental and spiritual all.'

Agni, lord most worshipful, we the performers of this yajnic assembly, with all our heart and mind, together with all the saints and scholars with their earnest desire, invoke and invite you, wisest and senior-most of the scholar visionaries of Divinity, pure and immaculate, brilliant as the sun with your reach into the light of heaven, high-priest of humanity, lord of light knowledge, generous as rain showers, whom all these people accept, respect and approach with their desire and prayer for protection and self-fulfilment.

He surely rises to shine very brilliantly with his own splendid valour and honour who, like the axe which cuts down the trees, mows down the enemies, in whose presence even the strong and firm like the dense forest burst asunder into pieces, and who, commanding brave warriors, dominates and directs the enemies and, like a mighty wielder of the bow and arrow, never wavers but advances in battle against the enemy forces.

Just as the strong man of prosperity and spirit of service offers homage to the man of knowledge and wisdom, so does he offer oblations in yajna to Agni for the sake of protection and advancement. And Agni too, arising from the fiery potential of arani wood, gives protection and advancement to the yajaka. Just as fire overtakes many thick forests and reduces them to ash with its flames, so does the commanding yajaka reduce even strong enemies to naught, and just as the light of the sun ripens the grain with its energy, so does the yajaka ripen and strengthen the prosperity of the earth

Let us meditate on and do homage to that assiduous and uncompromising Agni, leading light of the world, in all directions, who shines brighter and stronger at night than in the day and, holding holy offerings in hand, let us honour and worship him. Just as a father provides a strong and happy home for the child so do the unaging leading lights of yajna and humanity bring us solace and protection with the gracious judgement of the dedicated and the undedicated. And thus, let us too, unageing and bright like the fire, live long and happy.

That Agni, daring and roaring as the wind, is admirably fearsome in raging battles, as he is worthy of honour and homage in yajnas in lands fertile as well as deserts and among families blest with lovely children. He receives offerings with love, readily consumes and uses the same for creative purposes. Indeed he is the triumphal banner of yajnas, most worthy of honour and worship. And of course all the people, joyous and emanating joy all round, follow in his footsteps, follow him on the path shown by him for the pursuit of goodness, beauty and joy of life.

When the Bhrgus, dedicated seekers and worshippers, generous members of the community, brilliant scholars, faithfully take on Agni for study and meditation, two ways in theory and practice, vision and pursuit, speak of it in detail analysing and realising it, then Agni, pure and immaculate power, wise and intelligent, that rules the wealth of the world and is the very foundation of these, blesses the darling dedicated servants with beauty, wealth and success.

We invoke, invite and do homage to you, Agni, lord protector of all the people of the world, for the light of life. We invoke and do homage to the lord protector of the home and family equally for all the people, for the joy of family life. We do homage to the lord of the voice of omniscience for the joy of knowledge. We do homage to the lord as the guest of honour and fire of yajna for all the people, in whose presence, as in the presence of the father, all these seekers of freedom and immortality hope for the food of life, and in whose honour they offer food and oblations to the brilliant and generous divinities of nature and humanity.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and power, by courage most courageous of the brave and victorious, you rise most brilliant and fiery for the advancement of the noblest powers of nature and humanity, just as wealth is most effective for the service of the divines. Most brilliant is your light of joy, most abundant in the service of yajna. Lord of light immortal, servants of yajna most obedient and willing, serve you just as they would serve the Immortal Lord of life.

May your song of praise in honour of Agni, victorious by virtue of great valour, light of the morning such as the dawn, be as it should be for the lord giver of life's wealth. Just so it is that the yajnic faithful offers oblations to the eternal teacher of revelation anywhere in all lands, and how an admirer ever offers praise to the eminent among scholars, or an aged yajaka offers to the senior physician.

O Lord, Agni, watching, guiding and guarding us at the closest, with all the brilliant powers of nature and humanity, bear and bring us, most kindly and graciously, great, valuable and lasting wealths of the world. Mightiest Lord, make us great for the experience and enjoyment of this earth. Lord of wealth, power and grandeur, bring us, admirers and worshippers, great valour and honour, and as a fierce disciplinarian churn us to the essence of magnanimity and majesty of life that existence is in reality.

Viśvaśruṣṭiḥ sakhīyate rayiriva śravasyate.
Adabdhho hotā ni ṣadadīlaspade parivīta ilaspade.*

This man, this Agni, this Brahmachari, yajaka, most worshipful, arises and shines in his Dharma and behaviour in pursuit of his own discipline and in conformity with the laws and customs of the lovers of life and noble ambition. Agreeable and complaisant with the world, he loves to be friends with all as wealth is friendly with the man who loves and cares to value it. Inspiring the dauntless yajamana, soaked in knowledge and surrounded by the learned, he sits on the vedi of yajna in the world of action and abides in the knowledge and vision of Divinity.

तं यज्ञसाधमपि वातयामस्यूतस्य पृथा नमसा हविष्मता

That Agni, divine treasure of the wealth of life and giver of success in yajnic endeavours, we, bearing holy offerings in divine service, kindle and fan to light and blaze, and serve along the path of Truth and natural Law with offers of food and reverence. And that lord of light and energy never tires of this divine grace, never fades out of this divine light and splendour, since this divine blaze and splendour, the wind and solar energy carries for humanity from a far distance, from the farthest imaginable distance.

Agni, lord of light, constantly goes by his path, pervading all that is in the world, celebrated in the voices of the divines, life of life, generous shower of vitality, roaring, wielding life and still roaring. The lord of brilliance, breaking and building in waves of energy, watching and illuminating the worlds with a hundred lights, holding, wielding and supporting the homes of life in the clouds, over the peaks, in the farthest regions of space on top, he goes on and on in the orbit along the circumference.

That Agni, lord of light, knowledge and fire, first agent of cosmic yajna, foremost and leader, inspires and lights the yajna, fragrant acts of creative love and non-violence, advances yajna by yajnic acts, issues forth like penetrative intelligence by the waves of yajnic energy and inspires all things in existence, and from the vedi arises with the glory, light of libations like a guest of honour at its own will, carrier, catalyser, penetrative, intelligent, illuminative for all.

When a person joins the blazing flames and forces of this Agni with his gift of oblations and energy by the yajna of creative and defensive action, as you would enhance the energy of a vigorous man with refreshments or you augment the force of the winds, then Agni receives the gift and, with his force and power, blesses the givers, and he warns us of the crooked ways of the world, protects us against scandals of the envious, saves us from evil and redeems us from sin and fall off from Divinity.

Agni, universal lord of wealth, honour and grandeur, like a saviour and redeemer, holds the wealth of the world in his right hand for the man of endeavour for his honour and fame, and the gift never slackens, yes, it never slackens. Lord of brilliance and generosity, you bear and bring all the sacrificial riches for the man of martial action and prayer. For the man of yajnic action, you give all the choice gifts of the world, give them through open doors.

That Agni, in the saving paths of human life, is most blissful, giver of fulfilment, and in yajnas he is like a victorious ruler and guardian of the people, yes, dear in yajnic projects and a saviour and protector of the world. He creates for humanity the materials for yajnic consumption and brings us the holiest words and actions of bliss. He guards us against the violence of nature and saves us from the ravages of misfortune.

The devas, creative men of brilliance inspired with generosity, who search for light, knowledge and wealth of the world for the sake of power, protection and advancement, worship Agni, lord of light and omnipotent. They honour and admire Agni, leading scholar of light and energy. They study, raise and develop fire and energy, brilliant source of light and power, productive source of wealth, inspirer of intelligence to create wealth, dearest friend and generous power, energiser, arouser and mover of mind and soul, and generous giver of comfort, joy and bliss. They worship, honour and develop Agni, creator, harbinger and giver of holy materials for wealth, yes, they do worship, honour and raise Agni, lord, scholar and power, which is life of the world, omniscient and omnipresent with every atom of the world, great unifier and integrator, creative power of cosmic yajna at every stage, poetic creator of beauty, a source of delight and happiness. That power of truth, beauty and joy, the seekers of light, wealth, power and divine joy celebrate in holy words for the sake of protection, guidance and advancement.

Indra, lord of light and knowledge, power beyond reproach, inspirer of life and people, whatever chariot you move for the purpose of yajna, that being faultless and immaculate, you move it fast forward and, favourable as you are to the yajaka, you instantly lead it and the master to success, to the desired object. Lord sung and celebrated, faster than light in motion and inspiration, faithful admirers we are all, elevate this song of ours to the height of the word of the wise and visionaries and graciously accept it as our homage of holiness.

May Indra, lord of wealth and power, listen to our voice of prayer and suggestion, Indra who is an expert hero in the projects of social fulfilment in cooperation with the socially motivated people and an instant fighter in battles of defence and development with men of martial nature, who meditates on the heavenly light of the spirit and with the brave, intelligent and wise men is the creator and distributor of food and energy among people, and with whom the strong and powerful leaders love to work exactly as successful people love to take to a strong and fast horse to reach their destination, fast as he is and versatile in everything.

Indra, lord of power and wealth, justice and generosity, brave hero of wondrous deeds, you shower the generous and protective man with support and plenty, you strike off the destructive saboteur and root out the corrupt man. Great you are, broad of mind and deep in spirit. I say these profuse words of praise for you, Indra, ruler and leader, light of the nation, dispenser of justice, commanding honour and fame, friend of all, universal choice of hearts, inspirer of peace and bliss, great mind and spirit indeed!

For your good and ours, we love and celebrate

Indra, friend, the very life breath of the world, patient and courageous, cooperative comrade, daring and victorious in battles, dedicated and meditative on life and Divinity. For our protection, O lord, protect and preserve our knowledge and Veda in all the battles. No enemy can overwhelm you. Whatever adversary you defeat, whatever world you win and cover with justice and protection, no enemy anywhere can overcome you.

In all grace, bow down before the exceptional wisdom of the learned. And bring down the haughty pride of the notorious enemy, O fierce lord of raging power and rectitude, with your burning and brilliant methods and actions of defence and protection blazing like the radiant flames of the fire of arani wood. You know us all, O brave, heroic and sinless, lead us forward as before, wash off all sin and evil from the life of humanity. Bearer of the burdens of existence, harbinger of all that is good, like fire, burn off our evil and let us shine close to your presence.

I would speak words of appreciation and sing that song of praise for one who is worthy of reverence, brilliant, and like a divinity worthy of invocation, strong, dynamic and favourable, inspires like soma and shines like the moon, who shines at heart and destroys evil, who by himself, with blows, wards off the evil-tongued and the malicious, and who makes the evil go down the gutter and even lower just like worms of dirt.

Let us invoke Indra with most enthusiastic homage, pray and win his favour. O lord of wealth, let us win wealth, win noble strength, noble strength of body and mind abiding with holy joy of the spirit. Let us, with honest thoughts and earnest desire associate and be one with Indra who brooks no nonsense and negativity of mind and spirit. Let us offer prayers and homage to Indra, holiest of the holy, with truth of mind and spirit and the richest offerings, the richest that we have.

Indra, lord of power and glory, by his own power and honour, is all for your protection and ours, and he is all out for the total destruction of the men of evil mind and intention. And may that force which is sent by our enemies for our destruction never reach us, but be routed on way as if destroyed of itself even if it is inspired and moved at the fastest speed. Indra, sung and celebrated for honour and graciousness, protect us from error, blunder and loss of faith. Always averting the envious and malicious, being brilliant and lustrous, you take the evil-minded down to the pit. Destroyer of the sinful and demonic killers, saviour of the pious and noble scholars and people like me, haven and home of the needy, may the lord creator of life rejuvenate you ever. Destroyer of sin and cruelty, shelter of the good, may the lord bless you ever with new life, energy and knowledge.

Protector and promoter of truth and rectitude, friend and protector of the truthful and righteous, come to our home like the ruler. Joining you faithfully in this yajna of life, dedicated to holy action and endeavour, we invoke and invite you to join us. for victory in our battle of life.

Just as a thirsty bull drinks the water of a pool augmented by the showers of a cloud, so you Indra, friend and fond of company, drink this soma prepared from herbs crushed with grinders and seasoned by the shower of the clouds for your delight, lord versatile and vibrant, sustainer of life, worthy of love and homage, and just as the rays of light and all the days bring up the sun for the world, so may they bring you to our vedi of yajna.

Indra, wielder of the thunderbolt of cosmic energy, most brilliant of the cosmic brilliancies, creates from the light of omniscience and divine omnipotence the wealth of existence hidden in the heart of mystery and opens out the materials and energies of cosmic evolution covered in the folds of sleep. He opens the closed doors of the wealth of existence as you deliver a foetus from the womb or an embryo from the egg or dig out a diamond from the heart of a stone lying in the depth of a mighty mountain or as the sun breaks open the waters of rain held in the cloud in the vast sky or as a cowherd opens the gates of a cow stall, wielding his staff to control their movements. Thus does Indra open the doors of the wealth of existence and control the order of evolution with his force of law.

Indra, firmly holding the thunder-bolt in hand, like a forceful jet of water or like a flood of penetrating rays of light to shoot, breaks the cloud and releases the waters of life. Similarly, one with your lustre and valour, like a wood cutter and carver, you fell the strongholds of evil like the trees of a forest, yes, uproot the wicked, striking the blows as with the axe.

Indra, you release the rivers at will to flow naturally well to the sea, they are like chariots loaded with food and energy, yes, replete with immense energy like chariots ever on the move. Thus, flow with this flow, you join the rivers with unrestricted wealth and modes of protection for all equally. And these rivers are like cows yielding all kinds of food and energy for the man of intelligence and for all people, for all, whole world indeed.

Indra, vipra, lord of knowledge, this song of honour and celebration, for you, men of knowledge, patience, and noble action seeking wealth and power, have formed in the mind, as they have created the chariot for the sake of comfort and well-being, just like men of knowledge, culture and grace would love to have a fast horse in life's battle flying to victory for the achievement of universal strength and power of wealth for everybody's share and everybody's enjoyment.

Indra, lord of the world, dancing with the joy of victory, you break down ninety strongholds of want and injustice for the sake of the people and for the great hospitable and philanthropist with your thunder-bolt of strength, power and energy. Lord of light and lustre, as the sun, you bring the cloud down in showers to the top of the mountain for the host, favourite of the visitors. Lord of sympathy and generosity, with your power and brilliance, you create great wealths of life, yes, and with your genius and philanthropy, bring up wealths of the world for universal benefit.

Indra, ruler of the world, master of a hundred modes and means of protection and promotion, should protect and advance the noble and creative yajamana in all the projects of public good, in all the programmes of heavenly light for the man of thought and pious intention and action. Let him correct and control the forces of indiscipline and lawlessness, overthrow the earth's cover of darkness, and like the generous benefactor enlighten all the seekers thirsting for light and knowledge and cauterise all the festering wounds of humanity.

Indra, the sun, lord of crimson glory, rising from the vast spaces lights up the mighty wheel of the world, ravishes the imagination with its refulgence and inspires human speech to silence in adoration, and, ruling the world specially at the advance of the day and more in the northern solstice, it inspires as well as silences the speech with awe. O Poet divine, inspired with light, love and brilliance, come here on the earth from afar like a man divine, fast and faster, generous, all days every hour, and bring us the wealth and joys of the world for the protection and advancement of humanity.

Sung and celebrated by poets of enlightenment, you too rise and advance as the sun ascends high and higher day by day in heaven.

The heavenly light of the sun and the cloud with all pranic energy do homage to Indra only. The mighty Prakṛti and the earth, their best characteristic powers and virtues, do homage to Indra. All the divinities of nature and brilliancies of humanity together with unqualified love and faith do homage primarily to Indra as the Lord Supreme. May all the human work and wealth and the highest yajnic sessions be surrendered as gifts of homage to Indra, Lord Supreme of the universe.

In all their yajnic projects of creation and development and in their acts of piety, all the liberal minded people and all seekers of heavenly bliss serve you and abide by you, sole one universal lord of existence, individually as well as together. To the same one lord we too belong, and we too love, meditate on and serve you, lord, with faith as the very centre of cosmic energy and as the saviour ship for crossing over the ocean of existence. All the people born and living on earth in their mortal existence and all the stars and planets in their songs and dance of adoration serve and worship the Lord as Indra, light of the world like the sun.

Indra, lord of might and prosperity, wedded couples, keen for protection and advancement united with you and going out in pursuit of their efforts to promote the wealth of cows, development of land and related knowledge, extend your glory and eliminate their want and suffering, since you inspire and exhort both men and women going out and achieving the light and joy of life when you open out and wield for action the thunderbolt of justice and protection, so generous, promotive and friendly to you and the people.

Indra, lord of power and management, the people would know and realise your usual power and valour when you, bold and challenging, would overcome the autumnal and wintry problems of life and society, reclaim the habitations, control the rivers, and restore total civic normalcy after rains, when, O lord of law and power, you tame the man who is selfish, possessive, uncreative, uncooperative and unyajnic, and when, happy at heart and creating the pleasure and joy of life, you release the great earth, release these waters and relieve these creative and cooperative people.

Indra, lord of generosity, people loving and dedicated to you in their moods of joy praise and celebrate this valour and justice of yours since you protect and promote them, yes, promote and advance them, so friendly to you and to all as they are. You work wonders for them in their battles of life and production for proper distribution and participation while they, desiring their share of food and wealth, rightfully hope to gain one thing after another of the flow of national wealth.

Indra, lord of light, now listen and accept this joyous celebration of ours of the light of the dawn, know this prayer and, O shower of light and joy, accept our invocation and holy offerings since, O wielder of the thunderbolt, lord of generosity, you keep awake for us for the elimination of violence. Listen to this newest prayer of mine made in full knowledge in worship, listen and accept this latest thought and petition.

Indra, lord of power and glory, ever exalting, friend of ours, universally famous, mighty bold, eliminate with the thunderbolt every man who entertains hate and enmity toward us and does sinful acts against us. Listen lord, since you are the closest listener. Let the man of evil intention be off from our way like one broken by evil. Let all evil intentions and evil designers be off and away from us.

Indra, ruling lord of wealth and power, we pray, guided and protected by you and your power and potential, let us face the men in the very first encounter, love, tolerate or fight who wish to love, contest or fight, and let us win the encounter. On this day right now at the closest, speak to one and all of those who are conducting the yajna of the business of corporate living. In this yajna of full measure, while we are up and doing and winning all round, let us choose the best meritorious line of action and let us choose you as our guide, leader and protector.

In the yajnic battle for the winning of light and joy, in the chant of the Apri hymns for divine favour, in the holy performance of the person rising at dawn, in the instant action of the man of love and grace, Indra destroys the obstacles in the way of action and achievement for the man who knows the favours of the lord, and for these the lord is adorable for every one and for the best among us. Just as Indra is favourable thus, so we pray to the lord: With us and for us as you always are, may all your gifts be for our good. May your gracious favours be good to the noble humanity.

Indra, that Word of yours, that gracious gift, as ever, is brilliant. You are the ocean of Rta, eternal light and law of the truth of existence, the very home from where it flows like a river, like the radiation of sunlight. Pray speak of that same Word, reveal it in the yajna where they have created the choicest altar for your presence. Surely the same light the dedicated yajnic see within by the divine rays within and without. And I too would know of it then and realise. Truly Indra is the giver of knowledge, the Word, the cows and earthly wealth. He is the giver of these for the lovers and friends of our brethren. (The seeker of these too is Indra among humanity.)

Indra, surely the word which you thus reveal as before for the scholars dear as the breath of life, and the way you open the doors of knowledge and treasures of the world, teaching us the wisdom of eternity is worth admiration and celebration. You fight for us and win the victories in the same constant way for these and for us who distil the essence of things. Heat up and season those indisciplined and lawless people who are funny, angry, violent or thievish, yes, subject them to the crucibles of law and education and cleanse them to purity from culturelessness.

When Indra, brave and fearless lord of power and glory, by virtue of his wisdom and noble actions, closely surveys the forces of the people at the call of battle, the people, keen for honour, in love with fame, overcome all opposition, worship him and serve him with all their valour and lustre in the hour of crisis. They augment his life and morale as the hero of a mighty nation. Firm of mind and full of confidence, they repose complete faith in him as in the divinities and find their haven and home in him.

O lord of valour and lustre, router of the deadly forces, destroy our enemies all round, crush them everywhere.

and burn off the anti-Indra forces on earth to naught. And having thus seized and crushed the unfriendly elements wherever they happen to be active, and confirmed that they are dead and gone, I let them lie asleep in their grave.

Indra, lord of earth and heaven, bring down that fierce demon and break him to pieces. Listen to our prayer. Purify and let the earth shine like heaven with tremendous light, lord of clouds and mountains, let the earth shine with the rule of law as by the blaze of light, lord of earth and heaven. Lord of highest power, you move on wielding the most powerful and lustrous weapons of law and punishment. The yajamana who performs yajna and distils the soma prays for a home and gets one. Organising the yajna and the distillation of the soma of joy and prosperity, he drives away many envious enemies by yajna, drives the enemies of noble people away. The organiser of yajna, fast, intelligent and wise, open, free and fearless wants to create a hundred things, and Indra, lord of creation, power and generosity creates and gives blissful wealth for the yajnic people, yes, the lord blesses with the gift of wealth, peace and joy.

Vayu, spirit of yajnic vitality, may the fast currents of cosmic energy with love and caress escort and bring you here for a drink up of soma first of all, drink of fragrance as ever before, and your consort, upward current on the circuitous wave, recognising you as her partner and offering herself as an oblation, join you in the cycle of yajnic transmission of fragrance. Come, yoke the horses to the chariot and fly with your gifts for the generous yajamana.

And O Vayu, cyclic energy of nature divine, may the exhilarating vapours of our yajna, well-created and activated by our libations into the fire, brilliant as light, radiating with the waves of the earth energy and rising with the rays of the sun join and vitalise you. The dynamic people exerting for advancement achieve divine protection and success. Only the intelligent ones working together in unison with yajna and divine energy receive and reveal the power and wisdom for the generous yajamana.

Vayu yokes the red and the orange red of nature's powers such as fire and light, and it inspires the dawn and the sun. It uses all the dynamic sources of energy and power such as air and wind, fire and sunlight, the mind and senses, and the flow of water, all strongest and most impetuous for transport and communication. It awakens them and yokes them to the chariot of cosmic movement. O Vayu, come and wake up and energise life like a lover who wakes up and impassions a sleeping beauty. Light up the heaven and earth, light up the dawns. Light up the dawn of new life and let it rise to the top of glory.

For you, O Vayu, Divine Energy, the purest and brightest blissful lights of the dawn in far off spaces wondrously weave the designs of world beauty in sunlight, in the newest colourful rays of light. For you the all generous cow produces all the milky wealths of food and energy, the divine voice of universal potency brings all the wealths of world knowledge. For you do the winds unborn drink up the vapours from the flowing streams of water and yajna fragrances, and then from heaven shower the rain of water, energy and bliss for the world.

The brilliant, pure and radiant, fast and zealous, and the blazing geniuses in the ecstasy of meditation, in the rapid flow of their karmas have desire only for you, have love but only for you in the intensity of their karma and devotion. The man of strength and generosity going by safest high ways worships you, lord giver of wealth and power of the world. O Vayu, first, unprecedented and eternal lord, you alone deserve to drink of these soma essences distilled by us, you alone deserve to receive the offer of our acts of worship. You alone are the object of worship by purified intelligences and dedicated souls of the people. All dynamics of the world, lights of the suns, earths of the universe, divinities of nature and geniuses of humanity offer the milk of worship, they offer the ghrta of milky soma in the divine fire for you, only for you.

O Indra and Vayu, givers of joy and strength and speed, come both for the joy of life for you and for ourselves.

Both of you, Indra and Vayu, go to the lovers of permanent values and knowledge, there to the house where the voice of soma chant is heard, where truth and universal law of the universe is celebrated in yajna, and where ghrta flows into the yajna fire. Go to the yajna both of you, to the house of yajna by the chariot drawn by a team of horses in full and perfect form.

O Vayu, your gifts of creation never decrease, your words never go waste, nor are they ever stolen away.

These warriors of yours, strong of arm and virile they are. Generous and creative, they sanctify the earth. They fly in space between earth and heaven, and, themselves rising in glory, they add to the glory of earth and heaven. Rising to the stars like the winds they are steady and self-restrained. Impetuous as they are like the winds, their rest and home is beyond words. Untamable they are like the sunbeams, and awful to handle by the hands.

Take the best and amplest food, and songs and tributes of adoration, holy and most delicious, and offer to the eternal, beneficent and gracious lords Mitra and Varuna, universal friend and adored love of everybody's choice. Brilliant are they, regaled, revered and worshipped in yajna after yajna of social and sacred programmes with ghṛta which they love and consume with delight. Their rule and power of order none can challenge, their brilliance and divinity none can resist.

The great earth is lit for a wide range of activities for the day. The path of Rtam, divine truth of Law and yajna is revealed by the rays of the sun, bright as the rays themselves, as the eye of the lord of world's wealth has opened with the sun. The heavenly seats of Mitra, Aryama and Varuna, lords of love, justice and freedom, are bright on high. The divinities of nature bear and bring for humanity admirable food, health and long age. The noblest of humanity bear and offer holy offerings to the divinities of yajna with faith and holy chants of Vedic hymns.

Mitra and Varuna, centripetal and centrifugal powers of cosmic energy, which are the Adityas, children of Aditi, infinite and inviolable power of the omnipotent Lord, sustain the beautiful and paradisaal indivisible earth joined with the self-luminant heaven day by day constantly. Ever wakeful are they, day in and day out, without a wink of sleep. They are supporters and protectors of the generous and motivated people and they pervade, unite and maintain the grand order of the earth and the world. Aryama, cosmic dynamics, ordains and harmonises the powers of the two, Mitra and Varuna, inspires the human creation and impels the entire universe of the Lord's creation.

May this Soma, holy peace and brilliant justice of the social order, be most joyous and blissful for Mitra and Varuna, friendly and the best intelligent powers be harbinger of honour and good fortune among saints and sages and in the daily business and yajnic programmes of national activity. May all the noble powers today, observing the common universal Dharma, serve the same peace and justice. May the ruling powers, observing the universal law, accept and do what we ask for, what we, observing the universal law, suggest they ought to do.

O man, sing in praise of Indra, lord of power, Agni, lord of light and leadership, the lord of heavenly light, Aryama, lord of the stars, and Bhaga, lord of wealth and honour. We pray may Agni, lord of light and energy, Mitra, the sun, and Varuna, the moon, grant us peace, comfort and joy of a happy home, and we resolve that, having that bounty and munificence of the divinities, we endeavour to do our Karma and achieve the same.

The greatness and grandeur of this Pusha, lord of living power, protection and promotion, renowned among the strongest, resounds all round. None can violate his prowess, none can destroy his knowledge and fame. Dedicated to peace and well-being, I adore him, the very image of strength and protection, embodiment of peace and joy. Lord of social cohesion and holy union in yajna, he unites the minds of all humanity. Brilliant and generous, yajna itself, he joins everything together in existence as one integrated organismic whole.

Pusha, lord of nourishment, health and protection, I celebrate you with songs of praise as a fast and intelligent traveller on the path of life. Just as warriors go to battle and win, just as camels cross the desert, so do you help us get over the battles of life. As I am mortal, I invoke you and pray, lord of peace, indeed an embodiment of peace and joy, brilliant and generous, for help and friendship on the journey. Inspire our prayers and wise men with power and spiritual strength in the serious business of life, give us the wealth of victory in the battles of life.

Pusha, lord giver of health and joy, by virtue of your friendship, being strong of intelligence yajnic performance and self-protection, people enjoy a good self-image and self-esteem. And as thus they esteem themselves by their performance and enjoy life, we pray to you for the latest and countless forms of the wealth of life. Lord of health and joy, kind and favourable, universally adored, accept us as good friends and soldiers and be with us in every battle of life.

Pusha, lord of nature and fastest motion, lord of goats and horses, we pray, be close with us for the gift of this wealth and intelligence, be kind and generous, richest of the masters of food, wealth and power. With our best and holiest songs of praise and prayer, O lord of riches and generosity, destroyer of suffering, we pray, we may always abide by you. Lord of light and showers of nourishment, we never offend your majesty, we never neglect or disregard your friendship. We are with you, pray be with us.

May my voice be heard! I have realised the energy and power of Agni, light and fire, in full with my intellect and understanding. Then we opt for the divine force and power of nature and move on to the study and application of the power of wind and electricity which, active at the centre of the sun, give us the newest and latest form of energy and power. May all our intellectual efforts and intelligential vision reach the forces of nature and analyse and discover their energy and powers. Let us reach there well with all our intellect and imagination and let our efforts benefit the noblest humanity.

Lords of universal knowledge, yours are the wealth and beauty and all resources of the world you rule over. Generous lords and protectors, graceful in your chariot, the golden wheels of the chariot shower and sanctify you with the golden beams of radiance.

Generous lords of light, let us also join you on your golden and stoutly structured chariot. Indra, lord of power and honour, virile and generous, these sparkling draughts of soma worthy of the mighty generous and heroic, extracted with soma stones, distilled from the vapours of the clouds, bubbling and exciting they are, are distilled for you. May they be delightful to you, generous giver, great, wonderful, and thriving lord of accomplishment and success. Lord adorable in the holiest words, celebrated in song, giver of bliss, come, come to us and bless!

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and leadership, lord adorable and adored, listen graciously to our word: you speak to the brilliant and revered men of knowledge and yajna, you speak to the illustrious men of governance and administration. Say this: O Devas, divine powers, whatever word of knowledge and life's vitality you impart to the scholars of energy and the science of life, that very knowledge the specialist of mind, will and emotion, Aryama, has distilled for his co-worker, the man of action, and the same this friend and colleague of mine, the judge, knows for practical application.

O Maruts, brave heroes of earth and space vibrant as waves of energy, may your ancient and eternal powers and potentials and ours, and our honour and fame never wear away outmoded, and never forsake us. Whatever is yours, wondrous and excellent, ancient and yet ever new from age to age, what is imperishable from the eternal Voice and your proclamations, fix that within us deep in the mind, so it is difficult to surpass, unchallengeable.

Dadhyang, the ideal man of virtue who approaches men of knowledge and wisdom with reverence, Angira, the scholar of life-energy and science, Priyamedha, the visionary who loves intellectual advancement, Kanva, the high-priest of intelligence, Atri, the saint who has conquered threefold pain and suffering, Manu, the philosopher of thought and contemplation, all these perfect souls, realised souls of wisdom all, know my rebirth into the state of knowledge and refinement, yes, they know. Our reach is unto the centre of their holy presence, the centre hold of our identity is there. In their tradition, at every step, with every word I speak of exalted speech, I adore Indra and Agni, lord of honour and power, lord of light and knowledge, I bow in thought, word and deed.

Let the performer of yajna offer oblations in honour of the divinities of nature and humanity. Let the brilliant man of knowledge honour and serve the virtuous man worthy of choice. Let Brhaspati, scholar of knowledge and master of the speech of knowledge, loving and kind, associate with generous and virtuous people and, with all these noble sacrificing people, engage in yajna, socially creative work. Let us all, with equal mind and soul, hear and internalise what words of truth are spoken even far away as we enjoy the sound of soma stones and the soothing showers of clouds. Let the man of holy intelligence and action enjoy the showers of peace, prosperity and joy, and may the man of noble yajna enjoy many many homes and havens of his choice.

1. Vediṣade priyadhāmāya sudyute Dhāsimiva pra bharā yonimagraye. Vastreṇeva vāsayā man-manā śuciṁ jyotīratham śukravarṇam tamohanam.

As you bring holy food for the holy fire burning bright in the vedi, lovely seat of its choice, so for Agni, with a sincere mind and soul, prepare a happy home and a brilliant chariot of light, pure, blazing white dispelling darkness, and cover it safe as with a cloth, beautifully and fragrantly.

To the twice born scholar threefold food of jnana (knowledge), karma (action) and Upasana (prayer and meditation) is brought and gifted which, received in the session and assimilated, grows manifold in the session. By the mouth and tongue (speech) of another, the teacher, and with the mouth and tongue of others (his colleagues), through discussion, the strong and victorious scholar warding off difficulties and challenges in the company of others refines and shines all those who love and admire him.

Both the mothers of this Agni, i.e., the mother and the guru-mother of the scholar at school, both equal in ambition, rising to the clouds in hope, vibrate in ecstasy like the two arani woods which produce the fire, and look forward to the success of their child speaking boldly, destroying the darkness of ignorance and acquiring knowledge, being reborn fast, worthy of the company, joy and honour of his father, but carefully to be guarded at every critical step.

All lovers of liberation, dynamic pioneers, explorers of the unknown paths of the world, smartest, diverse minded, fast and wind-inspired, shooting to the goal at the speed of light join on the yajna vedi with the man of thought for the man of self-esteem and honour.

When this Agni, mighty hero of light and power, goes forward blowing, roaring, thundering and striking, covering and vitalising this great earth all round, then those warriors of his, men of action, advance at will destroying the monstrous ways of darkness and creating mighty forms of life and social structure.

Graceful among the old sages, he excels, doing reverence and homage bowing down. Like a virile husband going to meet his wife, he moves and speaks loud and bold among creative women dedicated to pious and holy yajna. Like a man of light and power, he appears in brilliant form. Like an awful lion difficult to overcome, he goes about majestically commanding all with his knowledge and power at the peak.

Covering or expanding, Agni, the brilliant scholar, covers and seizes things and subjects well, intensively as well as extensively, and vitalizes them. Knowing well, he always associates with those who are knowledgeable, and they, in association with him, growing higher and higher, assume a divine form and thus create a personality different from the personality of their birth.

The leading lights speak of Agni like flames of fire and sing of him, and if they ever go down weak and enervated, they look up to him for fresh life, and Agni, releasing them from their weakness and enervation and recreating a high order of fresh vitality and new life, helps them stay up on high as before and goes forward roaring and crackling as ever.

Touching and playing with the upper green garments of mother earth, going fast with resounding living beings, bearing foods and health and vitality for the moving multitudes on earth, always following the paths it came by, Agni goes on leaving behind a reddish white trail of its visit.

Agni, shine among our great and powerful people, and then, breathing, panting, blowing and bellowing like a bull, overflowing with energy, commanding and restraining, dear to the families but blazing in the battles, protect women, children and the homes like an armour, throw out the enemy and shine and brighten up life all around.

the dearest song composed with the greatest effort for you, and may the splendour of your person which blazes pure and sacred be auspicious for us by which you bring us precious jewels of life.

Agni, lord of light, fire and knowledge, for our chariot-car and for our home, give us the power fitted with life-time mechanism for propulsion, steering and measuring the depth of water, a transport which may take our brave heroes, leaders of power and men of wealth, and the people across the rivers and seas and which may provide for peace, protection and a comfortable house.

Truly thus, by the grace of Divinity, is radiated and received the wonderful splendour of Agni's glory, and therein lies the seed, the birth, the very life of the strength and victory of our soul's existence: therefrom is the light radiated and received for the beauty of our embodied soul so that even if our mind ever deviates from truth, the voices of Law and Truth of Eternity ever resounding, ever flowing with currents of nature's light, call us back to the right path and, thus beatified, our mind achieves the success we want.

The eternal Agni, which nourishes and matures the body of life with food, lives in the physical body (as vital heat and abides with the earth). The second form of it abides in the seven motherly forms of nature (which are the seven lokas bhuh, bhuvah, svah, maha, janah, tapah and satyam), which empowers seven grades of natural energy, and matures the seven grades of natural life. The third form of this generous divinity which matures and distils the essences of natural life abides in the sun. And the form which energises ten intelligential faculties (five senses of hearing, touch, sight, taste and smell, mana or mind, buddhi or intellect, chitta or memory and imagination, ahankara or sense of identity consciousness, and the soul, the dynamic spirit), young mothers with love bring into the living world.

Brilliant scholars of commanding eminence from the middle regions of the light of the great sun collect the vitality and convert it into ripening waves for the maturity of grain. Similarly the vision of the yogis collects the spiritual vitality of the honey sweets of heavenly light unto itself in communion and the pranic energy churns the latent spirit in the depths of the soul to join it with the heavenly light.

The food and nourishment which is collected, received and assimilated from the highest light of heaven and the middle regions wonderfully rises and grows into the hungry herbs and trees and vegetation. And when both nourish the yajamana and his progeny, the person grows most youthful, kind and compassionate, and brilliant and pure.

In the course of evolution, Agni, the vitality of life, which enters the mother forms of nature, now grows, pure, brilliant and unhurt, with the soil of its germination and generation, and then, the one which grew on the earlier one with the earlier forms of life, self-impulsive with the eternal will to live, now lives, vibrates and runs in the latest and most delicate mother forms.

Yajnic lovers, admirers and worshippers of Agni, light and life of the world, choose, invoke and invite this lord of life and yajnic evolution of nature and humanity in their cherished holy projects and offer hospitality and gifts of oblations to it as to the lord of world wealth and power. And then this lord, worshipped and favourable by pious acts and power joins the noble humanity in many many ways to the devas, divine and generous powers of the universe, for sustenance and progress under the divine eye.

When Agni, light and fire of life, conducting the yajna of existence, inspired and impelled by winds, blazing eloquent like a poet singing in praise of his patron undisturbed, rises to a state of stability and omnipresence, then the path of this blazing power going over areas of darkness, pure and immaculate by birth shining everywhere across the wide ways of space is worthy of praise and following by all humanity.

As a chariot created by scientists and driven by expert drivers flies across the sky with the brilliant parts of the machine, so does Agni rise across space with its blazing flames of fire. Lord of life and light, enlighten the ignorant, light the paths of darkness, and strengthen your warriors because, otherwise, at the blaze of fiery violence like the terror of a demonic hero, life flies away.

Agni, lord of light, life and power, it is by you that Varuna, the sea as the sky holds on to its law, Mitra, the sun, dispels the darkness, and Aryama, the abundant and dynamic nature and the philanthropic humanity are creative and generous. For the reason of your nature and divine action, you are universal, omnipresent, and omnipotent over all and you manifest as immanent and concurrent just like the rim of a wheel holding the spokes together running and working together.

Agni, ever young beyond age, for the creative man of active piety and worship, you bring the universal wealth of Divinity in meditation. Lord of power and youth, wealth and value of the universe, eternal and ever new, such as you are, in every act of our life we worship you as the lord and master of the power and glory of the universe.

Bountifully you create and augment for us the wealth of life good enough for success and value with honour and discipline of mind and character. Give us the expert as well as the man of wealth and power to stabilize and maintain the balance of power and discipline, law and freedom, individual and society. Lord controller of both our life here and hereafter like the rays of light, you who hold the reins of our thought and action like the reins of a chariot, lord and master of all noble acts of yajna, pray come and accept the homage of worship of the dedicated people.

And Agni, lord of divine light, faster than light and omnipresent, generous giver and performer of universal yajna, blissful master of the golden chariot of existence may, we pray, listen to our song of celebration. May the lord omnipotent, inviolable, ever loving and lovable, lead us well to the good life and good fortune by the most virtuous thoughts and actions of faith and piety.

Thus is Agni, wielding power and splendour for world governance, praised with songs of success and thankfulness. And thus the yajakas and we, celebrants all blest with wealth and power by the Lord's grace, raise our songs of adoration to the skies loud and bold as thunder of the clouds under power of the sun.

Agni, light of life and life of the universe, the fire is burning. Bring the devas here and now, let the sages come and let nature bless the yajamana who has raised the ladle to offer the oblation. Expand and continue the ancient line of yajnic action and progeny for the generous yajamana who has distilled the soma for the sages and for you.

I bear and offer the highest, latest, joyously celebrative and most sacred worshipful homage in words of adoration to Agni, created of might, who is the grand child of waters of the skies, dearest favourite with the Vasu order of scholars, receiver and performer in yajna corresponding to the seasons and abiding with the earth.

That refulgent Agni born of the highest cosmic space manifested itself in energy currents in the middle region of space in the skies. It is by the action and force of this blazing power that the heaven is lit bright and the earth shines on in beauty.

The beams and brilliance of this holy light, clear and discerning of sight, beautiful of form and blazing with awe, are unaging, beyond decay. The waves of this mighty power of light flowing like rivers in flood are ever youthful, ever wakeful, they ever shine and dispel darkness as the dawn dispels the night.

That Agni whom the Bhrgus, men of vision and knowledge, invoke and realise on the floor of the earth, in the centre of the world and in the depth of their consciousness with the power of their knowledge, spirit and prana, that omniscient Agni, light of the world, with your words of prayer, invoke and realise in your own heart and home, yes, Him who alone by Himself is lord of the wealth of the universe and shines over all as Varuna, supreme ruler.

Agni is a mighty power which, like the roar of winds, like an awful force launched upon the enemy, is irresistible just like the thunderbolt of lightning in the sky. With its dreadful jaws, or crushing weapons, sharp and destructive, it eats up and destroys as a mighty warrior destroys the enemies, or as the conflagration burns up and reduces the forests to ash.

May the brilliant power, great and beneficent, accord, approve and accomplish our desire and ambition with comforts and well-being in life. Great inspirer is Agni. May the power sharpen and activate our mind and intellect to create new things with acquisition of success and victories. With the same mind and intellect we praise and celebrate the grandeur of Agni, mighty, versatile, brilliant, blazing and pure of form and action.

Blazing unresisted, it shines in the yajnic projects of development, and inspires and sharpens our pure and transparent intelligence.

Agni, holy power, brilliant and blazing, ever wakeful, active and working relentlessly, protect us with good, protective and preservative, and blissful modes of life, by noble, protective and blissful people. Power dear, creator and giver of joy and comfort, protect, promote and advance us all round by sober, irresistible and intrepidable modes and people ever watchful and working without a wink of sleep.

The yajaka who holds his clear and brilliant intelligence high with his will and power goes by the law and discipline of this Agni, light of the Divine power of the world. He moves forward to hold the sacred ladles dedicated to the service of yajna-fire and right circumambulation of the vedi, ladles which first and directly reach and take the yajamana to the sacred abode of Agni, light Divine.

Waves of fragrance, streams of nectar, dynamics of Truth and divine Law, returning, abiding, enveloped in light, going round Agni in the seat and home of the lord, the sun, do sing in adoration of the Divine. They nestle in the womb of the divine mother of waters, creativity of cosmic energy there held by the mother, and then the streams of nectar are distilled and rain down again in showers for the life of the earth and her children, joining, again with agni, electric energy.

When two persons of equal age and equal mind wishing to cross over a common problem and achieve a common end, join together in body for mutual love and support, they accept, hold on and support each other as beauty and majesty and accept a tribute of love as fire accepts an oblation of yajna from us, or as a charioteer accepts and holds the reins of the horses.

When two persons of equal age, the wedded couple, living together, the two as one in the same one body, in the same one house, serve and worship the same Agni in love day and night, then the same old eternal Agni, ever vibrating in the human soul as the will to live and generate, unaging, for ages and ages, is reborn as new and young as ever in the human form.

All the human potentials such as thoughts, ideas, reflection, wisdom, will and understanding, intention, devotion, prayer and meditation, all ten senses of perception and volition, the five main pranic energies and five sub-pranas, though separate, yet jointly, invoke, enlight and serve the same one Agni as the ten fingers, though separate, yet jointly, nurse the same one baby with love and care. We all mortals serve, adore and worship the same eternal light of life, Agni. It moves ever so fast and hits its targets as an arrow shot from the bow, and ever new born and growing, young and youthful, it receives new knowledge from the sages on the move. Homage to the Lord for protection, promotion, peace and well-being!

Agni, light supreme and power, you light and rule the heavens. You enliven and rule the earth and the earthly like a master shepherd with love and care. And both of them, heaven and earth, move on, mighty, grand and graceful, golden rich and beautiful, rotating and revolving in their orbits, rushing on and participating in the cosmic yajna.

Agni, be pleased, listen to our words of praise and prayer and respond, charming lord of light possessed of innate power, born of cosmic energy for the law and truth of existence, master of yajnic action, universally kind and favourable as you are, celestial beautiful to the sight, joyous and brilliant of word, and a haven of peace and comfort like a generous man of hospitality for all.

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

Agni is the lord of light, knowledge and power: of him they ask the questions, he goes all round, he knows, he has the wisdom and awareness and the knowledge of sciences, he reaches, yes, reaches anywhere he wants. In him lies the power of governance and law, in him lies the potential for all you want, and he is the master, ruler and commander of energy, strength and valour, and of the fiery forces of his dominion.

Agni is the lord of knowledge and self-realisation: of him the learned ask the questions where they miss the light, not all, everybody doesn't ask him. Lord of peace and stability of mind as he is, whatever he realises or understands with his own mind is not subject to doubt either before or later. Everybody goes by the words and holy actions of this power of undaunted spirit and undisturbed mind free from arrogance.

Just as ladles of ghrta reach agni, fire of yajna, so do youth of noble speech and blessed intelligence reach Agni, lord of brilliance and exalted soul, bearing questions and homage. May the lord, sole master of knowledge, unique and unparalleled, listen to my prayers and questions too, lord inspirer of many, instant saviour of the seekers, master of yajnic accomplishments, giver of faultless protection, dispeller of doubts and darkness, all-great and loving, gracefully receiving and acknowledging questions as well as the homage of yajna.

4. Upasthāyaṁ carati yat samārata sadyo jāta-statsāra yujyebhiḥ. Abhi śvāntaṁ mṛśate nāndye mude yadīm gacchantyusātīrapiṣṭhitam.

When the devotee approaches this brilliant Agni with holy offerings, it instantly responds, rises, grows and expands with its flames. When the maidens with love and faith approach it, it provides soothing touches of caress and reflection for their peace and joy in a state of tranquillity.

5. Sa īm mṛgo apyo vanargurupa tvacyupamasyāṁ ni dhāyi. Vyabravīd vayunā martyebhyo'gnirvidvān ṛtaciddhi satyaḥ.

That Agni which is ever on the move like a deer, worthy of research and attainment, abiding in the waters, in the forests, in the sunbeams, in the woods, in the skin, and in the dark of the eye, which is a metaphor of omnipresence and universal eloquence of its presence for humanity, and similarly for the brilliant scholar dedicated to Agni, abiding for all everywhere, collecting the dynamic flow of knowledge and speaking of it to humanity — that is true, that is abiding: Agni, knowledge, scholarship, the flow, dynamics of existence, and living.

1. Trimūrdhānaṁ saptaraśmim grṇīṣe'nūnamagnim pitrorupasthe. Niṣattamasya carato dhruvasya viśvā divo rocanāpaprivāṁsam.

Invoke and celebrate Agni, three-headed, seven-rayed, perfect, nestled in the lap of its parents, which pervades and fills the lights of this moving but stable heavenly solar system of the universe.

(Agni is the life-energy of light and heat, born of akasha and vayu, cosmic space and cosmic energy; it abides on top of the three regions, earth, middle region of the skies, and the high and heavenly regions of the sun. It also abides in the three modes of nature, Prakṛti: sattva, rajas and tamas. It is an integration, or call it the seed, of the seven rays of light-spectrum, and it energises all the moving but stable solar systems of the universe.

Agni also is the vital spirit of the articulation of cosmic awareness in language form in the Veda, which is learnt from the opening word of the Rgveda. It abides on top of the three tenses and three persons of the verbs of the linguistic structure and in the seven vibhaktis, case endings, and sung in the seven metrical forms and seven notes of music.

Agni thus is the divine attribute of the spirit at the individual as well as the cosmic level, and energises, inspires and illuminates the physical, mental and spiritual worlds in the spheres of matter, motion and mind.)

2. Ukṣā mahāñ abhi vavakṣa eme ajarastasthā-vitaūtirṣvaḥ. Urvyāḥ pado ni dadhāti sānau rihantyūdho aruṣāso asya.

The mighty sun, far greater than the earth and other planets, generously radiating floods of light and waves of gravitational energy, holds the earth and skies. Ever young and awfully moving, it is stable, providing protection and stability to its family. On top, it maintains its degree and distance from the earth while its light rays touch and drink up the reservoirs of water.

Two cows, the earth and the sun, beautiful and co-existent, tending the same calf, the day-night cycle, equally well, traversing their orbits without deviating, go round and round, sustaining and revealing the great banners of the identity of various objects in space.

Poets and scholars, wise and meditative, protecting and guiding people with their heart in many ways, lead them to positions of undecaying value. Keen to share the joy and generosity of life wide as the sea, they look round and the sun reveals itself to them.

5. Didṛkṣeṇyah pari kāṣṭhāsu janya īlenyo maho arbhāya jīvase. Purutrā yadabhavat sūrahai-bhyo garbhebhyo maghavā viśvadarśataḥ.

Agni, power of light and knowledge in life, so brilliant as to be admirable by the brilliant victorious all round in all directions, worthy of praise and reverence, life-giving to the small as well as to the great, abundantly creative and promotive to all these people and projects in the making, is the lord of wealth and power and universally admired and honourable.

Agni, lord of light and life, how do your flames of fire, and brilliant scholars, blazing and purifying, givers of life with food, energy and knowledge to both children and grand children, and bearing food both for body and mind, rejoice and participate in the songs of Veda and the yajna of Truth, Law and divine knowledge?

Agni, lord of light, master of your own power of knowledge, youngest of the lights, listen to me, I pray, and know my word, highest and most powerful of mine ever borne: One drinks at the fount of your knowledge, and the other repeats your words according as you have directed. I am your admirer and worshipper. I bow to your body, mind and soul.

Agni, lord of light, power and knowledge, the flames of your fire, brilliant teachers and warriors, are the guardians of humanity, seers and visionaries of the present and future generations, who guard the blind and the ignorant against evil and crime. O lord and master of world knowledge, protect all those who do good work so that even the deadly enemies of society may not be able to terrorize anyone.

Agni, whoever be envious, sinful and non-giving and try to mislead us with evil words and double dealing in action, may the Agni mantra be our right guide and save us, and may the evil speaker and doer stew himself in his own juice and destroy himself with those very evil words.

Let us study and develop this Agni, light and fire energy, which Matarishva, wind and electric energy, pervading the skies energises, and which the scholars adopt in human communities like the wonderful sun for enhancement of the beauty of form and health of body — Agni which exists in all forms of the universe, which gives the universe its cosmic form and which receives, consumes and recreates everything that is offered to it since it is the catalytic agent of the cosmic yajna.

All people love and esteem the celebration of the scientific and artistic versatility of this power and benefit from all the arts and crafts of the artist of this generous source of energy and beauty.

Let the high-priests of yajna (in the field of science and meditation) take up Agni, fire energy, in the laboratory, workshop, the eternal space and the cave of the mind, develop it with laudable means for advancement, and harness it for desired purposes, going forward as by chariot drawn by trained horses.

Agni, mighty power of light and fire, catalyses, destroys and creates many and, blazing in the light rays, shines in majesty. And then shining and blazing like a shooting star of the eternal archer, it releases stormy currents of energy every day, every minute, every moment.

Twice born and born of two, akasha and vayu, manifesting in universal nature and in every distinct form of nature, illuminating three lights, fire of the earth, lightning of the skies and lights of heaven, vitalising all the worlds of the universe, Agni abides all round everywhere. Worthiest universal yajaka, holding the worlds unto itself, it abides coexistent with the universal liquid energy of the cosmos.

Such is this Agni, creative lord of cosmic yajna, wielder of the worlds, born of two and twice born, who holds the choicest foods, energies and honours of the universe. And the man who, self-sacrificing, twice born of natural mother and mother Sarasvati, blest with the richest gifts of food, energy and honour, with a noble family gives in homage and surrender to this Agni, he is the real man.

May we, we pray, be dedicated to you, singing songs of devotion in admiration of the Divine.

Agni is dear as a friend and adorable (since it is the vigour and vitality of life in the human personality, in the animal world and in the earth and the environment). Let the people dedicated to the welfare and protection of humanity, who love the wealth of cows and milk products, who want to preserve the earth and the environment, and who value the vitality of their sense and mind, light and develop Agni, as a dear adorable friend, with noble acts in yajna and corporate action to inspire vitality in the cows, in the pranic energies, in the mind and senses, and in the earth and environment. And then the heaven and earth would vibrate with life and joy by virtue of their holy voice and the power of their songs of adoration. (Let the voice resound on earth and songs rise to heaven).

O Mitra and Varuna, generous heaven and earth and the skies, listen to the voice of adoration which people of intelligence and innate virtue bear and offer as friends to you. Know the yajnic act of the blessed yajamana of prosperity holding rich libations of soma for the holy fire. Clear the path of progress for the worshipper and listen to the songs of the master of a happy home.

Mitra and Varuna, eternal lord of love and spirit of justice and rectitude, you bear and bring the wealth of health and age of the natural world. Immanent spirits of divinity in the world, leaders of humanity, with your innate powers of protection here on earth, you bring us immense wealth and honour of life. The lights of the day to-day or tomorrow reach not the immensity of that grandeur. The rolling seas swell not to the heights of that immensity. The human voices fail to touch the fringe of that power and that glory.

Mandala 1/Sukta 152

Mitra-Varuna Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

युवं वस्त्राणि पीवसा वसाथ युवारच्छिदा मन्तवा ह सगाः ।

1. *Yuvaṁ vastrāṇi pīvasā vasāthe yuvoracchidrā

ṛtena mitrāvaruṇā sacethe.*

Mitra and Varuna, like day and night, with your expansion over the world you reveal and cover the forms of things in existence and your revelations of the things are faultless. You rule out and overcome illusions and unrealities since you associate with what is real and true.

एतच्च॒न त्वा॒ वि चि॒कत॑द॒षां स॒त्या मन्त्रः॑ कवि॒शस्त॑

2. Etaccana tvo vi ciketadeṣām satyo mantraḥ kavi-śasta ṛghāvān. Triraśrīm hanti caturaśrirugro devanido ha prathamā ajūryan.

This much, may be, one of these wise ones may know, one who knows the truth, thinks aright, and is recognised and praised by scholars of distinction as a man of vision and discrimination. The brilliant scholar of the four Vedas masters the three dimensions of knowledge: pure knowledge of Rks, applied knowledge of Yajus, and the meditative knowledge of sweet Samans, and, being the prime force and power of wisdom ever true, never out of date, defeats those who deny and dishonour the divinities of existence and eminence of knowledge.

अ॒पा॒द॒ति प॒थ॒मा प॒द्वती॑नां कस्त॒द्वां मि॒त्राव॑रु॒णा चि॒कत॑ ।

3. Apādeti prathamā padvatīnām kastad vām mitrāvaruṇā ciketa. Garbho bhāraṁ bharatyā cidasya ṛtaṁ pipartyanṛtaṁ ni tārit.

Just as the dawn arises and radiates over the earth before moving humanity rises and goes out on business, so does the Original Knowledge of Revelation radiate whole before it is analysed into distinctive branches. Which of your scholars, O Mitra and Varuna, powers of vision and wisdom, knows that? Probably the man-treasure of knowledge bears the burden of it, maintains it and feeds it with detailed application and overcomes illusion and confusion.

4. Prayantamit pari jāraṁ kanīnāṁ paśyāmasi nopanipadyamānam. Anavapṛgṇā vitatā vasānaṁ priyaṁ mitrasya varuṇasya dhāma.

Just as we see the sun, lover of the maidenly dawns, gather up the lights and moving on, never resting, so do we see the scholar, treasure-home of knowledge, lover of rising generations, moving on in his pursuit of knowledge, never resting and rusting, but expanding far and wide the light of knowledge, wherein lies the favourite love of Lord Supreme, lord of light as well as of the bottomless deep of annihilation.

5. Anaśvo jāto anabhīśurarvā kanikradat patayad-ūrdhvasānuḥ. Acittam brahma jujuṣuryuvānaḥ pra mitre dhāma varuṇe gṛṇantaḥ.

The sun is arisen, up on the heights of heaven, rushing on, roaring, no horse, no reins. Bright young generations pay homage, singing hymns of Infinity, admiring the treasure love of the Lord for the sake of Mitra and Varuna, love, light and justice of existence.

6. Ā dhenavo māmateyamavantīrbrahmapriyam pīpayantsasminnūdhan. Pitvo bhikṣeta vayunāni vidvānāsāvivāsannaditimuruṣyet.

Just as cows feed their calves on milk from their udders, just as protective mothers breast-feed their darling child of love and promote him in his favourite studies of Divinity, so should the scholar of the ways and laws of the world ask for food and maintenance and, serving and shining, advance the study and knowledge of nature and eternity.

7. Ā vām mitrāvaruṇā havyajuṣṭim namasā devāvavasā vavṛtyām. Asmākaṁ brahma pṛtanāsu sahyā asmākaṁ vṛṣṭirdivyā supārā.

O Mitra and Varuna, brilliant and generous lords of love and justice, I pray, I may, with your protection, choose to worship you with the homage of love, dedication and sacrifice. Bless our songs of adoration among our people with wealth and honour of success and may our projects of action be holy and powerful, taking us across the high seas of life. Let our showers be showers of divinity and redemption.

Mitra and Varuna, great, loving, rejoicing, friends of humanity, lords of love and justice, resplendent with flames of ghr̥ta, we love, honour and worship you with salutations, service and oblations of high grades of ghr̥ta, and the devotees, dedicated and worshipful, bring holy offerings with sincere prayers like high-priests of yajna for you and for us.

Mitra, lord of love, and Varuna, lord of justice, I come to you as to my home and haven of peace, comfort and grace, having abandoned the storms of disturbance and temptation. My concentration is complete and my song of praise is divine. Lords of generosity, brave is the yajaka, come to join you in congregations of prayer and action, doing honour and homage to you, waiting for grace and comfort of well-being.

Mitra and Varuna, whoever the yajaka giving oblations in the yajna of love and charity to you like a noble human being, who invokes you and prays for help in his tasks of life, thanking you and serving you in gratitude, Mother Nature like a generous cow gives infinite blessings to that man of truth and sacrifice.

Mitra and Varuna, friends, teachers and leaders of humanity, may the cows and the holy voices, consecrated holy waters and food and the juice of soma among the happy people surfeit you with delight. And may the ancient master of our yajna of education, governance and production giving us the fruits of holiness sustain the yajna, and may you too continue to enjoy the fruits of that yajna and drink the milk of the cow as well as the lights of dawn.

Vishnu Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

विष्ण॑ानु॒ कं वी॒याणि॑ प॒ वाचं॑ यः पाथि॑वानि विम॒म रजांसि॑ ।
या अ॒स्क॑भा॒यदु॒त्तरं॑ स॒धस्थं॑ वि॒चक्र॑मा॒णस्त्र॒धारु॑गा॒यः ॥ १ ॥

1. Viṣṇornu kaṁ vīryāṇi pra vocaṁ yaḥ pāthivāni vimame rajāṁsi. Yo askabhāyaduttaraṁ sadha-sthaṁ vicakramāṇastredhorugāyāḥ.

Let me well recite the grand acts of Vishnu, lord immanent, all pervasive, of the universe, who creates all worlds of the universe, who sustains the high regions of light in upper space and, having created, maintains it three ways, i.e., as a system, as part of the cosmic system, and in relation to the other systems, the lord who is sung and celebrated everywhere.

प तद्विष्णुः स्तवत वीर्येण मृगा न भीमः कुचरा गिरिष्ठाः ।

2. Pra tad viṣṇuḥ stavate vīryeṇa mṛgo na bhīmaḥ kucaro giriṣṭhāḥ. Yasoyruṣu triṣu vikramaṇeṣva-dhikṣiyanti bhuvanāni viśvā.

That Vishnu who is sung and celebrated by virtue of his might, is the lord who pervades the universe everywhere just as the awful lion, lord of the mountain cave, majestically moves around over the tortuous paths of the forest. In the vast three-fold acts of his mighty creation, i.e., the acts of projection, sustenance and withdrawal, reside the entire worlds of existence.

प विष्णाव शूषमंतु मन्म गिरिं त उरुगायाय वृष्ण ।
य इदं दीर्घं पयतं सधस्थमका विमम त्रिभिरित्पदभिः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Pra viṣṇave śūṣametu manma girikṣita urugāyāya vṛṣṇe. Ya idaṁ dīrghaṁ prayataṁ sadhastha meko vimame tribhirit padebhiḥ.

May this powerful song of celebration reach Vishnu, celebrated lord, great and generous, who holds in balance the heights of the universe of space and time and creates it just in three steps of sattva, rajas and tamas, i.e., mind, motion and matter, or the three regions of earth, sky and the heaven of light.

यस्य त्री पूणा मधुना पदान्य त्रियमाणा स्वधया मदन्ति ।

4. Yasya trī pūrṇā madhunā padānyakṣīyamāṇā svadhayā madanti. Ya u tridhātu prthivīmuta dyāmeko dādharma bhuvanāni viśvā.

The threefold worlds of his, earth, heaven and the middle regions, full and perfect in their own ways and character, honey sweet and undecaying, rejoice in the lord's presence with their inmates by their innate power of sustenance. He, the sole lord, by himself, holds the entire worlds of existence including heaven and earth created of the three modes of Prakṛti, sattva, rajas and tamas.

5. Tadasya priyamabhi pātho aśyāṁ nara yatra devayavo madanti. Urukramasya sa hi bandhuritthā viṣṇoḥ pade parame madhva utsaḥ.

May I rise to and follow that cherished path of lord Vishnu and reach that state of being wherein the noble people dedicated to Divinity live and rejoice in bliss. This lord of divine power and action is friend of the industrious men of relentless action, and there in his supreme presence flows the stream of divine love and bliss.

ता वां वास्तून्युश्मसि गमध्य यत्र गावा भूरिशृङ्गा अयासः ।

6. Tā vām vāstūnyuśmasi gamadhyai yatra gāvo bhūriśṛṅgā ayāsaḥ. Atrāha tadurugāyasya vṛṣṇaḥ paramaṁ padamava bhāti bhūri.

Men of dedication, yogis, teachers and preachers, scholars and scientists, wedded couples, for your rest and abiding residence where you should go and rest, we want those places where the sharp and penetrative rays of the divine sun should reach for enlightenment. Here only is the place, and we want your abode here, where the supreme abode of the generous and the omnipotent Vishnu shines with abundant light and bliss.

Mandala 1/Sukta 155

Vishnu Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

प वः पान्तमन्धसा धियायत मह शूराय विष्णवे चाचत ।

1. Pra vaḥ pāntamandhaso dhiyāyate mahe śūrāya viṣṇave cārcata. Yā sānuni parvatān-āmadābhyā mahastasthaturvateva sādhunā.

Of your delicious food and soma drink, offer in homage to the great and mighty Vishnu, lord of intelligence, and to Indra, bold and mighty lord of energy and power. Both stand on top of mountains and clouds and on top of heaven, firm and inviolable high, as the mountaineer stands firm on top of a mountain peak by the best and strongest equipment.

(According to Swami Dayanand, the mantra may be applied to the teachers and scholars of a nation who reach on top of learning and knowledge by arduous efforts of mountainous degree and do their work freely and courageously.)

त्वषमित्था समरणं शिमीवतारिन्दाविष्णू सुतपा वामु-

2. Tveṣamitthā samaraṇam śimīvatorindrāviṣṇū sutapā vāmuruṣyati. Yā martyāya pratidhīya-mānam-it kṛśānor-astu-rasanām-uruṣyathaḥ.

Indra, lord of power such as lightning, and Vishnu, lord of light such as the sun, extend and expand the range and potential of the mighty shooting archer's missile-fitted defence of humanity. And thus does the man of yajna, protecting, promoting and drinking the soma-joy of the nation, extend and expand the blaze of the battle of the mighty defender of the nation and thus does he glorify you both, Indra and Vishnu.

ता ईं वधन्ति मह्यस्य पांस्यं नि मातरा नयति रतस भुज ।

3. Tā īm vardhanti mahyasya paumsyam ni mātaraṇāyati retase bhuje. Dadhāti putro'varam param piturnāma tṛtīyamadhi rocane divaḥ.

Those oblations of yajna food and distilled soma augment the great creative power of this Vishnu, spirit of the universe, for procreative virility and divine enjoyment of the world of existence. He vests it in the mother powers of nature, i.e., heaven and earth. Then the off-spring bears the name of the father, the one that is the ultimate, as the child of Divinity, and the other that is the worldly name of his family. The third the Lord bears over and above the light of heaven.

vrkasya mīlhuṣaḥ. Yaḥ pārthivāni tribhirid vigāmabhiruru kramiṣṭorugāyāya jīvase.*

That procreative virility of this lord Vishnu at every step of it, we celebrate in songs of joy, that creativity of the lord saviour and protector, generous and not rapacious who takes away nothing for himself, creator supreme and lord of cosmic fertility, who completes the creation of the natural universe in three steps of sattva, rajas and tamas — thought, energy and matter — for the delightful life of the soul, and then transcends the work of his own creation.

5. *Dve idasya kramaṇe swardrśo'bhikhyāya martyo bhuraṇyati. Tṛtīyamasya nakirā dadharṣati

To know the grandeur of the lord seer of light and bliss across two steps of his creation, earth and the heavens of light, the human soul stirs in mind and intelligence. The third step no one can, or ought to, violate, overcome or ignore, not even people of the highest imagination, like birds of the strongest wings, can do so.

Inspiring, moving, measuring four and ninety names of the passage of chronological time, circulating in the cosmic circle of eternal time, rotating, revolving, eternally recurring, the mighty cosmic bodied Vishnu, ever young, never a teenager, moves the universe, himself unmoved and unmoving, and transcendent, and he listens and attends to our invocations of yajna with the Rkvi hymns of praise and celebration.

Mandala 1/Sukta 156

O Vishnu, lord of universal knowledge, be like a friend, giver of peace and comfort, generator of the waters of life, lord of the wealth and honour of the world, instant mover and controller of protections, vast and expanding in influence and inspiration, and being so, worshipped by the wise and eminent scholars, served by the generous devotees of yajna, let the song of celebration and the fragrance of yajna in your honour rise to the skies. (The mantra is applicable to the teacher also).

2. Yah pūrvyāya vedhase navīyase sumajjānaye viṣṇave dadāśati. Yo jātamasya mahata mahi bravat sedu śravobhiryujyam cidabhyasat.

One who lovingly and generously does homage to Vishnu, ancient and yet most modern lord of knowledge, one who creates and imparts new knowledge for the devotees of knowledge, one who speaks and communicates this great new message of the great lord of universal knowledge, and one who practices this applicable and useful knowledge with thanks and grateful offerings in yajna for charity and social service, he is the real man.

Admirers and worshippers of the ancient and eternal lord of knowledge, Vishnu, as much as you know the lord and his knowledge, please augment and advance that body of knowledge with your own growth and contribution, a process as hard as rebirth though it is.

And knowing the lord and his knowledge, speak of the knowledge to the seekers in full confidence. O Vishnu, lord eternal and master of universal knowledge, all hail to you! We offer homage and worship to you in honour of your knowledge and wisdom.

Brilliant Varuna, lord of light and favourite choice of all, and the Ashvins, harbingers of the dawn of new knowledge, in unison, join that noble and yajnic act of the knowledge and revelation of Vishnu, lord of universal knowledge and instant controller of the Maruts, tempestuous heroes of action, for furtherance and application. Vishnu, commanding the force of his friends, wields the highest knowledge and expertise of action and opens the paths of action brilliant as day for humanity to follow and advance.

5. Ā yo vivāya sacathāya daivya indrāya viṣṇuḥ sukṛte sukṛttaraḥ. Vedhā ajinvat triṣadhastha āryamṛtasya bhāge yajamānamābhajat.

Vishnu, generous and divine lord of knowledge, friend of all, brilliant hero of action, better and ever more blissful doer, established in the threefold virtue of knowledge, action and worship, goes forward to join Indra, lord ruler of the world, who does good to all, and, in the direction of truth and rectitude, protects and promotes men of virtue, culture and creativity, and with all help blesses the yajamana in the performance of his acts of love and non-violence for peace and progress.

The Ashvins, harbingers of new light and knowledge, harness their chariot for the daily round. And the generous lord of light and life, Savita, in his own gracious way, showers and sanctifies the moving world with sunlight and new inspiration for action.

In our struggle for the joy of life, inspire and strengthen our Brahma system of research and education with new knowledge and self-confidence. Come both of you, help and support, excite the fire, agitate the waters and inspire the herbs and trees of the nation with life anew, elevate, gear up and bring showers of fire and waters of action and ambition.

Ashvins, generous lords of light and power, loved and wanted, shelter and support of all, scourge of evil and enmity, universally respected, ever on the rise, give us, we pray, what we love and desire for our success, since the admirable wealth that is yours you bring us for sure with abundant protection, promotion and welfare for all, brave saviours as you are from want and suffering.

Ashvins, lords of light and leadership, shelter, support and protection for all, ever on the move with a mind keen to fulfil the desire and ambition of all, who hold and rule the human habitations in villages, towns and rich cities with food and power on the face of the earth and relentlessly keep awake, vigilant for us all and for our protection. Who can give, and what, in appreciation and return for this love and generosity of your mind and consideration for us — what except thanks and gratitude in homage?

Ashvins, harbingers of light, power and protection, that stout, protective and irresistible chariot of yours propelled by flying oars stationed in the midst of the sea in full harness is ready for the valiant warrior to take us across the waters. May I, a powerful navigator in the battle of the sea, come and join the force under your protective cover?

Ashvins, lords of light, power and holiness, may my celebrative invocation and prayer protect my self-confidence. May the day and night cycle never drain me out. May your tenfold fire, concentrated and blazing, never burn me off, which otherwise bound up in the soul as the fire of grief and despair eats up the very flesh of the body.

If a thrice torturous person were to try to cut the head of such a person, then may the evil intentioned person cut his own torso and his own shoulders.

The person lost in darkness of the deep, having fallen a victim to blind attachment, grows old and decrepit in ten years. The one dedicated to sages in pursuit of divine knowledge, yajnic action and meditative prayer becomes a Brahma, scholar of the Veda, and a master of the chariot of life.

I study, serve and admire the earthly sphere and the solar system, both great, born of the particles of matter and energy in the course of natural evolution, both suggestive of new and newer knowledge through our yajnas of scientific programmes. Both of them, creations of the Divine, highly generous and productive, in cooperation with other natural elements, powers and spheres, working by the immanent will and intelligence of nature, produce and adorn manifold things of beauty and value.

And with holy invocations in yajna, I study, investigate and meditate on the great and innate power and intelligence of my father and mother the sun and the earth, both free from hate and full of love for all. Both father and mother of the world, overflowing with life and virility, create and augment the great and universal nectar wealth of humanity with their expansive and abundant generosity.

They are the children, sons and daughters in reality, heroic, noble and graceful of action, who for the first, essential and absolute knowledge of prime importance, collect the knowledge of the great parents of the world of existence: Ishwar and Prakrti, sun and earth, and father and mother of this human birth of ours. O Parents, protect and bless the true and firm establishment of the child, free from duplicity and double dealing, in the Dharma of the static and dynamic world.

Those are poets and scientists of brilliance and vision possessed of wondrous power and intelligence, of equal knowledge and interest, loving together and working together as a family team like brother and sister, who study and measure the depths and interior of the oceans of earth and the heavens of light, create the warp and woof of ever expanding new knowledge and find new paths over the seas and in the skies and space.

That gift of knowledge worthy of love and choice in the creation of self-refulgent Lord Savita's cosmic yajna, we value and admire. May the heaven and earth, universal father and mother, blest with immanent will of Nature, bear, bring and reveal that body of knowledge which is rich in wealth and power and provides a hundred forms of prosperity with cows, fertile lands and the word of knowledge and divinity.

1. Te hi dyāvāprthivī viśvaśambhuva ṛtāvarī rajaso dhārayatkavī. Sujanmanī dhiṣaṇe antarīyate devo devī dharmaṇā sūryaḥ śucih.

The two, heaven and earth, givers of universal peace and comfort, abiding by the laws of universal Truth, holding their spheres, vested with immanent will and intelligence, nobly born of mother nature, stout and forbearing, are brilliant and of divine quality. The sun, pure and effulgent, goes on by the laws of its own existence between heaven and earth.

2. Uruvyacasā mahinī asaścatā pitā mātā ca bhuvanāni rakṣataḥ. Sudhrṣṭame vapuṣye na rodasī pitā yat sīmabhi rūpairavāsayat.

The two, of mighty expanse, great and grand, each separate with its own distinct identity, the sun as father and the earth as mother, protect and sustain the worlds and people around. Very strong and forbearing, the heaven and earth are like two wondrous icons of Beauty itself, which the father sun has fully vested with form and colour.

That universal vital fire, carrier of light and life and yajna, child of its causal parents, Lord Supreme and Nature and then akasha and vayu, i.e., space and energy, universal agent of holy action, constant and resolute, purifies and sanctifies with its wonderful powers, it energises, fertilises and purifies the cow, the earth and the holy Word, enlightens the sun and skies, gives vitality to the virile bull and pranic energy and sustaining power to the life-giving sun, and it emanates purity and vitality to the seed of life in existence day and night. Men and women all, serve it and draw the milk of life energy from the holy, universal and constant energy of fire through the creative act of yajna.

Of all the lights of divinity and of all the acts of divinities, the Lord Supreme is the prime efficient cause of the acts of creation. Lord of bliss for the whole universe in existence, He creates the heaven and earth. With His divine omnipotence, He pervades and transcends the spaces and, with His imperishable powers of sustenance, stabilises the suns and the stars and the worlds that move. and celebrated, bear and bring us abundant food and energy and create a grand social order for us, and may they infuse in us every day an admirable sense of honour and valour so that we may build a great nation of humanity across the globe.

Rbhus Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

किमु श्रेष्ठः किं यविष्ठ न आजगन्किमीयत दूत्यं

What best, what youngest or latest comes to us, or what message comes to us and from where, when do we speak of such things? Agni, brother dear, the high born who takes to the ladle of yajna or to the cloud, we never malign. Who ever is fast and dynamic, we praise. We speak of good fortune and of well-being only.

2. *Ekam camasaṁ caturaḥ kṛṇotana tad vo devā

Create four ladles worth of yajnic materials out of one put in. Let the nobles speak to you of this. Create four clouds out of one, the scholars would speak to you.

And to that end I too would come to you. Men of the mighty bow, if you would but do this, then with the light of divinities and with the nobilities, you would be the real men of yajna.

3. Agniṁ dūtaṁ prati yadabravītanāśvaḥ kartvo ratha uteha kartvaḥ. Dhenuḥ kartvā yuvaśā kartvā dvā tāni bhrātaranu vaḥ kṛtvymasi.

Agni, scholar, scientist, technologist, if you were to say about agni, the harbinger of fire and electric power: the horse power has to be developed, the chariot has to be designed and developed here and now, and the language has to be found and developed, and youth has to be developed and rejuvenated, and the horse and the cow have to be groomed and developed, then dear brother, we would follow you in action for both fire and electric power.

O Rbhus, eminent scientists, technologists and engineers of the top-most intellectual order of vision and dynamic action, if that messenger of knowledge, light and fire energy were to come to us, ask him where the origin of that power is, and who the messenger is, since when Tvashta, analyst and maker of fine things, analysed one form of composite matter or compound such as the cloud or a ladleful of sacrificial input of the furnace-vedi into its four chemical components like earth, water, heat and vayu, wind energy of electric potential, then only was agni energy able to move things over and into the moving spheres such as earth.

5. Hanāmaināñ iti tvaṣṭā yadabravīccamasam ye devapānam-anindiṣuḥ. Anyā nāmāni kṛṇvate sute sacāñ anyairenān kanyā nāmabhiḥ sparat.

If Tvashta, master analyst and expert maker, were to say: “Let us reject these,” about those who mock at the ladleful of yajnic input or the cloud, analysed, synthesised and restructured, then let us reject the undue criticism. And when the soma has been distilled, that is, when the result has been obtained from the scientific yajna, let us describe the achievement by other names, and let the delighted beneficiary too call the new product by other favourite names, the soma is worthy of the gods to drink.

Let Indra, master of energy, power and sunlight, use the knowledge of fire, electricity, radiation and gravitation. Let the Ashvins, masters of the chariot, prepare the car. Let Brhaspati, expert of the earth's variety of objects and scientific language, create the formulae of analysis and structure. Let Rbhu, expert of the science of universal energy, with Vibhu, brilliant man of light and fire, and Vaja, expert of speed and control, all noble powers of great action, reach the divine sources of nature's wealth and energy and enjoy their share of the gifts of corporate programmes of yajnic creation.

With dexterous use of your ideas, repair and enrich the surface of the earth like nourishing the holy cow emaciated to the skin, and rejuvenate those who are breaking down under the weight of aging and consumptive diseases. O warriors of the bow, create new vehicles of wondrous velocity from materials of magnetic energy and radiation. And then yoke your motive power to the chariot and reach the wealth of nature's divinity.

Master experts of pharmacy and distillation of medicinal drinks, to the patients and admirers say: Taste and drink this tonic, or drink this one which has been purified and reinforced with munja grass, and if you choose to drink neither, then take this one prepared in the third distillation for purity and power and be happy.

One of the experts says: waters are the best and most efficacious. Another says: fire is the best and most efficacious. Out of all, one speaks of earth as the most powerful for life and against anti-life. Thus do you all speak of the existent elements of truth and reality and distinguish between one source of power and grandeur and another for yourself and develop the same.

One takes water to the disabled cow, the other dresses the wound suffered from accidental hurt, yet another looks after the shed and removes the dirt the whole day till sunset. What would the parents expect of children to approve, more than this?

All ye men and women, with all your desire and good action on higher ground, grow fodder for cows and other animals, and produce and store water in lower places. Do not destroy anything in the open home of even a carefree person and always follow wise and intelligent persons of noble and expert performance.

Rbhus, experts of tempestuous action, join together with concentrated action, go round the worlds and know them, and take care where your progenitors then abide. Accost and face whoever holds up your hand, and thank and appreciate whoever approves your action with praise.

Sleeping Rbhus, like potential scholars and rays of the sun, ask that supreme lord of light such as sun who it is who wakes them up into light and life. He, the lord of light from whom nothing is hidden says: it is vayu, waves of divine energy, which wakes them up into life and light. The lord of light is the shelter home of all. It is now a year (cycle) when you awaken us and tell us of that to-day.

(It is life waking up to self-consciousness at the dawn of creation after a 'long year' of sleep in Divinity during the long night of annihilation.)

Maruts, waves of universal energy of the winds, go with the light of the sun. The fire energy goes with the earth. Vata, the currents of wind go with the middle region of the sky. Varuna, water energy, goes with the vapours and the seas. You, indefatigable seekers of knowledge, go with the Rbhus, imperishable children of might and omnipotence.

May Mitra, the friend, Varuna, lord supreme worthy of universal choice and homage, Aryama, lord of justice, Ayu, man of knowledge, Indra, lord of power and honour, Rbhuksha, man of intelligence and wisdom, and Maruts, dynamic men of creative action, never ignore us since we too admire and celebrate powerful acts of the mighty pioneer leader of war born of noble qualities, i.e., acts performed in our yajnic battle of life.

We are those who advance to the front the man of honour and generosity, leader blest with wealth and power earned by pure and sinless means, possessing universal virtues, capable of versatile roles, going forward leading and roaring, who achieves the cherished gifts of the dignity and prosperity of Indra and Pushan, lord of power and glory and the lord of light and plenty.

Let the horse, symbol of the nation of humanity and the order of governance, come forward for us. Let it uphold the thoughts and values of the nation. Strong of back and body, let it fulfil the hopes and dreams of me and all the nobilities of humanity. In consequence, the scholars and the visionaries would enjoy themselves and celebrate its grandeur. Let us do our best in service for this noble order of brotherhood for the development and advancement of the noble people.

The law that controls the onward movement of this dynamic social order, symbolised by the foot-band of the mighty and tempestuous horse, is the law of self-restraint and Dharma. The reins and bridle which control it over the head and shoulders symbolise thought, wisdom and self-guidance. And the grass which is held in the mouth symbolises the nourishment and health of the nation. May all these be of holy nature and character fit for the divinities among humanity, and let all these be dedicated to the divinities that support life.

Whatever the fly eats of the sweat or ointment of the horse of rhythmic motion, i.e., the nation on the march, or whatever smears the voice or sword of the nation, and whatever soils the hands and nails of the performers of national yajna, all these things should be under control of the brilliant and generous leaders of the nation for you, i.e., the people and the nation.

Whatever the gaseous exudations or wastes from consumption in the national economy, whatever discharges from the bio-economic circulation of raw materials towards the output of finished products, all these wastes and by-products should be positively recycled by the expert managers of the economy who must also season whatever is ripe and ready for further refinement and sophistication.

O nation on the march on the highway of progress, if from your personality-body subjected to the fire of discipline and self sacrifice, a cry of pain escape your lips or a tear flow down from the eye, let it not soil the holy ground of the motherland, nor let it be lost in the straw, but let it be a precious gift for the ambitious creators and leaders of vision to turn it into a clarion call or a beautiful pearl of divine grace.

Those who watch the nation's food and prosperity grow to ripeness and perfection, and those who say: Ah yes! it is fragrant, harvest it, take it, export it too! and those who contribute their share to the nation's prosperity and also wait for their share of the food and fragrance of yajna, and in addition, their coordination, cooperation and common voice of exhortation may, we pray, be for the good and growth of us all.

Watchful stirring of the nation's cauldron of prosperity on fire and careful preservation and enrichment of the earth's fertility which gives fruits and other foods, all containers and reservoirs of juice and waters for irrigation, methods of heat and steam control, formations of clouds, known, controlled and created, and beauty spots and tourist resorts, these are marks of a nation's march on top of beauty and culture.

The horse's forward march, the nation launching on action on the highway, its halting and settling for rest on the way, the U-turn and circulation in progression, the fetter control of law and the centre-hold of values for stability, what it drinks for pleasure and excitement and what it eats for nourishment: all these should be under control of the men of vision and brilliance for you all.

Let not the fire interfused with smoke and smell obliterate your vision, let it not extinguish your enthusiasm for life. Nor let the aromatic pan on blazing fire tip over and spill out the food. (Let the nation be ripened in the cauldron of hard discipline and yajnic action placed on the right degree of heat free of smoke and blaze both). The dynamic nation which is loved, happy and peaceful, active, and sanctified by yajna, is, like a trained horse, loved, accepted and owned by the most brilliant powers of the world.

Those who provide the decorative cover for the horse, i.e., the yajnic personality of the human nation on the march, and provide the over-cover as the air cover of fire for defence and onward march, and those who create the golden beauties for it, and the control of law, and the velocity of electric energy, and the brakes of equal power: all these people, cherished powers and beauties of the nation, raise the humans to the light of divinity.

On your being exhausted by excessive urging on, or by hurt with the spur or the whip, I relieve you of the hurt and exhaustion and refresh you in the yajnas of love and non-violence by the fragrance of oblations offered with the ladle and chant of hymns. (The nation, after strain in a crisis, needs rest and repair.)

The innate energy of fire, electric, magnetic and of other forms, fastest form of energy co-existent with the forms and powers of nature such as earth, moves in waves in thirtyfour ways. Activate it part by part, proclaim the nature and character of each and realise the definite quality of its efficacy and application to parts of the material body with safety.

Of the dynamic energy of agni, two are the carrier currents, of which one is the active, positive agent that activates the connected objects. And I apply the power to the material forms of objects according to the needs of the seasons, and having done so I send it back into agni, thereby completing the yajnic circuit.

Spirit and genius of the nation, while you are on your path of progress to divinity, may your soul never cause any sense of self-guilt, nor must your own power and pride nor external force strain or terrorize your mind and body. Nor must any greedy or malicious power or person, unmindful of the hurt and cruelty, wound or mutilate your body.

Spirit of humanity, genius of the nation, soul of the individual, this you are, and such as you are, you shall not die, nor be hurt, nor hurt anyone, since you move in the direction of divinity by paths which are straight and sure. Two are the horses yoked to your resounding chariot: love of the Lord that attracts you, and Grace that holds you in stability. And the horse that is yoked to the centre-pole is faster than light and instant as the mind.

May this lightning power of agni, this nation, this great order of governance give us rich wealth of cows, fertility of land and generosity of spirit. May it give us strong and powerful horses, speed of transportation and the spirit to go ahead, manliness and brave warriors, noble children and honest wealth for universal nourishment. May the imperishable Mother Nature inspire us to create holiness free from sinfulness of thought, word and deed, and may omnipotent Agni, lord of universal wealth, help us build a mighty social order of governance.

Ashva (Agni) Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

यदकन्दः पथमं जायमान उद्यन्त्समुदादुत वा पुरीषात ।

1. Yadakrandah prathamam jāyamāna udyantsamudrāduta vā puriṣāt. Śyenasya pakṣā hariṇasya bāhū upastutyam mahi jātam te arvan.

Arvan, divine racer, Agni, universal energy, first born of Lord Omnipotent, rising from the oceans of space, the sky and the sea, who roared with force at your very birth, your wings are like the wings of the celestial eagle that brings the showers of soma and the warmth of fire, and your arms are like the arms of the sun, the thunderbolt. Surely great is your birth from nature, worthy of admiration and homage.

2. Yamena dattaṁ trita enamāyunagindra eṇaṁ prathamo adhyatiṣṭhat. Gandharvo asya raśanā-maḡrbhṇāt sūrādaśvaṁ vasavo nirataṣṭa.

This energy is the gift of the universal controller Yama, a product of Vayu, the first elemental form of energy born of akasha, ether, in the process of primal evolution guided by the eternal law-giver, the creator. Let Trita, master of the three modes of nature, sattva, rajas and tamas, i.e., thought, energy and matter, plan the use of it in various ways. Let Indra, the electrical expert, use it as power first. Let Gandharva, specialist of earth sciences, hold the control of it in gravitational, magnetic and heat forms. And let the Vasus, graduate researchers of life sciences, extract this energy from the light of the sun.

3. Asi yamo asyādityo arvannasi trito guhyena vratena. Asi somena samayā vipṛkta āhuste trīṇi divi bandhanāni.

Cosmic energy, Yama you are the mover, the condition and control of all dynamics. You are the light and the sun. You are the energy in use. You are Trita, vitality, strength and power by virtue of your unseen and mysterious character. You are integrated with the life and joy of existence and yet you are distinct and exclusive. It is said that you are bonded with the regions of light in three ways.

त्रीणि त आहुदिवि बन्धनानि त्रीण्यप्सु त्रीण्यन्तः समुद्र ।

4. Trīṇi ta āhurdivi bandhanāni trīṇyapsu trīṇyantaḥ samudre. Uteva me varuṇaśchantsyarvan yatrā ta āhuḥ paramaṁ janitram.

Three are your forms, they say, in the field of light, they are causal, subtle and gross. Three are in the sphere of the waters, and three are in the region of the skies in the winds, the same three. Just as you have three formal definitions so do I too, the causal body, the subtle body and the gross body. Tell me, mysterious power, where do they say your ultimate origin is. Mine too is there itself.

5. Imā te vājinnavamārjanānīmā śaphānām saniturnidhānā. Atrā te bhadraḥ raśanā apaśyamṛtasya yā abhirakṣanti gopāḥ.

O Vajin, tempestuous power-input of the yajna of existence, these are the stages of your refinement, contentive concentrations of the applicable values of energy which are positive gifts of wealth and well-being for humanity. I wish and pray I may see those positive lines of natural and scientific developments of yours which observe, preserve and advance the process of life's yajnic evolution.

6. Ātmānam te manasārāda jānāmavo divā patayantam pataṅgam. Śīro apaśyaṁ pathibhiḥ sugebhir-areṇubhir-jehamānam patatri.

Agni, O flying horse, with pleasure of my heart and soul and with the thrill of my knowledge, I see from afar and know your body flying up towards heaven and down like a bird. O flying bird of our creation, I see your head striving and soaring higher and higher by paths all straight and clear and wholly free from dust.

7. Atrā te rūpam-uttamam-apaśyaṁ jigīṣamāṇam-iṣa ā pade gaḥ. Yadā te marto anu bhogamān-ālādid grasiṣṭha oṣadhīrajīgaḥ.

Agni, O vital fire and creativity of life, I have seen that higher form, spirit and character of yours which is eager to conquer, consume and create the food and energy on the floor of the earth since, when the mortal humanity blest with food and enjoyment, and as a result of your holy ambition, eats their fill, then, O consumer and creator, you beget the herbs and juices for rectification of the human faults and weaknesses.

8. Anu tvā ratho anu maryo arvannanu gāvo'nu bhagaḥ kanīnām. Anu vrātāsastava sakhyamīyūranu devā mamire vīryam te.

Agni, Arvan, energy and power of lightning motion, the chariot, the car and the flying birds of human creation depend on you and follow your laws. The mortal humanity admires and follows you. The cows and the maidens and their matrimony and joy depend on you. The wealth and honour of admirers depends on you. Devotees of sacred vows and yoga practices court your love and friendship. And divine personalities of nature and humanity both are keen to realise your energy, virility and creativity.

9. Hiranyaśṛṅgo'yo asya pādā manojavā avara indra āsīt. Devā idasya haviradyamāyan yo arvantam prathamo adhyatiṣṭhat.

Golden headed and lustrous is this agni, energy and power of nature, with the wheels of metals of desired gravity for motion and speed. The noblest divinities love to win and enjoy the cherished gifts of this agni. Indra, constant, ancient and yet the latest lord of the speed of mind is the exceptional master who first of all rides and controls this dynamic energy of nature's motive power.

Arvan, universal energy in motion, sleek and sophisticated, vibrating with power, steadily accelerating, celestial birds of flight, like rows of cranes in formation, join, march and fly and rise over the heavenly paths of skies and space. Agni, lord of light and knowledge, Indra, lord of energy and power, such are the horses of your creation, these are your birds of power.

11. Tava śarīraṁ patayiṣṇvarvan tava cittam vāta iva dhrajīmān. Tava śṛṅgāṇi viṣṭhitā purutrāraṇyeṣu jarbhurāṇā caranti.

O Arvan, tempestuous energy of the universe, your body is ever eager and agitating to fly. Your mind is restless, adventurous and vibrating as the waves of winds. Your ambitions are high soaring, various, pioneering and ever on the move. Inspiring the minds of men, bright and blazing in the forests overtaken, your thoughts, ambitions and operations spread around and cover the worlds across the spaces.

Agni, warlike courser, impetuous on the wing goes forward. It goes by all, in advance of all, moving the worlds on the march, inspiring, enlightening, elevating the divinities, thinking, meditating, shining by the light of its own intelligence. Unborn eternal is the source and centre of its power by which it is ignited, geared and steered on the way, and when it moves, poets follow singing and celebrating the beauty of existence, the glory of Divinity in action.

The same horse, Agni, mighty carrier of the universe, reaches the highest heaven and home of existence, and there joins the ultimate original and eternal mother, Prakṛti, and father creator, the Lord Almighty. O mighty harbinger of life and joy, loved and blest and most admired, go and reach the divinities to-day upon this instant and bring the cherished gifts of life for the admirer and the generous giver performer of yajna.

Of this splendid and hoary yajaka, Sun, giver of light and energy and receiver of the waters and essences of the earth and the skies, the second, younger and middling brother is vayu, wind and electricity abiding in the middle region of the skies, the energy being voracious and present everywhere. The third and youngest brother is Agni, fire, which is sprinkled with water and ghr̥ta in yajna. It is the sustainer of living beings and it is blest with seven children, i.e., seven rays of light in the spectrum. I wish I could know this ancient, brilliant and sustaining power and friend of life.

2. Sapta yuñjanti ratham-ekacakram-eko aśvo vahati saptanāmā. Trinābhi cakram-ajaram-anarvaṁ yatremā viśvā bhuvanādhi tasthuḥ.

Seven enjoin the one-wheel chariot, drawn by one horse of seven names. The wheel, the wheel of time, unaging and automotive, has three sub-wheels with three naves and rims, and in the orbit of this time and space abide all the worlds of the universe.

3. Imaṁ rathamadhi ye sapta tasthuḥ saptacakram sapta vahantyaśvāḥ. Sapta svasāro abhi saṁ navante yatra gavāṁ nihitā sapta nāma.

Seven are those who ride this chariot, seven motive powers (horses or rays of light) which draw this chariot of seven wheels, wheel within wheel. They are seven sisters who exult, roar and thunder together in reverence and worship of the father where in are hidden in depth seven names of the rays of light, the seven spheres and seven notes of language. (This is a highly mystical, symbolic, and at the same time scientific mantra. To understand the meaning and implication at different levels of correspondence we need knowledge of astronomy, cosmology, physics and astrophysics, language and grammar, music and mechanics. And still the meaning would remain open ended.)

Who saw the first material form of the universe of flesh and bone being born, which the immaterial of no flesh and bone bears? What and where was the breath and blood and soul of the earth and cosmos? Who would reach the visionary of knowledge to ask all this of the first and last question about the mystery?

Novice, ignorant but searching for knowledge and passing through the crucibles of heat and light of discipline, I ask with sincere mind and soul about these seven divine stages of the evolution of nature and life concealed in mystery, the seven-fold warp and woof of which visionary poets have traced and described in detail for the children of light to see and know and realise.

Not knowing what I would know here as a man of knowledge should know, I ask of the men of knowledge and poets of divine vision what that single principle of power could be in the form and nature of the one unborn and eternal Supreme which holds these six higher and lower spheres and atmospheres of the universe.

The proud and amorous mother seeks the company of father for the waters of life and joins him with love and her innate power of motherhood. Then she receives the rain showers of life and the children of nature receive the food for the body and Word for the mind with reverence and worship.

The mother, earth, is joined to the sun and held in orbit in circumambulation of the sun on its own axis. The productive power and the seed of life stays in the clouds within its atmosphere along with it in its motion in the three orbits, i.e., on its own axis, round the sun and in the galaxy, and when it matures it roars and showers, looking at mother earth of various colour and form like a calf looking at the mother cow.

The one Supreme lord of the universe who abides over all sustains the three mothers, earth, sky and the heavens of light, and He sustains the three fathers, Agni, Vayu and Aditya, fire, wind and sun. These three couples tire Him not, they smear Him not. On the heights of the heaven of that lord Prajapati, they meditate on this voice of omniscience and recreate and replenish the life sustaining energy and the creative vitality and fertility of motherhood.

The twelve-spoked wheel of time in existence that goes round and round the cosmic sun never ages. O Agni, light of humanity, the seven hundred and twenty-children of nature, i.e., the three hundred and sixty day-night pairs or seven hundred and twenty forms of material composition remain till the end of chronological time.

Father time, they say, has five stages from the initial moment onward and twelve divisions in the round of the year of time extending over existence in the farther half of the universe beyond the region of light. These others speak of this other half visible this side above, below the sun, which has six spokes of the seasons in the yearly round and moves in seven rounds of wheels, wheel within wheel of time.

(This concept of time space requires deep research into the nature and passage of time including the technique of measurement and calculation with reference to the visible world and the world beyond on the other side of the sun. Parardha, the other half, for example, is equal to 50 years of Brahma, his one day being equal to the age of the current world of existence. It is a mind boggling concept in ordinary terms of calculation.)

Five are the spokes in the wheel of time-cum-prakṛti, the temporal existence of physical world.

(These are the five elements of prakṛti, akasha, vayu, agni, apah and prthivi, and their internal changes). This wheel of prakṛti in time is ever on the move. In that wheel of time and physical change abide all the worlds of the universe. The axis of that carries the immense weight of existence but it never gets heated. With its centre-hold on this axis it has been going on since eternity and it will go on till eternity, but it never wears away. It is never destroyed. (The axis of the physio-temporal wheel is the constant substratum, original Prakṛti, and the centre-hold is the Lord Supreme.)

Existent with its centre and circumference, the unaging wheel, the chariot, of the universe of physio-temporal nature goes on and on, round and round. In the expansive Prakṛti, ten motive powers move it on (those ten being the pranic energies). The light of the sun suffused with rajas, energy of universal dynamics, goes on with the worlds. Indeed, all the worlds of existence abide in that light and energy.

The seven simultaneously born of one-unborn, they call a septet, that is, seven-in-one or one-in-seven. Six of them are yamas, twin movers. They are rshis, mixers, born of devas, light and energy. Their properties and actions according to their place and character are created and ordained, and they, each in its form and character, move around for and in the unmoved mover.

(These seven are the seven lokas: Bhuh, Bhuvah, Svah, Mahah, Janah, Tapah and Satyam. Sometimes the lokas are associated with seven Rshis. Sometimes they are described as seven senses and sometimes seven vital energies. All these refer, in fact point, to a theory of correspondences existing at the physical, mental and spiritual levels, or at the levels of matter, energy, thought and spirit. And this is a subject of high research and deep meditation.)

Female they are, intelligent and educated, and though women, I am told rightly, they are male too. One who has eyes can see this, but one who is blind, even though he has eyes, doesn't see this, doesn't know. The son who has the vision of a poet knows this well, and one who knows this has an old head on young shoulders. In other words, he has the vision and knowledge of the father of fathers.

In what direction and to which remote region of space does she go? What does she impel and energise and how? Does she receive consecration of the sun in the midst of a crowd or not?

Whatever objects are near, they say, are far off, and the objects far off, they say, are close at hand. (All objects are on the move and whether they are far or near is a matter of relativity. It is nothing absolute.) O Soma, Vayu energy, whatever you and the lord omnipotent, Indra, have formed as objects or clusters of objects, ever such as stars and galaxies, carry on the worlds of the universe as horses joined to the yoke and the pole draw the chariot of existence.

Two birds of beautiful wings, the individual human soul and the Supreme Soul of the universe, both friends and companions, together nest on the same one tree of existence. Of the two, one, the individual human soul, eats the fruit with relish and enjoys as well as suffers the consequences. The other, the Supreme Soul, simply watches comprehensively all round without eating anything.

To that tree over and above the mortal world whereon the super-souls of beautiful wings of blessed action nestle in a state of consecration and taste the nectar honey of divine joy, whose taste of the fruit the ancients describe as super-sweet, to that tree of immortal taste and bliss they do not attain who do not know the father.

They attain to that immortal state of bliss who know and experience the Spirit which is the lord protector of the celebrants of Divinity immanent in the gayatri verses in their recitations, who rejoice in the divine presence above the trishbubh verses and actualise that presence in life without break, who rise to the height of Divinity and share the dynamic presence vibrating in the universe and revealed in jagati verses, and commune with that presence.

(In scientific terms, the earth is gayatri. The fire of yajna is lit on the earth. Traishtubh is the sky. The wind is vibrant and operative there. Dyu is jagati, most dynamic. There aditya, the sun, reigns. Agni, fire is the vitality of the earth, wind is the energy of the sky, and the sun is the life of the heavens. Those who know these regions, their life and vitality and realise their vitality and the spirit of Divinity which informs them and their vitality attain to the state of immortal bliss.)

24. Gāyatreṇa prati mimīte arkamarkenā sāma traiṣṭubhena vākam. Vākena vākam dvipadā catuspadā'kṣareṇa mimate sapta vāṇīḥ.

In gayatri metre the Rks are composed. With Rks, the Samans are composed. With trishtubh metre Vak, Yajus are composed. By Vak, Yajurveda, and further Vak, Atharva Veda, is composed and formed. And with two-pada and four-pada constituents of the eternal Word, all the seven forms of Vedic compositions in metric forms of verse, are composed.

(In scientific terms, gayatri is Parameshthi Prana, universal energy at the highest level, from universal energy, specific forms of energy are created. One of these specific forms is Rk, rhythmic energy operative in thought consciousness. When pranic energy passes through a particular physical structure such as the reed or the larynx, sound is produced. When rhythm is added to sound, music is produced. When elements of sound are related to particular points of the speech mechanism, then phonemes, elements of sound in language forms, are produced. And when the elements of sound are joined in correspondence with thought, then language is produced. When feeling and emotion is added to language and expressed, then song is created and composed. Thus from Rks, thought energies of consciousness composed in language, joined to celebrative joy, Samans are created. When the music and songs of joy are joined to practical situations in the holy business of living, then Yajus are created as holy formations of life's values. And then from thought, song and practical formulae in holy living the comprehensive body of Atharva hymns is created. The classification of Vedic knowledge is thus explained in terms of knowledge, Rgveda, song, Samveda, action, Yajurveda, and comprehensive message, Atharva-veda, which is also known as Brahma Veda. In this way, from the elements of energy, sound, thought, feeling and emotion in divine consciousness, specially love and joy, all language and linguistic compositions both divine and human, sacred and secular, are created.)

The Lord establishes the ocean of energy in the Dyu, the region of light, by cosmic dynamics of Jagati hymns of omnipotence. In the Antariksha, He establishes the sun, generative and radiating source of light and energy. The blazing fire-woods of divine energy, they say, are three: the sun in the highest sky, lightning, wind and electricity in the atmosphere, and fire and magnetic energy in the earth, and by His grand and adorable omnipotence the Lord transcends all these. Of Gayatra, the Samidhas are said to be three: light, lightning and fire.

I invoke and call upon this generous mother cow, Gayatri, Mother Nature, mother Sarasvati of knowledge, directly at the closest. Only an intelligent and dexterous person can distil the essence and power of her generosity. May lord Savita, the creator, the sun, the teacher, create the soma of milk, honey and the light of knowledge for us and bless us. Lit up and blazing is the fire in the yajna-vedi. The same I speak of and celebrate in song.

Loving and loving, this mother cow, sustainer of the breath and supports of life, caressing her children with her heart of tenderness, comes to bless us all round. May she, never never to be killed or hurt, distil the milk of life's energy from the sun and wind and ever grow for the great good fortune and prosperity of life on earth.

The cow goes to the calf winking its eyes in loving expectation, lowing with love, and licks its head with caress. And lowing and loving more and more in response to the yearning affection of the calf, she overflows with milk. (The same is the response of mother earth and mother Sarasvati to the children yearning for love, nourishment and knowledge.)

This is that cloud which roars and by which, covered and surrounded in the vapours, the earth reverberates in response. The earth, with her own feelings of kindness and generosity sustains the mortal children of hers, and her energy, being in the form of lightning, reveals and realises her own form and character.

Living and breathing, moving at the speed of infinity yet constant and omnipresent, the Spirit of the Universe abides eternal, impelling the individual soul to move among the variety of material forms. And thus, the immortal spirit of mortal man moves around in love and company with the mortal forms of material beauty by virtue of its karma and self sacrifice.

31. Apāśyaṁ gopām-anipadyamānam-ā ca parā ca pathibhiś-carantam. Sa sadhrīcīḥ sa viṣūcīrvasāna ā varīvarti bhuvaneṣvantah.

I pray I may see and realise that universal protector of the world of nature and the mother powers of life, who, ever infallible and immaculate, is immanent and active over the nearest and the farthest paths of existence, and, pervading the centripetal and centrifugal waves of Prakṛti, eternally rolls around in the worlds of the universe.

Note: This mantra can be interpreted with reference to the individual soul: I wish and pray I may realise the essential nature of that presiding power over the mind and senses which, though in association with the mind and senses, never falls from its essence and moves over the paths and forms of existence far and near. The soul takes to the forms of Prakṛti which, it feels, go with it, as well as to those forms which are various and disagreeable. And thus it goes round and round in and across the worlds of the universe, integrated with all living forms and yet essentially its own self.

32. Ya īm cakāra na so asya veda ya īm dadarśa hiruginnu tasmāt. Sa māturyonā parivīto antarbahuprajā nirṛtim-ā viveśa.

That One that creates this universe, the other, individual soul, knows not of. This other that sees this world of existence goes off from the essence, and, enveloped in the mothers womb, covered in the folds of material form within, it is born and enters the world of mortality for ages in birth after birth.

The heaven above is my father and creator, my centre-hold, my haven and home here, my brother support to stand by. And this great earth, this universe, this nature, is my mother. In the womb of these two great generative powers, heaven and earth, the mother of His own creation in here, the father of the universe sows the seed of life.

What is the ultimate end of the earth? I ask you. Where is the centre and centre-hold of the universe? I ask you. What is the life-seed of the mighty generative force of infinitive power and speed? I ask you. What is the ultimate sound source from where the first boom of the Word arises? I ask.

This vedi, creativity and productivity of the earth, is the ultimate end of the earth. This yajna, meeting of solar vitality and earthly productivity, is the centre-hold of life in the world. The vitality of the sun and the shower of soma is the life seed of the generative energy of the creator who is generous and infinite. And Brahma, immanent consciousness of the Lord is the ultimate home of the Word from where it incarnates in the world as Veda.

Seven evolutes of Prakṛti, i.e., five subtle elements, mind and senses (which evolve from Ahankara), and the Mahat-tattva, represent half of the divine process of creation (the other half being the creative seed or thought-sankalpa of Parameshthi Prajapati); they are half the womb of the universe the other half is the divine will. By the will of Vishnu they abide in Akasha, eternal space-and-time continuum with their distinct properties and power and comprehend and rule the entire worlds in existence.

I just do not know what I am like for sure, or what this world is. Self-imposed, self-bound, I move around with limited mind and understanding. But when the first evolutes of natural truth, i.e., intelligence and understanding of awareness come to me, and when the revelations of this Divine Word of truth bless me, then I realise my share of knowledge of the reality of existence that it is.

The immortal soul coexistent with the mortal body goes back and forth. Both, body and soul, are eternal and imperishable, the body as Prakṛti in the essence and the soul as spirit. Both are different and going apart. Those who know know one and the other, some know one but not the other, and those who don't know know neither.

The Rks, Vedas, exist in the omniscient supreme Spirit of existence, infinite and imperishable as the eternal and ultimate space-time continuum. In That, all the divine powers of existence subsist. If one does not know or acknowledge that, what would he or she achieve with mere words of the Rks? Those who know Him, reside with Him.

Adorable lady of knowledge and wisdom, be great and illustrious with holy food for mind and spirit, and then, we pray, we too may have the honour and prosperity of knowledge and well-being. Holy and inviolable as the mother cow, living on pure food and drinking pure water, and conducting yourself with kindness and grace, bless us with the generous gift of universal knowledge and joy of life.

41. Gaurīrmimāya salilāni takṣatyekapadī dvipadī sā catuspadī. Aṣṭāpadī navapadī babhūvuṣī sahasrākṣarā paramē vyoman.

The lady of light in spotless white of the Word in the highest heaven of eternal Omniscience, ever keen to reveal and grow, speaks loud and bold, stirring the stillness of space in waves of consciousness in the universal mind and in the pools of the seer's minds, and thus reveals the Word in forms and stages for humanity: One Veda as the whole knowledge, two Vedas for knowledge and action, three Vedas for knowledge, action and prayer, four Vedas as one compendium of discrete forms, eightfold knowledge of four Vedas and four Upa-Vedas of practical knowledge such as health science, military science, etc., and nine-stage knowledge, the ninth being grammar, phonetics, astronomy, etc. Indeed, this is knowledge contained in countless thousand variations of the One Imperishable Word: AUM.

42. Tasyāḥ samudrā adhi vi kṣaranti tena jīvanti pradiśaścatasraḥ. Tataḥ kṣaratyakṣaram tad viśvamupa jīvati.

The oceanic showers of that voice of eternal omniscience rain in torrents. With these showers the directions, all the four and their sub-directions, vibrate with life. Then from there the actual words reveal themselves to human vision and perception, and the entire world of humanity lives by that revelation with light, support and guidance.

I have seen from close quarters the clouds of smoke and vapour laden with power. From this close by, I perceive the powerful catalytic agents of nature far off busy heating and creating the clouds of soma replete with vitality. These processes are the first operations of natural evolution and behaviour higher up in space.

Three powers of nature with their distinct identities express themselves and operate according to the cycle of the seasons in the year. One of these, fire, is lit once in the year and generates and germinates the seeds of life. Another the sun, with its action and operations, illuminates the world. The third is wind, the force of it can be perceived but not its shape and form.

Four are the constituent parts of speech which the wise men of learning know. Three of them are hidden in the cave of the mind, they are neither analysed, nor defined, nor understood by ordinary speakers, only the fourth part of speech, or parole, they use in communication.

(The four constituents of the structure of speech are: Nama or substantive, noun, Akhyata or roots of verbs, Upasarga or affixes, and Nipata or irregular accepted forms. These four are the subjects for grammarians and linguists. For the ordinary person, speech is the whole language, just what it is, and accepted without the understanding of structure and grammar. At a higher level, language is analysed in four layers of existence and consciousness: Para or transcendent language which is beyond thought and understanding. It may be regarded as the language-correspondence of the omniscience of God. The second is Pashyanti, one step close to us from Para. This may be understood to be the language existing in the unconscious layers of the mind. The third is Madhyama, another step closer to our consciousness. Let us say it exists in our sub-conscious mind. And the fourth is Vaikhari, existing at our conscious level of the mind. This is the language in use. Further, this language is analysed into four constituents: Nama, Akhata, Upasarga and Nipata. And of this language too the ordinary speaker uses the accepted form without knowing the structure and grammar. For the ordinary speaker, the language in use is only behaviour purely at the natural and social level. And in yet another way, language may be understood in the way of the Veda: Ila, the language of omniscience, Sarasvati, the language of Veda and learning, Mahi, the spoken language at the level of the earth, nation, region, family and the mother. Another name for this speech is Bharati. And one thing more at the end of this note: This analysis and study is for the learned and for the seekers of learning. It has no value for the ordinary speaker. He or she speaks what is spoken for the only reason that he or she speaks thus, and what is spoken is understood.)

Reality is one, Truth is one, Ishvara is one and only One, not more than one. The learned and the wise speak of It in many ways. They say: It is Indra, glorious, Mitra, universal friend, Varuna, highest adorable, Agni, light of life, Divya, heavenly, Suparna, supreme beauteous, Garutman, supreme dynamic. They say: It is Agni, life and leader of existence, Yama, supreme controller, law and justice, and the judge, and Matarishva, supreme energy of the universe.

The brilliant and beautiful rays of the sun constantly touch the green earth held by the sun and, covered by vapours of water, and rise back to the region of the sun. They come down from the region of waters and the earth is soaked with the water of rain showers.

One full circle is the wheel going round. Twelve are the segments of the felly of the wheel. Three are the centres of the nave. Three hundred and sixty are the spokes fixed and yet on the move with the wheel. Who knows such a wheel? Rarely someone.

49. Yaste stanah śaśayo yo mayobhūryena viśvā puṣyasi vāryāṇi. Yo ratnadhā vasuvid yah sudatraḥ sarasvati tamiha dhātave kaḥ.

Sarasvati, divine mother of the wealth and knowledge of the world, that abundant and inexhaustible treasure of knowledge of yours which is blissful, with which you fill and replenish the cherished resources of the world, which holds the jewels of the earth and reveals and provides the wealths of existence, and which gives all the gifts and blessings of life: that treasure, O mother, pray open for your darling child, the seeker of nourishment for body, mind and soul.

The divinities, first evolutes of nature with the immanent will Divine, conducted the yajna of creation by yajna, yajnic inputs of self-sacrifice. They were the first sustainers, supporters of the divine laws, keepers of the rules of Dharma and carriers of the yajna further. They alone attain to grandeur and rise to the regions where the divine souls of the ancients dwell, who carry on the yajna and serve the Lord of Heaven.

Same is this water which goes up to the skies and comes down to the earth by days and nights. The clouds refresh and replenish the fertility of the earth, while the fires of yajna, electrical energies of the winds and sunrays serve the heavens with fragrance of the earth.

For nourishment, protection and promotion of life on earth, I invoke, adore and constantly offer libations of homage and fragrant samits and havish to the heavenly, bright and blazing angel of cosmic wings, radiating centre of liquid energy and soothing ripener of herbs and greens, ever exuberant flood of generosity, which fills the thirsting earth with rain showers of fertility from the clouds of space.

Indra and Maruts Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Kayā śubhā savayasah sanīlāḥ samānyā marutaḥ saṁ mimikṣuḥ. Kayā matī kuta etāsa ete'rcanti śuṣmaṁ vṛṣaṇo vasūyā.

With what noble and equal action do the Maruts, divine complementary energies, kindred powers of equal age and home, join together, mix the yajna materials for oblations and shower the earth with rain and fragrance? With what thought and intelligence, and coming from where do they, generous powers anxious for the wealth of life, value and refine strength and competence for the realisation of wealth?

2. Kasya brahmāṇi jujuṣur-yuvānaḥ ko adhware maruta ā vavarta. Śyenāñ iva dhrajato antarikṣe kena mahā manasā rīramāma.

Whose wealth do they, ever young, love and delight in? Who enjoins the Maruts to visit and join the yajna of love and non-violence? The Maruts traverse the spaces like eagles sweeping across the skies. With what great mind shall we serve and please them?

3. Kutastvamindra māhinaḥ sanneko yāsi satpate kim ta itthā. Saṁ prcchase samarāṇaḥ śubhānair-vocetstanno harivo yat te asme.

Indra, lord of might and grandeur, protector of truth and right, you are so great, unique, still you go all alone by yourself, without attendant, assistant or retinue? Wherefrom? Where to? This way? What does it mean? We ask you, friend and comrade, lord of sunbeams, whatever is in your mind for us, pray speak in good words.

4. Brahmāṇi me matayaḥ śaṁ sutāsaḥ śuṣma iyarti prabhṛto me adriḥ. Ā śāsate prati haryantyu-kthemā harī vahatastā no accha.

May the wealth and power, the people and ideas of the nation, and the noble achievements of peace and joy be for our good. The strength, the cloud and the thunderbolt deployed go forward for our good and peace. The songs of praise arise and celebrate us. May the horses of Indra, the energies of sunbeams and electrical energy, carry us onward.

5. Ato vayam-antam-ebhir-yujānāḥ svakṣatrebhis-tanvaḥ śumbhamānāḥ. Mahobhiredāñ upa yujmahe nvindra svadhāmanu hi no babhūtha.

Thus possessed of our most intimate powers and the grandeur of our social order, raising the beauty and grace of our body politic, we may use these powers and energies of nature. Indra, lord of grace and power, be favourable to us in consonance with our own essential strength, power and virtue of character.

6. Kva syā vo marutaḥ svadhāsīd yanmāmekam samaddhattāhihatye. Aham hyugras-taviṣas-tuviṣmān viśvasya śatror-anamam vadhasnaiḥ.

O Maruts, tempestuous powers of knowledge, speed and energy, where is that essential strength and energy of yours which you placed in me to break the clouds of rain showers by myself alone? Bright, blazing and awful of power, I bow in homage to you with all my fatal weapons of defence against the enemies of the world and humanity. (The strength and energy is everywhere in nature, in fire, water and electric and magnetic force, and in the sunbeams. Let us exploit these with knowledge and scientific technique.)

7. Bhūri cakartha yujyebhirasme samānabhirvṛṣabha paumsyebhiḥ. Bhūrīṇi hi kṛṇavāmā śaviṣṭhendra kratvā maruto yad vaśāma.

Indra, lord of power and generosity, with nature's energy harnessed for acts of general, universal and humane value, you have done us proud with many useful, equal and valorous acts of nobility. Indra, lord of highest valour and peace, and Maruts, heroes of tempestuous speed and performance, let us too do a lot of great things and achieve what we want with noble yajnic acts of love and generosity.

8. Vadhīm vṛtram maruta indriyeṇa svena bhāmena taviṣo babhūvān. Ahametā manave viśvaścandrāḥ sugā apaścakara vajrabāhuḥ.

O Maruts, heroes of furious energy and power, I break the clouds of darkness with my own might, being powerful by my own passion for what is right, and, holding the thunderbolt in hand, I do these acts of universal wealth and beauty for the sake of humanity, acts which clear the paths for future progress.

9. Anuttamā te maghavannakirnu na tvāvāñ asti devatā vidānaḥ. Na jāyamano naśate na jāto yāni kariṣyā kṛṇuhi pravṛddha.

Lord of bounty, wealth and power, there is nothing initiated, inspired and made to move except by you. There is none like you who commands light, knowledge and generosity in abundance. There is none born or emerging into prominence who can attain to your grandeur. Lord thriving and exalted, do whatever things are to be done, for no one can rival you.

10. Ekasya cinme vibhvastvojo yā nu dadhrṣvān kṛṇavai manīṣā. Ahaṁ hugro maruto vidāno yāni cyavamindra idīśa eṣām.

I am one and independent, may my vigour and splendour grow and spread all round since, bold and daring, whatever I do and want to do, I do with all my mind and soul. O Maruts, heroes of the winds and tempests, I am bright and lustrous, I am Indra, master of my own powers. I am knowledgeable, I know what I know. Wherever I move, whatever I achieve, surely I rule and govern.

Friends, leaders, Maruts, may the hymns of Veda and the song of praise which you have composed for me and offered here give me joy. May the song with its body of words and music be pleasing to me and my body and mind and to Indra, generous friend of all and performer of yajna.

O Maruts, pioneers of knowledge and science, who offers you tributes of praise and appreciation here now? Friends, go forward to those friends who love and honour you. Heroes of wonderful action, moving on to the completion of your programmes of knowledge, be aware of my projects of truth and natural laws and waters of space to fight out want and suffering.

Just as honour and celebration moves on from the honoured to the honourable in succession in the advancement of knowledge, so let the intelligence and expertise of the eminent scientist and technologist come to benefit us. O Maruts, leaders and pioneers of knowledge, turn in appreciation and recognition to the scholar expert, since the celebrant offers these hymns of praise, discovery and invention to you.

O Maruts, leaders, pioneers, heroes of speed and power of progress, this song of celebration is for you. It is the voice of the lyric of the honourable artist, scientist and technologist. Come with desire and commitment to advance the science and the scholar further. And let us too achieve food and energy, strength and power, and life-giving victories.

O Maruts, roaring heroes of the strength and speed of the winds, for a full life of courage and enthusiasm and the distinction of leadership and overflowing generosity, we sing and celebrate your ancient and original heroism. Blazing like fire, advancing like warriors, do wondrous deeds of valour worthy of admiration.

They bear the honey sweets of life for all as parents bring honey to their darling child. Heroes of courage and valour but sportive as ripples of a stream, they play their part in the battles of life. Ferocious and terrible like jaws of retributive justice, yet dear as breath of life, they come to the man of reverence and humility with love and protection and, with all their innate strength and power, they never hurt the man dedicated to yajna and charity.

3. Yasmā ūmāso amṛtā arāsata rāyaspoṣaṁ ca haviṣā dadāśuṣe. Ukṣantyaśmai maruto hitā iva purū rajāṁsi payasā mayobhuvah.

Just as imperishable protectors provide wealth and nourishment for the man who gives liberally in charity alongwith offerings of fragrant materials into the yajna fire, so do the Maruts, winds and other natural energies, kind and beneficent, like favourable helpers at the beck and call of a friend, overflow many regions of earth and skies with milk and water for the sake of the man of yajna.

As you move on to reach the regions of your choice with your power and force and while your automotive and tempestuous rockets rush forth through the skies and spaces, then all the worlds and their towers shake with terror. Amazing is that mission of flight in the programmed and guided projects of yours.

When the man-made meteors of rockets blazing through sky and space roar through mountains of earth and clouds of dust and vapour, making them reverberate, and thus reach the top of heaven, then all the bio-world on your way shakes in fear and celestial herbs like soma shake off from the root like astronauts floating from their seat in the control chamber.

Maruts, powers young, dynamic and passionately enthusiastic, bright blazing and well-harnessed is your power of energy, held and controlled like a tempered sword, cutting, lighting, digging and driving. With this electric energy and your noble intelligence, assure and augment our understanding and development without damaging the country-life.

O Maruts, heroic warriors like the winds, in your chariots are collected materials for universal good of the people, and on your shoulders and in the chariots are blazing weapons in position competing, as if, in effectiveness. In your paths are provided materials for food and advancement, and the axles and wheels of the chariots are well aligned and balanced for fast and rhythmic movement.

In the arms of these heroes of the people there is abundant power for general good. On their chest are ornamented armours of strong and variegated design. On their shoulders are bows and arrows of lightning speed. On their thunderbolt is the sharpness of the razor's edge. And they wear the dignity and grace of the wings of celestial birds.

Great are the Maruts with their own innate greatness, powerful, magnanimous, far-sighted, refulgent with brilliant stars which light the world, joyous and loved of all, sweet of tongue, true of the word of mouth, and they are sustainers of all in company with Indra, universal energy and power.

O Maruts, high-born and arisen you are, great is your glory, abundant is your generosity, and deep and inviolable is your discipline of vows as that of imperishable Aditi. Whatever you grant and bestow on the man of noble action, even Indra commanding the thunderbolt does not touch.

O Maruts, immortal souls, that brotherhood of yours, that joy and suffering of yours in the last age, that high honour and reputation you earned and preserved, the same honour and reputation, protect and preserve with this intelligence and understanding of yours for humanity and further extend and preserve with your noble actions in company with men and leaders.

O Maruts, heroes of instant action and achievement, that abundance, expertise and heroism of yours by virtue of which we achieve great things of lasting significance, by which people expand in knowledge and win victories in their battles of life, that very cherished abundance, expertise and power of action, I pray, I too may achieve by these yajnic performances.

O Maruts, heroes of instant action, universal knowledge and abundant generosity, this is the song of celebration in honour of your action and achievement. This is the spontaneous voice of the happy and honoured poet artist. May it reach you for the manifestation of your form and image in existence for our benefit so that we may acquire food and energy for our body, mind and spirit, clear our paths of advancement and achieve abundance in life for a vibrant living.

Mandala 1/Sukta 167Indra-Maruts Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

सहस्रं त इन्द्रातया नः सहस्रमिषा हरिवा गूततमाः ।

सहस्रं राया मादयध्य सहस्रिण उप ना यन्तु वाजाः ॥ १ ॥

1. Sahasraṁ ta indrotayo naḥ sahasramiṣo harivo gūrtatamāḥ. Sahasraṁ rāyo mādayadhyai sahasriṇa upa no yantu vājāḥ.

Lord of power and sustenance, Indra, thousands are your protections and ways of protection for us. Lord of sunbeams, thousand-fold are the foods and energies of the most admirable order. Thousands are your gifts of wealth for us to enjoy life. And thousands may be, we pray, the forms of knowledge, valour and victory for us.

2. Ā no'vobhirmaruto yāntvacchā jyeṣṭhebhivā brhad divaiḥ sumāyāḥ. Adha yadeṣāṁ niyutaḥ paramāḥ samudrasya cid dhanayanta pāre.

May the Maruts, heroes of the winds, powers of vision and wonder as they are, come well to us with their modes of protection and senior-most scholars of brilliance, and then may follow those of their most efficient modes of transport which can cross the seas and skies for the acquisition of wealth.

3. Mimyakṣa yeṣu sudhitā ghṛtācī hiraṇyanirṇiguparā na ṛstih. Guhā carantī manuṣo na yoṣā sabhāvatī vidathyeva saṁvāk.

Seeker of knowledge, go and mix with those scholars and visionaries among whom exists that noble and comprehensive language which is fit for scientific yajnas of versatile purpose, which is fit for use in councils of governance, which is peacefully held like the dewy night by the sky, which is held like a golden sword by the warrior, which is held like lightning by the cloud, and which, like the youthful maiden of the human lover, moves in covert allays in search of the lover. (Such is living speech.)

4. Parā śubhrā ayāso yavyā sādharāṇyeva maruto mimikṣuḥ. Na rodasī apa nudanta ghorā juṣanta vṛdham sakhyāya devāḥ.

Distant but brilliant and powerful, moving at moderate speed, the Maruts shower the earth and sky with rain, but even when they are violent, roaring with lightning, they are not repulsive, they are only impulsive, not repelling the sky and the earth away but impelling them with new life and energy, because the divines love to mix and join in a spirit of commonalty for the sake of friendship and love the growth and expansion of all in power and potential.

5. Joṣad yadīmasuryā sacadhyai viṣitastukā rodasī nṛmaṇāḥ. Ā sūryeva vidhato ratham gāt tveṣa-pratīkā nabhaso netyā.

If the earth, source of pranic vitality and loving mother of mankind, were to serve the Maruts for the sake of waters, then she, with flowing hair like the lights of evening dawn, shining brilliant as child of the sun, would ride the chariot of the Lord Ordainer and sustainer, i.e., the sun, and rise as if going to sky heights of progress and abundance.

6. Āsthāpayanta yuvatiṁ yuvānaḥ śubhe nimiślām vidatheṣu pajrām. Arko yad vo maruto haviṣmān gāyad gātham sutasomo duvasyan.

When the worshipper, rich in yajnic offerings, having distilled the soma, sings songs of praise zealously in honour of you, then, O Maruts, youthful powers of nature's brilliance and force, you give him in marriage a young maiden, smart and dynamic, dedicated to yajnas, and a harbinger of happiness and bliss in life.

7. Pra taṁ vivakmi vakmyo ya eṣāṁ marutām mahimā satyo asti. Sacā yaḍīm vṛṣamaṇā ahaṁyuh sthirā cijjanīrvahate subhāgāḥ.

That greatness and glory of the Maruts which is worthy of celebration, I celebrate. It is real and true, since he that is virile and proud of himself, Indra, in unison with this firm earth, sustains the many happy mothers and children of the world.

8. Pānti mitrāvaruṇāvavadyāccayata īmaryamo apraśastān. Uta cyavante acyutā dhruvāṇi vāvṛdha im maruto dātivārah.

Mitra and Varuna protect from sin and shame. Surely Aryama, lord of justice, raises the despicable. They shake off even the firm and fixed enemies of life. O Maruts, the gift of your generosity ever grows and grows.

O Maruts, neither from near nor from afar do they find the end of your power and force. Intrepidable and rising with inviolable strength and courage, they, i.e., the Maruts keep the enemies down and, vast as the ocean, they stay and abide far higher than jealousy and calumny of small minds.

10. Vayamadyendrasya preṣṭhā vayam śvo vocemahi samarye. Vayam purā mahi ca no anu dyūn tanna ṛbhukṣā narāmanu ṣyāt.

We are the dearest children of Indra to-day. Let us be able to say the same thing tomorrow in the battles of life. And for the sake of this love and grace of Indra, let us first maintain our own greatness of character and performance day by day, and then, we pray, may Indra be kind and favourable day by day among men. Lord of thunderbolt He is.

O Maruts, this is your song of celebration, this is the voice of the happy and honoured poet artist. May it reach you for the manifestation of your image and action for us. And may we, we pray, achieve food and energy, advancement in action and the joy of life.

O Maruts, powers of enlightenment, generous action and well-being of the world, in every act of yajna one after another, let your will and performance be equal, fast and victorious. In every act of thought, reflection and planning, let your intelligence, understanding and imagination, and even your calculation be divinely holy. For the well-being of the earth and heaven, and for the sake of great and inviolable protection of life and life's joy, with yajnic oblations and songs of praise and thankfulness, we pray, turn your attention this way for our good and well-being by straight and simple speed of motion.

2. Vavrāso na ye svajāḥ svatavasa iṣaṁ svarabhi-jāyanta dhūtayaḥ. Sahasriyāso apāṁ normaya āsā gāvo vandyāso nokṣaṇaḥ.

Come this way, Maruts! Powers ever on the move for protection and progress of us all, self-creative, self-strong, movers and shakers like a thousand waves of the rolling seas, they are born to provide nourishment, energy, light and happiness for others. Worthy of honour and reverence they are like generous cows who provide motherly milk for sustenance and growth, and like the sacrificing bullocks who carry the burdens of humanity. Admirable, worthy of thanks and praise with honest word of the mouth they are.

Maruts, vibrant powers of enlightenment, nourishment and protection, like soma, with off-shoots spreading around, distilled and drunk to the last drop of the essence assimilated into the heart, abide with us, loved, honoured and admired as our own. I depend on their shoulders for support as a housewife depends upon the support of the head of family. And in their hands, the Maruts hold action in one and wear the band of victory on the other.

Self-inspired, self-motivated and self-driven, Maruts descend from the heights of heaven freely, spontaneously and selflessly. Immortal are you, mighty heroes, inspire and excite the will to live with your heart and soul and use the will as a goal and an invitation to life. Pure and unsullied, born of energy and impetuous in motion, wielding weapons of light and lightning, O Maruts, you stir and move even the fixed and immovable mountains.

O Maruts, wielders of arms blazing as light and lightning, who or what in you shakes and shines in you by itself like flames or waves of sound? Inspirers of many, augmenters of food, energy and love of life, who starts you on your mission of life like the cloud melting in the sky or like a fast horse on its daily round?

6. Kva svidasya rajaso mahasparam kvāvaram maruto yasminnāyaya. Yaccyāvayatha vithureva saṁhitam vyadriṇā patatha tveṣamarṇavam.

O Maruts, what is the ultimate beyond this great region of the skies, and what is the ultimate this side wherein you move hither and shake the things concentrated here like precarious objects of no value, or fly down with the clouds to the shining seas?

Like your acquisition and distribution is your generosity and benevolence, powerful, blissful, lustrous, maturing and fruitful, abundant, auspicious, as the gift of a philanthropist yajamana, expansive and victorious like the breeze of life's energy.

8. Prati śtobhanti sindhavaḥ pavibhyo yadabhriyām vācam-udīrayanti. Ava smayanta vidyutaḥ prṛthivyām yadī ghṛtaṁ marutaḥ pruṣṇuvanti.

When the Maruts ride their chariots, the wheels rumble with thunder of the clouds and oceans pant and roll in awe, and when they shower torrents or rain on the earth, flashes of lightning flaunt with pride and lights of joy.

9. Asūta pṛśnirmahate raṇāya tveṣamayāsām marutāmanīkam. Te sapsarāso'janayantābhva-mādit svadhāmiṣirām paryapaśyan.

Mother Nature creates the blazing force of the tempestuous Maruts for the great battle of the elements in the process of evolution, and they, moving and working together with the waves of creative energy, fashion forms earlier not in existence and watch the achievements of their own powers all round in the midst of the variety of creative materials.

This is the song of the Maruts in celebration of their work and power in the world of nature and humanity in evolution. This is the voice of the poet, happy and honoured artist, maker of beautiful forms. May this, with love and homage of the poet, reach the Maruts for their manifestation in form and image, and may we too achieve food and energy, vision and will to move on clear and simple paths of progress, and may we have the bliss of the breeze of freshness and light of life.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, destroyer of suffering, you are great and glorious indeed, since you accept and honour and protect these great saints and scholars for the reason of their selflessness and dedication. As such, you yourself a scholar among dynamic scholars and knowing what is dearest to you and the Maruts, fastest leaders of society, pray give us the peace and comfort of perfect well-being.

Indra, lord of honour and glory, that dedicated force of yours consisting of the Maruts, intelligent, creative and war-like leaders among ordinary mortals, smiling, happy and joyful, may, we pray, join and engage entire humanity in the battle of creative production of wealth and well-being for the lord creator of paradisaal bliss on earth.

May the fruits of that loving and generous creativity of yours, by which the Maruts create perfect joyous gifts of life from pre-existing causes, which gifts, like the blazing fire in the wood and waters in the open-ended flowing rivers and space, abide in nature, and which gifts, then, the living beings enjoy as the dearest gifts of life (by virtue of the creative dynamics of the Maruts).

Indra, glorious lord of wealth, give us that wealth of life as a gift with the highest generosity of heart and magnanimity of mind which is honoured by the beneficiaries, that wealth and generosity of yours and the Maruts' which all people love, and which, like the honey sweet milk of the mother's breast, nourishes the child with food, energy and intelligence.

Indra, in you and with you abide wealths and virtues of the world which are most satisfying saviours and redeemers, which help any lover of truth, piety and yajna keen to cross the oceans of existence to liberation. May the Maruts give us that peace and wealth. May the ancient and eternal nobilities eager to rise to divinity guide and bless us.

Indra, lord of power, knowledge and action, go forward to the great, virile and generous people, fast, intelligent and vibrant as the winds, and try experiments on the floor of this great earth. And then, just as the powers and transports of the master stand ready at his service, so would the mighty and spacious flying machines like horses would stand ready for the heroes of the skies.

I hear the echoes of the roar of awful and impetuous Maruts reaching their target and returning—Maruts which, with the creation and release of fresh energy and modes of protection, exhort and accelerate the speed of humanity on way to progress like an army advancing to victory.

Indra, lord of light and power, adored by admirers of brilliance and generosity, for the sake of honour and prestige and in honour of the venerables, split and know the sun-light headed powers of nature such as waters and herbs with the help of the Maruts, catalytic, analytical and universally creative energy waves of nature, and let us know and acquire wealth of food, energy, onward progress and the breath and freshness of life.

Nothing that is present is permanent, nor what shall be is constant. Who knows what, in truth, is mysterious: serial yet constant, and constant yet elusive? Vidmā hi te yathā mano'smabhyaminna ditsasi.

Brother Agastya, pioneer of vision, insight and foresight, you are our friend. Being a friend, why do you disdain us? Don't you want to give us the secret of knowing your mind as it is?

Indra, let the priests prepare and decorate the vedi and light the holy fire as before. And there in the vedi you and we all, teachers and disciples, would conduct and expand your yajna of the immortal spirit, knowledge and divine consciousness.

Indra, spirit of the universe, master of the worlds, lord protector of the sustainers of life, highest wielder of the wealth of the world, you rule, govern and ordain the honour and grandeur of existence. Lord protector of friends and friends of life, you rule, govern and ordain all the powers and energies that protect, preserve and promote the evolution and onward march of life and humanity. Lord of knowledge and power, speak to the Maruts, dynamic powers of nature and humanity, accept our offers of oblations, consume them in the yajna fire, and create the life-giving vapours of energy and showers of rain according to the seasons.

1. Prati va enā namasāhamemi sūktena bhikṣe sumatiṁ turāṇām. Rarāṇatā maruto vedyābhirni heḷo dhatta vi mucadhvam-aśvān.

O Maruts, dynamic powers of nature and humanity, bearers of light, knowledge and power, with this homage and song of celebration and reverence, I come to you and pray for my share of noble thoughts and intelligence from the excellent priests and preceptors. O dynamic scholars of power and force, and of the light of life, keep you anger and passion aside and, exulting in the onward march of humanity, release the powers of progress by the freedom and initiative that comes with knowledge and conscious values of life and love.

O Maruts, vibrations of the divine in nature and humanity, this song of celebration and reverence is risen from the heart and crafted with love and beauty. O visionaries of divinity, take it with the same equal love with which it is offered. Take to the spirit of it with your heart and mind, come close bearing your gifts of life and energy, advance us onward, and stay with us, because you are the veterans of eminence and progress for the love of living with gifts of divinity.

O Maruts, veteran visionaries of life and divinity, powers of knowledge for advancement, admired and honoured as you are, pray give us peace and well-being. Indra, lord of honour and glory, listen to our prayer and worship, and bless us with peace and prosperity. Maruts, heroes of tempestuous speed and energy, let all our future days be distinguished by high ambition, cherished goals and love of victory.

O Maruts, heroes of energy, power and speed, shining with strength and power and, at the same time, conscious and moved by the awe of this blazing lord

Indra and his law, I say, these holy materials of yajna are dedicated to you, these weapons and armaments are tempered and sharpened for you. We offer these right here. Accept these, we pray, and make us happy and comfortable with peace and well-being.

By the strength and courage by which the veterans of knowledge and enlightenment instruct and educate the ancient and constant citizens of the ancient and constant republics in their ancestral habitations, by the same strength and courage, O Indra, ruler of the land, generous and valorous, bright and blazing, old and venerable, giver of strength and constancy, give us food, energy, power, and honour with the help of the Maruts, mighty and formidable leaders and warriors of the land.

Indra, lord of power, honour and glory, ruler of the world, patient, constant and victorious, protect and promote the men of strength, courage and endurance.

With the help of the Maruts, lustrous guardians and watchful protectors of the people, be free from anger and disdain of impatience and despair. Wielder of power and presiding power of the social order as you are, let us have knowledge and enlightenment, strength and courage of will and morals, and the light and vision of the spirit of life and joy.

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. *Gāyat sāma nabhanyaṁ yathā verarcāma tad

dabdhā ā yat sadmānaṁ divyaṁ vivāsān.*

Let the holy man sing spontaneous songs of joyous Sama like the song of the bird soaring to the clouds, and we shall join that resounding melody of music overflowing with divine ecstasy, when the rays of the dawn, generous like venerable holy cows, sacred and inviolable, fill the vault of the sky and celebrate the heavenly sun rising in splendour over the world and the generous cows stir around the stalls and sit on the holy grass around the yajnic area doing homage to Indra.

2. Arcad vṛṣā vṛṣabhiḥ sveduhavyairmṛgo nāśno ati bharate marya muthunā yajatraḥ.

Let the brilliant man of yajna, virile and generous, trying to reach his aim like a bounding deer at the fastest speed, with virile and generous yajakas, offer rich, fragrant yajnic offerings, to Indra. Let the mortal man, happy at heart with his life partner dedicated to yajna and social service, offer hymns of praise and fragrant oblations to Indra, lord of life, honour and glory.

3. Nakṣaddhotā pari sadma mitā yan bharad garbhamā śaradaḥ prthivyāḥ. Krandadaśvo naya-māno ruvad gaurantardūto na rodasī carad vāk.

Let the yajakas, Indra, fire and power, divine energy, receiver and giver, receive the oblations and rise by the vedi constructed in definite design and measure, bearing the essences of the earth's produce the year round according to the seasons, and in return replenish the earth with fertility. Let the power arise and go over spaces roaring like a steed well guided, bellowing like a bull, and moving on the rounds like a messenger between heaven and earth, echoing the voice of divinity raised from the seats of yajna.

4. Tā karmāṣatarāsmāi pra cyautnāni devayanto bharante. Jujoṣadindro dasmavarca nāstyeveva sugmyo ratheṣṭhāḥ.

Those yajnic acts, cherished offerings, and mantras vibrating with energy, which the yajakas eager to please and empower the divinities of nature and humanity offer into the fire for Indra, may Indra, blazing catalytic power of Divinity, happily accessible, riding the chariot of sun-beams, along vibrations of the winds and waves of energy, receive with love and desire and, like the Ashvins, sun and moon, recreate, augment and return as blessings of Divinity for humanity.

Praise be to Indra, celebrate Him in gratefulness. He alone is wholly pure and true. He is mighty and omnipotent. His is the power and the glory. He rides the chariot of the universe as the sole master. Right in front, He is in and with everyone and everything, the great fighter, shower of life and joy, and He is the Light, dispeller of the darkness that hides the truth.

6. Pra yaditthā mahinā nṛbhyo astyaraṁ rodasī kakṣye nāsmāi. Saṁ vivya indro vṛjanam na bhūmā bharti svadhāvāṅ opaśamiva dyām.

Indra who, thus with His omnipotence, is all in all self-sufficient for the sustenance of humanity, who keeps the heaven and earth and the middle regions in orbit but not for Himself, Indra who weaves the web and wields the entire worlds of existence together, each as on its own path, and then the mighty lord of His own power and Prakṛti holds the high heavens up above as the pillar in the centre.

7. Samatsu tvā śura satāmuraṇaṁ prapathin- tamaṁ paritamsayadhyai. Sajoṣasa indraṁ made kṣoṇīḥ sūriṁ cid ye anumadanti vājaiḥ.

To decorate and honour you as a mighty hero, as a pioneer and leader in the battles of life, as the highest of the best, O sagely wise Indra, lord omnipotent and omniscient, the people of the world, friends, lovers, admirers and worshippers in excitement and ecstasy celebrate you and the worlds, and celebrate with you, with all their might and main and the homage of love and faith.

एवा हि त शं सर्वना समुद्र आपा यत्त आसु मदन्ति द्दवीः ।

8. Evā hi te śaṁ savanā samudra āpo yat ta āsu madanti devīḥ. Viśvā te anu joṣyā bhūd gauḥ sūriṁścid yadi dhiṣā veṣi janān.

O Indra, lord ruler of the world, all celebrations in your honour and all your celebrations of life and existence, thus, are for peace and well-being. Thus all waters in the oceans and all celestial waters in space and in these earths of the universe which celebrate you and rejoice in you are for peace and well-being. And when you inspire sagely people with conscious favours and divine intelligence, then all voices of the world in unison with you celebrate you and the joy of existence.

9. Asāma yathā suṣakhāya ena svabhiṣṭayo narāṁ na śamsaiḥ. Asad yathā na indro vandaneṣṭhāsturo na karma nayamāna ukthā.

Lord of knowledge, divine action and human progress, guide us the way we may be blest with good friends and allies, with noble aims and intentions as with good wishes and approbations of the people around, and the way that Indra, happy with our praise and worship, be with us always, taking us forward in action like a carrier rocket in the holy field of science and technology.

10. Viṣpardhaso narāṁ na śamsair-asmākāsad-indro vajrahastah. Mitrāyuvo na pūrpatim suśiṣṭauma-dhyāyuva upa śikṣanti yajñaiḥ.

As with the praise and prayers of people trying to excel and rise in life, so with our praise and prayers may Indra, lord of armaments and the thunderbolt, be with us as a friend and guide. Like men with desire for friends, and like people of experience at the middle of age who serve Indra, lord of the city, with yajnas and sit with him for the sake of auspicious learning, we too serve the lord with yajnic offerings, meditate and pray for learning in the field of science and administration.

यज्ञा हि ष्मन्दं कश्चिदृन्धञ्जुहुराणश्चिन्मनसा परियन ।

manasā pariyan. Tīrthe nācchā tāṭṛṣāṇamoko

Some yajna is good for success and glorifies Indra, social order of governance and the ruler. A tortuous path, though apparently yajnic and good, repels the seeker mentally and emotionally. A good home close by in a place of pilgrimage is good for the thirsty traveller, but a long and tortuous path is no use, it does no good toward success.

12. *Mo śū ṇa indrātra pṛtsu devairasti hi śmā te Indra, lord of power and prosperity, you are with the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, never with the ungenerous. Pray, do not forsake us in the battles of life. Lord of light and grandeur, this praise and prayer is for you surely, this voice of unifying love and faith which celebrates the great, generous, creative, philanthropic and dynamic powers of the divine and human world is for you.

एष स्ताम इन्द्र तुभ्यमस्म एतन गातुं हरिवा विदा नः । आ

Indra, lord of power and glory, thus our song of celebration and prayer is for you. Lord of lightning speed and force, by this song know, recognise and accept us and our ways of life and conduct. Lord of light, kind and generous, come and bless us constantly for our good and well-being so that we may be blest with food and energy, the right way of living and the inspiring spirit of life.

Indra, lord of light, you are the ruler, lord of life and giver of energy. You and those powers and personalities that are generous and brilliant in nature and humanity protect us and the people. You are the protector of truth. You are the lord of wealth and glory of the world. You are our saviour, you are the truth of existence. You are the shelter and support of all that is. You are the strength and the giver of strength and constancy.

You subdue and bring under rule the people who are violent in social discourse. You open the seven cities and the homes therein locked in winter snow. Lord adorable free from scandal, you break the cloud for rain showers and let the river waters flow for the sunny world of young humanity.

Immortal Indra, destroyer of suffering, elected and invoked by all, surely you drive high up to the lights of heaven with the Maruts, tempestuous powers of nature and humanity. With the same powers, like a lion, pray protect the brave women of the land. Preserve the inextinguishable fire that moves high speed vehicles to their destination. Keep the morning fires burning and let the waters of the home flow on and on.

Indra, lord of war for humanity, for your honour and glory, let the enemies fall and go to sleep on the battle-field by the awful roar of your thunderbolt, while you ride the chariot and release the floods of attack with the force of action, destroy the resistance of opposition and then hold the lands in peace and security.

Indra, lord of world power, wielder of the force of thunder, keen for the reins and thirsting for the heart's desire, take up the thunderbolt, ride the horses of the winds shooting straight to the target, and go to the battle you love to fight. So should the ruler, strong of arm and will, blazing as the sun, meet the contending enemies in battle and expand the wheel of the social order.

Indra, lord of love and justice, inspired and self-exalted, master of horses of the wind, is destroyer of the betrayers of friends and selfish exploiters. Lord of honour and glory, those who see you as lord of justice and generosity and as friend of humanity are blest with progeny and family and they are strengthened and confirmed as brave and heroic by you.

In the distribution of food and land, let the man of knowledge and insight speak fully and freely, and then Indra, lord of land, should allot fertile land to the servant class. The lord of wealth and power should fix creative and productive duties and occupations for the other three, and him who is evil of tongue, he should take on in battle of arms or words in the open field.

Indra, lord of power and glory, ruler of the world, let the latest poets and citizens know and sing of your famous acts of valour, justice and generosity with universal courage. You have suppressed the old established strongholds of violence for the elimination of war and establishment of peace. You have broken the dens of sin and crime like the citadels of ancient demons, and you have destroyed the deadly weapons of the terrorist enemies of humanity.

Indra, lord of life and energy, you are a mover and shaker like the inspiration of soma and the speed of winds, shaking people out of lethargy and complacency. You set the waters aflow, shaking and overflowing the banks. Reach the people like roaring streams or like life-blood circulating through the veins of wealth and work. And, O lord of might and knowledge, if you swell the sea to the shores like the sun, then help the man of endeavour and the man of self-controlled speed and acceleration to cross the sea from shore to shore.

Indra, lord of power and force, honour and glory, justice and generosity, be every way the most giving, most protecting and least wolfish greedy ruler of us all. And as such, be the giver of strength, courage and constancy in all our endeavour for the good life and joint competitive and cooperative living so that we are blest with food, energy and prosperity, the right path of living and the right spirit of life.

1. Matsyapāyi te mahāḥ pātrasyeva harivo matsaro madah. Vṛṣā te vṛṣṇa indurvājī sahasrasātamaḥ.

Indra, lord of energy and paradisaal bliss, rejoice. You have drunk of the great and exhilarating soma, the divinity and ecstasy of life fresh from the very flask of existence. Vibrant lord of the knights of horse, that joy of the drink of life is exciting, the very thrill of being. Lord virile and generous, you are the shower of bliss and that soma is soothing like the moon, tempestuous as waves of energy, yes, and a thousand-fold invitation to live, the call of life, for you. (The call of life is the call of existence for the human soul too to be born into this wonderful world of beauty, joy and peace.)

Indra, ruler and protector of the world, great you are, valiant and generous, dispenser, disposer, giver and unifier. Inspire and accelerate the chariot of humanity. Heroic and courageous lord of challenges, burn the lawless brute with your light and lustre of justice as the blaze of fire burns an empty vessel on the hearth (because there is nothing in it except its empty self).

5. *Śuṣmintamo hi te mado dyumnintam uta kratuḥ.
Vṛtraghnā varivovidā maṃsīṣṭhā aśvasātamaḥ.*

Highly strengthening and most reassuring is your joy. Holiest and most blissful giver of wealth and prosperity is your action and conduct of government and administration. O destroyer of suffering and darkness, lord of speediest movement and communication, giver of peace, freedom and security, think, reflect and know the mind and working of others with sympathy and self-confidence.

6. Yathā pūrvebhyo jaritr̥bhya indra maya ivāpo na tr̥syate babhūtha. Tāmuna tvā nividaṁ johavīmi vidyāmeṣaṁ vr̥janaṁ jīradānum.

Indra, lord of honour, power and glory, be like water to the thirsty. Be like peace and joy incarnate to the admirers of eternal knowledge and worshippers of the divine virtues of yours. In the tradition of ancient knowledge, I honour and celebrate you with this song of adoration by which, I hope and pray, we shall realise the objects of our heart's desire, the right path of living and the spiritual light of being.

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Matsi no vasya iṣṭaya indramindo vr̥ṣā viśa. R̥ghāyamāṇa invasi śatrumanti na vindasi.

Indra, lord of justice and peace blissful as the moon, rejoice and rise to honour and glory for our advancement to higher and higher wealth and power. Progressive lord, you advance upon the enemy and overpower him and prevent him even from approaching us.

2. *Tasminnā vaśayā giro ya ekaścarṣaṇīnām.
Anu svadhā yamupyate yavaṁ na cakṛṣad vṛṣā.*

Send up your voices of praise and prayer with reverence and homage to him who is powerful, generous, and unique among men, in whom words bear fruit as barley sowed in the field bears fruit, and who mows down the enemies as corn is harvested from the field.

3. *Yasya viśvāni hastayoḥ pañca kṣitīnām vasu.

Indra, lord of power and honour, in your hands is the wealth of the entire world, wealth of all the five classes of people, four of the regular classes, Brahmanas, Kshatriyas, Vaishyas and the ancillary class and one class of miscellaneous people and professions anywhere. Lord of the world, whosoever is jealous of us and evil-disposed toward us, take hold of him and, like the flashing and blazing lightning, strike him down.

4. *Asunvantam samam jahi dūṇāśaṁ yo na te mayah.

One who is uncreative, unproductive and selfish, who is not a source and instrument of peace, comfort and joy for you and the society, and one who, being such, is difficult to change or eliminate, wipe out wholly and finally. Assign him to us, we shall find him and deal with him. Only the wise and generous carry the burdens of society and the world.

5. Āvo yasya dvibarhaso'rkeṣu sānuṣagasat.

Indra, lord of power, protection and progress, protect and promote the man who accords with all the praises and appreciations of the nation's achievement and creates and grows in geometric progression. Lord of brilliance and bliss like the moon, in the plans and projects of Indra, honour and glory, progress and development, and in the battles for justice and freedom, protect and promote the man of courage, dynamism and dedication.

Indra, ruler of the world, be like water to the thirsty, a source of inspiration, incentive and comfort to the wise dedicated to the ancient and eternal knowledge and to the glory of the nation of humanity and divinity. In keeping with that tradition of knowledge and the glory of humanity and divinity, I offer my songs and prayers to you so that we may be blest with food and energy for body and mind, the right path of living and the light of life and spirit divine.

First and foremost power among the people, virile and valorous, brilliant ruler of the living world, invoked, invited, honoured and worshipped by all, such is Indra, lord of honour, power and glory. O generous, strong and leading light of life, invoked, invited and celebrated as you are by us with song, reverence and worship, yoke the horses and come right here for the sake of our protection and your own self-fulfilment and covenant of Divinity.

2. Ye te vṛṣaṇo vṛṣabhāsa indra brahmayujo vṛṣarathāso atyāḥ. Tāñ ā tiṣṭha tebhira yāhyarvān havāmahe tvā suta indra some.

Indra, lord of light, energy and the honour of action and success, universal ruler and dispenser, come in response to our invocation. Ride what are your potent and excellent chariots responsive to the mantric word of command and control at the remotest distance, come with and come by the powers that move faster than even light and come here where we pray. The time is ripe, the soma is distilled and ready for celebration of the success and divine visit.

Indra, potent lord of fertility and universal generosity, ride your celestial chariot and come. Distilled is soma, seasoned and sprinkled with the sweetest honey around the vedi, ready for the celebration. O potent and generous lord of the people, yoke the two most energetic powers of motion to the chariot and come right here to us by the shortest route at the fastest speed.

Indra, generous and powerful lord ruler of the world, this is the yajna that leads to divine heights of existential success. This is the yajna that grows by holy inputs of fragrant materials. These are the materials and mantric formulas of libation. And this is the soma of the celebration of success. The vedi is covered round with holy grass for seats. Lord of potency and generosity, come, release the horses, sit and drink of the soma of celebration and success.

Indra, lord of light and life, ruler of the world, thus happily invoked and celebrated, come here and appreciate the mantric secret and revelations of the artist and value the holy materials produced by him so that we too, singing songs of thanks and celebration, may progress with due protection day by day and be blest with food and energy, the right path of living and the breath and spirit of life and light divine.

1. Yaddha syā ta indra śruṣṭirasti yayā babhūtha jaritr̥bhya ūtī. Mā naḥ kāmam mahayantamā dhag viśvā te aśyām paryāpa āyoḥ.

Indra, lord of power and protection, all that reputable knowledge and wealth of yours by which you become the protector and promoter of the celebrants may not, we pray, scorch and burn our exalting ambition in life. May we, instead, achieve all your blessings of life and energy for our existence and progress.

2. Na ghā rājendra ā dabhanno yā nu svasārā kṛṇavanta yonau. Āpaścidasmai sutukā aveṣan gamanna indraḥ sakhyā vayaśca.

May Indra, lord of life, action and success, we pray, suppress us not any way, nor negate what our sisters achieve in the home or in the yajna on the vedi. Instead, let the lord of the world, we pray, make the waters of life flow free for us, and let our achievements rise high for his sake. May Indra, we pray, bless us with health and the good life and grant us the favour of divine friendship.

3. Jetā nṛbhirindraḥ pṛtsu śūraḥ śrotā havan nādhamānasya kāroḥ. Prabhartā ratham dāśuṣa upāka udyantā giro yadi ca tmanā bhūt.

Great is Indra, mighty brave, victor in battles of life for progress, listener to the artists and scientists, demands and requests for grants and success, mover of the generous giver's chariot loaded with gifts and replenishments, and high fructifier of the devotee's prayers provided that everything is prayed for and pursued with sincerity of mind and soul.

Thus Indra is great with human resources, lord of wealth, honour and high reputation, great consumer of materials and thereby producer of high energy, and he is always surrounded and assisted by friends and associates. In debates and discussions of variety he values food and energy as the basic wealth. He is a great organiser of sessions of yajnic conferences and appreciates and applauds the host of such sessions and conferences.

Indra, lord of honour, wealth and power, with you let us face and overcome our enemies, great and highly proud though they believe they are. You are our saviour and promoter. You alone, we pray, be here and everywhere for our growth and advancement. And with you alone, we pray, may we achieve food and energy, the right path of living and the breath and spirit of life.

1. Pūrvīrahaṁ śaradaḥ śaśramāṇā doṣā vastoruṣaso jarayantīḥ. Mināti śriyaṁ jarimā tanūnāmapyū nu patnīvr̥ṣaṇo jagamyuḥ.

Working for the last many many years from dawn through the day until the dark late at night, tired and worn out, growing old and older, now old age destroys the health and beauty of the body of women. Therefore the young and virile husband should meet the wife only earlier when she is young and charming.

2. Ye ciddhi pūrva ṛtasāpa āsan tsākaṁ devabhīravadanṛtāni. Te cidavāsurṇahyantamā-puḥ samū nu patnīvr̥ṣabhirjagamyuḥ.

Those ancients who were masters and devout followers of truth spoke of the laws and truth of nature with men of divinity. They did procreate, but they too did not find the end of the mystery. Let the women go and meet their youthful and virile husbands.

3. Na mṛṣā śrāntaṁ yadavanti devā viśvā it sprdho abhyaśnavāva. Jayāvedatra śatanīthamājim yat samyañcā mithunāvabhyajāva.

The vexations of the household are not vain since nature and the divines protect and bless it. Let us together face the problems and win the battles of the world. We shall win the hundredfold battles if we, the wedded couple, were to beget progeny and fulfil our duties of the household.

न॒दस्य॑ मा रु॒धतः॑ का॒म आर्ग॑त॒ आजा॑ता अ॒मुतः॑

4. Nadasya mā rudhataḥ kāma āgannita ājāto amutaḥ kutaścīt. Lopāmudrā vṛṣaṇaṁ nī riṇāti dhīramadhīrā dhayati śvasantam.

Passion and desire arises in me like the waters of a river held up but rising in flood from here, there, anywhere, who knows? Hiding but not suppressing the passion, the amorous wife betakes to the husband breathing deep and calm and smothers him in embrace.

इ॒मं नु॑ सा॒मम॑न्ति॒ता हृ॒त्सु पी॒तमु॑ष॒ बुव॑ । यत्सी॒माग॑श्चकृ॒मा

5. Imaṁ nu somamantito hr̥tsu pītamupa bruve. Yat sīmāgascakṛmā tat su mṛṣatu pulukāmo hi martyaḥ.

I have closely spoken of this soma of ecstatic passion from the inner reality of it, drunk and felt as it is in the depths of the heart. If I have committed a sin, please forbear and forgive. Man after all is subject to various passion, and desire (for self-fulfilment), mortal as he is.

अगस्त्यः खनमानः खनित्रः पजामपत्यं बलमिच्छमानः ।

6. Agastyaḥ khanamānaḥ khanitraiḥ prajāma-patyam balamicchamānaḥ. Ubhau varṇāvṛ-ṣirugraḥ pupoṣa satyā deveṣvāśiṣo jagāma.

Agastya, the sagely man of vision, brilliance and resolution never goes astray. Digging into the mysteries of life with the instruments of intelligence and insight he longs for strength and children and a controlled family and community. He marries by choice and looks after and promotes the duad, both sexes in the community, and thus attains complete self-fulfilment among noble people dedicated to truth and Divinity.

Men and women all, wedded couples, Ashwins, when your well controlled and guided horses soar into the skies and the chariot shoots over oceans of earth and space, your golden wheels cut through the air and drip with vapour, then both of you enjoy the honey drink of the lights of dawn.

Ashvins, men and women, universally admirable, enjoying the honey sweets of life and nature, when you take on to your horse flying over oceans of earth and space, so useful for humanity, then the sister community applauds you and the world adores you for energy, victory and success at the fastest speed.

3. Yuvam paya usriyāyāmadhattam pakvamāmāyāmava pūrvyam goḥ. Antaryad vanino vāmṛtapsū hvāro na śuciryajate haviṣmān.

Ashvins, truth incarnate, feeding on rectitude and law of nature, you create the milk in the cow's udders, you create the milk potential in the maturing cow. The sylvan sage, pure at heart, bearing fragrant materials like a patient kindly saint offers you homage and longs for your company.

Ashvins, leaders of men and women, you brighten up the day and create the flow of water invigorating as the breath of life, all sweet as honey for the man who longs for freedom from three-fold suffering of body, mind and soul. And thus the fruits of animal husbandry and sericulture, animal wealth and honey sweets of nature move on to you as freely as the wheels of your chariot.

Ashvins, adorable friends of all, like an old and worn out person, like a strong man among the strong, by virtue of the gifts of mother earth I come to you for the gift of strength and sustenance. By virtue of your greatness and generosity the earth has the rain showers. Friends and benefactors, let me be free from sin and suffering even when I am old and tired and be with you for long.

Ashvins, generous givers, when you join the materials which ought to be compounded, you create new knowledge with inputs into the fire. Let the bold scholar dedicated to the laws of nature and his own vows be happy. Let him go round like the winds, and I would receive the gift of knowledge, energy and speed for advancement and greatness.

Ashvins, ever truthful, beyond calumny, mighty and generous, we are your admirers, in fact worshippers. We praise you as we praise a scholar among scholars who does good to all. And just as you protect and honour a scholar among scholars and worship God among divines, so may we too serve you and the divinities of nature and humanity.

Ashvins, dynamic powers of light, honour and prosperity, ever true and vibrating with energy, who advance by the might and majesty of your chariot and reach far forward like a yajnic hero among humanity, bear and bring, we pray, noble wealth and power of horse for the brave so that we too may be happy and prosperous.

5. Pra vān niceruḥ kakuho vaśāñ anu piśaṅgarūpaḥ sadanāni gamyāḥ. Harī anyasya pīpayanta vājair mathnā rajāmsyaśvinā vi ghoṣaiḥ

Ashvins, tempestuous powers like sun-rays and winds, one chariot of yours, golden of form, goes round conquering the directions of space and reaching the places of your choice. The horses of the other shear through space churning the air with the force of their speed and fill the world with reverberations of their motion.

ṣaścarati madhva iṣṇan. Evairanyasya pīpayanta vājair-veśantīr-urdhvā nadyo na āguḥ.*

Ashvins, one of you, mighty like the sun, lord of the seasons and the year or like the autumn cloud, challenging the winds and vapours and loving the all-time sweets of earth, travels down with the rays of light and plays with the fruits and flowers. The other, consuming and growing by the motions and energies of another moving like upward streams of fire, brings us peace and comfort.

असंजि वां स्थविरा वधसा गीबा ह अश्विना त्रधा रन्ती ।

7. Asarji vām sthavirā vedhasā gīrvālhe aśvinā tredhā kṣaranī. Upastutāvavataṁ nādhamā-naṁ yāmannayāmañ-chṛṇutaṁ havam me.

Ashvins, most venerable lords of knowledge and wisdom, this ancient and expansive song of celebration flowing three ways over time for the sake of growth, physical, mental and spiritual, has been created in your honour. Sung and celebrated sincerely, listen to the voice of the celebrant while on the move or not on the move and redeem and protect the devotee.

उत स्या वां रुशता वप्ससा गीस्त्रिबहिषि सदसि पिन्वत

8. Uta syā vām ruśato vapsaso gīstribarhiṣi sadasi pinvate nṛn. Vṛṣā vām meggho vṛṣaṇā pīpāya gorna seke manuṣo daśasyan.

And that voice celebrating the brilliant and charming form of your personality strengthens and energises the people performing yajna in the ceremonial hall of three sages seated on holy grass. And the same voice, holy and generous lords, while it blesses the people, may shower you with joy as showers of rain from the heavy clouds overflow the surface of the earth in the rainy season.

9. Yuvām pūṣevāśvinā purandhir-agnim-uṣām na jarate haviṣmān. Huve yad vām varivasyā gṛṇāno vidyāmeṣam vṛjanam jīradānum.

Ashvins, powers of light, energy and generosity, just as the sun which sustains the world nourishes the earth and her children and the yajamana bearing oblations does homage to Agni and the Dawn, so does the poet bearing the gift of homage serve and celebrate you in song. And I, dedicated to you and celebrating you, pray that we may be blest with knowledge strength and energy and a long and happy life, bountiful and generous as you are.

Mandala 1/Sukta 182

Ashvins Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Abhūdidam̐ vayunamo ṣu bhūṣatā ratho vṛṣaṇvān madatā manīṣiṇaḥ. Dhiyañjinvā dhiṣṇyā viśpa-lāvasū divo napātā sukrte śucivratā.

Men of knowledge and wisdom, honour and adore those teachers and scholars and rejoice with them who give us this knowledge and create this mighty and versatile chariot of ours which is fit for the Ashvins to move at the speed of winds and light. They are the agents of intellectual and scientific evolution, strong and inviolable treasure-givers of health and wealth and home, keepers of the light of heaven on earth, and firmly committed to the paths of knowledge, action and progress along the lines of purity and rectitude.

Ashvins, noble scholars, teachers and scientists, you are the most honourable heroes, most powerful, most dynamic and energetic, destroyers of poverty and suffering, masters of will and action, creators of chariots and the most daring pioneers of progress. You design, create and drive the chariot that is perfect and laden with the collection of the richest honey sweets of life. And with that you come to the man of the chariot and say: Take this, go round the worlds, and enjoy.

Marvellous Ashvins, brilliant powers of light and wisdom, generous preservers of life and destroyers of suffering, what are you doing here? Why stay here where anyone like nobody, miserly and selfish, non-giving, non-sacrificing is honoured and flaunts as great? Bypass the bargainer whose vision, judgement and pranic vitality is draining. Give light to the noble holy man in search of the holy Word and spiritual approval.

Ashvins, crush all round those who bark like dogs. Eliminate the wars and war mongers. You know them. Richly fructify and reward every word of the devotees' song of praise with the gift of jewels. Lords of truth, protect and promote my honour and my song of celebration.

4. Yuvametaṁ cakrathuḥ sindhuṣu plavam-ātman-vantaṁ pakṣiṇaṁ taugryāya kam. Yena devatrā manasā nirūhathuḥ supaptanī petathuḥ kṣodaso mahaḥ.

Ashvins, scholar of science and technologist of marine engineering and aeronautics, both create the safe and comfortable winged boat, self-powered and self-propelled, moving through and over the seas for the strongest man among the strong by which you, noblest among the noble people, with your science and skill, fly like birds and cross the wide seas.

6. Avavidddhaṁ taugryam-apsvantar-nārambhaṇe tamasi praviddham. Catasro nāvo jaṭhalasya juṣṭā udaśvibhyām-iṣitāḥ pārayanti.

Confined, surrounded and plunged in impenetrable darkness is the team of the mighty marine force. Four boats powered and driven by the Ashvins assigned for the mid-ocean operation rescue the team and safely bring it ashore.

Ashvins, pilots of the sea and sky, what sort of tree, post, is that standing in the midst of the deep sea to which the powerful but afflicted marine team holds on? What sailing and flying machine is that which like the wings of a soaring bird you work up and down for your honour and glory?

8. Tad vām narā nāsatyāvanu ṣyād yad vām mānāsa ucatham-avocan. Asmādadya sadasaḥ somyādā vidyāmeṣaṁ vṛjanaṁ jīradānum.

Ashvins, leaders of light ever committed to truth and shunning untruth, whatever words of appreciation and celebration venerable people have said in your honour, may all that be auspicious to you, being true to your character and performance. And may we today from this yajnic hall of joy and bliss receive and carry away food and energy to our heart's desire, knowledge and strength to live along the right path, and the breath and life of the mind and spirit.

1. Taṁ yuñjāthāṁ manaso yo javīyān tribandhuro vṛṣaṇā yastricakraḥ. Yenopayāthaḥ sukṛto duro-ṇaṁ tridhātunā patatho virna parṇaiḥ.

Ashvins, mighty generous visionaries of science, technology and psychology, take to three-metal, three-turbine and three-stage chariot faster than the speed of mind by which you reach the house of sukrit Tvashta, holy designer and maker of chariots, armaments, implements and instruments, flying with wings like birds.

(This is a mantra of various possibilities of interpretation in the context of Physics, Astrophysics, Aeronautics, Medicine and Meditation. The meaning, can be 'seen' and realised by an expert who would be of the order of a Rshi, a visionary of the dynamics of Nature in his own field, and better in the unified field of comprehensive reality.)

Ashvins, committed explorers in search of fragrance for your yajnic inputs, the chariot you ride is firmly wheeled and revolves round and round approaching the earth. Believe this message of mine, an exact description of your form in words: you look like the dawn, child of the sun on the rise descending over the earth.

Ashvins, leaders of humanity, committed to truth and exploration, well-structured, loved and accepted is the chariot you ride in pursuance of your vows of commitment and discipline which is richly loaded with wealth for the good life and by which go you over your path of exploration and come back home to inspire and fulfil the ambitions of humanity for themselves and for their children.

Let no wolfish thief or selfish devourer, man or woman, dare to challenge you or terrorise you off from your course. Destroyers of suffering and generous preservers of life, forsake us not, nor destroy us. This is your share set apart in reserve in homage. This is the voice of celebration in homage and gratitude. These are your treasures of honey sweets of honour and glory.

Ashvins, destroyers of want and suffering, preservers of health and happiness, lovers of truth and science, teachers, guides and philosophers, Gotama, the man of knowledge and wisdom, Purumēdha, the man blest with prosperity, and Atri, the progressive man free from threefold pain, invokes you with offerings of homage and oblations for the sake of protection and progress. Come and accept my homage too like leaders going and leading in the direction of truth marked as destination of nature and law.

Ashvins, let us swim across this darkness of ignorance and suffering of the world. So we bear and offer this song of celebration and gratitude to you in homage. Come to us here by the paths of divinity so that by your guidance and leadership we may be blest with food and energy, path of rectitude and breeze of health and the good life.

Ashvins, infallible children of the light of heaven, committed to the law of truth and right, today and also later we invoke and invite you both at the rise of the glorious dawn with songs of adoration. The fire is lit, the songs are sung. Wherever you be, come like the waves of light-rays to bless the man of masterly business and noble charity.

Rejoice with the celebrant for our sake and eliminate the miserliness of the petty trader. Loved and adored by people with noble words of adoration, listen to my prayers with attentive and sympathetic ears.

carriers born of the waves and vapours of space, flying like arrows of light, are admired like the great and ancient horses of Varuna, born of the ocean of eternity.

1. Katarā pūrvā katarāparāyoh kathā jāte kavayah ko vi veda. Viśvaṁ tmanā bibhṛto yaddha nāma vi vartete ahanī cakriyeva.

Of the two, heaven and earth, which comes first? Which follows later? How were they born? O men wise and bold, who knows all this? Verily they hold this entire universe as it is by themselves and go round and round like days and nights as parts of a wheel. Answer: Ka, He the Lord Supreme, knows.

The two, heaven and earth, undeviating from their nature, character, law and action, and keeping to their course without moving on legs, bear, nourish and sustain like a foetus this great, moving world of humans and animals. May the heaven and earth always protect us from sin and evil like a child in the lap of parents.

I invoke Mother Nature's boundless generosity and pray for her pure and sinless gift of inviolable, brilliant and blissful, indestructible and reverential abundance of wealth of mind and material which, I crave, may heaven and earth create for the mother's adoring child. And, I pray, may the heaven and earth save us from the violence and monstrosity of a life of materialism and sinful opulence.

Free from sufferance, causing no pain, protective by inbuilt safeguards, both heaven and earth, children of Divinity and mothers of divinities, may, we pray, protect the noble powers of nature and humanity day and night along with all that is moving and non-moving in existence. Let us be in harmony with them and may they be good to us. May heaven and earth, we pray, protect us from the ravages of nature and worldly misfortune.

Heaven and earth, going together, ever youthful, contiguous and simultaneous like twin sisters, coexistent and cooperative, nestled in the lap of mother Nature and Father Supreme of existence, taste the fragrance of the omnipresent contrehold of the universe. May the heaven and earth protect us from the sin of falling off from that all-pervasive fragrance of the Divine Presence.

Beautiful of form, they bear the nectar sweets of water and energy for life. May the heaven and earth save us from the sin of filial ingratitude.

I invoke and adore the mighty heaven and earth, abundant and boundless far and wide, and sing in praise of them in this yajna of life with humility and offerings of fragrant oblations. Generous and overflowing with wealth and good fortune, bright and beatific in form and progress, they nourish and sustain the entire world of living beings. May the heaven and earth save me from the sin of sloth, greed and selfishness.

If we commit a sin to the generosities of nature by violence to the environment, or do an insult to the wise and brilliant people, or offend a friend, or ever violate the sanctity of a woman or dishonour her husband, then may this mind and intelligence of ours be the corrective and preventive antidote to such evil conduct. Both heaven and earth as father and mother, both adorable and kind to humanity, save me. Both, protective and preventive, be with me with all protections and security. O divinities of nature and humanity noble men and women who command the business of life and living, be amply generous to the man of charity and broad-mindedness, and may we all, rejoicing with food and energy in abundance, be blest with self-fulfilment.

May Savita, self-refulgent lord giver of life and light, universal guide, ever adorable and adored, come and bless us in our yajnic performance of life with all the gifts of food, energy and vision of the eternal Word of knowledge and Divinity, so that, O youth of the world and youthful energies of Nature, you too may join us in our open-door yajna, rejoice with us and, with your conscious intelligence and wisdom, make the whole world rejoice.

Let all the divine powers of brilliance and generosity in the world, preservers of life against destruction, come to us. May Mitra, lord and friend of life and humanity, Aryama, lord and spirit of justice, and Varuna, lord supreme cherished of all, with love in unison for all come together so that they may be our preservers and promoters and, enduring and unchallengeable as they are, our courage and power no one may be able to destroy.

With songs of adoration I invoke and celebrate Agni, universal and dynamic lord of power, heat, light and knowledge, dearest of all, loving and friendly, honourably welcome like a distinguished visitor and guest, so that Varuna, lord supreme of universal choice, bright and brave, destroyer of hate and enmity, be celebrated in action with honour and glory and bring us showers of wealth and food and energy for our body, mind and soul.

O divinities of earth and humanity, generous powers of nature, I come to you with homage and offerings of food and with the desire for victory day and night as the generous earth does homage to the sun every day constantly, praying for light and seeing in the multiform and multicolour waters of the sky various kinds of wealth like all kinds of wealth and nourishment in the milk contained in the cow's udders.

And let the cloud of the sky do us good. The river flows for us like the mother's milk for the baby. Let us then control and bind the rain storm and the river flow, grand child of the spatial waters, which the lightning energies fast as mind bring to us, by which then we may produce and use heat and electric energy, child of earthly waters.

May Twashta, divine creator of forms and maker of instruments, tools and implements, and chariots, dams and controls come well and enthusiastically with other sages and scholars, loving and kind, and bring us waters of various forms. Let Indra, breaker of the clouds, leader of men and fastest power of action come and bless this noble and joint yajnic project of all together among the people of the world.

And let these warriors of strong and varied horse, riding chariots like commanders of the defence of the earths, destroyers of hate and enmity, brilliant friends of friends and the loving, be noble and generous to us all.

sake of all round protection and advancement, take to, serve and honour the Ashvins, powers that give and take, teach and test. Take to, honour and value, and worship Pusha, agents of nourishment and growth. Self-potent are the divinities of nature and humanity, all free from hate and enmity, Vishnu, all-pervasive spirit of the universe, Vayu, universal breath of the living world, Rbhuksha, Indra, universal ruling lord of power, intelligence and expertise, and knowledge. Let us all, you and I, elect, select, choose, appoint, honour and consecrate our powers of humanity and divinity well for the sake of common good.

3. Upastutiṁ namasa udyatiṁ ca ślokaṁ yaṁsat saviteva pra bāhū. Asya kratvāhanyo yo asti mṛgo na bhīmo arakṣasas-tuviṣmān.

Let this Brhaspati, man of piety, knowledge and wisdom, acknowledge and reciprocate the respectful host's salutation, obeisance and words of adoration with hands upraised in benediction like the rays of the inspiring sun. Loving and non-violent, surrounded by many admirers by virtue of his holy actions, he walks like a ruling lion on his daily rounds.

4. Asya śloko divīyate pṛthivyām-atyō na yaṁsad yakṣabhṛd vicetāḥ. Mṛgāṇāṁ na hetayo yanti cemā bṛhaspater-ahimāyān abhi dyūn.

The voice of this Brhaspati and his fame goes over earth and heaven like the waves of energy. Supporter of the man of yajna, master of exceptional knowledge and intelligence, let him continue to give knowledge. And then, these voices of Brhaspati, like the bounces of the deer, every day reach men of generosity such as clouds of rain.

य त्वा दवास्त्रिकं मन्यमानाः पापा भदमुपजीवन्ति पजाः ।

5. Ye tvā devosrikaṁ manyamānāḥ pāpā bhadram-upajīvanti pajrāḥ. Na dūḍhye anu dadāsi vāmaṁ bṛhaspate cayasa it piyārum.

There are those rigid and sinful people who accept the wise man as brilliant and good, but in reality they exploit him to live by him for self-support as parasites do. O Brhaspati, you yield not to the man of crooked intelligence but choose the man of honest desire for the gift of knowledge.

6. Supraituḥ sūyavaso na panthā durniyantuḥ pariprīto na mitraḥ. Anarvāṇo abhi ye cakṣate no'-pīvṛtā aporṇuvanto asthuḥ.

Brhaspati is like the guiding path of one who is well-provided with food and energy and one who wants to follow the simple and straight path of knowledge. He is like the all round loving friend of one caught up on a difficult highway. Men who are free from sin and every way look after us and who, with light and knowledge, uncover the ignorance of those covered in darkness, may, we pray, be our teachers.

7. Sam yaṁ stubho'vanayo na yanti samudraṁ na sravato rodhacakrāḥ. Sa vidvāṇ ubhayaṁ caṣṭe antar-brhaspatistara āpaśca ḡdhrah.

Just as the satellites go round Brhaspati, the planet Jupiter, or as the flowing streams with whirlpools reach the sea, so that scholar whom all the praises of devoted admirers reach is Brhaspati, the divine teacher who knows both the inner reality of the spirit and the outer reality of nature and who, keen to save his pupils, calmly watches both the waters of existence and the saving ark of knowledge.

8. Evāmahas-tuvijātas-tuviṣmān bṛhaspatir-vṛṣabho dhāyi devaḥ. Sa naḥ stuto vīravaddhātu gomad vidyāmeṣaṁ vrjanam jīradānum.

Thus is Brhaspati, the great scholar, highly revered among the learned, commanding courage and strength of body and mind, generous and brilliant master of learning and pious sage honoured and acclaimed. May he, for us, be the teacher, maker of the brave and giver of the knowledge of science and Divinity so that we may be blest with food and energy, knowledge and power and the breath and joy of life.

क॒ङ्क॒ता न॑ क॒ङ्क॒ता था॑ स॒तीन॑क॒ङ्क॒तः ।

1. Kaṅkato na kaṅkato 'tho saṭīnakaṅkataḥ. Dvāviti pluṣī iti nyadrṣṭā alipsata.

The poisonous as well as the slithering, and the essentially poisonous as well as the slightly poisonous, both bite and burn, and yet they both sprinkle and anoint as antidotes too, and both smear, bite and burn unseen, and they harbour the unseen.

अ॒दृष्टा॑न्हन्त्याय॒त्यथा॑ हन्ति पराय॒ती ।

2. Adṛṣṭān hantyaīatyatho hanti parāyatī.
Atho avaghnaṭī hantyaatho pinaṣṭi piṁṣatī.

One medicine immediately starts destroying the poison as it is taken. Another destroys the poison while its activity seems to be subsiding. Yet another destroys it when its effect is extremely strong. And yet another reduces and destroys it when it is completely assimilated.

3. Śarāsaḥ kuśarāso darbhāsaḥ sairyā uta.
Mauñjā adṛṣṭā bairiṇāḥ sarve sākaṁ nyalipsata.

The parasitic seeds of poison lurk in the hollow of bamboos and in inferior reeds, in the darbha grass and in reeds and grasses round tanks, lakes and streams. Unseen they lurk in the munja roots and leaves and virina plants. Together they all stick to anything as parasites.

4. Ni gāvo goṣṭhe asadan ni mṛgāso avikṣata.
Ni ketavo janānām nyadrṣṭā alipsata.

Where the cows sit in the stalls or the forest beasts sit or hide in their habitat or humans live in the homes, and even in the brain and sense organs, the seeds of poison lurk and cluster unseen.

5. *Eta u tye pratyadr̥śran pradoṣaṁ taskarā iva.
Adr̥ṣṭā viśvadr̥ṣṭāḥ pratibuddhā abhūtana.*

All these come out astir like thieves at night, unseen as they are and yet seen by all and known to all. Therefore, all ye men and women, beware of them.

द्यावः पिता पृथिवी माता सामा भातादितिः स्वसा ।

6. *Dyauryaḥ pitā pṛthivī mātā somo bhrātāditiḥ

O seeds, parasites, insects and other carriers of poison such as bacteria and viruses, the heaven of light is your father, creator, the earth is your mother, feeder, soma is your brother and nature's fertility is your sister (since both nectar and poison are born of the creative power of nature). Unseen and yet universally seen and known are you all. Why move, better be still for the sake of good and comfort?

य अस्या य अङ्ग्याः सूचीका य पकङ्कताः ।

7. *Ye aṁsyā ye aṅgyāḥ sūcīkā ye prakāṅkatāḥ.
Adr̥ṣṭāḥ kiṁ caneha vaḥ sarve sākāṁ ni jasyata.*

Those which creep or affect the shoulders, those which move or fly and affect all parts of the body, those which bite and burn, and those which are highly poisonous and painful, all those which are unseen or whatever, all together retire and exhaust yourselves of the bite and the poison, be eliminated all.

8. *Utpurastātsūrya eti viśvadr̥ṣṭo adr̥ṣṭahā. Adr̥ṣṭā-

There upfront rises the sun from the east, universally seen and showing the world, and destroying all that is unseen poisonous, eliminating all the negativities and all that is evil and invisible to the naked eye.

9. *Udapaptadasau sūryaḥ puru viśvāni jūrvan.
Ādityaḥ parvatebhyo viśvadr̥ṣṭo adr̥ṣṭahā.*

The sun rises there, lord of light, from behind the mountains and the clouds, showing to the entire world and destroying all the poisons on a large scale, invisible evils which thrive in the dark.

10. *Sūrye viṣamā sajāmi dṛtiṁ surāvato gr̥he. So

Just as liquor is contained in the cask in the house of a liquor maker, so do I collect the earth's poison and evaporate it to join the sun so that neither the sun would die nor would we, since the poison would join the far away sun which would drink it up. O poison, then the honey sweet chemistry of nature may turn you to nectar honey.

11. Iyattikā śakuntikā sakā jaghāsa te viṣam. So cinnu na marāti no vyaṁ marāmā''re asya yojanaṁ hariṣṭhā madhu tvā madhulā cakāra.

O man infested with poison, this little Shakuntika (kapinjali, partridge, blue jay) would consume your poison. That bird would not die, nor would we. The one that drinks up the poison unharmed would keep it far off. O poison, the life's chemistry of nectar would turn you too to honey.

12. Triḥ sapta viṣpuliṅgakā viṣasya puṣpamakṣan. Taścinnu na maranti no vyaṁ marāmā''re asya yojanaṁ hariṣṭhā madhu tvā madhulā cakāra.

Twenty one little birds eat up and consume the flowers of poison. But they do not die for sure, nor would we. The one who would consume poison undisturbed would keep it far off. The honey-science of nature would turn the poison to honey.

नवानां नवतीनां विषस्य रापुषीणाम । सर्वासामगभं नामा र

13. Navānām navatīnām viśasya ropuṣiṇām. Sarvā-sām-agrabham nāmār''e asya yojanam hariṣṭhā madhu tvā madhulā cakāra.

Let me have the names of all the ninety-nine lacerations of poison and of all the ninety-nine antidotes. The man who can counter poison and calmly render it ineffective would keep its effects far off without danger or fear. O poison, the science of honey nectar would turn you to honey and nectar.

त्रिः सप्त मयूयः सप्त स्वसारा अगुवः ।

तास्त विषं वि जभिर उदकं कुम्भिनीरिव ॥ १४ ॥

14. Triḥ sapta mayūryaḥ sapta svasāro agruvaḥ. Tāste viṣam vi jabhira udakam kumbhinīriva.

May the twenty-one peahens and seven sisterly streams and rivers flowing on and on collect and carry off the poison as female water carriers carry water in their jars.

इयत्तकः कुषुम्भकस्तकं भिनदम्यश्मना ।

तता विषं प वावृत पराचीरनु संवतः ॥ १५ ॥

15. Iyattakaḥ kuṣumbhakastakam bhinadmyāśma-nā. Tato viṣam pra vāvṛte parācīranu saṁvataḥ.

This little poisonous insect that comes to me, this little mongoose, that holds the poison, I strike with a gem stone. The poison flows, and I collect and isolate the poison from the area as an antidote.

कुषुम्भकस्तदबवीद गिरः पवतमानकः ।

वृश्चिकस्यारसं विषमरसं वृश्चिक त विषम ॥ १६ ॥

16. Kuṣumbhakas-tad-abravīd gireḥ pravartam-ānakaḥ. Vṛścikasyārasaṁ viṣamarasaṁ vṛścika te viṣam.

The little mongoose coming down from the mountains tells me that the taste of the scorpion's poison is dull. For this reason, on this expansive and practical basis I say, the poison of the scorpion is tasteless.

Note: The mantras in this Sukta point to the possibilities of isolating all poisons, bacteria and viruses that cause disease. They also suggest the preparation of antidotes from those very poisons, bacteria and viruses. They also point out to the fact that in natural evolution poison and nectar are coexistent carriers of death and life. They are contradictory effects of the same one cause, but they can be converted into two complementary substances through chemical process — since all contradictions in nature are apparent, but essentially they are all complementary.

The term 'Madhula' is suggestive of this chemical process in nature itself. Swami Dayanand interprets it as the science of converting poison into nectar for our purposes. Elsewhere as in Sayana or in Kaushika Sutra or by Satavalekara it is interpreted as a herb, which too is true. There is a herb on the hills, for example, the touch of which bites as scorpion, giving a burning poisonous sensation all over the body, for which reason it is called the scorpion herb. And immediately close to it is another herb the juice of which turns the burning sensation into a soothing sweet feeling.

In fact every poison, it seems, carries its own antidote which has to be isolated, analysed and developed like all the vaccines in modern medicine and all the drugs in homeopathic medicine. The dose of the poison would depend upon the effect desired as in the case of all stimulants, intoxicants and painkillers.

The myth of churning of the ocean by the Devas and Asuras (gods and demons) is an all-time symbol of the contradictions alias complementarities of nature, whichever way you want to put it. It shows that both nectar and poison are born of the ocean of nature and the power that consumes and assimilates the poison for the sake of the continuance of life and existence is Shiva, lord of nature's justice and ferocity on the one hand, and lord of the saving grace of Divinity on the other. The word for this power of turning contradiction into complementarity, and turning the poison into honey-sweet nectar in this Sukta is 'Harishtha'. For references to Madhu Vidya or the honey science of nectar we may turn to Yajurveda and the Upanishads specially Chhandogya Upanishad 3, 1-5, and Brhadaranyaka Upanishad, 2, 5, 1-19.

Agni, spirit of life in existence, light of the world, brilliant, generous and universally manifestive, by virtue of your power and grandeur, you are immanent and yet transcendent. You are with all forms of existence together and with each one of them separately, and yet you are distinct and superior and rise above them all. Whatever abundance of life and wealth is there, exists here and prospers by virtue of your power and grandeur. Even the heaven and earth and the intermediate regions of the skies are great and generous by virtue of your power and splendour.

Agni, lord of light and life, to the brave and brilliant people who are keen for knowledge and come with receptive organs of perception and dynamic, responsive and brilliant intelligence with gifts of cows and leading horses to the masters of knowledge and singers of hymns, to these seekers, teachers and to us all, we pray, bring a peaceful and happy home for settlement so that we all, blest with the courage and knowledge of truth, sing in praise of your great gifts of light and generosity in our yajnic programmes.

Mandala 2/Sukta 2

Agni Devata, Gritsamada Rshi

य॒ज्ञं व॒धत॒ जा॒तव॑दसम॒ग्निं यज॑ध्वं ह॒विषा॒ तना॑ गि॒रा ।

1. Yajñena vardhata jātavedasamagniṁ yajadhvaṁ haviṣā tanā girā. Samidhānaṁ suprayasaṁ svarṇaram dyukṣaṁ hotāraṁ vṛjaneṣu dhūrṣadam.

By yajna, research and development, expand the power and gifts of Agni, treasure of knowledge and power. Ignited and shining, rich and beautiful, harbinger of wealth and comfort, brilliant, generous giver of gifts, energy and power, it moves the wheels of action on the paths of progress. Develop it with holy inputs offered with elaborate voices of vast and far-reaching meaning.

2. Abhi tvā naktiruṣaso vavāśire'gne vatsaṁ na svasareṣu dhenavaḥ. Diva ivedaratirmānuṣā yugā kṣapo bhāsi puruvāra saṁnyataḥ.

Agni, lord of light and power, master of knowledge and fire, as cows in the stalls eagerly call for their calves, so do the days and nights call upon you for action and success. Selected by many, disciplined and committed to programmes of work, you passionately shine day and night for ages of humanity, creating and giving wealth and power for progress.

3. Taṁ devā budhne rajasah sudāṁsasaṁ divasprthivyoraratiṁ nyerire. Rathamiva vedyāṁ śukraśociṣamagniṁ mitraṁ na kṣitiṣu praśaṁsyam.

That fire power of Agni, admirable among humanity, worthy to be discovered and known as a friend, mighty rich in quantity and quality of power, bright and blazing with flames of light and waves of energy, brilliant and generous scholars find abundantly present in the depths of the earth and between earth and heaven in the midst of clouds and in the lower atmosphere, and they develop it and exploit it as a chariot of speed and success for progress.

4. Tamuḥṣamāṇaṁ rajasti sva ā dame candramiva surucaṁ hvāra ā dadhuḥ. Pr̥śnyāḥ pataraṁ citayantamakṣabhiḥ pātho na pāyurṁ janasī ubhe anu.

That energy of Agni, generous, creative and abundant, falling from space profusely in particles in waves of motion, concentrating in both heaven and earth through the skies, the scholars with their organs of perception, volition and intelligence collect like food for the journey of progress and store it, dear and lovely as gold, in the power homes of their own making and use it in circular and wavy motion for the production of power and vitality in simulation of both creative earth and heaven.

That Agni, self-refulgent lord of light and life, is the chief yajamana of universal yajna which He conducts, governs and transcends. Him too the whole humanity celebrates with songs of praise and they augment His yajna with holy offerings in the vedi. And He, voracious Agni, with a golden face and fiery mouth, receives, devours, burns and blazes, radiating and vibrating among the people advancing on their path of progress. May the Lord collect and radiate the light and vitality of life for us and spread it around by the shining stars, and let us too simulate and conduct the yajna in pursuance of heaven and earth.

So also let the performer of scientific yajna conduct the holy project of research and development of light, energy and vitality on a universal scale. Him the people recognise, appreciate and applaud in words of praise and gratitude with holy offerings of support. Let this yajaka with a golden face radiate the light of knowledge, and, as an illuminating power among the people moving forward on the path of progress, let him shine as stars, collecting, developing and creating new light in pursuance of the generosity of heaven and earth at our level.

6. Sa no revat samidhānaḥ svastaye saṁdadasvān rayim-asmāsu dīdihi. Ā naḥ kṛṇuṣva suvitāya rodasī agne havyā manuṣo deva vītaye.

Agni, such you are, shining bright, wealthy and abundant, generous and giving, create and bestow the light of knowledge and wealth of the world on us for our good. Just as heaven and earth create light and wealth and with it bless humanity, so you too create the wealth of existence for the grace and glory of life on earth and let the earth become a happy place fit for the divinities to come and dwell.

(The mantra, according to Swami Dayanand, is applicable to the brilliant saintly and generous scholars and scientists.)

Agni, give us liberally. Give us the grace and the glory a thousandfold. Reveal the light and, likewise, open the flood-gates of knowledge, wealth and power, and the velocity of light for the speed of progress. Let the heaven and earth be the eastern horizon of a new dawn and the dawns bring in brilliant days of holy light and creative vitality of life's purity.

8. Sa idhāna uṣaso rāmyā anu svarṇa dīdeda-ruṣeṇa bhānunā. Hotrābhiragnirmanuṣaḥ svadhvaro rājā viśāmatithiścārurāyave.

May the same Agni, bright and burning, radiate and illuminate us day and night with holy light. And may he, ruler of humanity, lovely and charming, high-priest of life's yajna of love and non-violence, ever on the round like a beneficent visitor, with the rise of the morning sun, with holy offerings as well as gifts of food, energy and joy, add to the health, happiness and longevity of the people.

Thus, Agni, ancient light of eternal vision, knowledge and wisdom, we pray, increase and advance for us among our people, immortal lovers and seekers of universal knowledge, versatile intelligence for our human purposes, and, with your sincere mind and soul, impart a hundred fold specialist knowledge and expertise of various forms in various fields to the expert inventor, designer and worker according to the need and requirement of the situation among our dynamic people, knowledge and expertise from which may flow the wealth of food and honeyed prosperity like abundant milk of generous cow.

Agni, leading light of life and humanity, let us acquire noble strength and power with speed and transport. Let us enlighten our people with knowledge to a higher than usual degree. May our honour and splendour be high over and among all the five classes of people. Lord of light, purify, sanctify and brighten our holy joy so that our strength, honour and happiness becomes difficult to challenge and grows inviolable.

victory, instruct and enlighten us in that struggle and endeavour for life, living in which the bright and brave aspire for success and arise nobly reborn and seasoned leaders. Temper us in that yajnic ordeal of fire, eternal and subtle, shining and burning in everyone's own heart and home, which the warlike heroes enter and attain the life eternal.

Help us Lord, and give us the competence to have a liberal share of your gifts of happy home, health and wealth, all round peace and divine grace, plenty and prosperity, a happy family and bright children.

Those learned, bright and brave people who create and offer gifts in homage specially of quality cows and lands and handsome horses for the worshippers of Agni and developers of the science of fire, O lord of light and life, giver of peace and happy home, you advance all these and us in life, and bless us that we may, wise and brave, sing songs of praise to celebrate you in yajnic acts of life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 3

Agni Devata, Gritsamada Rshi

समिद्धा अग्निनिहितः पृथिव्यां पत्यङ् विश्वानि भुवनान्य-

1. Samiddho agnirnihitaḥ pṛthivyāṁ pratyāṅ viśvāni bhuvānanyasthāt. Hotā pāvakaḥ pra-divaḥ sumedhā devo devān yajatvagnirarhan.

Agni, light and fire of life and all existence, is established in action on and in the earth. It abides in and by all regions of the universe, each one of them, directly, immediately and positively. It is the sacred fire that carries on the yajna of the universe, giving, receiving and giving again in the cycle of cosmic dynamics. It is 'pavaka', refiner, purifier and sanctifier. It is bright and blazing, innately intelligent, guiding and directing the onward march of life.

May Agni, in its own right of its nature and Dharma, bright and ever giving as the Divinity, abide by all the divinities of nature and humanity, holy powers all, and, together with them, carry on the cycle of life in existence.

(Swami Dayananda interprets Agni symbolically, in an open-ended applied manner in the human context: Agni is the scholar, teacher, researcher, ruler, producer, worker, in fact any power human or natural, creatively working for life and helping humanity and the environment for the progress of all living beings in the service of God.)

2. Narāsaṁsaḥ prati dhāmānyañjan tisro divaḥ prati mahnā svarciḥ. Ghṛtapruṣā manasā havyamundan mūrdhan yajñasya mananaktu devān .

Agni, lord of life and light of the world, adored by many people, self-refulgent with the light of his own flames, revealing the regions of the universe with his own knowledge and power and lighting the threefold fires of the sun in heaven, lightning in the sky and fire on the earth, including the three fires of the home, i.e., garhapatya, ahavaniya and daksinagni, replete with ghrta and brilliant with his own inner light of mind, receiving the offerings into the vedi and augmenting and returning them manifold in showers of bliss, may, we pray, bless and beatify the brilliant and generous yajakas of divine order seated at the head of yajna.

3. Īlito agne manasā no arhan devān yakṣi mānuṣāt pūrvo adya. Sa ā vaha marutām śardho acyutamindram naro barhiṣadam yajadhvam .

Agni, praised, adored and celebrated lord of light and power of knowledge, first and foremost friend of humanity, worthy of honour and pleased to listen and bless, we pray join the brilliant divinities and reward them with science and sacred knowledge now as ever. Lord, such as you are, bring us the speed and force of the Maruts, mighty winds, and the imperishable power and glory of Indra, showers of electric energy from the clouds. Come ye all members of humanity, join and honour Agni seated on the grass upfront on the holy vedi of your yajna of life.

Deva Agni, brilliant and generous lord of light and life, knowledge and bliss, come and grace this holy grass spread around the vedi manned by bright and brave young people and, with ghr̥ta in the vedi, refine and reinforce the waters full of virility, holding power and prosperity and further expanding for the growth of life's wealth and joy. And let the Vasu order of researchers, Aditya order of eminent scholars, all nobilities of the world and holy yajakas, the vitality of the Vasu sources and supports of life and the light of the sun on yearly rounds, too, join the programme and vitalise the waters.

Let the sacred doors of yajnic progress, wide, expansive and easy of access, open and welcome the performers. And let the performers, youthful and unaging, take recourse to these at the call of the wide wide earth and spread around with acts of humility and gratitude, purifying and sanctifying the integrity of their form and character, honour and grace, and the heroism of their young generation.

May the night and day going together in orbit, singing in unison, replete with the waters of peace and bliss, abundant in the milk of life and profusely giving, harmoniously shaping and advancing the beauteous form of nature's vast yajnic evolution, like two companion women weaving the warp and woof of cloth, bless us with noble competence for holy yajnic actions performed with humility and gratitude to Agni, lord of light, yajna and advancement.

(Like the night and day the husband and wife should act in unison and carry on the holy yajna of the family and the household as part of the vast yajna of life in existence.)

The two divine yajakas, day and night, husband and wife, of prime nature and character, blest with innate intelligence, and handsome in form and stature, carry on the creative yajna sincerely and naturally with hymns of praise for the lord of existence. Carrying on the yajna in honour of the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity according to the seasons on the vedi of the earth and over the three peaks of space, i.e., the earth's atmosphere, the middle region and the region of heavenly light, or doing their best in the first, second and third quarter of life for Dharma, artha and kama, they live and act together.

Ila, the transcendent Infinity of Divine Omniscience, Sarasvati, dynamic universal knowledge revealed, recorded and envisioned in meditation, and Bharati, living human speech which holds the treasure of secular knowledge ever on the move in life onward like a tempest: may these three goddesses inspire our intelligence and, with their innate and essential power, come and grace our holy seat of yajna and bless it as our perfect haven and faultless home under protection of the divinities.

The person who loves God and serves the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity soon and sure grows handsome in form and personal splendour, generous and abundant in nature and habit, strong in health, virility and longevity, and bright and brave in performance. May Tvashta, lord creator and maker of life-forms, give us progeny, our sustenance and security for life, and then bless us with food and maintenance for the learned and the divines on way to the holy destination of life.

the food for life and yajna. So also may Agni, the scholar specialist of the science of yajna, knowing his subject and aware of his duty, rising high in the light of holiness, divine of nature, creator and harbinger of peace, bring in for us yajnic materials mixed, refined and sanctified three ways by thought, word and deed for threefold purpose of the health of body, mind and soul for the divinities of nature and humanity.

I mix, prepare and offer ghr̥ta into the fire. Ghr̥ta, vitality, is the womb of fire energy. It (fire energy and vitality) exists in fertility, ghr̥ta, which is its medium. And this ghr̥ta, fertility, too abides in Ghr̥ta, eternal creativity, Agni, Life Supreme, which is the ultimate abode of all existential energy, vitality, fertility, production and procreation. O Vṛṣabha, youthful and generous yajaka overflowing with the lustre and splendour of vitality, bring in the sanctified and dedicated materials committed to Svaha, the word of truth and sincerity of the oblation in yajna. Collect, prepare, commit, offer with faith and dedication, and rejoice in your act of creation.

Agni Devata, Somahuti Bhargava Rshi

1. Huve vaḥ sudyotmānaṁ suvr̥ktiṁ viśāmagnimartithiṁ suprayasaṁ. Mitra iva yo didhiṣāyāyo bhūd deva ādeve jane jātavedāḥ.

For you all, I invoke, adore and worship Agni, lord of light and giver of life and energy, blissfully shining, selflessly generous and abundant in food and wealth of the world, ever on the round among the people like a cherished guest of honour, who may, I pray, be the sustainer and protector of all like a friend, brilliant light giver for all the people who know and understand, omnipotent as he is in the world of existence, lord omniscient as he is of all that is born.

2. Imamaṁ vidhanto apāṁ sadhasthe dvitā dadhur-bhṛgavo vikṣvāyoh. Eṣa viśvānyabhyastu bhūmā devānāagniraratirjīrāsvaḥ.

This fire energy, uniformly present in the midst of waters in the womb of space, the Bhrgus, specialists of heat energy, collect, bring down, reproduce, and place the part available among the people for their use in two forms, one that gives heat and light and the other that is motive energy. May this agni, fire energy, dynamic and strong, fastest in motion, be vastly and universally available to all as gift of the divinities of nature's power and the brilliant scholars of the earth.

3. Agniṁ devāso mānuṣīṣu vikṣu priyaṁ dhuḥ kṣeṣyanto na mitram. Sa dīdayaduśatīrūrmyā ā dakṣāyyo yo dāsvate dama ā.

Agni, heat and light energy, brilliant scientists living among human communities in the world produce and establish like a dear favourite friend in power homes. And that power, developed and exploited by experts, as a catalytic force burning in waves of light, brightens up the nights all round with love and joy for the man of generosity.

Joyous and beautiful is the growth of this fire, satisfying as one's own. Delightful is the holy form of it as it rises to a bright and blazing stature. Brilliant and inspiring is it while it shines in herbs and trees, and awful is its form while it raises its flames of fire like the tongues of a voracious demon or shakes them like the mane and tail of a chariot horse.

That immensity and golden glory of Agni which the scholars and admirers fail to measure, comprehend and express for me and the worshippers, He himself, joyous and blissful, reveals directly by his glorious light in meditation and through its majesty in blaze, the same which, though aging since eternity, grows young again and again every moment of time.

6. Ā yo vanā tātrṣāṇo na bhāti vārṇa pathā rathyeva svānīt. Kṛṣṇādhvā tapū raṇvaściketa dyauriva smayamāno nabhobhiḥ.

Agni, bright as sun rays, flaming with light and love, shines, radiates and roars like a flood rushing on its way, or like a war horse on the highway. Bright and burning, it goes on dispelling darkness and leaving a trail of light on its path, blazing like the light of heaven and thundering like lightning. It can be known and realised with homage of service in humility and inputs of fine foods in yajna.

7. Sa yo vyasthādabhi dakṣadurvīm̐ paśurnaiti svayuragopāḥ. Agniḥ śociṣmāñ atasānyuṣṇan kṛṣṇavyathirasvadayanna bhūma .

That is Agni which stands by us all round, heats and lights the earth, and freely at will goes forward like the light of the eye or like a cow without the shepherd — Agni, shining, blazing and cleansing, heating and moving the particles of matter and energy, attracting, propelling and dispelling, breaking up, universal presence all knowing, as if tasting everything that exists.

Agni, lord omniscient, teacher par excellence, in studies and in our third and highest order of yajnic ways of living you teach us the eternal science of all round protection and progress. Bless us, O lord, with bright and brave dedicated youth, immensely growing prosperity of food, knowledge and speed of advancement, noble progeny, and wealth, power and honour.

9. Tvayā yathā gr̥tsamadāso agne guhā vanvanta uparāṇ abhi ṣyuh. Suvīrāso abhimātiṣāhaḥ smat sūribhyo gr̥ṇate tad vayo dhāḥ .

Agni, lord of light and life, for the wise and the brave and for the teacher and the celebrant, bring that health and age by which the people, happy and enlightened, shining within with discriminative intelligence, blest with noble youth and fighting force, challenging hate and enmity, may, by your grace, rise high and ever higher.

Mandala 2/Sukta 5

Agni Devata, Somahuti Bhargava Rshi

हाताजनिष्ट चर्तनः पिता पितृभ्य ऊतये ।

पय उज्ज्यं वसु शकम वाजिना यमम ॥ १ ॥

1. Hotajaniṣṭa cetanaḥ pitā pitṛbhya ūtaye.
Prayakṣañjeyam vasu śakema vājino yamam.

The yajaka, man of self, man of intelligence and self-awareness performing yajna, giving and cooperating with creative people, grows and is reborn as father, supporter, sustainer and protector for the elder generation and sustaining powers for the protection and advancement of life and society in general as part of the social and historical cycle, creating wealth, power and services worthy to be attained. Let us too, intelligent and progressive, be able to create an environment which may take us forward as a disciplined and organised society.

2. Ā yasmintsapta raśmayastatā yajñasya netari.
Manuṣvad daivyaṃ-aṣṭamam potā viśvaṃ tadin-vati.

In the cosmic conduct of the universal yajna, the sun is the performer, and there are seven rays in the spectrum of light acting like seven priests. There is one more, eighth, just like the human agent in the socio-natural yajnic life of the world, and that is the divine performer, Agni, universal holy power, purifier, sanctifier and sustainer who pervades and sustains the entire world of existence.

दधन्व वा यदीमनु वाचद ब्रह्माणि वरु तत ।

3. Dadhanve vā yadīmanu vocad brahmāṇi veru tat.
Pari viśvāni kāvyā nemiścakramivābhavat .

He holds and controls the waters of life, and He reveals the universal knowledge of existence, the Veda. And He knows that world of existence and comprehends the cosmic system and its working. Thus He holds and controls its working just as the centre-hold of the wheel and the rim hold the structure and control the movement of the wheel.

साकं हि शुचिना शुचिः पशास्ता क्रतुनाजनि ।

विद्वान् अस्य व्रता ध्रुवा वयाइवानु राहत ॥ ४ ॥

4. Śākaṁ hi śucinā śuciḥ praśāstā kratunājani.
Vidvān asya vratā dhruvā vayā ivānu rohate.

Surely he who, by the grace of the Divine Spirit of universal purity, grows pure, and, by the divine control and universal action of the Spirit of the universe, rises to a state of self-control and right action, he is reborn as the real man of knowledge, and, abiding by the immutable law and discipline of Divinity and nature, grows high and great in life like the branches of a tree (drawing and receiving the spirit and breath of life from the root at the centre of existence).

ता अस्य वर्णमायुवा नष्टुः सचन्त धनवः ।

कुवित्सृभ्य आ वरं स्वसारा या इदं ययुः ॥ ५ ॥

5. *Tā asya varṇamāyuvo neṣṭuḥ sacanta dhenavaḥ.
Kuvit tisṛbhya ā varam svasāro yā idam yayuḥ.*

And those girls and women who abide by the nature, law and self-willed action of the Omniscient Controller of existence, and, like sister streams flowing from the same source, receive abundant and cherished showers of life and light energy from the three worlds of earth, heaven and the middle regions of the skies, rise to the beauty, grace and generosity of the divine fire and waters and bless the world around like mother cows by virtue of their knowledge, performance and devotion.

यदी मातुरुप स्वसा घृतं भरन्त्यस्थित ।

6. *Yadī māturupa svasā ghrtaṁ bharantyasthita.
Tāsāmadhvayurāgatau yavo vṛṣṭīva modate.*

If the mother and the sister bearing ghrta and water come and sit close around the vedi in yajna, then on their arrival the high-priest and the yajakas rejoice like herbs and grass and barley on the arrival of rain showers.

स्वः स्वाय धायस कृणुतामृत्विगृत्विजम् ।

स्तामं यज्ञं चादरं वनमा ररिमा वयम् ॥ ७ ॥

7. *Svaḥ svāya dhāyase kṛṇutāmṛtvigṛtvijam.
Stomaṁ yajñam cādaram vanemā rarimā vayam.*

Let the priests and yajakas do their priest-like tasks for the sake of heavenly light and the self in the service of Agni, lord sustainer and controller of life and the universe. Let them offer songs of praise and yajnic action to the Lord. May we too, we pray, as participants of yajna, rejoice in the holiness and divinity of life and, with dedicated performance, attain the abundant wealth and waters of life and the spirit divine.

यथा विद्वाँ अरुं कर्द्विष्वभ्या यजतभ्यः ।

8. *Yathā vidvāñ aram karad viśvebhyo yajatebhyah.
Ayamagne tve api yañ yajñam cakṛmā vayam.*

O lord giver of light and life, Agni, what this man of knowledge and wisdom does holily and gracefully for all the saints and sagely performers of yajna, the same he does for you too in dedication. And so also whatever yajnic acts of life we perform, we dedicate to you.

Agni, lord giver of light and knowledge, pray accept this holy fuel of mine offered with folded hands, accept this homage and allow the supplicants entry to the yajna of enlightenment, and listen graciously to these prayers of mine.

off all hate and jealousy of existence and cleanse us from within.

6. *Īlānāyāvasyave yaviṣṭha dūta no girā.

7. *Antarhyagna īyase vidvān janmobhayā kave.

Agni, omnipresent lord of light, you are ever present in the heart within. Lord of knowledge, poetic visionary of the universe, you know the birth and death of things past, present and future. Harbinger and giver of knowledge of life in existence, you are the friend of all living beings for the sake of entire humanity.

Agni, lord of knowledge, loving and kind, you give whatever we need since you know and command the wealth of the world. And, omnipresent in the quarters of the universe, you come, manifest and bless our home, sit on our vedi of yajna, this same one where we pray.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, brilliant ruling power of the world, let us all, with you and by your divine grace, plunge and penetrate into all forces of hate and enmity, explore and fight and cross over the evils as navigators cross over the turbulent waves of the sea.

Scientist of eminence, would you like to drive your chariots fast and far? Then tap, appraise and exploit

For that reason I bear and abide by it above all other wealth and beauty of the world.

And may we, unhurt and inviolable, rise in life, building our defences and fighting the battles of our growth and progress.

Agni, lord of light, life and knowledge, ever sits and abides as the chief of life's evolution, invoking the divine powers, receiving, consuming and creating, and giving the wherewithal for life's evolution. Let him sit in the home of the host of yajna, in and around the vedi, in the chariot, in the car, in the house of science and industry, wherever the yajna is carried on in nature and human society. Lord omniscient, you know. Giver of knowledge, enlighten us. Let us send up our holy chants of Vedic hymns to celebrate you in the regions of the skies this side of the heavens of light. Let us adore you with havan and homage here on earth where the learned and the wise offer oblations of ghrta into the vedi wherefrom you rise and manifest in fire and fragrance to bless the world around.

Surely you alone are the lord of riches, creator as well as dispenser of the jewels of the earth. And you are the inspirer and proclaimer of the eternal Word of power, purity and truth.

1. *Johūtro agniḥ prathamah pitevelāspade manuṣā

Agni, heat and light of existence, first and primary power of yajnic applications, kindled and raised on earth in the vedi, both spiritual and material, is a source of comfort and protection as a paternal power. Wearing the spectral beauty of colour, indestructible, pure and purifying, it is a splendid power that can be used as fuel food for the production of energy, motion and speed like a horse.

Listen ye all to my call, proclamation and invitation to power made in universal words of science: Agni is a wonderful power that shines with the sun, indestructible, and a source of manifold knowledge, riding a chariot drawn by wave-like horses of rain-bow colours—dark brown, bay, reddish, dark red and violet, the horses bearing the two wheels forward in circuit.

Conceived and nestled like an embryo in the many coloured herbs over the wide wide earth in the womb of night but, with its splendour not suppressed even by darkness of the night, it remains awake until it comes back to light again in the morning waking up all living beings.

I light the fire and sprinkle it with ghrta all round as it pervades everything everywhere. I do so carefully, with specific knowledge and with a loving mind without hate or jealousy toward anyone. You too serve it, be with it, the same way. Agni is the wealth, beauty and grace of mortal humanity, lovely and splendid of form as it loves to be. Flaming, flickering and awfully vibrating, it brooks no touch by anyone.

Know and abide by your share of the beauty, power and prosperity of life by the grace of Agni. Be patient, challenging and victorious at the peak of your conduct and performance. Let us all, your messengers, eloquent and rich in wealth and fire-power, speak and celebrate Agni as human power, preserver, protector and promoter of life. I invoke, enkindle, praise, serve and worship Agni, perfect power without a fault, replete with showers of honey-sweets.

1. Śrudhī havamindra mā riṣaṇyaḥ syāma te dāvane vasūnām. Imā hi tvāmūrjo vardhayanti vasūyavaḥ sindhavo na kṣarantaḥ.

Indra, ruler and commander of wealth, power and honour, listen to our prayer: May we, unhurt, well cared and confident seekers of wealth and honour in the world, ever be sure of the gift of your generosity and gracious favours. All these powers and energies of the world streaming forth your favours like the seas sing of your power and celebrate your grace.

3. Sṛjo mahīrindra yā apinvaḥ pariṣṭhitā ahinā śura pūrvīḥ. Amartyaṁ cid dāsaṁ manyamā-nam-avābhinad-ukthair-vāvṛdhānaḥ.

Indra, lord of wealth and power, bright and brave hero of light, knowledge and freedom, release the ancient lands held up by the demon destroyer of freedom. Release the prime voices of truth suppressed under the dark clouds of ignorance. Release the lands and voices like the showers of rain released by the sun by breaking the cloud. Lord of truth, light and power, rising by songs of homage and applause, break down the demonic fiend who believes that he is not subject to death.

3. Uktheṣvinnu śūra yeṣu cākan tstomeṣvindra rudriyeṣu ca. Tubhyedetā yāsu mandasānaḥ pra vāyave sisrate na śubhrāḥ .

Indra, bright and brave, heroic lord of light, action and generosity, all the citations of praise and appreciation of achievement and victory in which you delight, all these holy songs of gratitude to Divinity, Rudra, for the gifts of pranic vitality, power and majesty in which you rejoice, and all these brilliant acts of glory which shine and vibrate among people like waves of light energy : all these flow from us in thanks and gratitude to you who, in human words, are like the wind, tempestuous, ferocious, kind and creative, all in one, divine.

Indra, ruling lord of humanity, exalting your brilliant power and prosperity, holding radiant thunderbolts in their hands, our people, workers, producers, administrators, warriors and teachers deserve your bounty. Lord of spotless and incorruptible virtue ever rising in power and majesty, raise their courage, valour and lustre by the light and splendour of the sun.

5. Guhā hitam guhyaṁ gūlhamapsvapīvṛtaṁ māyinaṁ kṣiyantam. Uto apo dyāṁ tastabhvām-samahannahīm śūra vīryeṇa .

Indra, brilliant and fearless ruling power of the world, just as the sun breaks up the demoniac cloud which holds up the vapours of water and overcasts the light of heaven, so with your valour and blazing splendour break up and destroy the covert, mysterious, artful and manipulative social enemies living in the midst of the people but hidden deep in the recesses of society under the surface of national waters, paralysing the flow of national dynamics of development and progress.

Indra, lord of power, majesty and glory, we praise your grand achievements of old. We celebrate your new acts of splendour and victory. We admire the thunderbolt of defence blazing in your hands. And we sing the glories of your majesty like rays of the sun doing homage to the sun's power of sustenance of the

7. Harī nu ta indra vājayantā ghr̥taścutam svāramasvārṣṭām. Vi samanā bhūmirapraṭhiṣṭā'-raṁsta parvataścit sariṣyan .

Indra, lord of light and power, ruler of the world, the circuitous rays of your glory like two horses of the solar chariot radiating, moving, energising, vitalising, fertilising, giving and receiving, proclaim your grace and majesty replete with the waters of life. Let the earth expand and grow and prosper. Let the battles of life be fought and won in unison. Arise and rejoice flowing like streams from the mountain, showering like clouds of rain, from the heavens.

8. Ni parvataḥ sādyaprayucchan tsam mātṛbhir-vāvaśāno akrān. Dūre pāre vāṇīm vardhayanta indreṣitām dhamaniṁ paprathan ni.

Let Indra, ruler of the world, sit and reign settled as a mountain, showering as a cloud, shining with heaven and earth, revered and loved by mothers of the land, his voice resounding as thunder, his rule measured and assessed by intelligent experts who, raising the holy voice higher and farther beyond the seas may universalise the divine voice of omniscience revealed by Indra, lord omnipotent ruler of the universe.

Indra is great, mighty heroic, creates, thickens and chases the wondrous cloud overcasting the wide and bottomless skies, so that when the cloud, falling in heavy showers, roars and thunders, the heaven and earth, stricken with fear by thunder and lightning, shake and rave under terror. (So should be the ruler and the law.)

Awfully roars and resounds the thunderbolt of this mighty Indra, beyond human imagination. It is the tempestuous shower of solar energy which humanity should exploit. So does the ruler with the blaze of his power and justice crush the mischief and malevolent force of the underworld and enjoy the peace and pleasure of a noble social order, creating it for himself and the people.

May the exhilarating essences distilled from life and nature transport you to ecstasy. May the invigorating spirits of life and nature like the drink of soma increase your creative power and the fertility of the land. O distinguished citizen and ruler of the land, thus regaled with peace, power and pleasure, preserve and promote the prosperity and honour of the earth and her children.

Thus searching for self-protection and working for social progress, may we earn appreciation and praise for ourselves and our work, and may we speedily contribute to the honour, prosperity and glory of a generous ruler like you.

Indra, generous and self-refulgent lord of light, power and honour, may we be yours, dedicated to you only, working for self-development and social progress under your kind protection and contributing to the energy and prosperity of the nation. Generous and gracious lord, you bless us with the wealth and honour which we love and cherish and which is distinguished by richest prosperity, fieriest energy and mightiest heroes of the world on the field.

Indra, gracious ruler of the world, giver of power and prosperity, you give us a home, friends, and strength and force as that of the winds. And you give us also those who, united and acting in harmony, joyous and inspired, full of vigour and enthusiasm, follow the ways and values of policy, conduct and action far in advance of their time.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, ruler of the world, ruler of the self, the things and values in which wise and learned visionaries rejoice and find the very breath of life are those in which you too, settled, satisfied and rejoicing, find your haven and home for the joy of life for yourself and others. Therein protect and promote the beauty and joy of the soma-value of life. Promote us, we pray, help us advance in the battles of life, protector and saviour as you are, and extend the possibilities of life and life's heavenly joy on earth as the sun illuminates the glories of heaven and augments them with its mighty rays and atomic fuel.

Indra, gracious lord of power and ruler of the world, saviour from suffering and helping us all to cross the seas of existence, those who celebrate your glories with holy chants of the Veda, rising high, enjoy your favour and grace and, under your protection, achieve food, energy, speed and prosperity and, traversing the skies like their own home, rise to space heights.

Reveal and release the light and power of the sun for the noble seekers of wisdom and virtuous life so that the wicked exploiter and demon of darkness is kept and crushed by the left wing of your law.

opposition with their strength of justice and virtue, and who form and structure for us that universal character and constitution of one world order of love and friendship which is inspired by Divinity for humanity free from physical, mental and spiritual want and suffering.

Give knowledge and enlightenment to the singers and celebrants. Pray do not strain them, hurt them not, nor burn them to naught.

Bless us with unbounded wealth and honour. Bless us with brave and noble heroes. Inspire us to sing and celebrate the divine glory in our battles of life.

(There is a season for the birth of life, for everything.) The season is the mother's womb. Whatever is born, the seed enters the waters of the womb, the season, and therein it grows. The receiving mother becomes the first recipient, taster and giver of the nectar of life to the seed, which nectar is the life-nursing energy of the sun. That nectar, that original essence of living energy, is worth knowing and celebration.

To the same one end flow the streams of life all round, holding the nectar of life for nourishment of the world, carrying food for everything living and growing. Similar and equal is the path of the streams so that they may flow for the same purpose. The one, the first original creator who created these streams of life, is worth knowing and celebration.

Whatever that one lord of power, Indra, creates and gives solely by himself, the same he reveals by himself. He creates all the forms and he destroys them all. That's the lord's power and karma in which he is solely manifested. All these universal karmas of the one, the one manages by himself. That one sole lord, the first and original doer who does all these is he, Indra, and he is worth knowing and celebration.

The house holders sit at the yajna working, serving and giving for the health, growth and advancement of the people, and while their wealth, property and possessions are rising in assets, they sit and abide by the yajna, sealing and securing the back bone of the nation, a firm foundation and a launching pad for the coming generations of humanity for further progress. And all the while the sagely scholar scientist visionary enjoys yajnic food musticating every particle of it with his teeth. Indra, it is you who plan, ordain and execute all these dispensations, you are adorable in words of celebration.

And you develop the earth to a festival of lights for all to see and celebrate, O breaker of the cloud of rain showers of wealth, and you open the various channels of wealth for the streams to flow. Such as you are, Indra, lord of light, wealth and power, brilliant and generous, dynamic and tempestuous as wind and energy, brilliant scholars of the world anoint you with holy waters, and celebrate you with citations and presentations, and raise you to eminence. Adorable you are, indeed.

Indra, lord of light, wealth and power, you are the one who organise and control consumption and production, growth and allotment and, with your liquid creativity and energising waters, convert the deserts into honeyed gardens to milk the wealth from the holy earth. O people of the earth, he holds the wealth of the world in the sun and rules the universe solely by himself, alone. Such as you are, O lord of creation and sustenance, you are worthy of celebration in song and yajnic action.

Who for the elimination of antihuman forces, even though they might command wealth and power, and for the expansion of the powers of generosity and creativity and for the working forces, rules and provides the unbounded face of the fertile and energising mother earth, he is Indra, lord of manifold action and he is worthy of adoration today.

Ten, hundred or thousands are with Indra, sole lord of the world, ready for service at his bidding, unbounded his favours and incentives, a thousand-ways his inspirations and exhortations, he knows. He binds the wicked exploiters, criminals and sinners with unfettered chains to break them down. Supreme protector is he just at hand everywhere. So is he adorable in holy chant.

Lord of wide extensive power and presence, he commands the six seasons of the year and energises the five senses of perception. He encompasses all, he transcends all. The lord is worthy of homage and adoration in words of faith and piety.

Indra, mighty lord of light and life, noble and powerful is your eloquence, since with a single act of will and divinity you win and command the wealth of the world. Eternal and inviolable, ancient and ever youthful, patient yet potent and victorious, for all the acts of existence and creation you do, you are divine, supremely holy, and adorable in acts and words of piety.

Indra, you change the dire discipline of holiness to a pleasure path for the sinners to cross the seas and leap to the freedom of Moksha. You accelerate the speed and success of the parent and teacher to continue the family line and the tradition of knowledge. You raise the fallen from the depth, you own and console the rejected and destitute, you give eyes to the blind and ears to the deaf with knowledge to the ignorant. As such, the celebrants adore you in songs of faith and joy.

Give us the strength and capacity for charity and generosity like yours. Listening, celebrating, we pray, that brave and blest with brave heroic progeny, honoured and glorious, we may profusely praise and spontaneously celebrate your wondrous and heavenly gifts and glory day by day in song and yajna and justify your gifts of life and honour to humanity.

High priest of the yajna of love and non-violent creation, bear potfuls of soma juice for Indra, brave and youthful hero of the world. Collect and serve exciting food and drink for him in celebration. Eminent, valiant and victorious is he and loves a drink of this soma.

High priests of the yajna of life, just as a stroke of lightning breaks and shatters a tree into bits, so does Indra, solar hero of the world, break the dark cloud concealing and hoarding the waters of life and thereby releases the showers of rain and joy of life. For him, bear and bring this soma of joy and celebration. He loves it intensely, and this Indra deserves to drink of it to his heart's content.

Carry on this yajna and the creation of soma-joy and vigour for him, celebrate him like the wind in the sky, felicitate him with drinks of soma and honour him with robes of distinction as you would honour a veteran hero and senior scholar of eminence.

High priests of yajna, offer soma yajna to Indra who shatters with a lightning stone blow a hundred well-established strongholds of the demon of darkness who arrests and prevents the joyous waters of life from their natural flow, Indra who digs out and uproots a hundred thousand sins and crimes of the blazing powers of evil and buries them for ever. Regale him with a drink of soma, the universal joy of life.

High priests of yajna, bring soma drinks in honour of Indra who sows the seeds and creates a hundred thousand heroes of yajna on the face of the earth, while on the other hand he destroys another hundred thousand warriors of evil and wards off the forces of the opponents of generosity and hospitality.

Enjoy the bliss and ecstasy of soma with him.

Do that and let it be sanctified and consecrated in the light and purity of the sun and raise the social order in the holy light. Join Indra and do his will, whatever he loves and desires of your art and industry. And when you have accomplished that with the expertise of your hand and imagination, then invoke, invite and honour him and celebrate the exciting pleasure and ecstasy of the soma

High priests of the yajna of white revolution and herbal essences, let the streams of soma flow for health and joy and surfeit Indra, the mighty order of humanity. Let the order overflow with food and drink like the cow's udders with milk. I know him and the wealth he holds for me. Join him, let everyone know and serve him for his creation and generosity, and let all carry on the effort in unison.

Fill his kingdom to overflowing as farmers fill the stores with food and drink. Let the life on earth sparkle with streams of soma and shine with the glow of health and joy. Let that be your karma of divine dedication. Let that be the dynamics of human society.

Great and infinite is your power and glory of the worlds in existence. Wondrous and various is your wealth of life. May we, O lord, blest with that honour, power and splendour, brave and rising with the brave, every day and night sing of your glory and justify your gifts of yajna in our actions and endeavours.

I would set forth and sing in celebration of the great and true actions and achievements of this great and eternal lord Indra, ruler of the world, brilliant and blazing as the sun who drinks up the distilled essences of earth, heaven and the middle regions in three ways and radiates and matures exhilarating soma in three orders of nature, herbs of the earth, waters of the sky and light of the solar regions, and who, in the power and ecstasy of this soma process, strikes and breaks the dark cloud of showers for rain on the earth.

2. Avamśe dyāmastabhāyad brhantamā rodasī aprṇadantarikṣam. Sa dhārayat pṛthivīm paprathacca somasya tā mada indraścakāra.

Indra, lord of existence, sustains the mighty heaven of light in space without a supporting column. He fills the heaven and earth and the skies of the middle regions with light and fertility for life and holds the earth in orbit. And thus the lord manifests his power and glory in the expansive universe across the spaces. In the ecstasy and Ananda of the soma of creation, the lord performs all these actions for life and humanity.

3. Sadmeva prāco vi mimāya mānair-vajreṇa khānyatrṇan-nadīnām. Vṛthāsṛjat pathibhir-dīrghayāthaiḥ somasya tā mada indraścakāra.

Like a sacred house of prayer, Indra, lord creator, makes the worlds of existence since eternity with exact measures and perfect knowledge of their form, function and purpose. He splits open the upsurge of waters from river sources, digs the beds of flow with a natural and spontaneous stroke of the thunderbolt and releases the floods by paths deep and wide for us to move and navigate. Indra does all these in joy and ecstasy for his love of creation and for the soma pleasure of his children.

Having overcome all the weapons of violence, fear and terror, he burns them in the blazing fire of his cosmic yajna and creates modes of transport and communication with bullocks, horses, chariots and waves of energy and motive power. He does all these in his ecstasy of creativity for the joy of his creation. This is the glory of Indra.

5. Sa īm mahīm dhunim-eter-aramṇāt so asnātṛn-apārayat svasti. Ta utsnāya rayimabhi pra tasthuh somasya tā mada indraścakāra.

He gives motion to the waters, and the earth, in fact to all things on the move, and he controls, stabilizes, arrests and ultimately stills that movement to rest. He helps the uninitiates to move and cross the seas for their good, and they rise and, having bathed in the waters, abide in the wealth of divine bliss. Indra does all these in the ecstasy of creation for the joy of his creation.

6. Sodañcam sindhum-ariṇān-mahitvā vajreṇāna uṣasaḥ saṁ pipeṣa. Ajavaso javinībhir-vivṛścan tsomasya tā mada indraścakāra.

With his blazing might he reaches and raises the rising sea. With his light he adorns the chariot of the dawn. Moving and shaking the motionless with his own forces of velocity, Indra goes on with his actions in the joy of his creation for the joy of his children.

He, self-refulgent lord of knowledge, removing the veil of darkness from the lights, manifests himself and stays high and above all. Listening to the prayerful, he abides by all, reveals himself and speaks to the faithful. Thus does Indra perform his actions of divinity in his own ecstasy of creation and for the created.

Indra, blazing ruler of the world, proclaiming his power and presence, dispels the dark and distressive forces of life with the rays of his light and knowledge. He breaks open the deep caverns of mountains and the clouds and opens their gates for sun and shower. He shatters the artificial walls of division in humanity for their progress. These are the acts of Indra done in his ecstasy of soma for his people.

He alerts the man yawning with sleepy sloth, silences the agitator, destroys the robber, suppresses the fearful devil, and, under his rule, the honest worker gets his wages in gold. Such are the acts of performance which Indra accomplishes in the ecstasy of soma for the joy of the people.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, giver of light and joy, may that magnificent generosity of yours award the highest fulfilment to the celebrant, and cherished knowledge to the worshipper. Lord of power and splendour, may your glory shine and blaze for us but not burn our gifts of your magnanimity. And may we, brave and blest with the brave, celebrate your glory in our yajnic acts of piety and obedience to your will.

O worshippers and dedicated devotees of Indra, for your sake I offer the sweetest song of celebration in honour of the highest lord of life and energy as I bear and offer oblations of holy fragrant havish into the lighted fire of yajna. We invoke and serve Indra, unaging lord of imperishable energy, full of inexhaustible power and eternally youthful, consuming and converting matter into energy. We develop the lord's energy for our protection and advancement.

Without this great lord Indra, eternal power and energy, there is nothing that is great, indeed anything at all. In this supreme presence are held all the courage, valour and virility. In his oceanic potential lies all the power, peace and pleasure. In his body, he holds challenge, patience and fortitude, grandeur and splendour, in his hand, thunder and lightning, in his head, vision, intelligence and noblest yajnic action.

Not by heaven and earth is your wealth and power contained, much less surpassed. Nor can your chariot be exhausted and out-distanced by the expansive seas and high mountains or even by the spatial clouds. Nor can any weapon even remotely approach the invincible terror of your thunderbolt. All this because you shoot like an arrow with the tempestuous rays of light and waves of energy and currents of winds many many miles and yojans distance instantly.

All bear noble thoughts and perform holy acts of yajna in honour of this lord Indra, cosmic yajamana, bold and daring, overwhelming and generous, and universal friend and constant companion. Generous yajaka, you are very wise and highly knowledgeable. Offer yajna with homage and fragrant havis. O lord Indra, participate in our yajna alongwith the generous sun and like the sun, drink the soma of joy and grant us the bliss.

Treasure clouds of liquid energy explode from the sun and radiate all round, honey streams of light and power flow from the sun, in waves, for the nourishment and maturation of the vibrant life in existence as food and drink for the mighty humanity and other living beings. Roaring clouds rain down living waters for the health and joy of the children of earth. Generous high-priests of the yajna of love and non-violence press out soma and distil the exciting drink of life and ecstasy from the herbs and raise it in flaming waves of fragrance.

Indra, generous and potent lord of life and joy, mighty is your thunderbolt, tempestuous your chariot, fast as winds are your horses, and blazing are your arms and weapons of justice, reward and punishment. Generous and mighty lord, you create and govern the infinite treasures of life, vigour and joy. O lord of power and energy, drink of this invigorating soma of joy and give us too the drink of it to the depth of surfeit and heights of sobriety.

Loud and bold in inspiration for the challenges of the business of living, with all my wealth of power and prayer I come to you, lord of light and knowledge, and take on to you as to a boat in the struggle for survival and success across the seas, eloquent as you are with the Word of the Veda and light of Divinity. Indra, lord of knowledge, listen to this word of prayer, know what we need and desire. We come to you, associate with you, serve you, and study and develop divine energy and power with you as a treasure-house of the wealth of the world.

Indra, lord of a hundred noble acts of yajna, by virtue of our ancient and eternal relation as father and son, mother and child, creator and creature, pervader and pervaded, teacher and disciple, come to us like the abundant mother cow overflowing with the milk of life for her darling calf on the pasture, and be with us always, never forsake us, lord, so that we too, with all noble thoughts and intentions, reach you and ever be with you like generous, loving and prayerful men abiding in the company of intelligent and life-sustaining wives and mothers.

Indra, lord giver of light and the wealth of life, may that magnificent bounty of yours flow and shower the desired excellence upon your singer and celebrant, sure, instantly and incessantly. May the light of knowledge and wealth of power given to the devotee ever shine for us but never blaze to excess, never burn, so that, bright and brave, blest with the brave, we may sing in praise and homage to you in our yajnic acts of life and the music may rise and ring across the spaces.

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Tadasmai navyam-aṅgirasvad-arcata śuṣmā yadasya pratnathodirate. Viśvā yad gotrā sahasā parīvṛtā made somasya dr̥mhitānyai-rayat.

Offer homage of praise in worship to this adorable lord Indra, light of the world, like the breath of life, since his powers operate in life as of old and eternally and who in his ecstasy of soma-yaga of creation, with a stroke of his omnipotence, opened forth and activated all the clouds of dark energies which lay asleep all round during the night of the universe.

2. Sa bhūtu yo ha prathamāya dhāyasa ojo mimāno mahimānamātirat. Śuro yo yutsu tanvaṁ parivyata śīrṣaṇi dyāṁ mahinā pratyamuñcata.

May that Indra, lord creator, be good and kind to us, Indra who first for the creation and sustenance of the universe manifests his creative energy in Prakṛti and then expands his own power and potential across the world of nature. Mighty is he who in the battlesome-interaction of the elements creates the grand structure of the universe and then, as the pervasive spirit of life, veils himself in the body of the universe. It is he who, by his own essential might raised the heaven of light on high and stayed it there.

And thereafter, first of all, he creates the prime universal fertility and creative vitality, mighty energy forces, which he with his omnipotence and omniscience, sets in motion. They, great lokas and regions of the universe, released and accelerated by Indra, master of the chariot as well as of the horses, roll and revolve and rotate youthfully, all together and separately too, each by itself.

4. Adhā yo viśvā bhunābhi majmaneśānakṛt pravayā abhyavardhata. Ād rodasī jyotiṣā vahnirātanot sīvyān tamāmsi dudhitā samavyayat.

Indra, lord creator, who is master controller and ruler of the worlds of the universe by his omnipotence, pervades the expansive universe, and, wielding and sustaining the creation, fills the heaven and earth with light and, binding and integrating the far off regions together, dispels the darkness from the regions and covers them with the light of divinity.

He strengthens and firms up the ancient high clouds with his might and splendour and creates the lower ones this side of time and also creates the waters of the middle regions of the skies. He wields and sustains the earth mother of all the living life and holds and sustains with his marvellous power the heaven of light above, steady, secure, and extensive.

That is for this: The sun which the father creator has created and fashioned forth in beauty with his own hands over all that is born and all that know, that mighty catalytic power by which he breaks and burns the atoms and, with a stroke of thunder and lightning, melts the cloud in rain showers to flow on earth and rest in the oceans. That sun is for this lord Indra and his pleasure. And the sun is for this darling Indra of the world of creation, the human soul which the father creator has fashioned forth in body and adorned with his own hands and which is over and above all that is born, by virtue of its knowledge and intelligence. And this darling child too, this humanity, is for the sun and earth and for the father creator to be ever in service for preservation of the earth and environment and for dedication to Divinity.

O Sun, bring me to light and lustre month by month. Bless me with the best that is mine, my share of life, by which I may rise to the highest that I can be, my own real self.

Indra, bountiful lord of the beauty and joy of life, we invoke you and pray: Lord of wealth, honour and power, give us the strength and courage to do our karma. Give us the light of your knowledge and vision. Lord destroyer of hate, jealousy and enmity, save us, protect us with your wondrous ways of protection. Lord of generosity, make us profusely rich and generous with the gifts of life.

Indra, lord of light and knowledge, power and glory, may that munificent generosity of yours, and may that knowledge and divine teaching of yours bring unto the singer celebrant and the disciples holy gifts of their heart's desire for sure and at the earliest. Give us the strength and vision that we, brave and blest with the brave, be great celebrants of your glory in our holy and yajnic acts of life in your service. Let the light shine, let the fire blaze, but not burn any of the gifts of Divinity.

Let the latest new chariot be harnessed this morning, winsome, bountiful and strongly structured, four powered, three geared, seven steered, with ten propellers, manmade chariot for humanity, self-generative for power which may be navigable with inbuilt intelligence, controlled and monitored by men.

That chariot is perfectly suitable and comfortable for this lord Indra, creator and ruler of power. Harbinger of knowledge, comfort and power for humanity, it covers the first stage of the earth, second stage of the sky, and the third stage of space. The product of one is taken over by others who move it further so that, victorious and highly productive, it joins with the other heavenly bodies.

In this versatile chariot of Indra, lord of power and humanity, I use twofold power of electric energy in a circuit to move it according to the latest word of the formula of automotion. The many scholars and participants in the yajnic programme of research and science please and celebrate you, O creator, not the others.

soma distilled and sanctified for your pleasure in the auspicious programmes of yajna of your choice.

Indra, lord of power and honour, listen well to our song of praise and prayer. Take to the chariot, yoke the circuitous motive energies to the chariot pole and come post haste to receive our homage and yajna fragrance. Be responsive to the invocation and invitation of many, O generous lord, join in this auspicious celebration and rejoice with us.

Never may my love and friendship with Indra be snapped, and may his kindness and generosity ever keep it flowing for us abundantly. And may we, closely under his high protection and divine light, be inspired for victory in every project of life at the very start of the expedition.

Indra, generous lord of wealth and power, honour and victory, may that magnificent generosity and kindness of your grace ever flow abundantly for us and bestow upon the singer celebrant and the disciples sure gifts of their favourite choice. And may your teaching and knowledge and your grandeur ever shine for the admirers but never burn the love, desire and self-confidence of the devotees. And may we, brave and blest with the brave, ever celebrate your heavenly glory in our noblest yajnic projects of life.

1. Apāyyasyāndhaso madāya manīṣiṇaḥ suvānasya prayasaḥ. Yasminnindraḥ pradivi vāvṛdhāne oko dadhe brahmaṇyantaśca naraḥ.

Ye saints and sages all, masters of mind and thought, lovers of Divinity and leaders of humanity, you have tasted of the food and drunk deep of the honey sweets of nectar for the beauty and ecstasy of life at that fount of light divine where Indra, the Sun, ever abiding, rising and waxing, holds his place in the light of heaven! O for a draught of that nectar, a morsel of that food, a glimpse of that light!

2. Asya mandāno madhvo vajrahasto 'himindro arṇovṛtaṁ vi vṛścat. Pra yad vayo na svasarāṇyacchā prayāṁsi ca nadīnām cakramanta.

Tasting of the nectar sweets of this divinity in ecstasy, Indra, the Sun, armed with light and thunder, breaks open the clouds of darkness holding floods and oceans of water, and thence flow, flying like birds of life, bright days of light and sparkling streams of water.

3. Sa māhina indro arṇo apāṁ prairayad-ahihācchā samudram. Ajanayat sūryaṁ vidad gā aktunāhnām vayunāni sādhat.

That great Indra, lord omnipotent, activates the waters in the midst of space and he, breaker of darkness into light and life, then creates the oceans. He creates the solar system, reveals the stars, planets and satellites, shows the days by nights and directs the daily round of world's activities.

5. Sa sunvata indraḥ sūryamā''devo riṇaṁm-artyāya stavān. Ā yad rayiṁ guhadavadyamasmai bhavadamśam naitaśo daśasyan.

That Indra, lord of universal energy, light and wealth, brilliant and generous, releases for the creative man of research and development the light and power of the sun in addition to songs of praise and appreciation and, bringing unknown and indescribable wealth for this man, never destroys the share that is his due.

6. Sa randhayat sadivaḥ sārathaye śuṣṇam-aśuṣam kuyavam kutsāya. Divodāsāya navatiṁ ca navedraḥ puro vyairac chamberasya .

Indra, lord of light and energy of the sun in heaven, for the good of the guide and leader of humanity and for the man of piety, charity and dedication to Divinity, breaks the intensity of drought and the pestilence of good harvest, overcomes ninety and nine defensive walls of the dark cloud for rain and converts drought into showers and famine into plenty and fertility.

Thus the lord accomplishes the purposes of Divinity for humanity.

7. Evā ta indrocatham-ahema śravasyā na tmanā vājayantah. Aśyāma tat sāptam-āśuṣāṇā nanamo vadharadevasya pīyoḥ.

Thus we, O lord Indra, on our way to Divinity by our mind and soul with speed and sincerity, may, we pray, hear the word of your glory and have a glimpse of your admirable action. And may we, acting and thus struggling, cross that seven stage path to Divinity whereby we may eliminate from within and without the words and weapons of the impious reviler and destroyer of faith and reach our destination.

O lord of light and divine action, thus do your admirers and celebrants in ecstasy, like children seeking protection of the parent, sing in praise of your thought and marvellous actions. And thus may they, praying and working for the gifts of Divinity, attain the blessings of your eternal and ever new food and energy, peaceable haven and home, and joy and comfort in the shade of Divinity.

Indra, lord of universal generosity, may that munificent hand of your liberality and grace deliver unto the celebrant the gift of his heart's desire. O lord of glory, may your word of knowledge ever ring and shine for the disciples but never burn off their love and desire and the prosperity of us all. And may we, brave and blest with the brave, celebrate your glory in our holy yajnic actions.

3. Sa no yuvendro johūtraḥ sakhā śivo narāmastu pātā. Yaḥ śaṁsantaṁ yaḥ śaśamānamūti pacantaṁ ca stuvantaṁ ca praṇeṣat.

Indra, lord of life, ever young, generous giver invoked and invited, our friend, giver of peace and bliss, may he be the guardian and protector of the people. May he guide and enlighten the admirer, zealous worshipper, self-developing devotee and the singer celebrant.

4. Tamu stuṣa indram taṁ grṇīṣe yasmin purā vāvṛdhuḥ śāsaduśca. Sa vasvaḥ kāmam pīpara-diyāno brahmaṇyato nūtanasyāyoh.

O man, I worship that lord Indra, celebrate, in song, him in whose protective shade humanity has grown and advanced since eternity and fought out the evil and the wicked. He, reaching out to the lover of wealth, fulfils his desire and blesses the new initiate in search of Vedic knowledge and spiritual enlightenment.

5. So aṅgirasāmucathā jujuṣvān brahmā tūtodin-dro gātumiṣṇan. Muṣṇannuṣasaḥ sūryeṇa stavāna-śnasya cicchiśnathat pūrvyāṇi .

That same Indra, lord of light and power, delighting in the admirable wealth and knowledge of the people, watching and loving the wide earth, taking over the beauty of the dawn with the splendour of the sun, and silencing the roar of clouds, augments and advances the songs of the celebrants since eternity and releases them from their bonds.

6. Sa ha śruta indro nāma deva ūrdhvo bhuvan-manuṣe dasmatamaḥ. Ava priyam-arśasānasya sāhvāñchiro bharad dāsasya svadhāvān.

Indra, omnipotent lord of light and generosity, is surely the supreme power heard and celebrated in the Revelation, self-refulgent giver, highest above all, who is the ultimate saviour and destroyer of suffering for humanity. Dear and loving to anyone who approaches him, bold and patient and tolerant, highest on top of the world of existence, commanding absolute power and sustenance, he brings total joy and fulfilment to his servant and supplicant.

7. Sa vṛtrahendraḥ kṛṣṇyonīḥ purandaro dāsīrayad vi. Ajanayan manave kṣāmapaśca satrā śaṁsam yajamānasya tūtota.

Such is Indra, breaker of the clouds of rain showers. He opens up the wombs of energies, dark and deep, to let out the floods of existence into positive paths of generation, creating the earth mother and the waters of life for humanity. He is breaker of the walls of hoarders' cities to release the flow of wealth in human history. May the lord raise the honour and wealth of the host of yajna by virtue, truth and creative generosity.

To that omnipotent Indra, in the battles of creation for the waters of life and generation of the wealth of existence, mighty offerings are made into the fire of yajna in truth and sequence by the divine powers of nature and the noblest of humanity who hold on to their part in obedience and response to this wielder of the thunderbolt in arms who destroys the evil and the negatives to overcome the cities of gold and steel in existence.

Indra, lord of the universe and wealth of existence, may that oceanic generosity of your love bless the singer celebrant with the choicest gifts of his desire, and may your light of knowledge ever shine on the disciples but never burn our greatness and grandeur so that we and our children may boldly celebrate you in our yajnas.

The great and powerful sun drinks up the soma, essence of vital juices reinforced with herbal elixir, matured in three containers, i.e., the earth, the sky and the heaven of light, and distilled by light and wind while it shines and energises the essences.

He who delights in energising this sun, greatest of the great in nature, to do great things, who blesses and continues to bless this blazing power of light is the eternal, ever true, self-refulgent Lord Supreme, blissful as the moon.

And he who would love to do great things vast and worthy of the great, he, true and bright as the moon, should serve and meditate on this lord of unbounded light and energy.

Brahmanaspati, lord protector and sustainer of the universe, you are the hero as well as creator of this song of Divinity which you graciously know and accept as your very child, and bless your creation with life and joy, all that good of entire humanity and the world which the divinities protect and promote, so that we, brave and blest with the brave, in our acts of yajnic piety, may celebrate your gifts highly and ecstatically.

Mandala 2/Sukta 24

Indra Brahmanaspati, Brhspati Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Semāmaviḍḍhi prabhṛtiṁ ya īśiṣe'yā vidhema navayā mahā girā. Yathā no mīdhvāntstavate sakhā tava brhaspate sīṣadhaḥ sota no matim.

Brhaspati, lord and master of knowledge and the great realm of the earth which you rule and command, please to accept this offer of celebration which we dedicate with this great new voice of homage in honour of Indra so that he, our lord, generous as the sun and cloud, your friend, may enlighten our mind and intelligence.

2. Yo nantvānyanamannyojasotādardar-manyunā śambarāṇi vi. Prācyāvayadacyutā brahmaṇaspatirā cāviśad vasumantaṁ vi parvatam.

Indra, lord ruler and sustainer of the mighty human race, is he who with his might and majesty bends those who deserve to be bent, who with his thunder and terror breaks and scatters the clouds into showers, who shakes the apparently unshakables, and who breaks open the mountain ranges of the treasure jewels of the earth.

3. Tad devānām devatamāya kartvamaśrathnan dṛḷhāvradanta vīlitā. Ud gā ājadabhinad brah-maṇā valam-agūhat tamo vyacakṣayat svaḥ.

That exceptional wonder of Karma is worthy of the most brilliant of the divinities of the universe, Indra, refulgent as the sun. He disarms the most obstinate, softens the hardest, releases the rays of light, breaks the cloud with his divine might, dispels the darkness, and reveals the light of heaven.

svardṛśo bahu sākam sisicur-utsam-udriṇam.*

The lord of the universe and master of the universal Word breaks open the flood gates of the hanging cloud and the dark caverns of the mountain holding showers and streams of honey sweet waters. The same showers and streams all those who see the light and joy of heaven in the sun and water drink to their heart's content with all living beings as a gift of the ocean, and the same they sprinkle around for the gift and growth of life in abundance.

5. Sanā tā kā cid bhuvanā bhavītvā mādabhiḥ śarad-bhirduro varanta vaḥ. Ayatantā carato anyadanyadid yā cakāra vayunā brahmaṇa-spatih.

The acts which Brahmanaspati, lord of the wide world, has performed and the knowledge which he has revealed open by months and years the doors of eternal light and the past and future worlds for you from which the people naturally benefit and spontaneously enjoy without any effort, all in their own ways.

6. Abhinakṣanto abhi ye tamānaśur-nidhiṁ paṇīnām paramaṁ guhā hitam. Te vidvāṁsaḥ praticakṣyānṛtā punaryata u āyan tadudīyurāviśam.

Those saints and scholars who go forward all round in search of the treasures of admirable humanity hidden in the cavern of time find the jewel treasures of wealth and knowledge. But having seen the falsehood and untruth discovered there in the cave go back by the same door by which they came and then come again to propagate the truth and contradict and expose the untruth.

7. Rtāvānaḥ praticakṣyānṛtā punarāta ā tasthuḥ kavayo mahaspathaḥ. Te bāhubhyāṁ dhamitam-agnimaśmani nakih ṣo astyaraṇo jahurhi tam .

Men of truth and rectitude, poets and visionaries, pioneers of action, having perceived, challenged and fought out untruth and evil, come and stand firm by the great paths of right and universal law. By force of arms they keep the fire burning on the rock, in the cave, over the cloud and in the sky. None is a man of truth and knowledge, nor brave, none of them who abandon the fire and desert the truth of life and rectitude.

8. Ṛtajyena kṣipreṇa brahmaṇaspatiryatra vaṣṭi prataśnoti dhanvanā. Tasya sādhwīriṣavo yābhira-syati nṛcakṣaso dṛśaye karṇayonayaḥ.

By the stretch of natural truth and justice and by instant action, the mighty lord of the realm wielding the bow and arrow of law and rectitude reaches wherever he wants and achieves whatever he targets. Accurate and unfailing are the arrows of this watchful ruler and guide of humanity, stretched unto the ear, reaching to the ear and taking the aim even by a whisper and vibration, which the lord shoots and by which he uproots the plants and plans of evil and crime, having seen what is right and what is wrong.

Right and true are his policies, unassailable. Correct and firm are his paths of planning and leadership. Front leader is he, ever commanding, and elected first and foremost. Admired is he and admirable, adorable ruler, protector and promoter of the wealth of nations. Clear is his sight and vision, bold his voice and speech, by virtue of which he holds and rules energy and the speed of progress, intelligence and education, and the power and prosperity of the social order through the battles of life. He blazes as the sun and would naturally and without effort heat and season and temper the wastours and wrong-doers.

10. Vibhu prabhu prathamam mehanāvato brhaspateḥ suvidatrāṇi rādhyā. Imā sātāni venyasya vājino yena janā ubhaye bhuñjate viśaḥ.

Infinite, omnipotent and eternal, first and original is Brhaspati, lord of existence and knowledge. Noble and blissful are the gifts of this generous and powerful lord, givers of knowledge, competence and success, all. It is the gifts and blessings of this pervasive and warlike lord adorable by which all people of the world, high or low, simple or sophisticated, intelligent or illiterate enjoy life and its wealth.

11. Yo'vare vrjane viśvathā vibhur-mahām-u raṇvaḥ śavasā vavakṣitha. Sa devo devān prati paprathe pr̥thu viśvedu tā paribhūr-brahmaṇaspatiḥ.

Brahmanaspati, lord ruler and sustainer of this mighty universe, is immanent and transcendent, who by virtue of his own omnipotence pervades this world of creation, every particle of it, and is the most joyous and blissful over all the worlds of existence. By him only, try to abide and live. He, self-refulgent generous lord, vast and great, rules and expands all the divine abodes of life, pervades them and reveals his presence therein.

12. Visvaṁ satyaṁ maghavānā yuvorid-āpaścana praminanti vrataṁ vām. Acchendrābrahmaṇas-patī harivno'nnam yujeva vājinā jigātam.

Indra and Brahmanaspati, lord ruler of majesty and lord ruler of the wealth of the nation, yours is the truth of the world and yours is the law. Not the actions of anyone, not even the flowing waters, can violate your law and discipline. Both ruler and the teacher of divinity may kindly grace our seat of yajna and, like the motive forces of the chariot of the nation, may accept our proffered homage.

Fast driving forces of the nation listen carefully to the ruler and the people. The sagely scholar member of the council intelligently holds and manages the wealth and assets of the nation. A match for the strong and unruly, the collector collects the taxes according to law and discretion. Such is the dispensation of Brahmanaspati, lord ruler of the common wealth of humanity, fast, sensitive and instant of movement in the business of governance.

Let the righteous passion, even anger, of Brahmanaspati, lord of great action in governance, be true to the purpose of Dharma, and controlled according to the state of affairs, as it is he who directs the vibrations of the nation up and down in the light of heaven and, with his own strength and power, moves forward by himself and abides by custom, tradition and law like the earth in orbit.

Brahmanaspati, lord protector of the wealth of the nation of humanity, master of the universal knowledge of existence, you are the hero of the chariot, knower and friend of the whole world. Ruler supreme as you are of the entire existence, come to us in response to my Vedic invocation and join the brave with the brave and eminent with the eminent so that we may be masters and protectors of well-begotten and life-giving wealth and develop it further by noble conduct and development.

Brahmanaspati, lord of the great world of humanity, you are the inspiration, guide, leader and hero of this holy song of celebration. Please to know its meaning, intention and purpose, and give life and joy to the child and the devotee. Give us all that good which the poets and divines preserve, protect and promote so that we, brave and blest with the brave, sing and celebrate you highly in our yajnic projects of life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 25Brahmanaspati Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Brahmanaspati, lord ruler, protector, and promoter of wealth and nature, maker of forms of food, energy and power, giver of yajnic materials and fragrances for natural and human activities of creation and production, lighting the fire and burning the requisite materials like forest wood, creates new forms with what it has already created and thus moves on in cyclic motion at electric velocity whatever it takes on as its friendly associate for the progress of humanity.

Spending up one loving parental generation like forest wood and creating another like forest greenery, extending the community of the brave from the brave seeking immortality, expanding the community wealth with cows, lands and the light and power of energy, Brahmanaspati, lord of the evolution of existence, advances the race of humanity from father to son and from son to grandson. Who ever or whatever the lord takes up as his instrument and creative associate, he knows at heart with his very soul.

Just as the deep sea receives and stills the impetuous river in flood, as the mighty man of action subdues the forces of violence, and as the strong and virile bull overthrows the old broken bullock with its strength, so does the man whom Brahmanaspati chooses as his friend and associate for his purpose overcome opposition with his valour and lustre. Like the rising flames of fire there is no looking back for him, no resistance against him.

To him and for him flow celestial powers and virtues pure and free. First and foremost, front leader, with his powers and intelligence he develops the cows, goes over the lands and rises into the lights in the skies. With the irresistible blaze of his lustre and valour he smashes all opposition of the negatives. Such is the man whom Brahmanaspati chooses as his friend and instrument for the divine purpose.

5. Tasmā id viśve dhunayanta sindhavo'cchidrā śarma dadhire purūṇi. Devānām sumne subhagaḥ sa edhate yaṁ yaṁ yujaṁ kṛṇute brahmaṇas-patih .

For him the oceans roll, for him the rivers flow, boundless, incessant and universal across the world, bearing grace divine, cosmic energy and infinite joy of the heart. And he, happy and blest with fortune, grows on and on in peace and favour of the divinities of nature and humanity. Such is the man whom Brahmanaspati chooses for a friend and instrument for fulfilment and the divine purpose.

Brahmanaspati, lord of the wide world and the wealth of life, let the man of simple, natural and faithful character, like the rays of the sun, be superior to the forces of violence. Let the man rising to piety and divinity face the powers that oppose the divine purpose. Let the brave warrior who protects and promotes light and life like the rays of the sun fight out formidable evil in the battles of life, because, ultimately, it is the man of yajna, dedicated to humanity, environment and Divinity who is the dispenser of the share of the selfish and uncreative.

Brave young man, do yajnic acts of creation and service, meet men of thought and wisdom, elevate your mind to goodness and virtue to fight out the forces of darkness and evil, prepare the fragrant oblations for yajna, be great and gracious as you should be. Let us all choose and pray for the protection of Brahmanaspati, lord of the world's glory and wisdom.

He for sure bears and wields power, progress and prosperity of life with the people, with settlements of working communities, by birth and with children, and he creates and enjoys the wealth of life with his men who serves and lives with the maker of noble scholars and sages and who, faithful at heart, offers worship and sacrifice with fragrant oblations to Brahmanaspati, lord creator and sustainer of the world and its wealth of humanity.

Who ever worships and honours the lord with oblations of fragrant materials seasoned with ghrta, Brahmanaspati advances him far ahead and high. He saves him from sin, protects him from the violent and safeguards him against the perpetrators of evil. Wondrous are the ways of Brahmanaspati, mighty and awful are his deeds on earth.

Aditya Devata, Kurma Gartsamada or Grtsamada Rshi

1. Imā gira ādityebhyo ghṛtasnūḥ sanād rājabhyo juhvā juhomi. Śṛṇotu mitro aryamā bhago nastuvijāto varuṇo dakṣo aṁśaḥ.

I offer these words of worship and prayer, adoration and admiration, sprinkled with the showers of ghrta from above dedicated to the Adityas, cosmic stars and children of Mother Infinity, self-refulgent like the sun in the zodiacs of his galactic round. I offer these words as ever with the ladle of love and whispers of faith into the fire of light and life. May the Adityas listen: Mitra, friend and darling companion of life, Aryama, lord of justice and dispensation, Bhaga, lord of glory and majesty, Tuvijata, lord manifest in power and splendour, Varuna, lord of light supreme of our choice, Daksha, lord of dexterity in the art of creation, and Ansha, divine reflection of Infinity in the world of existence, all for us all our own.

This song of adoration may the lords of vision and holy action hear, accept and bless with love and favour: friendly Mitra, just Aryama, and Varuna, lord supreme of universal choice, Adityas all, reflections of the lights of omniscience, purifying and sanctifying showers of the holy voice of Divinity, free from the sins of negativities, irreproachable and inviolable all.

3. Ta ādityāsa uravo gabhīrā adabdhāso dipsanto bhūryakṣāḥ. Antaḥ paśyanti vṛjinota sādhu sarvaṁ rājabhyaḥ paramā cidanti.

The Adityas, children of light, are brilliant, profound, irrepressible. They brook no nonsense, no violence, no bullying or black-mail. With many many eyes all round they see within and without all that is good, or evil that must be rejected. Supremely good are they and their actions for the shining rulers for whom they stand ever at the closest.

Brilliant Adityas sustain the moving and the stable world of existence. Generously giving, they are preservers of the entire world of existence. Far-reaching is their intelligence, they love truth and rectitude, they protect the breath of life and they augment whatever or whoever extends the vision and knowledge of life for others. (Aditya-like should the teachers be.)

Adityas, powers of light and knowledge, Aryaman, lord of justice and dispensation, if ever I face a state of insecurity, then, in that state of fear, I pray, I may have the gift of this divine protection of yours, of this divine peace and comfort. O Mitra and Varuna, friends of humanity, dear and just, I pray, that under the protection of your ethics and guidance I may give up all evils and avoid them as dangerous pitfalls on the paths of life.

Aryaman, lord of noble action, Mitra, friend and companion, simple and straight is your path, easy to tread. O Varuna, lord of our choice and best teacher, thornless and good is the path you show. Adityas, lords of enlightenment, teach us to follow and go forward by that path. And give us a home which is difficult to disrupt.

May Aditi, mother queen of inviolable unity and abundance with her brilliant children of regal character give us total fulfilment of life. May Aryama, just and judicious ruler, friend of the intelligent and the wise, lead us across and beyond the jealous and the hostile by simple and clear paths of action. May we all, mighty brave blest with vibrant progeny, ever live unhurt and happy by the great household of peace and well-being, a perpetual gift of Mitra, lord of friend-ship and fraternity, and Varuna, lord of freedom and justice.

Adityas, brilliant children of Aditi, radiant concentrations of indestructible energy, by the universal Law of Rtam, hold and sustain three terrestrial regions and three heavenly regions in the midst of which they observe threefold dynamics of existential energy in the field of karmic order. Aryaman, lord of action and justice, Varuna, lord of love and peace, and Mitra, friend of fraternity, that too is your holy grandeur and greatness in the mighty social order, threefold, three-level, for the body, mind and spirit of the human nation.

9. Trī rocanā divyā dhārayanta hiraṇyayāḥ śucayo dhārapūtāḥ. Asvapnajo animiṣā adabdhā uruśam-sā rjave martyāya.

Three charming gifts of Divinity the Adityas, scholar celibates, hold for humanity. Golden great are they, blazing brilliant, sanctified in the showers of knowledge and piety. Ever wakeful, they never sleep, nor dream, nor even wink their eye for a moment. Firm and inviolable are they, adorable, for the simple, honest and pious order of humanity, holding and preserving the knowledge of Divinity, karmic dexterity and sincerity of worship for survival and fulfilment in the world of mortality.

Varuna, spirit of life and breath of energy, first of love, choice and justice, you are the ruler of all, whether they are divine or ordinary mortals by nature. Give us a full hundred years of life for the vision and realisation of the light of Divinity and our own immortality. May we, we pray, enjoy a full and perfect span of life and age, sweet and satisfying as ever.

11. Na dakṣiṇā vi cikite na savyā na prācīnamādityā nota paścā. Pākyā cid vasavo dhīryā cid yuṣmā-nīto abhayaṁ jyotiraśyām.

Ye Adityas, stars of the highest order of light, O

Vasus, planets of the first order of life, I know not wholly what is on the right, or on the left, or in front, or behind, as the man of ripe intelligence and settled mind among scholars does. However, with his guidance and led by your light, leadership and generosity, I pray, may I attain freedom from fear and the light of knowledge.

12. Yo rājabhya ṛtanibhyo dadāśa yaṁ vardhayanti puṣṭayaśca nityāḥ. Sa revān yāti prathamō rathena vasudāvā vidatheṣu praśastāḥ.

The ruler who liberally gives for the illustrious men of justice and for the leading lights of truth and righteousness, and whom strength and nourishment of body, mind and character constantly advance towards perfection, grows first in power and prestige and, well-provided with wealth and the spirit of generosity, admired and exhorted universally, moves forward in his chariot of fame as a leader in yajnic projects of humanity.

The ruler, pure at heart, courageous and indomitable, who abides by the values, policies and guidance of Adityas, men of light, truth and justice, rules a long age, blest with noble children and followed by brave warriors, well-provided with plenty of food and water and doing noble acts of fame. None can hurt or damage or destroy him or his dominion either from far or near at hand.

14. Adite mitra varuṇota mṛḷa yad vo vyaṁ cakṛmā kaccidāgaḥ. Urvaśyāmabhayaṁ jyotirindra mā no dīrghā abhi naśantamisrāḥ.

Aditi, Nature, mother earth and spirit of the human nation, Mitra, lord of love and friendship, Varuna, lord of justice, relent, be kind and gracious to us even if we happen to transgress and commit a sin of error. Indra, lord of power and ruler over the nation, grant us ample freedom from fear and lots of light and knowledge so that long nights of darkness, sin and suffering may never afflict us.

Both the enlightened woman and the noble husband, the people and the noble ruler, conjoined in unison grow together for the sake of this Rashtra, the great social order of humanity, augmenting through yajna the showers of rain from heaven. Both live together and move forward, winning victories in the battles of life. Both are indispensable for the social order, complementing each other like two halves of a sphere in the interest of progress and prosperity for the sake of the family and the nation.

Adityas, powers of light and law, dedicated to yajnic advancement of life and nature, whatever your bonds of power and law, sinless and inviolable, spread across the earth, which are like chains of arrest and prisons of punishment for the lawless and the enemies of humanity, let me, I pray, cross them over with ease and pleasure by the chariot of knowledge and action like a knight of horse, so that we may live at peace in bliss on this vast earth, common home of the human family.

Varuna, lord of justice, highest and best of our choice, I pray I may attain to the progress and prosperity of a dear and generous man of wealth and dignity, but not to the swelling pride of a man of easy money. Brilliant lord ruler of the nation, may I never be deprived of wealth well-earned with honesty. And let us all, blest with noble progeny, speak well and highly in thanks and praise of the lord ruler of the world in all our yajnic performances.

Varuna Devata, Grtsamada or Kurma Gartsamada Rshi

1. Idaṁ kaverādityasya svarājo viśvāni sāntya-bhyastu mahnā. Ati yo mandro yajathāya devaḥ sukīrtiṁ bhikṣe varuṇasya bhūreḥ.

This is the song of honour for Aditya, self-refulgent lord of light eternal and poetic vision of omniscience who, with his might, rules over and transcends all forms of existence and karma. Lord of brilliance and generosity is he, extremely kind and pleased with the liberal man of yajna. I pray for a vision of the glory of Varuna, magnificent lord of abundance, love and justice and crave for his mercy and pleasure.

2. Tava vrata subhagāsaḥ syāma svādhyo varuṇa tuṣṭuvāṁsaḥ. Upāyana uṣasāṁ gomatīnā-magnayo na jaramāṇā anu dhyūn.

Varuna, lord of knowledge and wisdom, law and justice, may we, under your inviolable discipline, be blest with good fortune and all round prosperity and, singing in praise and admiration of Divinity, be rewarded with noble intelligence and scientific knowledge of existence. And when the dawns arise with their wealth of light rays and the cows stir in their stalls, let us, like holy fires of yajna, celebrate the glory of the morning sun every day.

3. Tava syāma puruvīrasya śarmannuruśaṁsasya varuṇa praṇetaḥ. Yūyaṁ naḥ putrā aditeradabdhā abhi kṣamadhvaṁ yujyāya devāḥ .

Varuna, great leader of humanity, universally admired and followed by hosts of brave warriors, let us live in peace and bliss under your protection as in our heaven and home. And ye, all our children, be brilliant and generous, inviolable and indomitable, be strong and brilliant as children of eternity and prepare yourselves for action and cooperation in the service of the Lord.

4. Pra sīmādityo asṛjad vidhartāñ ṛtaṁ sindhavo varuṇasya yanti. Na śrāmyanti na vi mucantyete vayo na paptū raghuyā parijman.

Aditya, the sun, sustainer of the regions of the world, creates the waters all round and then the streams of Varuna, the cloud, shower down and flow. They tire not, nor ever stop. Like flying birds they flow all round on the earth at their top speed.

5. Vi macchrathāya raśanāmivāga ṛdhyāma te varuṇa khāmṛtasya. Mā tantuśchedi vayato dhiyaṁ me mā mātṛā śāryapasah pura ṛtoḥ.

Like the chain of slavery, loosen the hold of sin and evil from me. O Varuna, lord of law and justice, let us prosper and promote the stream of virtuous living in your service. While I weave the web of my life, snap not the bond of nature and intelligence with my mother. Snap not my bond of karma before the time is ripe.

6. Apo su myakṣa varuṇa bhiyasaṁ mat samrālṛtāvo'nu mā gṛbhāya. Dāmeva vatsād vi mumug-dhyaṁho nahi tvadāre nimiṣaścaneśe.

Varuna, lord of love and justice, keep off fear from me. Illustrious ruler and defender of truth and rectitude, take me as your own for protection, and, as a calf is freed from the rope, release me from sin. Other than you no one far or near can rule over me even for a moment.

Varuna, lord of life and giver of pranic energy, save us from the blows which strike to punish those who commit sin against your yajnic law. Let us not go astray from light to the dens of darkness. For our life and holy living reduce and eliminate the forces of hate and violence.

Lord unassailable and ever powerful of all, we raise our voice of homage and offer words of salutation to you in the past, at present and in the future. O Varuna, as herbs grow on the mountain and vapours rest in the cloud, so peace and comfort rest in you, and in you abide the imperishable laws of existence and inviolable rules of life's discipline and conduct.

Varuna, lord of light and law, acquit me of the highest liabilities, and obligations undertaken by me. Never let me live on the fruits of others' labour. And in the many days of light not yet come, in which you would be there to protect us, teach us, all the living souls, to live the way we should.

Varuna, lord of light and law, brilliant ruler, if a friend or companion threatens me with fear and I feel afraid in a state of sleep or wakefulness, or if a thief or a wolfish robber terrorizes us, save us from such fear and terror.

Varuna, refulgent lord ruler of the world, I pray, I may never suffer the empty pride and morbid swelling from the wealth of a dear, prosperous, generous man of power and honour. Nor may I suffer the want of wealth well earned with honest labour. And, blest with noble progeny and brave warrior heroes, may we ever sing songs of thanks and praise for the Lord in all our yajnic performances.

Ye lights of the world of life and spirit, brilliant as the suns, upholders of law and pious vows of discipline, dynamic masters of refreshing knowledge and wisdom, remove from me far and near sin and pollution like a fallen woman's. Ye divine souls of the world, Varuna, lord supreme, Mitra, friend of life and humanity, brilliant scholar and teacher, all you who listen, I invoke and call upon you for the protection of truth and goodness in life.

Ye divine spirits and noble personalities of the world, you uphold, protect and promote wisdom. You constantly advance the light and splendour of life. You quietly challenge and fight out hate and jealousy. All round shelters and protectors of the good, destroyers of evil, be kind and gracious, relent now, strengthen us and save us ever after.

O Vasus, shelter homes of life and humanity, teachers and scholars generous as mother earth, what shall we do for you with our share of karma and competence now and whatever potential we might have later? O Mitra and Varuna, friends and lovers of humanity dear as the breath of life, Aditi, generous mother sustainer like earth and nature, Indra and Maruts, winds and vital energies of life, bear and bring us the good and best of life, intelligence and knowledge of existence.

May your chariot never move at slow or medium speed in yajnic projects on earth or in water. Nor must we tire or slacken in our service to you in virtuous and scholarly projects.

Ye Devas, teachers, scholars, noble seniors, I am one, alone and helpless, but let me throw off all sin and evil since you teach and enlighten me as a father teaches and corrects a prodigal son. Let all snares of bondage be off! Let all sin and trespasses be off! A child as I am of yours, seize me not as a hunter catches a bird. No one seizes a child.

Devas, noble and generous powers of the world, yajnic teachers and enlightened seniors, advance in knowledge and generosity, come, be kind and gracious right front. Obedient with awe and reverence, let me do what is dear to you at heart. Protect us against the violent wolf and the greedy robber. Worshipful and dedicated to yajna as you are, save us from evil time and violence.

Varuna, lord of light, law and justice, let me never come to that state of sufferance when a dear, mighty generous man of honour and power either suffers from empty pride of easy achievement or suffers want and penury. O brilliant ruler and law-giver of the world, let me never suffer the want of well earned wealth of money and materials. And let us all, blest with noble children and followers, sing in praise of the Lord for his gracious gifts of righteous prosperity.

Mandala 2/Sukta 30

*Indra, Indra-Soma, Sarasvati-Indra, Brhaspati, Maruts
Devata, Grtsamada Rshi*

ऋतं द्वाय कृण्वत सवित्र इन्द्रायाहिघ्न न रमन्त आपः ।

1. *Ṛtaṁ devāya kṛṇvate savitra intrāyāhighne na

prathamah sarga āsām.*

The streams of the existential flow of divine action stop not, nor do they play for fun, for the creator of waters and the executor of laws, self-refulgent Savita, the sun who inspires Prakṛti with life, nor for Indra who breaks the clouds for rain. The light of his actions radiates continuously day by day. When did the first flow of these actions of creation originate? (Let us know.)

2. Yo vṛtrāya sinamatrābhariṣyat pra taṁ janitrī viduṣa uvāca. Patho radantīranu joṣamasmai divedive dhunayo yantyartham .

The one (sun) who for the cloud of darkness bears the food (of vapours) as well as the bond (of structure and formation), of him the mother Nature speaks to the man of knowledge. And in accordance with the will divine the streams of light and action flow to their destined goal carving out their paths of motion day by day.

3. Ūrdhvo hyasthādadhyantarikṣe'dhā vṛtrāya pra vadhaṁ jabhāra. Mihaṁ vasāna upa hīmadudrot tigmāyudho ajayacchatrumindraḥ.

The sun abides high up in heaven far above the middle region of the sky. And then it bears, raises and strikes the deadly weapon of the thunderbolt upon the cloud and, taking the vapours on all round, it melts the waters to rain. Thus it is that Indra, sunny wielder of the lightning weapon, who conquers the adversary, the dark and deep cloud of rain.

4. Bṛhaspate tapuṣāśneva vidhya vṛkadvaraso asurasya vīrān. Yathā jaghantha dhrṣatā purā ci-devā jahi śatrumasmākamindra.

Indra, destroyer of enemies, Brhaspati, lord sustainer of the vast world, just as with your mighty blazing thunderous weapon you broke through the front gates of the stronghold of the cloud and destroyed the forces of the demon of darkness and drought earlier, so now destroy our enemy (and throw open the gates of light and prosperity).

5. Ava kṣipa divo aśmānamuccā yena śatruṃ mandasāno nijūrvāḥ. Tokasya sātau tanayasya bhūrerasmāñ ardham kṛṇutādindra gonām.

Indra, lord of light and power, ruler of the world, admirable, joyous and fiery, hurl the thunderbolt from high up regions of light and destroy the enemy, the same thunderbolt by which you struck and broke the cloud, and for the progress and prosperity of our children and grand children and for the growth and development of our land and cows, grant us plenty of means and materials.

6. Pra hi kratuṃ vṛhatho yaṃ vanutho radhrasya stho yajamānasya codau. Indrāsomā yuvama-smāñ aviṣtamasmīn bhayasthe kṛṇutam lokam .

Indra, lord of power, and Soma, lord of peace, expand the yajna of development and progress which you love. Abide as inspirers and promoters of the obedient worshipful yajamana. Favour us, protect and promote us, and in this land which is stricken with fear, create a social order free and fearless, full of joy.

7. Na mā tamanna śramannota tandranna vocāma mā sunoteti somam. Yo me prṇād yo dadad yo nibodhād yo mā sunvantamupa gobhirāyat.

Indra, who gives me fulfilment, who gives me wealth and happiness, who gives me enlightenment, and who blesses me with the gift of cows and health of mind and senses, while I offer homage to the lord, may, I pray, never vex me, nor tire me, nor make me feel languid with lassitude. And may we never (with ingratitude) say: "Do not offer homage of soma to the lord."

8. Sarasvati tvamasmāñ avidḍhi marutvatī dhrṣatī jeṣi śatrūn. Tyañ cicchardhantañ taviṣīyam-āñamindro hanti vṛṣabhañ śaṇḍikānām.

Sarasvati, mother of knowledge and divine speech, inspire and protect us. Loud and bold with a troop of stormy commandos you overthrow the enemies. Indra, ruling lord of light and power, too, destroys the defiant and violent intrepidable leader of the forces of damage and darkness.

9. Yo naḥ sanutya uta vā jighatnurabhikhyāya taṁ tigiteṇa vidhya. Brhaspata āyudhairjeṣi śatrūn druhe rīṣantaṁ pari dhehi rājan.

Brhaspati, lord of knowledge and sustainer of the grand social order, expose and fix with pointed steel the surreptitious foe in hiding and the saboteur who plans to destroy us. O brilliant ruler, conquer the enemies with weapons of offence and defence, and surround and seal the force of the jealous and the destructive along with their counterparts.

10. Asmākebhiḥ satvabhiḥ śūra śūrainvīyā kṛdhi yāni te kartvāni. Jyogabhūvannanudhūpitāso hatvī teṣāmā bharā no vasūni.

O Indra, valiant hero and ruler of the world, with our resolute heroes of real mettle, do the deeds worthy of your character and majesty. And if there be adversaries long puffed up with pride and arrogance, break them down to their reality and hold and manage their assets and ours for the nation.

O Mitra and Varuna, brilliant light and life breath of the universe, friendly ruler and vibrant people of the world, vested with innate virtues, working with Adityas, scholars brilliant as yearly phases of the sun, Rudras, forces of strength vital as life breath, and Vasus, people generous as mother earth, come with all these, programme, protect, impel, drive and guide our chariot by which we, in search of food for knowledge and fame, joyous and inspired, rested in our sylvan home, may fly like birds flying freely from their nest.

And now you, brilliant Devas, scholars and scientists working together as a team, direct our stormy and victorious chariot towards the people since the motive forces fast traversing the spaces by their paths are heading with their wings to the surface of the earth.

And may that Indra, lord of power and the people, who watches the world and does noble acts of yajna with stormy powers of the winds for great wealth and victory across the skies, descend from the regions of space and, with safe and simple protective operations land and abide by our chariot.

And that refulgent generous Deva Tvashta, universal designer and maker of forms, co-existent and co-operative associate of all, may, we wish and pray, accelerate our chariot with divine voice of exhortation. And so may Ila, divine speech, Bhaga, lord of power and prosperity, Brhat, vast space, earth and heaven, Pusha, lord of vitality and sustenance, Purandhi, wielder of the ancient stars, and both the Ashvins, lord sustainers of health and vital energy, energise, sustain and accelerate our project of the chariot.

And those two refulgent and generous divinities, dawn and night, twins in mutual sight, which inspire the moving and non-moving worlds of being, I praise, with new words of adoration when, O earth and heaven, I cover the vedi with three orders of holy grass and offer three orders of holy fragrance, praise, prayer and meditation.

We love to adore you, O divine powers of nature and humanity, as those who love and are inspired. Ahirbudhnya, cloud of waters in the skies, Aja, unborn nature and the soul, Ekapat, constant powers of bliss, Ribhuksha, lord of universal art and artists, Savita, refulgent lord of creation and inspiration, and Apam Napat, infallible energy born of waters, bear the food of life for us. And I, Ribhuksha, in search of intelligence, strength and knowledge, with all effort of intellect and passion in holy action, growing fast and faster, receive the food for body, mind and soul.

May the heaven and earth be saviours and protectors of this voice of mine, who follow the universal law of Dharma and crave their love in unison. Excellent and elevating is their power and action. Hence in search of food for body, mind and soul, I present this prayer since I hold them adorable as great blissful powers of Divinity.

May the secret intrigues of hostile men never hurt us in the day or night, nor may the earth hurt the joy of humanity with calamities. Nor must anyone alienate us from our friends. Indra, know our friends and our friendships with a gracious mind. For this reason of peace, friendship, and well-being, we offer our worship and prayers to you, O lord of earth and heaven.

Indra, lord of light and power, with a kind and gracious mind bring us instantly a gift of that comprehensive speech of Divinity which, like the mother earth and generous cow and an imaginative mind and sense, gives us the milk of mental and spiritual nourishment. Every day, O lord universally invoked and adored, ruler of the dynamics of existence, with the holy Word and successive steps of meditation, I knock at your door.

I call upon the beauteous moon-lit night, soothing and generous, with words of adoration. May she, luxuriously gracious, listen to us and, with her mind and soul, acknowledge and yield to our wish and desire. May she, with an uninteruptible needle, sew on our garments of action. She is the first night of the new moon, cooing with amour, she is lovely and passionate, she is night of the full moon, she is the mistress of exuberant speech and noble knowledge, she is the lady of power and prosperity, and she is the love of my first choice. I invoke her, I solicit her, I love her for safety, security and all round well-being.

Rudra, lord of the laws of nature for universal health, justice and punishment, father sustainer of the people, may your blessings of well-being ever come to us. Deprive us not of the light and benign eye of the sun. May our brave children be strong on horse back to challenge the enemies. May we rise and advance with our future generations.

O Rudra, lord of health and well-being, with your soothing and invigorating herbs given by you, may we live a full hundred years. May hate and jealousy and sinful actions be off from us so that we may be free from all chronic diseases.

Rudra, lord of adamantine arms by virtue of your own knowledge and power, you are the best of the world of humanity and strongest of the strong. Take us across the seas of sin and disease to our good and well being. Fight out all the roads to infirmity and block them against ill-health.

Rudra, O physician, mighty brave and generous, may we never irritate or provoke you by neglect or turning away, or by disappraisal, or by pestering you. With herbs and tonics raise a generation of brave, heroic young people. I hear that you are the most eminent physician among physicians.

The physician who helps, inspires and advances us with exhortations, herbs and tonics, him I serve and please with offers of presents and appreciation. And he too, soft and kind at heart, invited with reverence, benevolent and pleasant of manners, should not, in the interest of the patient's mind and morale, hurt us.

Rudra, lord giver of good health and joy, just as the son bows to the father worthy of reverence and adoration while the father approaches, so do I praise and offer obeisance to you, generous giver and leader and sustainer of the good and the truthful, and as we offer reverence and obeisance, you bless us with healing cures for health and joy.

6. Ā no brahmāṇi marutaḥ samanyavo narāṁ na śaṁsaḥ savanāni gantana. Aśvāmiva pipyata dhenumūdhani kartā dhiyaṁ jaritre vājapeśasam.

O Maruts, heroes of mankind, impassioned with the will to act and equanimity of mind to think, come and grace our sessions of yajnic celebrations, admired universally as you are among people. Come for the development of wealth and prosperity. Develop the mare for speed as well as the cow for plenty of milk. And for the admirer and celebrant, create and award ample wealth of intelligence and knowledge with noble language and competence for karma with precious gifts.

O Maruts, heroes dear as breath of life, give us that power and speed for our nation's chariot, that wealth and vitality of life and that universal knowledge which may awaken and enlighten us day by day. Give us that food and energy for the admirers and celebrants in the yajnic programmes of development which is inexhaustible, and, for the poet, singer, scientist, technologist and the architect of the human nation, bring ample reward of fulfilment, high intelligence, freedom from sin and ill-health and inviolable courage, patience, and fortitude.

8. Yad yuñjate maruto rukmavakṣaso'svān ratheṣu bhaga ā sudānavaḥ. Dhenurna śiśve svasareṣu pinvate janāya rātahaviṣe mahīmiṣam.

Maruts, leaders with heart of gold and brilliant person, generous givers of knowledge and advancement, as they yoke the power and horses to the chariots of the nation, and as success in progress and prosperity is achieved, then, every day for every home, like the mother cow overflowing with milk for the calf, they provide and augment ample food and freshness for high fulfilment of the people who give and have given their share of service and self-sacrifice in the national yajna.

9. Yo no maruto vṛkatāti martyo ripurdadhe vasavo rakṣatā riṣaḥ. Vartayata tapuṣā cakriyābhi tamava rudrā aśaso hantanā vadhaḥ.

Whoever be the person who, like a wolfish thief or robber or deadly enemy, targets us with anger and torture, O Maruts, shelter home for all and universal saviours, protect us against the violence of the enemy. Whosoever raises the fatal weapon upon us, bind and seal him with punishment and circle him round with vigilance. O Rudras, scholars of the middle order, defenders of law and scourage of the lawless, hurt not, destroy not, those who are non-violent, peace loving and law abiding.

Maruts, defenders and pioneers of the social order, friends of humanity, wondrous is that yajnic exploit of yours so well known, when from heights of the skies and depths of the earth you churn out and distil the nectar of life which again, O friends of Rudra, lord of light and justice, and indomitable warriors, becomes a fatal antidote against the maligners of your celebrants and the weary weakness of the aging.

Such as you are, O great Maruts, who thus venture out to exploit the earth and the skies in search of knowledge and life's energy, we invoke and exhort you for the fulfilment of the omnipresent lord Vishnu's love and desire for the progress and prosperity for his children. And thus do we, having raised our ladles of yajna as our share in our effort for piety, honour and prosperity, pray for the gifts of the Maruts, heroes of the golden hue great and, marvellous in their own right.

They, the Maruts, masters of their mind and ten senses of perception and action, first in intelligence and imagination, organise the yajna and take it to success. May they, we pray, give us the clarion call with the light of the dawn, and, like the lady of light which removes the veil of darkness from over the restful night with radiant rays of the sun, may they, we pray, remove our veil of darkness and ignorance with the great and sacred light of the rising sun of divine knowledge.

Those Rudras, stormy winds and roaring clouds, tempestuous pioneers of humanity, leaders of science and knowledge, act and grow within the dynamics of the laws of nature alongwith the earths, planets and the atmosphere, with the golden light of dawn and the various beauties of nature, and, showering gifts of living energy and wearing the grace of the full moon and majesty of form, they grow and advance with the strength and speed of the brilliance of light.

Wanting a great home for the sake of safety, security and advancement, we praise and, with humble salutations, do homage to those great and noblest yajakas, i.e., five pranic energies, which Trita, the man commander of those five yajakas, deploys for his safety, security and good fortune, since they are ever fresh, dynamic and ever on the move like a wheel in constant motion.

O Maruts, pioneering guides of humanity, divine powers of knowledge and holy intelligence, that virtuous mind and power of protection by which you save the devotee from the taint of sin and let him cross the ocean, by which you save the celebrant from the calumny of maligners, may that power of protection, that noble intelligence, like a loving mother, come hither to me and bring me divine grace.

Mandala 2/Sukta 35

Apam-napat Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

उपमसृ॒ति वाज॒युव॑च॒स्यां च॒ना द॑धीत ना॒द्या गिरा॑ म । अ॒पां
न॒पादा॑शु॒हमा॑ कु॒वित्स॑ सु॒पश॑स॒स्कर॑ति जा॒षिष॑द्धि ॥ १ ॥

1. Upemasṛkṣi vājayurvacyāṁ cano dadhīta nādyo giro me. Apāṁ napādāśuhemā kuvit sa supeśasaskarati joṣiṣaddhi.

Close to the waters in search of food, energy, vitality and fast speed of action, I create this song related to water energy and subsequent water wealth. May these holy words of mine, loud and bold, flowing like a stream, be delightful and bear fruit and fulfilment. May that divine energy born of waters, instant and imperishable, be in accord with the holy voice and help us create many beautiful forms of life and various wealth for us.

इ॒मं स्व॑स्म हृ॒द आ सु॑त॒ष्टं म॒न्त्रं वा॑च॒म कु॒विद॑स्य॒ वद॑त ।

अ॒पां न॒पाद॑सु॒यस्य॑ म॒ह्ना वि॑श्वान्य॒या भु॑व॒ना ज॑जान ॥ २ ॥

2. Imaṁ svasmai hrda ā sutaṣṭaṁ mantraṁ vocema kuvidasya vedat. Apāṁ napād-asuryasya mahnā viśvanyaryo bhuvanā jajāna.

Let us chant this mantra conscientiously created and composed from depths of the heart in honour and celebration of this magnificent power. May the great lord of the wide world know of it. Indeed this mighty energy born of the waters, replete with wealth and power, with the great omnipotence of divine nature, creates the entire worlds of existence.

सम॒न्या यन्त्यु॑प॒ यन्त्य॒न्याः सम॒ानमूर्व॑ न॒द्यः पृ॑णन्ति ।

तमू॒ शुचिं॑ शुच॒या दी॒दिवांस॑म॒पां न॒पातं॑ परि॒ तस्थु॑रापः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Samanyā yantyuṣa yantyanāḥ samānamūrvanadyaḥ pṛṇanti. Tamū śuciṁ śucayo dīdivāṁsamapāṁ napātaṁ pari tasthurāpaḥ.

Some of these streams of water and currents of energy flow together. Some others flow close by them, and all of them together join and flow into the ocean to fullness. And these clear and purest streams of water and water energy all round abide by that pure, bright and blazing child of the waters, imperishable agni, fire and electric energy of the water power. (This mantra describes the dynamic circuit flow of energy and its imperishable form in the state of conservation.)

तम॒स्म॒रा यु॒व॒तया॑ यु॒वानं॑ म॒मृज्य॑मानाः परि॒ यन्त्या॑पः ।

4. Tamasmerā yuvatayo yuvānaṁ marmṛjyamānāḥ pari yantypaḥ. Sa śukrebhiḥ śikvabhī revadasme dīdāyanidhmo ghṛtanirṇigapsu.

Just as young maidens in crystalline purity of body and mind and fragrant modesty anxiously yet bashfully approach the youthful man, feeding his fire and receiving the shower of life and love, so do crystalline streams of water murmuring with exciting energy approach from all round that Apam-napat, fiery energy of the essence of waters, and he, overflowing with vitalising energy, fertilises their thirst for life and creativity. May that, the eternal elan vital distilled from waters by nature, bright and blazing like flames of fire fed with ghrta in yajna, shine on by itself in the waters of life for us.

अ॒स्म ति॒स्त्रा अ॒व्य॒थ्याय॒ नारी॑द्व॒वाय॒ द॒वीदि॑धिष॒न्त्य ऽम॑ ।

5. Asmai tisro avyathyāya nārīrdevāya devīr didhiṣantyanam . Kṛtā ivopa hi prasarsre apsu sa pīyūṣaṁ dhayati pūvasūnām.

For this Apam-napat, liquid and fiery energy of waters, brilliant, generous and inviolable divinity, three brilliant and generous streams of dynamic energy, Ila, Sarasvati, Mahi, eternal, universal and specific forms of divine energy, flow and bear food for his sustenance and growth. They move like young maidens approaching their man for the continuance of life and vital energy. They move on and on like three divinities, reflections of the divine will in the cosmic oceans of time and space, and he, the fiery creative energy, drinks the milk of life from the three motherly powers.

अ॒श्व॒स्यात्र॒ जनि॑मा॒स्य च॒ स्व॒दुहा॑ रि॒षः संपृ॑चः पाहि॒ सू॒रीन॑ ।

caḥ pāhi sūrīn . Āmasu pūrṣu paro apramṛṣyaṁ
nārātayo vi naśannānṛtāni.*

In the dynamics of water, fire and vital energy lies the source of virility, fertility and generation of the species. Herein lies the source of pleasure and happiness. O brilliant lord of generosity, protect the good and the pious people from the hateful, violent and destructive associates and encounters. It is perfect, beyond all stages short of ripeness in nature. Nothing false, opposed or negative can pollute or destroy it.

7. Sva ā dame sudughā yasya dhenuḥ svadhām pīpāya subhvannamatti. So apām napādūjayann-apsvantar-vasudeyāya vidhate vi bhāti.

He whose home is blest with a fertile cow, abundant holy speech in communication, and noble knowledge, drinks holy water and eats consecrated food. He, inviolable in pranic energies, enveloped in the folds of nature's vitalities is 'apam-napat', as such he grows for the sake of the generous man of charity, wields power and prosperity, and shines with might and majesty.

या अप्स्वा शुचिना दव्येन ऋतावाजस्र उविया विभाति ।

8. Yo apsvā śucinā daivyena ṛtāvājasra urviyā vibhāti. Vayā idanyā bhuvanānyasya pra jāyante vīrudhaśca prajābhiḥ.

Abiding in the holy waters of nature's liquid bounty, dedicated to nature's law and blest with her consecrating power, vast and constant with the earth, he shines with immaculate purity of character and the majesty of light divine. The other regions of the world are like the branches of his family tree where, too, further, grow the trees with their own farther branches.

dhvo vidyutam vasānaḥ . Tasya jyeṣṭham mahimā-nam vahanātīr-hiranyavarṇāḥ pari yanti yahvīḥ.*

Apam-napat, essential energy born of the waters of space, wearing the mantle of lightning power, electricity, abides close above the wavy and curvy motions of the clouds. And streams of energy, wearing the lustre of gold, carrying its highest power, flow all round.

हिरण्यरूपः स हिरण्यसन्दृग्पां नपात्सदु हिरण्यवणः ।

10. Hiranyarūpaḥ sa hiranyasandṛg-apām napāt sedu hiranyavarṇaḥ . Hiranyayāt pari yonerniṣadyā hiranyadā dadatyannam-asmai.

Golden of form, Apam-napat, the child of waters, golden eyed revealing its gold, golden coloured, abides higher than the golden seat of its origin, and the golden feeder energies of physical existence provide the food for its growth.

तदस्यानीकमुत चारु नामापीच्यं वधत नसुरपाम ।

11. Tadasyānīkamuta cāru nāmāpīcyam vardhate napturapām. Yamindhate yuvatayaḥ samitthā hiraṇyavarṇam ghṛtamannamasya.

That lustrous power of this child of the waters and its essential name arising from its innate properties is beautiful, and it grows while the youthful maidens raise it in its golden glory like the flames of fire with ghrta, ghrta being its favourite food.

12. Asmai bahūnām-avamāya sakhye yajñair-vidhema namasā havirbhiḥ. Saṁ sānu mārjmi didhiṣāmi bilmair-dhāmyannaiḥ pari vanda ṛgbhiḥ.

We serve this Apam-napat, golden energy, with yajnas and feed it with food and sacrifices in the midst of many powers of nature for the good of our closest friends. I refine it in the vedi, sustain it by degrees with fuel, feed it with food and sacrifices and celebrate it with exalting songs of Rks.

13. Sa īm vṛṣājanayat tāsū garbham sa īm śīśurdhayati taṁ rihanti. So apām napād-anabhimlāta-varṇo'nyasyeveha tanvā viveṣa.

That potent and generous Apam-napat, vital heat of life, creates the fetus in the waters. The same baby sucks the same vitality of the waters. The same water energies then kiss and caress the baby. The same, then, in bright, unfaded effulgence shines in the youthful body as it shines in other body forms too.

Mighty streams of cosmic energy, with their own imperishable velocity, flow all round bearing ghrta and anna-food for their grand child, Apam-napat, abiding all-time effulgent in this highest state of existence.

15. *Ayāṁsamagne sukṣitīm janāyāyāṁsamu

Agni, vital spirit of life in existence, I pray, may I attain a blessed home for the people. May I receive a glorious hymn of divine worship for our people of power and honour from our poets of power and imagination. May we attain all that good and glory which Devas protect and promote. And may we, blest with the brave, sing songs of Divinity in our yajnic projects.

Indra, yajnapati, first and prime power who rule the world, let the person invoking you and rising in life settle down in peace and security for your sake. May the people like children of Aditi, mother Earth, receive the best of cows, lands and the holy Word and the best of water and energy with protective showers of the clouds. Indra, drink up the libations of soma, offered with dedication with the words 'Svaha' and 'vashat' from our yajna.

Maruts, children of the Lord sustainer of the world, powers natural and divine, leaders of humanity united by yajna, moving by the right path at the right time by speed of the winds, creating and achieving the objects of desire, crystalline pure and lovely in colours of beauty, seating yourselves on the holy grass of the vedi, drink the soma distilled from the purest light of heaven.

Maruts, invoked and invited with love and respect, come to us as to your own home, ride the skies and raise the voice of victory. Tvashta, lord maker of forms and institutions, leader of the republics, commanding high intelligence and wisdom, come with the brilliant creators and experts of production, taste the sweets of our yajnic food and celebrate the victory with us.

Agni, 'vipra', brilliant lord of the dynamics of nature and human society, speak of the laws of nature and psycho-social dynamics and inaugurate and direct the yajna of creation and production here. Inspired and passionate for holy action, be seated on the vedi, establish yourself in the three fields of earth, sky and space and be sure and specific on description, application and valuation of knowledge human and divine with prayer and gratitude to the Lord Omniscient. Achieve the planned targets of blissful creativity and development, taste the sweets of yajnic success and be happy that you have played your part of life's action for your people.

Indra, lord of wealth and power, ruler of the world, this soma is such that it would strengthen and augment the wealth and power of your body and soul. It is the very patience and fortitude and the lustre of your personality, as broad and clear as daylight, collected and consecrated in your very arms. It is distilled, seasoned, preserved and served for you only. Drink of it as a gift from the Brahmana, expert of science and bio-technology, and be happy.

O brilliant Mitra and Varuna, friendly lord of the rule of law, administrators and people of the earth, join and participate in my yajna for the nation in honour of the Lord. Listen and appreciate the revealing voices of knowledge gifted by the saints and scholars old and new. Just as the yajaka seated and established in yajnic acts of creation and development receives the gifts of food and sustenance from yajna well-preserved, so you too receive the gifts of peace and prosperity from the scholars of Shastras and enjoy the honey sweets of the good life.

O lord giver beatific, rejoice and thrive on the food of libations to your heart's desire. O yajakas, he loves the libations, full and profuse, offered with love in faith. Bear this sacred 'havi' and offer it liberally to him. He is loving and kind, eagerly awaiting the offering, and he is the abundant giver. O lord giver of the wealth of existence, drink up the fragrant soma from the fire of yajna in accordance with the seasons.

He alone is the giver, he alone is the master, he alone is the ruler, he alone for sure is the lord worthy of invocation, invitation, service, yajna and worship. O lord giver of the wealth of life, abundant and infinite, receive and drink this honey sweet of soma prepared and refined by the loving, faithful and non-violent priests according to the seasons. O lord controller of light and growth, wanting nothing for yourself and hurting none, be strong and firm, make your devotees strong and firm. Joining all, acting all round, lustrous, intrepidable and inviolable, please to accept the soma yajna of all seasons from the hand of the yajakas, drink and rejoice with love and for beneficence.

May the lord giver receive the food brought by the yajaka and offered from the ladle and the vedi and may the lord relish and rejoice and shower the yajaka with love. And may the lord giver of wealth and bliss bless the yajaka's fourth estate of existence and protect his bowl of bliss unhurt and immortal.

Ashvins, agents of nature for the lord of omnipotence, leaders of humanity and pioneers of peace and prosperity for the people, start your chariot and direct it hitherward to us, the chariot which transports you to our yajna and takes us to the land of freedom and bliss. Come to the land of joy, season our havi with honey, and drink the soma of immortal bliss.

Agni, lord of light, leader of humanity, giver of life's vitality, accept the fuel offered, receive the havi offered in oblations, accept the creative chant of holy mantras, accept the praise and prayer. With all the powers of nature, serve the generous divinities. Lord giver of haven and home and the wealth of life, great, happy and rejoicing, yourself eager for the food of yajna and excitement, let all other great divinities, eager for food and fulfilment, receive and enjoy the offerings according to the seasons.

Mandala 2/Sukta 38

Savita Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

उदु ष्य द्रवः सविता सवायं शश्वत्तमं तदपा वह्निरस्थात ।
नूनं द्रवभ्या वि हि धाति रत्नमथाभजद्दीतिहात्रं स्वस्ता ॥ १ ॥

1. Udu ṣya devaḥ savitā savāya śaśvattamaṁ tadapā vahnirasthāt. Nūnaṁ devabhyo vi hi dhāti ratnamathābhajad vītihotraṁ svastau.

That self-refulgent lord Savita, creator and inspirer of the universe, omnipotent lord of action, holds, rules and sustains the universe and abides supreme over the eternal Prakṛti. Indeed, he alone wields, orders and sustains the magnificent universe for the sake of living beings and carries on the sacred yajna of creation for the well-being of all.

विश्वस्य हि श्रुष्ट्यं द्रव ऊर्ध्वः प बाहवा पृथुपाणिः सिसर्ति ।
आपश्चिदस्य वृत आ निमृगा अयं चिद्वाता रमत
परिज्मन ॥ २ ॥

2. Viśvasya hi śruṣṭaye deva ūrdhvaḥ pra bāhavā prthupāṇiḥ sisarti. Āpaścidasya vrata ā nimrgrā ayaṁ cid vāto ramate pariḥman.

For the good of the world alone the generous and self-refulgent lord Savita of long and mighty arms abides over all and extends his rays of light across the spaces. The waters too, pure and purifying, flow within his rule of law, and so do the winds play around every where under the same law.

आशुभिश्चिद्वान्वि मुचाति नूनमरीरमुदतमानं चिदताः ।
अह्यषूणां चि ययाँ अविष्यामनु वृतं सवितुमाक्या-

3. Āśubhiścidyān vi mucāti nūnam-arīramad-atamānaṁ cidetoḥ. Ahyarṣūṇāṁ cinnyayāṅ aviṣyāmanu vrataṁ saviturmokyāgāt.

Savita, lord of light, the Sun, with its radiant rays releases the moving planets from the shadow of another planet as it removes the shadow of darkness and causes the planet to shine. And for the sake of protection it also controls the movement of the winds coming to the clouds as also other serpentine movements either freakish or destructive. Thus the night and release from darkness comes according to the rule and movement of the Sun's light, and that is the divine law.

पुनः समव्यद्विततं वयन्ती मध्या कतान्यधाच्छक्म धीरः ।
उत्संहायास्थाद व्यृत्तूरदधरर्मतिः सविता द्वव आगात ॥ ४ ॥

4. Punah samavyad vitataṁ vayanfī madhyā kartor-nyadhāc-chakma dhīraḥ. Ut saṁhāyās-thād vyṛtūñradardhar-aramatiḥ savitā deva āgāt.

The earth, traversing the wide wide space, revolves again and again in orbit in the solar region wielding her force and power to do the rounds assigned to her, and, leaving one place, moving on, comes back to the same and remains stable in the orbit. The constant and sleepless lord Savita, the Sun, self-refulgent and divine, creates the seasons of the year in the distinct order.

नानाकांसि दुर्या विश्वमायुवि तिष्ठत पभवः शाका अग्रः ।
ज्येष्ठं माता सूनवं भागमाधादन्वस्य कर्तमिषितं सवित्रा ॥ ५ ॥

5. Nānaukāṁsi duryo viśamāyurvi tiṣṭhate prabhavaḥ śoko agneḥ. Jyeṣṭhaṁ mātā sūnave bhāga-mādhadanvasya ketamiṣitaṁ savitrā.

Many are the forms and abodes of life, many doors, exits and entrances, where universal life abides, the light and life of Agni, the birth and death of the flame, the lustre, the desire and passion of the will divine to live and to be. The mother bears the highest share of it for the son, the flower in bloom inspired by Savita, father creator in accordance with his law of existence.

समाववति विष्टिता जिगीषुविश्वेषां कामश्चरताममाभूत ।

6. Samāvavarti viṣṭhito jigīṣur-viśveṣāṁ kāmāś-caratāmamābhūt. Śaśvān apo vikṛtaṁ hitvyā-gādanu vrataṁ saviturdaivyaśya.

Happy is the man who is well settled in the home, prays for the well-being of all living beings and is fast and eager to win the battles of life. Such a man shuns all crooked ways of living and keeps to the pious ways of living in accordance with the laws and discipline of the brilliant and generous lord Savita, creator and ruler of the world.

त्वया हितमप्यमप्सु भ्रागं धन्वान्वा मृगयसा वि तस्थुः ।

7. Tvayā hitamapyamapsu bhāgaṁ dhanvānvā mṛgayaso vi tasthuḥ. Vanāni vibhyo nakirasya tāni vratā devasya saviturminanti.

O lord creator and ruler of existence, by you is created and provided life-giving energy in the waters. By you is created the sky, by you the forests, for the birds and the deer to fly, to roam and play. Those rules and laws of divine Savita they never violate, who can? No one does.

यादाध्यं वरुणा यानिमप्यमनिशितं निमिषि जभुराणः ।

8. Yādrādhyāṁ varuṇo yonim-apyam-aniśitaṁ nimiṣi jarbhurāṇaḥ. Viśvo mārtaṇḍo vrajamā paśurgāt sthaśo janmāni savitā vyākāḥ.

Savita, lord creator of the universe, sustaining it in the succession of moments in the time continuum, creates various forms for various births of the souls according to their state of karma, and the same lord as Varuna, lord of love and justice, assigns the form desired and deserved by the soul the moment its eye is closed on death. Thus do all living beings under the sun come back to their ultimate home from where they had gone out on their existential journey.

न यस्यन्द्वा वरुणा न मित्रा व्रतमयमा न मिनन्ति रुदः ।
नारातयस्तमिदं स्वस्ति हुव द्रवं सवितारं नमाभिः ॥ ९ ॥

9. Na yasendro varuṇo na mitro vratamaryamā na minanti rudraḥ. Nārātayas-tamidam svasti huve devam savitāram namobhiḥ.

None can violate, nor circumvent the law and justice of Savita, Supreme Lord Creator: Neither Indra, the sun and cosmic electric force, nor Varuna, the waters, nor Mitra, the winds, nor Aryama, life breath of air, nor even Rudra, the soul by itself or in alliance with any power of nature, no enemies, that is, any imaginable counter forces can violate the divine law. This Lord Savita, for well-being and salvation, do I invoke with homage and salutations. Self-refulgent is He, generous and gracious.

भगं धियं वाजयन्तः पुरन्धिं नराशंसा ग्रास्पतिना अव्याः ।

10. Bhagam dhiyam vājayantaḥ purandhim narāśaṁso gnāspatirno avyāḥ. Āye vāmasya saṅgathe rayīṇām priyā devasya savituḥ syāma.

Glorious is Savita, worthy of thought and meditation, sustainer of the universe, celebrated by humanity, lord protector of all. We know the lord and do homage to Him with prayer, submission and yajna, and we earnestly wish that in our battles of life and in our success in the achievement of the wealth of life we may ever be blest with His love and grace.

11. Asmabhyam tad divo adbhyaḥ pṛthivyastvayā dattaṁ kāmyaṁ rādha ā gāt. Śaṁ yat stotrbhya āpaye bhavātyuruśamsāya savitarjaritre.

O Lord, whatever wealth has been given to us by you from the regions of light and the enlightened people, from the waters and the generous people, from the earth and motherly figures, whatever desired be achieved, may all that be good and blissful for the celebrants, the learned, the praiseworthy and, O Lord Savita, for the worshipful.

Ashvinau Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Grāvāṇeva tadidartham jarethe grdhreva vrkṣaṁ nidhimantamaccha. Brahmāṇeva vidatha ukthaśāsā dūteva havyā janyā purutrā.

Ashvins, harbingers of life's heat and light, breath of being and energy, spirit of passion and action, complementary currents of the circuit of existence, you approach the earth like two clouds of rain to augment her wealth. You come like two eager birds and sit on the tree of life laden with fruit to enjoy yourselves to the full. In the yajna of development, you are two priests who chant the hymns of celebration and prayer. And in life in general, you are like two welcome harbingers who create and help us create the abundance of earth.

2. Prātaryāvāṇā rathyeva vīrā'jeva yamā varamā sacethe. Mene iva tanvā śumbhamāne dampatīva kratuvidā janeṣu.

You come like two heroic warriors of the chariot in the morning. You join us like two leaders of the flock to lead us on in the right direction. You descend like two fairies of celestial form full of bliss. And you are like a wedded couple who know their sacred obligations among the people.

3. Śṛṅgeva naḥ prathamā gantamarvāk chaphāviva jarbhurāṇā tarobhiḥ. Cakravākeva prati vastorusrā'rvāñcā yātaṁ rathyeva śakrā.

You come first and foremost for us like horns of defence, like bright war horses panting for action, with strength and patience for victory, like the chakravaka bird couple which are harbingers of light and love every morning. Thus mighty and powerful, you move and lead us forward like the pioneers of battle.

4. Nāveva naḥ pārayataṁ yugeva nabhyeva na upadhīva pradhīva. Śvāneva no ariṣaṇyā tanūnāṁ khṛgaleva visrasaḥ pātamaśmān.

Take us across like a boat, like two chariot horses; hold us strong and stable like the nave, the axle and the chassis of the chariot; keep us wide awake like watch dogs for the safety of our body and society and, like the coat of mail, save us from falling down battered and broken.

Unaging like winds, ever flowing like river waters, watchful as with open eyes, come upfront and, like the hands giving protection and security to the body, and like the feet, take us forward to the holy wealth of life.

Like the lips, speaking honey sweet for the mouth, help us to be sweet. Like the mother's breast, nourish and sustain us to live. Like the nostrils, sustain our body with the breath of life. And like the ears, be listeners for us to give us the voice divine.

Like the arms, give us noble strength. Like the earth, give us wide spaces for expansion. These words, O Ashvins, addressed to you, may, like a whetstone, energise and sharpen our communication and raise it to the voice of thunder.

एतानि वामश्विना वधनानि बह्व स्तामं गृत्समदासा अकन ।

These words of homage, this holy song of celebration, the seekers of life's joy and excitement offer to you. Ashvins, O leaders of humanity, accept these with love and grace, and come to bless us so that, blest with the brave, we speak and celebrate you highly and advance far ahead in our projects of life.

Soma, Pusha and Aditi Devatah, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Somāpūṣanā janana rayiṇām janana divo janana prthivyāḥ. Jātau viśvasya bhuvanasya gopau devā akṛṇvannamṛtasya nābhim.

Soma and Pusha, universal energies of peace and stability and nourishment and growth, are creators of all forms of wealth, creators of light and creators of earth. Born as complementary powers, they are protectors of the entire universe. O Devas, divinities of nature, scholars and leaders, feed, know and reveal this creative centre and power of immortality.

इ॒मा द॒वा जा॒य॒मा॒ना जु॒ष॒न्त॒मा त॒मांसि॑ गू॒ह॒ता॒म॒जु॒ष्टा ।

2. Imau devau jāyamānau juṣantemau tamānsi gūhatāmajuṣṭā. Ābhyāmindraḥ pakvamāmāsvantah somāpūṣabhyām janadusriyāsu.

All divinities of nature serve and feed these two powers ever since they come into existence. Together, these two, Soma and Pusha, like the moon and the herbs, dispel the disagreeable forces of darkness and ignorance. With the same two, Indra, the Sun, nature's power of light and energy, creates the generative maturity and ripeness in the developing fields of generation such as earth, cows and women.

3. Somāpūṣaṇā rajaso vimānaṁ saptaśakraṁ rathamaviśvaminvam. Viṣūvṛtaṁ manasā yujyamānaṁ taṁ jinvatha vṛṣaṇā pañcaraśmim .

Soma and Pusha, fire and air, all-invigorating powers, create, animate and refresh that aerial chariot with seven chakras (circles and centres of energy) and five controls for the people it traverses the spaces and goes all over in all directions but is not perceived everywhere and it can be controlled with the mind.

4. Divyanyah sadanaṁ cakra uccā prthivyāmanyō adhyantarikṣe. Tāvasmabyaṁ puruvāraṁ purukṣum rāyaspoṣaṁ vi śyatāṁ nābhimasme .

One of them as sun has made his home high up in heaven, the other on the earth and over in the sky as generative heat and electric energy. May the two create for us wealth and growth loved and admired universally, and may they strengthen the natural bond between themselves and us like the natal cord between mother and child.

One of them creates the entire worlds of existence, and the other goes on and on watching the world and watched and admired by the world. O Soma and Pusha, I pray, protect and promote my intelligence. We pray that with the help and kindness of both of you we may help and promote the entire humanity and win the battles of life.

धियं पूषा जिन्वतु विश्वमिन्वा रयिं सामा रयिपतिदधातु ।

6. *Dhiyaṁ pūṣā jinvatu viśvaminvo rayiṁ somo

May Pusha, all-pervading spirit of growth and refinement, inspire our will and intelligence. May Soma, lord of wealth, bless us with wealth. May mother Aditi, divine intelligence, moving in unseen currents, inspire our intelligence. And may we, blest with brave warriors and noble children, sing ecstatic songs of thanks and praise in celebration of Soma and Pusha.

विश्वं मम श्रुता हवम ॥ १५ ॥

15. Indrajyeṣṭhā marudgaṇā devāsaḥ pūṣarātayaḥ.
Viśve mama śrutā havam.

Indra supreme, ruling light and power of the world, and all those divinities whose presiding priest is he, republics of the people, saints and sages, and all those people and organisations who generously contribute to and for the advancement of science and culture, listen to this call and prayer of mine and come.

16. Ambitame naditame devitame sarasvati.
Apraśastā iva smasi praśastimamba naskṛdhi.

Sarasvati, mother dearest, most fluent and eloquent giver of vision and wisdom, liberal and most brilliant, eternal fount of knowledge and speech, we are just like simple, natural, innocent, unknown children. Mother spirit of nature and humanity, give us the light of knowledge and culture with the grace of Divinity and make us worthy of acceptance, appreciation and rightful praise.

17. Te viśvā sarasvati śritāyūṁṣi devyāṁ.
Śunahotreṣu matsva prajāṁ devi didiḍdhi naḥ.

In you, O generous mother giver of vision and wisdom, lie all the health and age and wealth of knowledge for the world. Come brilliant mother Sarasvati, grace our yajna of education and science, rejoice and create for us a new generation of healthy, educated and refined children.

18. Imā brahma sarasvati juṣasva vājīnīvati. Yā te manma grtsamadā ṛtāvari priyā deveṣu juhvati.

Sarasvati, mother of universal knowledge and speech, commanding the food, energy and speed of the advancement of humanity moving on the paths of truth and rectitude, listen to these chants of homage and accept with delight and homage these your favourite oblations of scientific knowledge which the ecstatic performers in the yajna of education offer to you in honour of the bounties of nature, divinity and humanity for the benefit of the faithful seekers.

19. *Pretām yajñasya śambhuvā yuvāmidā vṛṇī-

Dyavaprthivi, heaven and earth, generative treasures of yajnic wealth, creators and givers of peace, prosperity and well-being, come and grace our yajna. We opt for you and invoke and invite you. And we invoke and invite Agni who carries the fragrance of the holy yajna offered into the fire.

20. *Dyāvā naḥ pṛthivī imam sidhramadya divisprśam.
Yajñam deveṣu yacchatām.*

Heaven and earth, teachers enlightened as the sun and generous as mother earth, let this perfect yajna of ours, this planned yajnic programme of education and enlightenment, which touches the skies and the regions of light now rise high to the divinities and reach the saints and scholars of brilliance across the earth.

आ वामुपस्थमदुहा द्वाः सीदन्तु यज्ञियाः ।

21. Ā vām-upasthamadruhā devāḥ sīdantu yajñi-yāḥ. Ihādya somapītaye.

Dyava-prthivi, heaven and earth, enlightened and generous teachers and scholars of eminence, who love all and hate none and who are easily accessible and blissfully companionable, may the noble and brilliant seekers of knowledge dedicated to creative and yajnic programmes of learning and education come to you and sit with you for the attainment of the pleasures of knowledge, power and prosperity, and honour and dignity of life here and now.

Mandala 2/Sukta 42

Indra (in metaphor) Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Kanikradajjanuṣaṁ prabruvāṇa iyarti vāca-mariteva nāvam. Sumaṅgalaśca śakune bhavāsi mā tvā kā cidabhibhā viśvyā vidat .

Speaking loud and bold, addressing humanity, you take the Word forward like a mariner who takes his vessel forward on the waters. O master of the Word, flying like the eagle, you are the harbinger of good fortune. No superior force from any quarter whatsoever would approach you to disturb your mission.

2. Mā tvā śyena uda vadhīnmā suparṇo mā tvā vidadiṣumān vīro astā. Pitryāmanu pradiśaṁ kanikadatsumāṅgala bhadravādī vadeha.

May none like the hawk smite you, nor like the vulture violate you. Nor must the hunter with the bow shoot you down with the arrow. Reverberating with your voice loud and bold across the lands of your forefathers, harbinger of good fortune, speak to us here of the good things to come.

3. Ava kranda dakṣiṇato gṛhāṇāṁ sumāṅgalo bhadravādī śakunte. Mā naḥ stena īśata māghaśaṁso brhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Speak aloud, proclaim from the house tops on the right the good things to come. Speak of good fortune, man of power and the Word as you are. May no thief rule over us, no sinner, no maligner boss over us. And we would all, blest with the brave, sing aloud in praise of you and celebrant.

Going round clockwise from left to right in obeisance, poets and artists sing in homage to Indra, lord of light and power. So do birds of beauty and majesty sing in praise of the lord according to the seasons. So does Indra, poet of power, like a Soma-singer chant the Word of both material and spiritual significance as he chants and reveals the significance of other mantras in Gayatri, Tristubh and other metres.

उद्गातव शकुन सामं गायसि ब्रह्मपुत्र इव सर्वनषु शंससि ।

Shakuni, poet of power and homage to Indra, like the Sama-singer in yajna, you sing the songs of ecstasy. Like the disciple of a Vedic scholar Brahamana, you sing in homage to the lord in holy rites. Like a virile and passionate bull approaching youthful females, speak to us with enthusiasm of all round good things. All round, speak to us of noble and blissful things.

Shakuni, poet of power and imagination, while speaking, speak to us of good. Silent and sitting, enlighten our mind with noble thoughts. While flying on the wings of imagination, you speak of the way you do good. Let us then, blest with good and brave children, sing songs of high praise for the lord.

MANDALA 3

Mandala 3/Sukta 1

Agni Devata, Gathina Vishvamitra Rshi

सामस्य मा तवसं व यग्र वह्निं चकथ विदथ यजध्य ।

दुवाँ अच्छ दीद्यद्युज्ज अदिं शमाय अग्र तन्वं जुषस्व ॥ १ ॥

1. Somasya mā tavasaṁ vakṣyagṇe vahnim cakartha vidathe yajadhyai. Devāñ acchā dīdyad yuñje adriṁ śamāye agne tanvaṁ juṣasva.

Agni, brilliant scholar and fiery leader, you speak to me of the strength and power of soma, the elixir of life. You have prepared me, like the fire that carries the fragrance of yajna from the vedi over earth and skies, to join and conduct the yajnic business of life and play my part in the battles of progress. Shining forth, I join the brilliant best of generous humanity and, as fire moves the cloud to break into showers, we move the nation to release its potential into showers of peace and prosperity. O leading spirit of life and humanity, Agni, protect, promote and sustain the body politic of the world community and move it forward.

पाज्चं यज्ञं चकृम वधतां गीः समिद्धिर्गिं नमसा दुवस्यन ।

दिवः शशासुविदथा कवीनां गृत्साय चित्तवसं गातुमीषुः ॥ २ ॥

2. Prāñcam yajñam cakṛma vardhatām gīḥ samid-bhiragniṁ namasā duvasyan. Divaḥ śasāsursvidathā kavīnām grtsāya cit tavase gātumīṣuḥ.

Joining all together, we carry the yajna forward.

Let the voices of celebration and joy of the people rise to the skies. Feeding the fire with fuel and fragrance, doing homage to the lord of light with salutations in dedication they conduct and control the yajna of social order by virtue of the vision and wisdom of the sages and the grace of Divinity. And they seek the highways of further advancement for the sake of safety, security and the joy of peace and enlightenment.

मया दधु मधिरः पूतद ॥ दिवः सुबन्धुजनुषा पृथिव्याः ।

3. Mayo dadhe medhirah pūtadakṣo divaḥ subandhurjanuṣā prthivyāḥ. avidannu darśatama-psvantardevāso agnimapasi svasṛṇām.

Agni, the yajnic power, as also the man of clear vision, essentially pure and dedicated to yajna, by nature a friend and brother of heaven and earth, holds the treasure of comfort and joy. Brilliant and generous souls and the divine powers of nature discover this golden power, Agni, at the heart of currents of waters and vapours, in the flow of pranic energies, and in the sister streams of sparkling water flowing free, and the yajniks find it in their own karma and in the waters.

4. Avardhayantsubhagaṁ sapta yahvīḥ śvetam jajñānamaruṣaṁ mahitvā. Śīśuṁ na jātamabhyāruraśvā devāso agniṁ janiman vapuṣyan.

Seven flames of fire as seven streams of water with power and grandeur raise and elevate this glorious effulgence emerging red and white in majesty. While this Agni arises assuming a wondrous form, high-priests of brilliance and generous ambition rush to develop and adorn it as a new born baby.

शुकभिरङ्ग रज आततन्वान्कतुं पुनानः क्विभिः पवित्रः ।

5. Śukrebhiraṅgai raja ātatanvān kratum punānaḥ kavibhiḥ pavitraiḥ. Śocirvasānaḥ paryāyur-apān śriyo mimīte brhatīranūnāḥ.

Overspreading the vast spaces with beams of blazing heat and light, raising and sanctifying the holy programmes of yajnic development by poets and priests and visionary experts of purest mind and heart, clothed in purity and majesty, Agni as the brilliant yajaka goes round and round creating and showering great unbounded gifts of health, age and prosperity on all across the flow of life in the world of nature.

6. *Vavrājā sīmanadatīradabdhā divo yahvīravasānā

Agni, light of the universe, takes to and abides in the subtle unconsuming, pure unhurt streams, close together, open yet not exposed, flowing unbroken from the Light Divine. These seven streams of light and speech flow here, constant, ever young, together and they hold but one eternal meaning like a fetus in their unfathomable womb.

(The mantra applies to light and Vak, Speech, flowing in seven streams of the spectrum.)

7. Stīrṇā asya saṁhato viśvarūpā ghṛtasya yonau sravathe madhūnām. Asthuratra dhenavaḥ pinvamānā mahī dasmasya mātara samīcī.

Expansive yet covered, united yet universal and various are the gifts of this Agni abiding in the womb of the waters of life and abounding in the flow of the honey sweets of existence. The heaven and earth both one and together are the manifestive mothers of this lord of bliss and power.

8. Babhrāṇaḥ sūno sahaso vyadyaud dadhānaḥ śukrā rabhasā vapuṁṣi. Ścotanti dhārā madhuno ghṛtasya vṛṣā yatra vāvṛdhe kāvyena.

Agni, child of omnipotence, growing in power and generosity, bearing and wearing beautiful forms of versatility by virtue of passion and purity and the zeal of light and lustre you are ever expanding and advancing with equipoise. Wherever the honey streams of light and waters of life shower and flow, there the potent man of generosity grows in might and moves forward by the poetry of divinity created by poets of vision and imagination.

O Man, child of Manu, you too watch, follow and grow by the poetry of power and purity created by the poets of vision and imagination in honour of Agni.

9. Pituścidūdharjanuṣā viveda vyasya dhārā asṛjad vi dhenāḥ. Guha carantam sakhibhiḥ śivebhir-divo yadvībhirna guhā babhūva.

Agni, light and vitality of life, knows the creator's gift of life and life's home by its very nature from the very birth, and that home is the cloud, the mother's womb, the night's darkness and the mother's breast from where the streams of water, milk, speech and intelligence immediately flow. This Agni, living and growing in the cave of life, the mother's womb, moving with its blessed companions and with the streams of energy flowing from heaven, doesn't remain hidden in the cave. One who knows life moving as such knows the secret of life. One who doesn't doesn't.

10. Pituśca garbham janituśca babhre pūrvīreko adhayat pīpyānāḥ. Vṛṣṇe sapatnī śucaye sabandhū ubhe asmai manuṣye ni pāhi.

Agni, spirit and vitality of life, nurses the one life-embryo of both father and mother, and the one receives nourishment from the mother as well as from other universal sources of nature, abundant and swelling all since time immemorial. Heaven and earth, father and mother, both bound by nature to life in the embryo, bear, nurse and support it to continue. O Agni, lord of life, light of the world, protect and support both, father and mother, heaven and earth, for the sake of this virile and sacred humanity, for the continuance of this holy life, this sacred humanity in the embryo.

Agni, mighty spirit and vitality of life, grows in the lap of nature, vast and irresistible creative power of Divinity, where the streams of ancient waters flowing together feed it to bloom, expand and continue. Agni, the fire of life, lies in the womb of nature and her cosmic laws of evolution, assertive and inviolable yet subject to the laws, a darling of the karmic flow of the twin powers of heaven and earth, father and mother of the baby in the process of procreation.

Agni, like an unbreakable wall of a fort is the commander and defender of his mighty forces in the battles of life. Auspicious and blissful of sight he is self-refulgent and a simple and natural source of light for his children. Creator of the rays of light and knowledge, born of the womb of the currents of primordial energy, it manifests as the great sun and most human leader of humanity.

13. Apām garbham darśatamoṣadhīnām vanā jajāna subhagā virūpam. Devāsaścinmanasā saṁ hi jagmuḥ paniṣṭham jātam tavaśam duvasyan.

The vital fire and light energy abiding in the waters and pranic vitality creates the woods of herbs and trees, and the clusters of wood such as arani generate this fire which is beautiful to see, full of wealth and power and versatile in form. Scholars of heat and light energy, conscientiously with their heart and soul, study it practically and comprehensively. It is highly valuable, manifest everywhere and a tremendous source of power.

14. Bṛhanta id bhānavo bhārjīkamagniṁ sacanta vidyuto na śukrāḥ. Guheva vṛddham sadasi sve antarapāra ūrve amṛtaṁ duhānāḥ.

Resplendent rays of light as dazzling flashes of lightning serve and derive their power from Agni, simple and natural refulgent power. They milk the nectar of immortal light energy in the midst of vast spaces of earth and heaven in the same way in which the individual soul draws its light and joy from the Supreme Soul immanent in the cave of the heart in the individual body itself.

15. Īḷe ca tvā yajamāno havirbhirīḷe śakhitvaṁ sumatiṁ nikāmaḥ. Devairavo mimihi saṁ jaritre rakṣā ca no damyebhiranīkaiḥ.

As a dedicated devotee performing yajna, I praise, worship and pray to you, Agni, light of life, with the offer of fragrant materials. With honest mind and sincere desire, I worship you and pray for friendship and comradeship and for holy understanding and vision. Lord of light and power, bring shelter and protection for the celebrant alongwith devas, brilliancies of nature and humanity. Save us all with the inviolable glory of your light and lustre.

Agni, lord of light and life, noble leader pursuing right values in society, we are your devotees abiding by you, residing close to you. We hold and command all the wealth of food for sustenance and other materials. Virile we are and strong. We pray that in our battles of life we may defeat and win over our impious adversaries and enjoy a happy and pious life.

Agni, lord of the light of knowledge, noble scholar, you are brilliant among the leading lights, happy and rejoicing, master of all the poetry of divinity and humanity. Be like a restful shelter for common humanity. Self-confident and self-controlled, master of your chariot and freedom of movement, you go forward to your goal in association with noble scholars and in conformity with the powers of nature and the environment.

Immortal Agni, lord of light and ruler of the world, abides in the home of immortal humanity, guiding and directing their yajnic programmes to success. Fed with ghrta and rising high, he shines bright as far and wide as the earth. Agni, leader of the people, is lord of knowledge who knows the entire poetry of existence.

Agni, lord of knowledge and power, come to us with friendly acts of grace and benevolence. Lord of universal movement and freedom, mighty great, come with grand provisions of protection and promotion. Lead us to honour and success and render us our share of abundant wealth and power, mutual and ultimate peace and saving grace worthy of poetic celebration.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and creative power, these are your various and universal manifestations in action old and new. Great are these acts of power and grace for the bold and generous humanity in every manifestation of yours which, O power immanent and omnipresent, I sing and celebrate in honour of your excellence and which, O lord, be gracious to hear.

Jataveda, Agni, immanent and omnipresent in every particle of creation, is constantly and eternally lighted, served and celebrated by the sagely friends of the world. We pray that we too may ever abide in the kind and gracious heart and mind of the venerable lord worshipped in yajna and social gatherings and ever enjoy the benefit of his benevolence.

This yajna of ours, of celebration and worship, O lord of power and grandeur, send up unto nature's powers of Divinity, and establish among the generous and brilliant celebrities of humanity, wise lord of holy acts of creation and development as you are, generous and rejoicing in the holy yajnic performances of ours. Agni, lord yajaka of the universe yourself, you give abundantly to the devotees. Give us generously of great food and energy and of extensive wealth and knowledge of life.

Bless us with intelligent sons and grandsons specially to continue the family line. Agni, may your gifts of love and holy intelligence be showered on us.

Like refined and fortified ghrta offered in yajna to the fire of the vedi, we generate, refine and sharpen our courage and intelligence and compose hymns of praise in honour of Vaishvanara Agni, fiery ruler of the world and protector and promoter of the universal yajna of Truth and Law. And the people as well as the leading priest both join in developmental yajna and, with the application of intelligence and action, produce a refined version of the chariot and the thunderbolt and surrender it to Agni, divine high priest of the universal yajna of creation as a hymn of tribute and celebration.

That Agni, Vaishvanara, fiery life of the world, by nature, illuminates both earth and heaven and rises as the darling admirable favourite of his motherly generators. He is the carrier of the fragrances of yajna, unaging treasure of food, energy and universal wealth, indomitable, brilliant sun and most welcome visiting guest of the people.

3. Kratvā dakṣasya taruṣo vidharmaṇi devāso agniṁ janayanta cittibhiḥ. Rurucānaṁ bhānunā jyotiṣā mahāmatyaṁ na vājaṁ saniṣyannupa bruve.

With yajna, holy application of mind and will, and contribution with the spirit of yajna to the various dharmic programmes of the man of power and expertise, who is dedicated to the service of the divine saviour father, the creative pioneers of brilliance and generosity generate and develop Agni, heat and light energy, with organised planning and corporate action. And desiring to join this programme and have the benefit, I whisper and discuss, and invoke this Agni power shining with the light of the sun, great with its own light, and fast as the energy of nature itself.

To share and enjoy the beauty, ecstasy and magnificence of life, we choose what is worthy of choice: Agni, lord and power of light, boldly free and abundant, tempestuous power revealed by the Rks, excellent gift of the Bhrgus, generous and celestial artists and scientists far reaching in poetic imagination, wisdom and creation, loving, and radiant with the light of heaven.

For the attainment of peace and prosperity, people here since eternity have lighted the fire of Agni, rich in matter, mind and motion, lovely brilliant, radiant divine across the worlds, mighty just and corrective, leader of yajnic programmes to success and giver of karmic joy and satisfaction. Having collected the holy grass for the vedi and lighted the fire, they raise the ladle to feed the fire and open the secrets of the skies.

Agni, lord of light and fire, infinite giver, having collected the grass and sitting around the vedi in yajnas, the performers are but seekers of service and lasting peace and they pray for a haven under your dominion only. O lord and presiding power of yajna, bless them with the wealth and well-being of their heart's desire.

When people of yajnic karma take to this Agni for service, light up the fire, raise it and feed the rising power, then it fills the earth and skies and the vast and high heavens with light and fragrance of bliss. And thus this power and presence of Agni, lord of power and bliss, poetic omniscient, treasure home of food, energy and light, is extended far and wide across the universe for the speed and success of yajna, human acts of love, non-violence and creative self-sacrifice.

Creator of food for yajna and enjoyment, leader of yajna to success, supreme giver, knower of all that is born, omnipresent lord ever on the move, watching and superintending the universal operation of law and yajna, Agni is the foremost high-priest of the dynamics of Divinity working through the forces of nature.

Three are the flames of mighty Agni shining everywhere, beautiful are they and immortal, purging, purifying and sanctifying everything. One of these they, the immortal powers of Divinity, place in the world of the mortals for their sustenance: this one is the fire and magnetic energy. The other two, electric energy and light, they carry up above to the heights of the twins, sky and the region of light and place them there.

The oblations of fragrant food offered by yajnic people into the fire intensify and sharpen like razor's edge the catalytic and creative power of Agni, protector and promoter of the people and the imaginative visionary among them, for the refinement of their valour and brilliance. The same Agni as the fire and passion of virility goes up and down everywhere, inspires every heart and, in these worlds, bears the fetus in the womb of existence for continuance.

heights of heaven sung and celebrated by poets of faith and imagination. Creating as ever the wealth of life for living beings, the illustrious leader goes all round by the highways of existence ever awake, without a wink of sleep.

That Agni, Vaishvanara, universal fire of life, going by the ways of Truth and universal Law, venerable, intelligent, admirable, existing and operating in the lights of spaces, which is held and sustained by the universal Vayu energy, that same Agni, wonderful in movement and achievement, bright in flames, radiant with holy light, we love, admire and worship for the sake of latest success and well-being.

We invoke, admire, worship and pray with homage and oblations to that Agni which is pure and purifying, vigorous and lovely, brilliant as light of the sun, banner of heaven, established in beauty, rising as the dawn, shining on top of heaven, irresistible and impetuous lord of majesty. We follow this lord as a torch bearer over untrodden paths of infinity to the Sublime and the Divine.

To move forward on heavenly paths of progress on firm ground, the wise offer the best of jewels as offering in the service of Vaishvanara Agni, brilliant light and blazing fire pioneer of the world and leader of the most potent order. It is Agni alone, constant and immortal power, which honours and inspires the excellencies of nature and humanity so that the eternal order and laws of existence may not be vitiated.

Creative performer and consecrated leader of humanity, it beautifies and beatifies the wide world with rays of light. It is loved and honoured by the brilliancies of nature and humanity as the very treasure home of light and intelligence.

Pious scholars and wise yajakas praise and celebrate Agni as the symbol of yajnas and yajnic success of all creative and constructive programmes of life with their thoughts, devotion and acts of worship. They dedicate their holy chants and their holy acts to Agni and the yajamana realises his ambitions of success and well-being in it and through it.

Agni is the father, generator and promoter of yajnas. It is life breath of the wise and motive power of the stars and planets. It is the aerial car of the scholars and path to bliss for the celebrants. It pervades and energises heaven and earth in many forms and, as universal favourite and illuminative light of the imagination, it is sung and celebrated in worship by virtue of its own might and majesty.

Devas, mighty powers of nature, bear Agni, and holy yajakas light and establish it here: Agni that is beautiful as the golden orb of the moon, majestic in bearing, splendid in its own law and function, omnipresent in the world, abiding in the waters and breath of air, all penetrative, instantly and constantly moving, covered in its own rays of light and lustre, all sustaining, pure crystalline concentration of beauty and wealth of existence.

Agni goes on and ever in the world on the chariot of time conducting and expanding the yajna of existence by the powers of nature and pious human beings with their karma and intelligence executing its auspicious commands. It is tempestuous, self-controlled and all-controlling, driving off opposition, calumny and negative criticism.

Let us all shine with plenty to our heart's desires. Inspire our life and age to fullness and grandeur. O lord ever wakeful and watchful, you are the darling of the brilliant and the wise for veneration and worship and the lord of yajnic good works for the scholars.

and pray that with our acts and conduct in the home, sustained by him, we may honour and obey the rules and laws of his making in the land ruled and sustained by him in every way.

As you rise to manifestation, you fill up and pervade the regions of earth and heaven. Agni, by virtue of your own power and presence, you are the lord supreme of all the worlds.

Agni, lord of light and power, doing honour to both his parents and generators, rises and manifests, radiating and filling both earth and heaven with abundant light and expansive vitality.

Lord of brilliance and benevolence, you call the divine powers of nature and brilliant people to the yajna to meet and cooperate in creative and constructive action. 10. Vanaspate'va sṛjopa devānagnirhaviḥ śamitā sūdayāti. Sedu hotā satyataro yajāti yathā devānām janimāni veda.

O Vanaspati, O sun, lord of light and preserver of forests, release the lights of brilliance, let the showers of light, energy and freshness come close to us and the powers of nature. Agni is the giver of peace and ripeness. It matures to fullness the sacred materials of yajna. It truly is the yajaka and the clarion call. It is true and truer to the divine law and integrates with all objects of creation since it knows the origin and character of all the bountiful powers of nature and humanity.

Agni, lord of light and fire and knowledge, guide and leader, come to us bright and blazing at the speed of energy with Indra, lord of might, and the devas, divine virtues of spirit and character on the chariot powered by sun-rays. Stay firm on our holy seats unshaken like space. Let mother earth be blest with noble children of noble action. Let the bright scholars of immortal spirit, knowledge and action rejoice with holy chant of divine speech.

Mandala 3/Sukta 5

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

प॒त्य॒ग्निरु॒षस॑श्चकि॒ताना॑ बा॒धि वि॒पः प॒द्वीः क॒वीना॑म ।

1. Pratyagnirusasaścekitāno 'bodhi vipraḥ padaviḥ kavīnām. Prthupājā devayadbhiḥ samiddho 'pa dvārā tamaso vahnirāvaḥ.

Just as Agni, fire divine, light of the dawn, awakes, arises and awakens every morning, so does the man of knowledge, dynamic scholar, attaining to the positions of the men of light and vision, rise high and higher day by day and awaken the sleeping humanity.

Agni, mighty powerful, lighted and raised in the vedi by lovers of divinity, throws open the doors of light against darkness. So does the scholar, bearer and harbinger of the light of knowledge, dispel the darkness of ignorance and reveal the light of knowledge to a nation in slumber.

Just as the adorable Agni grows in heat, light and power by the chant of songs and celebration of the devotees and then this harbinger of light adorns the morning with the bright and beautiful light of the dawn, so does the sagely scholar, dedicated to the light of eternal truth, shine in the lovely light of Revelation as the messenger of light and life divine for the people.

3. Adhāyagnirmānuṣīṣu vikṣvapāṃ garbho mitra ṛtena sādhan. Ā haryato yajataḥ sānvasthāda-bhūdu vipro havyo maṭinām.

Agni, heat and light of life, concentration of the power of action, born of the waters of space and currents of cosmic energy, friendly saviour, leader and guide to success by the laws of Truth and flow of the will to live, is established in the heart of human communities. Bright and beautiful, loved and adored, it abides on top of values in human history. It is the sagely scholar and the dynamic leader worthy of homage and reverence for all intelligent people.

4. Mitro agnirbhavati yat samiddho mitro hotā varuṇo jātavedāḥ. Mitro adhvaryuriṣiro damūnā mitraḥ sindhūnāmuta parvatānām.

Agni rises as a friend when it is lighted and raised. As a yajaka conducting the yajna of evolution and development it is a friend. As the omniscient lord of existence and as presiding power of justice it is a friend. As the highpriest of the yajna of love and non-violence it is a friend, and as the power of inspiration and self-control it is a friend. And it is a friend as it flows with the rivers and rolls with the oceans. And finally it is a friend as it sits on top of mountains and sustains their steadiness.

5. Pāti priyaṁ ripa agraṁ padaṁ veḥ pāti yahvaścaraṇaṁ sūryasya. Pāti nābhā saptaśīrṣānamagniḥ pāti devānām-upamādam-ṛṣvaḥ.

Agni protects the friend and favourite, it protects the amplitude of the earth in orbit, and the flight of birds. Mighty powerful, it protects the rainbow colours of light in space and the orbit of the sun in the galaxy. Noble, elevated and sublime, it protects the pleasure and amusement of the noble people who are brilliant and generous.

6. *Ṛbhuścakra īḍyaṁ cāru nāma viśvāni devo

Mighty and versatile lord of light, omnipresent in all facts, motions and laws of the universe, Agni creates the soothing and adorable fluents such as speech and waters, and guards them all wholly, without reservation, and without let up. And whether it is manifest or latent it shines charming in form like the liquid flow of water or the rising flames of ghrta from the vedi.

Loving and brilliant Agni, as the eminent scholar, blazing pure and radiating fire, abides in the seat since birth itself, overflowing with ghrta and celestial waters, worthy of extensive songs of praise and celebration, loving and glorious, and constantly, again and again, renews, refreshes and reinforces its generators, loving parents, earth and sky.

8. Sadyo jāta oṣadhībhirvavakṣe yadī vardhanti prasvo ghr̥tena. Āpa iva pravatā śumbhamānā uruṣyadagniḥ pitrorupasthe.

As soon as Agni is born, it is borne and grows, in, with, and by, the herbs which, like nursing mothers, increase it and themselves grow bright and green with the waters and sunrays flowing down. Thus does Agni, flowing like streams of life's vitality, grow and evolve in the lap of its parents, earth and sky, the mother and the father, and thus does it preserve, protect and continue the onward flow of life.

Agni, mighty spirit of life, raised, praised and worshipped with holy food shines over heaven and earth raining in showers from heaven on the vedi of mother earth. Friend and saviour, adorable Agni breathes in and collects the vitality of life from nature's currents of energy and, as the very messenger of Divinity, brings the light and virtues of nature's bounties for the lover and performer of yajna.

Mighty Agni being the highest of luminaries, living, breathing, shining and abiding as the very breath of life in the middle regions of space, holds and sustains the heavenly regions of light and bliss with its blazing light and power, for the sake of the wise and brilliant scholars of science, art and technology. It abides in the heart of every soul and in the centre of every particle of matter and every wave of energy. I pray I may also light this power that brings all the fragrant bounties of life to its devotees.

Agni, refulgent lord of light and universal breath of life, give us that transcendent vision and wisdom, that divine speech and power of action which makes everything possible in life. Give us ample land, knowledge and earthly speech of the Divine Word, most blissful which brings success to the devotee dedicated to yajna so that an exceptional generation of children and grand children may rise in the community. Agni, lord of light, we pray, such may be your favour, such may be your benign eye and goodwill toward us.

Take up the ghṛtachi, the ladle of yajnic offering full of ghṛta bearing the fragrant materials to be offered into the fire of yajna as inputs, let it be potent and procreative, the abundant giver of holy reward moving in full gear and take the project forward.

O fire of cosmic yajna rising from the vedi, fill the heaven and earth with fragrance, fertility and prosperity. O yajaka, eliminate the weaknesses, exhaust the possibilities of excellence, and then retire and call it a day. And with the glory of heaven and majesty of the earth, the seven flames of fire with tongues of gold would speak for you in words loud and bold ringing across the spaces.

When the human communities in pursuit of the service and bounties of nature and the divinities of heaven and earth, worship Agni, pure, powerful and radiant in their state of abundance, prosperity and generosity, then heaven and earth, and the divinities and the yajakas consecrate and dedicate the high-priest of the yajnic commonwealth to the law of peace and self-sacrifice.

4. Mahāntsadhasthe dhruva ā niṣatto'ntardyāvā māhine haryamāṇaḥ. Āskre sapatnī ajare amṛkte sabardughe urugāyasya dhenū.

Agni, the high-priest of cosmic yajna, great and gracious, is happily and firmly established in his seat in the vast and joyous dominion between heaven and earth, which both, united and cooperative rivals, unaging and uninjured, yielding the nectar-milk of the world are his generous cows.

Agni, lord great and gracious, your laws and ordinances, your acts and self-discipline are greater than the greatest. By virtue of your creative and yajnic action the heaven and earth expand in glory and prosperity. Instantly on your rise you become the harbinger of peace, progress and happiness, messenger of bliss. Lord generous and potent, you are the guide and leader of the people of the world.

And to the steer of your chariot of the flow of existence and the Law, yoke the flaming currents of energy with the operative reins of centrifugal and centripetal forces of nature, blazing with light, and thus, O Jataveda, lord of light, knowing as you do all that is born and exists, bring in all the devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity together and make them participate in the yajnic programme of the world.

With these devas, come hither to us, Agni, Spirit of light and fire, knowledge and power and the ecstasy of life, come by one chariot or many. Exalted and omnipresent and expansive are your beams of light which transport your chariot over the quarters of space.

Bring along the thirty-three devas, divinities of nature and spirit, all bountiful, with all their virtues and attributes and rejoice in the beauty of life with us.

He is Agni, the cosmic sacrificer in whose honour and for whose exaltation the vast earth and high heaven sing in celebration and prayer at every yajnic programme of evolution and progress. Prime powers of the universe, both of them, like two yajna-vedis of the yajna of love and non-violence, stay and abide beautifully established in the cosmic order dedicated to truth and overflowing with vitality in the universal law of the lord himself manifested in the truth and law of eternal mother Prakṛti.

performer of yajna. Bless us with brave and heroic children and grand children. Bless us with the favour of your kindness and benevolence under your benign eye.

Seven penetrative currents of the golden fire of divine energy radiate carrying the seven streams of sound waves and fill their generative parents, all pervasive heaven and earth. Pervaded, the generators, heaven and earth, cooperate and, to keep on the fire and flow of the voice of cosmic yajna, they sustain the life and energy of the currents a long age without end for the devotee.

The waves of sound, eternal Vak, voice of omniscience, pervade the spaces. The currents of energy of the generous and omnipotent lord, Agni, are omnipresent. The lord alone pervades the celestial streams of energy and speech carrying the honey sweets of meaning and life's wealth. In this world of truth and eternal law, O lord protector of all life and light, Agni, one energy, like a cow or the earth, goes round and round in orbit doing homage to you.

And he of the blue back, the corona, multifarious of form and colour, sustains the various species of life and helps them to settle and enjoy themselves.

Radiant in the regions of light, illuminating and invigorating with its various powers, the sun operates in heaven and earth as in one united, integrated

The generous and powerful sagely performers, confident and untiring, facing the east, rejoice in the ritual and act in accordance with the laws and ordinances of the divinities of nature and humanity and the will of the lord of cosmic law.

Celebrating and speaking of the divine law of truth and nature, they say that the real version of law and truth is: know it, act it, this is It. And observing the law strictly in accordance with the dictates of law, rejoicing in the law, they shine in life, illuminating others too.

generation of youth and children, dynamic and potent, and may we ever enjoy, we pray, the favours of your love and benevolence, living under your benign eye.

2. Samiddhasya śrayamāṇaḥ purastād brahma vanvāno ajaram suvīram. Āre asmadamatim bādhamāna ucchrayasva mahate saubhagāya.

Vanaspati, lord of light and wealth of greenery and earth's fertility, staying firm forward and sharing the refreshing fragrance of the lighted fire, loving food and energy growth and exaltation of the spirit, keeping off vitiation of mind and intelligence far away from us, abide by us, we pray, constantly for the bliss of great good fortune and all round prosperity.

3. *Ucchrayasva vanaspate varṣman prthivyā adhi.

Guardian and protector of all round wealth of life, Vanaspati, generous giver of showers of rain and wealth of the world, abide by us, we pray, and stand guard high and firm on the earth, mapping, measuring, valuing noble intelligence, and bear and bring the light and lustre of life for the guardian and promoter of yajna.

4. Yuvā suvāsāḥ parivīta āgāt sa u śreyān bhavati jāyamānaḥ. Taṁ dhīrāsaḥ kavaya unnayanti svādhyo manasā devayantaḥ.

Let the young graduate come back home, decently robed, graceful, brilliant as the rising sun, auspicious, reborn through education as a scholar. Eminent and sagely scholars, creative minds of sublime imagination, highly learned, seekers of divinity with sincere mind and soul may continue to guide and lead the scholar onward.

5. Jāto jāyate sudinatve ahnāṁ samarya ā vidathe vardhamānaḥ. Punanti dhīrā apaso manīṣā devayā vipra udiyarti vācam.

The one who is born and then reborn in the holy light of auspicious days rises to eminence in the yajnic programmes and conscientious battles of practical life in action. Noble leading lights, wise and grave, veterans of action, with thought, reflection and meditation, purify and sanctify the vibrant scholar, and he rises and attains to the life and meaning of the holy Word with dedication to the pursuit of divinity among humanity.

6. Yān vo naro devayanto nimimyrvanaspate svadhitirvā tatakṣa. Te devāsaḥ svaravastasthivāṁsaḥ prajāvadasme didhiṣantu ratnam.

O leading lights of society, those pious people in pursuit of divine virtue who love you, honour and value you, and O Vanaspati, lord of light, those whom the shaping power of Divinity has refined with knowledge and culture, may all those magnificent scholars, self-luminous in their own words, balanced and firm in judgement and wisdom, blest with people and progeny, bear and bring the jewels of life for us.

7. Ye vṛkṇāso adhi kṣami nimitāso yatasrucaḥ. Te no vyantu vāryaṁ devatrā kṣetrasādhasaḥ.

Those who are exceptionally distinguished on the earth, masters of eternal and measured knowledge, devoted yajniks with the holy ladle upraised and successful in any field of knowledge and action — may those lovers of Divinity achieve and bring the most cherished wealth and values of life for us.

May the twelve Adityas, sun in the zodiacs, Rudras, ten pranic energies and the individual soul, and the eight Vasus, abodes and supports of life, heaven and earth, and the regions of the middle space, all wide and generous as earth, all divine powers of mother nature and agents of Divinity, protect and promote the yajna of life and raise our knowledge, practice and awareness of Dharma, love and non-violence.

9. Haṁsā iva śreṇiśo yatānāḥ śukrā vasānāḥ svaravo na āguḥ. Unnīyamānāḥ kavibhiḥ purastāddevā devānāmapi yanti pāthaḥ.

Just as hansa birds, pure white in beautiful plume, flying in line formation, singing and rejoicing, traverse the skies, so do the Devas, brilliant scholars and generous yajna performers raised and guided by poetic teachers since ancient times, working, singing and rejoicing together, bless us and go forward by the paths of divines.

Like the horns of animals they look good and beautiful, protective. Enjoying many good things of life, hearing hymns of adoration, performing yajna with singing priests in the assembly, may holy men and distinguished scholars protect us in the battles of life on the earth.

Vanaspati, lord of sunbeams and greenery of the earth, yajnic scholar, generous giver, just as a tree grows into a hundred shoots and branches and then to a thousand, so may you grow a hundred-fold, and let us grow too into a thousand shoots and branches. And may this divine thunderbolt of fire and lightning power help you to rise and grow manifold in grandeur and all round prosperity.

Mandala 3/Sukta 9

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

सखायस्त्वा ववृमह द्रवं मर्तास ऊतय । अपां नपातं सुभगं

1. Sakhāyastvā vavṛmahe devaṁ martāsa ūtaye. Apāṁ napataṁ subhagaṁ sudīditim supatūr-timanehasam.

Agni, lord of brilliance, friends we are, human, mortals all. We choose you as our guide and leader for the sake of protection and victory. You are immortal, imperishable in the flow of existence and the flux of karma, treasure home of good fortune, auspicious flame of inspiration, faster than light and free from sin and violence.

2. Kāyamāno vanā tvaṁ yanmātṛrajagannapaḥ. Na tat te agne pramṛṣe nivartanaṁ yad dūre sannihābhavaḥ.

Agni, lord and lover of light and knowledge, giver of light and knowledge, when you go to the waters, vibrant mother sources of light and energy, that going away is not to be endured, nor to be forgotten or neglected, because while you are away, you are still near at hand with your light. Hence I have the best that is worthy of love and value from you.

3. Ati tṛṣṭaṁ vavakṣithāthaiva sumanā asi. Pra-prāṇye yanti paryanya āsate yeṣāṁ sakhye asi śritaḥ.

The one who is very keen, thirsting for knowledge and other things of value, you speak to and bear across. Hence you are good at heart, happy and cheerful. Of those you sit with in a spirit of friendship, some go forward, others sit at peace and meditate. Yet others just sit still with you and do nothing else.

4. Īyivāṁsamati sridhaḥ śaśvatīrati saścataḥ. Anvīmavindan nicirāso adruho'psu simhamiva śritam.

Extremely patient, deeply dedicated to eternal energies, O seekers, working together without a trace of jealousy, find the fire and electric energy existing vibrantly in the currents of waters and winds and vapours in space hidden like a lion in the forest..

5. Sasṛvāṁsamiva tmanā'gnimitthā tirohitam. Enaṁ nayanmātariśvā parāvato devebhyo mathitam pari.

Active by its very nature but hidden, this Agni-energy is thus present in space. Matarishva, mighty currents of celestial and terrestrial wind from far around churn and bring this fire and electric energy to the brilliant and dedicated scholars for noble humanity.

That is your holy action, precious gift, O power of fire, which gratifies and advances humanity to maturity and the good life, and as even the animals in winter nights come and sit round the burning fire for relief from the cold, so do humans, O brilliant and fiery scholar, come to you and receive the light of knowledge and warmth of life against the cold and dark winter nights of ignorance.

And three are the times of your operation: day and light, night and cold, and twilights of the morning and evening. 2. *Agne trī te vājinā trī śadhassthā tistraste jihvā Agni, divine energy of the cosmos, three are your media: radiation, conduction and gravitation; three your seats: solar region, middle region and the earthly region (dyu loka, antariksha loka and prthivi loka); three your tongues: light, thunder and greenery; O power eternal, risen from the cosmic law of Rtam. Three are your forms: day, lightning and night, energised by nature; and three your sacred fuels: solar particles of energy, vapours and fertility of the earth. Agni, divine fire, protect and nourish our tongue and speech seriously without relent or reserve.

Note: The allegory of cosmic fire energy is beautifully explained in Chhandogya Upanishad 5, 4-8, and in Brhadaranyaka Upanishad 6, 9-13.

Swami Dayananda also interprets Agni as the sagely scholar whose three media of existence are jnana, gamana and prapti, i.e., knowledge, expression and movement, and attainment and acquisition. We might add in the same vein that his three seats of origin are the parental home of natural birth, the teacher's home of educational and cultural birth and the family home of professional birth. Of course, after retirement his life is lived in an open social and universal home of no dimensions and no boundaries.

Agni, lord immanent manifest in all that is born in existence, generous and divine power, brilliant spirit of knowledge and enlightenment, possessing nectar foods and energies of life, immortal soul, countless are your names and attributes. O lord omnipresent in the universe, giver of the karmic dispensation of jivatmas, whatever the generations of living beings old or new, whatever the power and potential of these generations, all that is vested and neatly nestled in you.

Agni is the leader and mover, like the sun, of the living beings and the planets such as the earth and other regions of the universe. He is the lord of all divine powers and forms of existence. He is the ordainer and sustainer of the cycle of the seasons, and the creator, controller and sustainer of the laws of nature, truth and rectitude. He is the destroyer of darkness, ignorance and evil and eternal omniscient lord of existence. May the lord purge the celebrant worshipper of all the dirt of thought and action of the material world.

I invoke, celebrate and pray to the Lord for the light, wealth and honour of the world.

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

अस्तीदमधिमन्थनमस्ति पजननं कृतम् ।

एतां विश्वत्नीमा भराग्निं मन्थाम पूवथा ॥ १ ॥

1. Astīdamadhimanthanamasti prajananaṁ kṛtam.
Etāṁ viśpatnīmā bharāgniṁ manthāma pūrvathā.

This is the arani-wood, churner of fire. This is the act of churning. And this is the fire generated. Hold on this apparatus of fire generation, sustainer of humanity, so that we may produce the fire as ever before.

अरण्यानिहिता जातवदा गभइव सुधिता गभिणीषु ।

दिवदिव इड्या जागृवद्भिह्विष्मद्भिमनुष्यभिरग्निः ॥ २ ॥

2. Aranyornihito jātavedā garbha iva sudhito garbhīṇīṣu. Divediva īḍyo jāgrvadbhir-haviṣma-dbhīr-manuṣyebhiragniḥ.

Agni, immanent in everything in existence, it is hidden in the two arani woods (the lower base and the upper churner), like the embryo neatly nestled in the womb of pregnant mothers. Agni is worthy of love and reverence, and it ought to be generated by people who are alert and awake and possess the right inputs and apparatuses in plenty.

उत्तानायामव भर चिकित्वान्त्सद्यः पवीता वृषणं जजान ।

3. Uttānāyāmava bharā cikitvān tsadyaḥ pravītā vṛṣaṇam jajāna. Aruṣastūpo ruśadasya pāja iālāyāspuṭro vayune'janiṣṭa.

O man of knowledge, specialist of fire and energy, put the upper arani on the lower properly positioned, churn, and, through friction, the lower one would produce the bright flame, current of energy, like a column of light. Mighty is its force and speed, which, like the child of earth and knowledge, takes birth and comes to life in the dark recesses of the earth mother's womb and rises in the knowledge of man and human yajna.

इळायास्त्वा पद वयं नाभा पृथिव्या अधि ।

4. Iḷāyāstvā pade vyaṁ nābhā pṛthivyā adhi. Jātavedo ni dhīmahyagne havyāya voḷahave.

Agni, immanent fire energy, we place you and light you in the vedi on the floor of the earth in order that our oblations into the fire of yajna be carried across the globe and into the midst of the sky.

मन्थता नरः क्विमद्वयन्तं पचतसममृतं सुपतीकम् ।

5. Manthatā narah kavimadvayantaṁ pracetasam-amṛtaṁ supratīkam. Yajñasya ketuṁ pratha-maṁ purastādagniṁ nara janayatā suśevam.

All ye leaders of humanity, explore and research into Agni full of latent possibilities of life, unique power, profusely revealing, indestructible, beautiful of form, lighthouse of yajnic production and immensely useful. O pioneers of science and fire power, generate this prime energy as your first priority of research and development.

6. Yadī manthanti bāhubhirvi rocate'svo na vājya-ruṣo vaneṣvā. Citro na yāmannaśvinoranivṛtaḥ pari vṛṇaktyaśmanastrṇā dahan.

When the yajakas churn the arani woods with their arms to produce Agni, it rises like a potent force and shines in flames, radiant as in the light waves of the sun and moon in circuitous motion, incessant and wondrous beautiful, and it burns the grass all round on earth, dislodges the stones on mountains and breaks the clouds in the sky.

7. Jāto agnī rocate cekitāno vājī vipraḥ kaviśastah sudānuḥ. Yaṁ devāsa īḍyaṁ viśvavidam havya-vāham-adadhur-adhvareṣu.

Arisen, Agni shines, warm and soothing and beautiful as flames of fire, illuminating as light, energy and strong horse power, travelling, reaching vibrant, sensitive and even bearing intelligence, rich with lovely gifts, sung and celebrated by wise visionaries: which sacred and universal power, carrier and creator of life's fragrance, brilliant people serve, create and use in yajnic programmes of love and non-violence for the general good.

8. Sīda hotaḥ sva u loke cikitvāntsādayā yajñam sukṛtasya yonau. Devāvīrdevān haviṣā yajāsyag-ne br̥had yajamāne vayo dhāḥ.

High priest of yajna, expert performer, be seated in your own place of performance. Set up and conduct the yajna in the house of the man of noble creative action. Agni, lord of light and fire and energy you are the protector and promoter of good and benevolent people and you serve the powers of nature. Create and bring abundant gifts of food and energy, good health and long age, and bless the yajamana.

9. Kṛṇota dhūmaṁ vṛṣaṇaṁ sakhāyo'sredhanta itana vājamaccha. Ayamagniḥ pṛtanāṣaṭ suvīro yena devāso asahanta dasyūn.

Friends, comrades of yajna, create the clouds of vapours and steam, laden with rain showers of wealth and fertility, immediately, unerringly, enthusiastically. Move forward and rise to the heights of strength, energy and power. This fire of yajna is the winner of battles, heroic, by which good people challenge and win over the forces of evil.

अयं त यानिऋत्विया यता जाता अराचथाः ।
तं जानाग्न आ सीदाथा ना वधया गिरः ॥ १० ॥

10. Ayam te yonirṛtviyo yato jāto arocathāḥ. Tam jānannagna ā sīdāthā na vardhayā girah.

Agni, master of knowledge, light and fire, and energy, this vedi, this fire, this arani wood, the deep dense earth, the laboratory, seat and source of energy, is your home and identity from where, according to the seasons, you arise and shine. Knowing that, come, sit on the vedi, and then let our hymns of divine adoration rise to the heights of heaven.

11. Tanūnapāducyate garbha āsuro narāśaṁso bhavati yad vijāyate. Mātariśvā yadamimīta mātari vātasya sargo abhavat sarīmaṇi.

When Agni is pervasive and immanent in space, it is called 'garbha', the foetus in the womb of space. When it pervades and energises the wind, it is called 'Narashansa' which rises as the object of admiration by the people. When it expands its power and presence in the sky, it is called 'matarishva', lying and breathing in the lap of the mother. And when it moves in fast motion, then it means 'the blowing of the storm'.

12. *Sunirmathā nirmathitaḥ sunidhā nihitaḥ kaviḥ.
Agne svadhvarā kṛṇu devān devayate yaja.*

Agni, brilliant light, fire and power, well produced with powerful tools and apparatuses, safely stored, well preserved in concentrations as in batteries, is a revolutionary illuminative power. O master of light and power of energy, Agni, develop and expand our yajnas of production and call up, advance, concentrate and conserve the wonderful powers of nature for the devotees of peace and progress.

Men of science and technology produce the immortal, imperishable and forceful motive power of Agni, and ten moving streams of water, ten fingers of the hands, moving forward in nimble work, all working together like ten sisters, welcome and advance this dynamic power for the good of humanity as it is produced.

14. Pra saptahotā sanakādarocata māturupasthe yadaśocadūdhani. Na ni miṣati suraṇo dive dive yadasurasya jaṭharādayāyata.

Served by seven priests and seven pranic energies, Agni arises from its eternal cause and shines bright and beautiful in the lap of its mother source, earth, wind and sky, and the solar region, illuminant in the dark night as well, proclaiming itself as the victor of battles day by day, day and night, without a wink of let up, since it is born of a powerful mother source, Vayu, eternal energy of existence.

15. Amitrāyudho marutāmiva prayāḥ prathamajā brahmaṇo viśvamid viduḥ. Dyumnavad brahma kuśikāsa erira eka-eko dame agniṁ samīdhire.

Those who, like the forward forces of the winds, fight against the enemies, who are first born favourites of the Lord, and highly ambitious, who light the fire in the home, each one of them, and who know the whole world of the Lord's creation : they are blest with the joy of wealth, power and honour in life.

O master of the science of yajna, in this corporate programme of yajnic creation being organised to-day, we elect you to the office of the highpriest and chief yajaka. Be firm herein, and let peace and Dharma prevail all round firmly, and O scholar of eminence, creating the soma joy of life, come, enjoy the pleasure yourself.

1. *Ichchanti tvā somyāsaḥ sakhāyaḥ sunvanti somam

Indra, lord of honour, power and glory, friends and lovers of soma, excellence and joy of life, crave your love and friendship. They distil the soma, the very essence of life's meaning and value, and command the honour and prosperity of living. They forbear the calumny, malignity and even the violence of society, for they know that none is wiser than you, nothing is of higher value than your love and friendship.

2. Na te dūre paramā cid rajāṁsyā tu pra yāhi harivo haribhyam. Sthirāya vṛṣṇe savanā kṛtemā yuktā grāvāṇaḥ samidhane agnau.

The farthest of spaces are not too far for you, O lord commander of the waves of super energy. Come by the circuit of the vibrations of light, instant carriers of yours. These yajnas are enacted for the lord omnipotent and omnificent on the move without motion, (being omnipresent, immanent and pervasive in every particle of matter, energy and thought). Come, the fire is kindled and blazing, the crush is ready for soma, and the clouds are laden with showers.

3. Indraḥ suśipro maghavā tarutro mahāvṛāta-stuvikūrmirṛghāvān. Yadugro dhā bādhito martyeṣu kvatyā te vṛṣabha vīryāṇi.

Indra, lord of honour and majesty, self-protected and strongly helmeted, abundant in wealth, saviour and pilot over the seas, commander of disciplined and committed soldiers, lord of instant action, destroyer of enemies, when opposed among mortals, you rise with blazing power and passion. O lord of valour and generosity, where are those acts and heroic powers of yours?

4. Tvaṁ hi śmā cyāvayannacyutānyeko vṛtrā carasi jighnamānaḥ. Tava dyāvāpṛthivī parvatāso'nu vratāya nimiteva tasthuḥ.

Indra, ruling lord of humanity, you roam around with dignity shaking and breaking firm and otherwise unshakable clouds, hoarders, strongholds of darkness and ignorance and other enemies of humanity all by yourself. The earth and heaven, clouds and mountains, all in measured movement devoutly committed to your law and discipline abide and act in obedience to your will.

5. Utābhaye puruhūta śravobhireko dr̥lhamavado vṛtrahā san. Ime cidindra rodasī apāre yat saṁ-gr̥bhṇā maghavan kāśirit te.

Also, O lord ruler of humanity and the world, Indra, invoked, invited and celebrated by many, in your glory, being free from fear, destroyer of demonic darkness and breaker of mountainous clouds all by yourself, whatever you firmly speak with your awful voice of thunder, and the way you hold and sustain these measureless earths and heavens, O lord of power and grandeur, is but a reflection of your majesty.

6. Pra sū ta indra pravatā haribhyām pra te vajraḥ pramṛṇannetu śatrūn. Jahi prañico anūcaḥ parāco viśvaṁ satyaṁ kṛṇuhi viṣṭamastu.

Indra, may your chariot going forward by the speed of winds and sunrays move on majestically. May your thunderbolt, destroying the enemies, shoot forward victorious. Destroy the opposition at the back, close at hand in secret, and upfront in action. Let truth reign in the world and let it prevail everywhere.

7. Yasmai dhāyuradadhā martyāyābhaktaṁ cid bhajate gehyaṁ saḥ. Bhadrā ta indra sumatir-ghṛtācī sahasradānā puruhūta rātiḥ.

Indra, lord of abundance, wealth and honour, the mortal man, for whom you hold and bring the gifts of life and grace he has never had so far, gets and enjoys all that as his homely blessings of everyday. O lord invoked, served and celebrated by all people of the world, blissful is your love and kindness, abundant and overflowing your generosity, thousandfold your charity.

8. Sahadānum puruhūta kṣiyantamahastamindra saṁ piṇak kuṇārum. Abhi vṛtraṁ vardhamānaṁ piyārum-apādam-indra tavaśa jaghantha.

Indra, lord of power, justice and majesty, universally invoked, served and celebrated, just as the sun, with its blaze, strikes the dark demon of the cloud, thundering, growing, flying with the winds, breaks it and crushes it into gladdening showers, so do you, with your power and justice, strike the dark hoarding demons of society coexisting camouflaged with the rich and liberal progressive people, vociferous, fattening, and scoffing at the poor, make them ineffective to grab with the hands and rush around robbing the innocent, break open the hoarded wealth and let it out in showers for the joy of general society.

9. Ni sāmāmiṣirāmindra bhūmiṁ mahīmapā-rāṁ sadane sasattha. Astabhnād dyāṁ vṛṣabho anta-rikṣam-arṣantvāpas-tvayeha prasūtāḥ.

Lord ruler of the world, seat yourself in the house of yajna on the dear green earth, abundant, peaceful, mighty and measureless. Indra, lord omnipotent and generous sustains the heavens of light and the middle regions of the skies. Let the waters created by you in heaven and skies reach here on the earth. O lord ruler, let the actions performed by you on the seat of yajna reach the skies and the heavens with the fragrance.

Indra, lord of the universe, omnipotent you are, destroyer of the enemies. You protect the cow stalls, the earth's orbit and the flow of speech, and the enemy, stricken with fear, retreats even before the blow of the thunderbolt is struck. You create safe and straight highways for the cows to move, for the earths and stars to revolve and for the Divine Speech to flow in the vibrations of nature and the mind of humanity so that songs of celebration arise and resound in space in homage to the Lord invoked and worshipped by the universe.

Indra, lord of light, riding the chariot of glory, all by himself fulfils with his lustre both heaven and earth together full of wealth. May you, O lord of valour and lustre, and our friends bring us from the skies food and energy and wealth of knowledge all in one.

The sun traverses and illuminates the directions of space day by day indicated and roused to activity by the rays of light but does not transgress them, and when it reaches a particular stage of the journey, it withdraws the light and releases the region to rest for the night. This too is a reflection of the power and glory of Indra, Lord Almighty.

When the night is on the way out, all the inmates of the living world love to see the great and glorious light of the dawn proclaiming the majesty of the rising sun, and, when the dawn arises, they realise the holiness and grace of Indra's infinite acts of omnipotence.

The moving world moves on bearing the great and glorious light of the lord and whatever mature and maturing vitality is held in the flowing streams of nature's matter and energy, and whatever delicious delicacies are treasured in the earth and in the cow's udders, all these Indra creates and holds therein for the sustenance of life in existence.

Indra, lord giver of light, knowledge and the beauty and prosperity of life, be firm, advance and grow higher and stronger. There are treasures on the way, highways and byways, impediments and obstructions. Enlighten and warn friends and admirers about these for the sake of yajnic living and advancement. There are people crafty, malignant, armed robbers, enemies and killers in ambush. Warn of these and protect the disciple.

Indra, lord of majesty, I hear the tumult of the covert enemies below. Strike on them the fieriest thunderbolt. Pluck them off from the root. Challenge and beat them down, destroy them, annihilate them, eliminate the demons.

Indra, lord of power and justice, sustainer of life and its progress, pluck off the evil from the root, break it at the middle, nip it in the bud and at every shoot, and, having cast the fiery thunderbolt upon the saboteurs of truth and justice, life and law of existence, destroy their hate and enmity to the farthest end of their reach.

May we, we pray, be sharers in the vast wealth and prosperity of the world and may the blessings of generations of man power and honour, prosperity and excellence shower upon us all under your leadership.

Indra, lord of wealth, honour and majesty, bring us the honour and excellence of prosperity full of light and wisdom. Let us abide and persevere in the abundance of your grace and kindness. Let our aspirations rise high and higher like the flames of yajna fire. O lord ordainer of the wealth of existence, ruler and protector of our hearth and home, let our aspirations and ambitions for total fulfilment be realised.

Let this prayer and aspiration be fulfilled in joy with the attainment of cows, lands and the light of words divine at the speed of light, and let it expand with the golden beauty of the moon and accomplishment of life's end and aim, a prayer and aspiration such as lovers of joy, intelligent celebrants, with the best of their wit and imagination, construct and compose in poetry and express in loud voice for you, lord Indra. They are carriers of the divine message as we are, waiting for fulfilment.

May knowledge of science and divinity, speed and power come to us peacefully as our share of good fortune. Lord of light and knowledge you are, virile and generous, commanding real strength, lord of power and prosperity, giver of lands and cows. Give us the light, give us the knowledge, let us awake into new life.

We invoke, sing and celebrate Indra, lord giver of light and wisdom, commander of honour and prosperity, highest guide and leader of humanity, in this battle of life. Instantly does he listen to our prayers, bright and blazing is he in the battles and contests of life for protection, killer where he must be, breaker of the clouds of darkness, ignorance and poverty, and he is the winner, collector and consolidator of the wealths of life. We invoke him for protection, progress and victory in our battles of life.

1. Śāsad vahnirduhiturnaptyam gād vidvān ṛtasya dīdhitim saparyan. Pitā yatra duhituḥ sekam-rñjantsam śagmyena manasā dadhanve.

Let the scholar dedicated to the cosmic law of solar radiation approach and study the morning rays of the sun, grand children of the sun, being children of the dawn which is the sun's daughter, and let him study the light and communicate the knowledge to his disciples — even to control and apply the light in practical use. And just as a father clothes and beautifies his grand child, the daughter's baby, and feels happy and proud at heart, so would the scholar augment the beauty and power of sun rays born of the sun, converting darkness into day light, and feel happy and proud.

The son does not set apart the patrimony for the son-in-law, he prepares the sister and accomplishes her with education, culture and presents for his wife, the mother of his children. The parents give birth to children, son and daughter, one for the filial rites and duties for themselves and family, the other as beneficiary of the sanctities and accomplishments.

3. Agnirjajñe juhvā rejamāno mahasputrāñ aruṣasya prayakṣe. Mahān garbho mayhā jātameṣām mahī pravṛddharyaśvasya yajñaiḥ.

Agni arises in flames of fire fed with the ladle of ghrta in the service of the sun in order to press forward the children, i.e., rays of the sun. Great is the offspring, i.e., the day, of this great power born of the refulgence of the rays, and great is the movement of the sun by virtue of the cosmic yajna.

4. Abhi jaitrīrasacanta sprdhānam mahi jyotistamaso nirajānan. Taṁ jānatīḥ pratyudāyannuṣāsaḥ patir-gavām-abhavad-eka indrah.

Victorious Maruts, currents of cosmic energy, join and serve the sun, fighting the forces of darkness, thereby manifesting the mighty light rising out of the night's darkness. Similarly, manifesting the sun rise, they serve the dawns in consequence. And Indra, lord self-refulgent, the sun, is the generator of the dawns and the rays of light which bring about the day.

5. Viṭlau satīrabhi dhīrā atṛndan prācāhinvan manasā sapta viprāḥ. Viśvāmavindan pathyā-mṛtasya prajānannittā namasā viveśa.

When the seven faculties of the mind and senses grow too strong and rigid in their natural carnality, then saints and sages of patience and courage, knowledge and wisdom, calling up their original strength of the spirit, control their senses, mind and intellect and recover their vision of the path to universal truth and the Divine Law. And the soul, with homage and humility, enters the cave of the heart and discovers the light of Indra, lord of the universe.

O lady of dynamic thought and action, assessor of the fast moving things of life, if you know the great but broken path of the mountain and have it repaired at once as carved by the ancients, if you know the breach of the cloud known to the ancients and bring it down in showers, if you realise the noble voice of the ancients' words of divinity and lead it forward, you would be the first in knowledge and advancement.

7. Agacchadu vipratamah sakhīyannasūdayat sukṛte garbhamadriḥ. Sasāna maryo yuvabhirmakhasyannathābhavadaṅgirāḥ sadyo arcan.

Let the man of knowledge and wisdom, inspired for action go forward with friends and comrades and break the cloud to bring down the held up showers of rain for the people of yajnic action. Let the man, himself desirous of yajna, share life and action with the youth and, always loving and respecting others, be one with them like the life-blood flowing in the nation's veins.

The man on top, friend and comrade of the nation, first among all, who knows the models, equals and adversaries existing from moment to moment, who knows everything that is born on earth, who removes drought and poverty, who rises higher step by step to the light of heaven, who loves friends and respects seniors, may, we pray, save us from calumny, malignity and ill-will.

Let those who carve a path to immortality for themselves sit on the holy seats of yajna with earnest desire and sincere mind offering hymns of praise and prayer to Indra. For sure, this yajna is their expansive seat of action by which, through observance of right conduct and self-sacrifice, they can try to realise their year round objective of spirituality over the months in succession.

Watching and realising their own selves they rejoice, tasting the sweets of light and life eternal. The voice of the ecstasy of these settled celebrants rises and shines across earth and heaven and they confirm their faith in the world of Indra's creation and install their faithful heroes on guard over earths and divine voices of love and faith.

He, Indra, destroyer of darkness, dispeller of ignorance and breaker of the cloud, with simultaneous creations, yajnic materials and yajnic processes of consumption and formation, creates the rays of light in the solar region, planets in the firmament and cows on earth. The wide earth, a very generous mother cow full of wealth, bearing precious ghrta, water and honey sweets of herbs distils the nectar foods and other delicious materials from nature for this Indra in the service of living beings.

Divine experts of cosmic action build for this father creator and ruler, Indra, a great home, bright and beautiful, illuminate it and proclaim it wide. Themselves sitting firm on the vedi, holding and supporting it as Prakṛti, nature's creative and sustaining force of cosmic gravity, they cast it up in orbit, measuring the force upward and the force of gravity.

O seeker and celebrant of Indra, nature and divinity, if in the act of exploration, your great intelligence and penetrative vision were to hold on to the ever expansive spirit of heaven and earth, in which the entire light, words and vision of existence, irreproachable and invincible, lie embedded for Indra, then that is the state of sovereignty in research and meditation.

O breaker of the cloud, dispeller of darkness and evil, all eternal powers and energies, divinely ordained, concentrate in you and emanate from you. O lord potent and universal protector, we offer our hymns of praise in your honour and pray for shelter under your protection. Give us the vision, give us the light, give us the knowledge.

Indra, lord refulgent, commanding knowledge and wisdom, brings for his devotees and friends vast field and opportunities for action, immense wealth of gold, knowledge and inspiration, movement and expansion. With men, leaders and the force of winds, he provides the light of the sun, beauty of the dawns, inspiration of the Divine Word, the passion of fire, and he creates the paths of progress for them.

And this lord omnipresent and infinite, fiery controller and guardian of human households, creates the waters and the world's golden wealth of materials, knowledge and culture and joy all together. And these waters, honey sweet and purifying, highly productive of food and wealth and joy, inspiring poets with their purest streams, thereby inspire and excite the people day and night for advancement.

(Swami Dayananda interprets 'Apah' metaphorically as intelligent, educated and cultured people of dynamic nature who inspire the nation with their knowledge and conduct.)

The green earth and the bright heaven, holding the wealth of existence, mutually sustained by the force and grandeur of the sun, go round in concord like the dark night and bright day going on and on in unison, both doing homage to the sun. The same force and grandeur, Indra, lustrous lord ruler of the world, your loving friends, going by the simple paths of truth and law, follow in order to collect the holy grass for cosmic yajna and avert untoward accidents and oppositions.

Come, take us on, moving, reaching, inspiring, with friendship, kindness and benevolence, and bless us with divine modes of protection and progress.

uncreative elements of society, and bear and bring us peace, prosperity and joy for the sake of victory and progress.

Indra, lord of the world, warrior of the chariot you are, protect us from violence, and at every step, at every moment, make us victors of lands and cows, sense-control and self-discipline with the voice divine.

maghava-nṛjīṣin vimucyā harī iha mādayasva.*

Indra, creator giver of honour, excellence and prosperity, creator, preserver and promoter of the soma success of life, accept and enjoy this soma drink of homage which is your delicious share of the mid-day session of our yajna of struggle and success in creative action. Breathe deeply, rest your limbs, relax your muscles, lord of wealth and connoisseur of the purest delicacies. Unharness your horses and enjoy yourself here on the vedi.

2. Gavāśiram manthinamindra śukraṁ pibā somam ratrimā te madāya. Brahmakṛtā mārutenā gaṇena sajoṣā rudraistr̥padā vṛṣasva.

Indra, destroyer of suffering and poverty, have a drink of this pure exhilarating soma, well churned, distilled and blended with milk and seasoned in sun. We offer it to you for your joy and exhilaration. Enjoy it to the full in the company of divine scholars and producers and refiners of gold, and scholars of the Rudra order. Drink and rejoice and be virile and generous as a cloud of showers.

3. Ye te śuṣmaṁ ye taviṣīmavardhannarcanta indra marutasta ojaḥ. Mādhyāndine savane vajrahasta pibā rudrebhiḥ saganah suśipra.

Indra, lord destroyer of evil, of impressive visor, holding the thunder-bolt in hand, those who augment your strength, your forces, and your lustre and valour, and those who admire and serve you to the degree of worship, are Maruts, heroes as tempestuous as the winds in storm. In the company of all these and with the Rudras who rout the wicked, drink the soma in the mid-day session of the national yajna of defence.

4. Ta innvasya madhumad vivipra indrasya śardho maruto ya āsan. Yebhirvṛtrasyeṣito vivedāmar-maṇo manyamānasya marma.

Indeed the Maruts stir the honey sweets of soma for Indra, lord ruler and commander of the world, and they, heroic brave like the winds of storm, are his force who rouse his passion against the evil. Stirred by these he knows and reaches the fatal core of Vrtra, the demon, who believes he is invulnerable.

5. Manuṣvadindra savanam juṣāṇaḥ pibā somam śasvate vīryāya. Sa ā vavṛtsva haryaśva yajñaiḥ saranyubhirapa arṇā sisarṣi.

Indra, lord giver of honour and glory, eager for yajnic action and fond of yajnic gifts of fragrant delicacies, come like a man of thought and meditation, join our yajna and have a drink of soma for lasting strength and inspiration. You move the vapours and waters to the skies by performance of yajna and currents of wind and rays of the sun. As such, O rider of the horses of light and waves of energy, turn round and come to enjoy the fragrances.

6. Tvamapo yaddha vṛtram jaghanvāñ atyāñ iva prāsrjah sartavājau. Śayānamindra caratā vadhena vavrivāmsam pari devīradevam.

Indra, when with the wielded weapon of the thunderbolt in battle, you destroy Vrtra, demonic cloud of darkness lying asleep in stolid state, covering and with-holding the blissful waters of vital rain showers, you release the waters of life and joy to flow, and the streams rush forth in freedom like horses released from the stables.

7. *Yajāma innamasā vṛddhamindram bṛhantamṛ-

We love, join and worship Indra, lord of glory and majesty, with homage and holy food: Indra, lord most ancient beyond calculation, great and sublime, unaging and ever youthful, the bounds of which Lord worthiest of reverence in yajna, no near and dear heaven and earth ever measure, nor can they ever measure or contain.

8. *Indrasya karma sukṛtā purūṇi vratāni devā na

Indra, Lord Almighty, His acts, innumerable gifts and graces, and His laws, none among the noblest humanity do ever violate, nor the mightiest powers of nature ever transgress: Indra, lord of generosity and holiest action, who sustains this earth and heaven, and creates the sun and the dawn and the day.

9. Adrogha satyam tava tanmahitvam sadyo yajjāto apibo ha somam. Na dyāva indra tavasasta ojonāhā na māsāḥ śarado varanta.

Indra, lord of love free from jealousy, negativity, discrimination or hypocrisy, ever true, inviolable and eternal is that greatness and glory of yours, that sun which, as it arises, drinks up the soma of nature to recreate, augment and return it to nature. Neither the heavens of light, nor days, nor months, nor seasons, nor years can evade or prevent or exceed or transgress the might and majesty of yours, omnipotent as you are.

10. Tvam sadyo apibo jāta indra madāya somam parame vyoman. Yaddha dyāvāprthivī āviveśī-rathābhavaḥ pūrvyaḥ kārudhāyāḥ.

Indra, mighty lord of light and senses and mind, as soon as you arise and manifest, you drink up the soma vitalities of the holiest regions of life and nature for pleasure and growth, since then, you pervade the heaven and earth and then you grow to be the maker and sustainer of the artists of beauty and singers of divinity.

11. *Ahannahim pariśayānamarṇa ojāyāmānaṁ

Indra, potent lord of light universally manifest in existence and supremely generous, you break up the serpentine cloud of darkness waxing and overshadowing the oceans of air and vapours in the firmament and cover the earth with rain and light. Even the region of light cannot equal and contain your might because (while you strike the cover of darkness with the thunderbolt in one hand) with the other you hold and sustain the earth.

12. *Yajño hi ta indra vardhano bhūduta priyaḥ

Indra, ruler of the world and giver of honour and excellence, your yajnic action, social and generous programme, is the mode of progress and promotion: It creates joy and prosperity, eliminates poverty and suffering, and promotes love and social cohesion. Be the leader of yajna, protect and promote yajna by yajna, and let your yajna protect and promote your thunder-arm in breaking the cloud of darkness for the rain showers of prosperity and joy in plenty.

13. Yajñenendramavasā cakre arvāgainaṁ sumnāya navyase vavṛtyām. Yaḥ stomebhir-vāvṛdhe pūrvyebhiryo madhyamebhiruta nūtanebhiḥ.

The person who creates honour and excellence, peace and prosperity for humanity by yajna, creative action of the corporate community and promotes it by protection, preservation and further yajnic action, who rises by the appreciation and praise of the seniors, cooperation of the middle classes and the hopes, aspirations and dreams of the new generation, to such a person let me turn as front leader, as Indra, ruler and law-giver for humanity.

14. Viveṣa yanmā dhiṣaṇā jajāna stavai purā pāryādindramahnaḥ. Añhaso yatra pīparad yathā no nāveva yāntamubhaye havante.

When thought is stirred and words arise in me in praise of Indra before the end of the day with gratitude how he would take us over across the world of sin and evil, then people too on both sides of the flood call upon him as captain of the ship on the move to take them over the seas to the shores of life beyond.

15. Āpūrṇo asya kalaśaḥ svāhā sekteva kośam sisice pibadhyai. Samu priyā āvavṛtran madāya prada-kṣiṇidabhi somāsa indram.

Full to the brim is the cup of life for Indra to drink, filled with the best of thought, perception and action, like the dense cloud of vapours poured in by the sun. Dear friends and admirers, lovers of the soma-joy of life, come close and stand round Indra in homage to join and celebrate the Lord's gift of life.

Indra, mighty lord of light as the sun, invoked by one and all, neither the deep sea nor the dense clouds nor the high mountains all round can contain or hold you back when inspired by friends for friends you strike and break the formidable cloud, impenetrable except for the thunderbolt.

For protection, victory and well-being, in this battle of life, we invoke Indra, auspicious lord of power and prosperity, highest leader, careful listener, fierce fighter, destroyer of enemies, and winner of wealths.

Mandala 3/Sukta 33

Nadis, Streams, Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

प पर्वतानामु॒श॒ती उ॒प॒स्था॒द॒श्व॒इव॒ वि॒षि॒त॒ हा॒स॒मा॒न ।

गा॒र्वव॒ शु॒भ मा॒तरा॑ रि॒हा॒ण वि॒पाट॑ छु॒तु॒दी प॒य॒सा ज॒वत॑ ॥ १ ॥

1. Pra parvatānāmuśatī upasthādaśve iva viṣite hāsamāne. Gāveva śubhre mātara rihāṇe vipāṭ-chutudrī payasā javete.

From the lap of mountains, arising brilliant and passionate like the dawn, laughing and sparkling, and bolting like a horse and mare, like two beautiful mother cows yearning to meet their calves, two streams, one expansive and divided (vipat), the other deep and concentrated, fast and overflowing the banks (shutudri), flow in unison rapidly to meet the sea with their water.

Note: Swami Dayananda interprets this mantra as a metaphor of two brilliant women teachers issuing forth from a mighty source of learning and going to meet their disciples. He does not accept the interpretation that Vipat and Shutudri refer to two particular streams of these names. He does not accept the historical comparative method of Vedic interpretation which says that these mantras were composed on the banks of Vipat and Shutudri streams. On the contrary, he says that the words of the Veda should be interpreted etymologically as translated above.

Why these names in the Veda then? That's the question. Swamiji says that words of the Veda are independent of history and geography. Particulars names in history such as Rama, Krishna, and others, for example, and names in geography such as Vipat and Shutudri and Ganga were taken from the Veda and not vice versa. There is no history nor geography of persons and places in the Veda. All such words, which appear to be name-words, should be interpreted etymologically, that's the scientific method, just like the technical terms of science which are structured and interpreted etymologically.

2. Indreṣite prasavaṁ bhikṣamāṇe acchā samudraṁ rathyeva yāthaḥ. Samārāṇe ūrmibhiḥ pinvamāṇe anyā vāmanyāmapyeti śubhre.

Moved and inspired by Indra, lord of light and rain, sharing and receiving the impulse to grow, you flow with crystalline waters, like beautiful chariot mares, towards the sea. Meeting and growing together with rising waves, feeding the environs, brilliant and graceful, each of you meets and augments the other.

(The metaphor of learned women, meeting, cooperating and beautifying the life around with education and the graces of culture continues to apply.)

3. *Acchā sindhum mātṛtamāmayāsaṁ vipāśam-

I go to the river, I go to the sea, dearest mother generator and receiver of the rivers.

We go to the river, free, wide and auspicious.

The streams flow to the sea like mother cows hastening to the stalls to meet the calf, loving and caressing, reaching together in equal love and joy living together in one home.

4. *Enā vyaṁ payasā pinvamānā anu yonim devakṛtaṁ carantīḥ. Na vartave prasavaḥ sargataktah

We rivers rising with water and fertilizing the land move on by the same course appointed by the divine maker, never relenting in the flow, our birth itself and flow is never meant to stop.

(The mantra refers to the stream of life, continuance of the race, the family and the tradition of education and culture.)

5. *Ramadhvaṁ me vacase somyāya ṛtavarīrupa

Bide a while, listen, pray consider and enjoy my word of peace, prayer and beauty. Relax, why rush on like a storm to the bottom mysterious deep. Son and disciple of a self-realised soul, I invoke and call upon the river and the sea from the core of my heart and mind, I need the vision and the protection.

(The mantra points to the irresistible flow of existence and the soul's cry for a moment's vision of constancy against the flux of mutability.)

6. Indro asmāñ aradad vajrabāhurapāhan vṛtram paridhiṁ nadīnām. Devó'nayat savitā supāṇi-stasya vayam prasave yāma urvīḥ.

Indra, lord of thunder, carved for us the paths we follow when he broke the ocean of dark energy in which the streams of existence lay confined. Into those channels the lord creator, Savita, cosmic sun of omnipotent arm, made us flow. In his channels we flow on and on, wide and deep, without rest.

(Mutability does not stop. The flux goes on and on, but you can stop the flow of your experience of the flow.)

7. Pravācyam śaśvadhā vīryam tadindrasya karma yadahim vivṛścat. Vi vajreṇa pariṣado jaghānā 'yannāpo'yanamicchamānāḥ.

That omnipotence of Indra, that cosmic act by which he breaks the dark energy of the state of annihilation (Pralaya) is worthy of song and celebration. With his voice of thunder he breaks the silence of the inert forces of Prakṛti, and the waves and waters of cosmic energy flow into existence, in-vested with the divine will.

O sister streams of existence in cosmic flow, powers of dynamic action, listen to the prayer and exhortations of the artist maker and poet. He has come to you from afar by a fast moving chariot. Lower your depth and turbulence, flow below the axle of his chariot wheels, bow to him, and help him to cross the flood.

O poet artist and maker, we listen to your words, you come from afar with a cart and chariot, and we greet you with salutations eagerly as a woman overflowing with love meets her child, and a maiden meets her lover with embraces.

O dear streams of water and national economy, as the producers and managers of the nation may cross and manage you with your consent, so may the people of the settlement too, desirous of crossing you, when impassioned and inspired by Indra, ruling light of the world, cross and manage the waters. And then, for sure, may the flood rush on. O managers and planners of the nation's yajna, worthy of love and reverence, I admire and pray for the vision and wisdom and the good-will of friends and creators like you.

May the producers, managers and rulers seeking and developing lands, and cows, and animal husbandry manage water resources. Let the intellectuals study and share the secret of river power. O people of the land, develop the rich and productive streams and rivers and fill the fields and canals with water for irrigation. Come all, go far, be quick and effective.

May the streams, fast, wide and free, never destructive but blissful, unhurt, protected and developed, auspicious as a boon, bring us peace, prosperity and joy. (Life is a flow, inspiring, energising, sanctifying. Manage it, develop it, live it as a divine gift.)

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

इन्द्रः पूभिदातिरद्दासमकविदद्वसुदयमाना वि शत्रून ।

1. *Indraḥ pūrbhidātirad dāsamarkairvidad vasur-

Indra, lord ruler of the world, overcomes the hostile forces with light and thought and the power of persuasion. He opens and expands the cities bound in the dark and, abundant and charitable as he is, relieves and rehabilitates the helpless poor. Inspired by divinity and universal vision, rising and expanding in body and mind with plenty and prosperity, merciful and freely giving, he fills both heaven and earth with light and joy.

Indra, lord of life and giver of light, I arise and receive the inspiration of the power and generosity of your yajna, glorifying the divine voice for the sake of immortality. Lord of power and ruler of the world, you are the leader and pioneer of the nations of the world, ordinary people, specialized groups and exceptional people of brilliance and generosity.

Indra, heroic warrior of exploits, master of tactics, overwhelms the demon of darkness and, passionate for action, counters the magical moves of the crafty enemies and overthrows the crippled monster. Thus does he set free the cows confined in the forests, voices suppressed in silence, and the streams of water locked up in the cloud and sunrays.

Indra, lord of the showers of joy, reveals and brightens the days, fights the battles alongwith his commandos, and comes out victorious. May he then unfurl the flag of the day's light and victory and win the light for the mighty battle of life as a whole in the flow of existence.

5. Indrastujo barhaṇā ā viveśa nṛvad dadhāno naryā purūṇi. Acetayad dhiya imā jaritre preman varṇamatiracchukramāsām.

Indra, like a manly hero, commanding overwhelming the forces of battle, blazing with the mighty thunderbolt, breaks through the thick of enemy lines. He enlightens these thoughts and minds for the celebrant and augments this pure and unsullied light of these within.

Many great and good acts of this mighty Indra, ruler and warrior, are worthy of admiration. Lord of might and splendour, hero of victory, he crushes the guiles and evils of the wicked with his strength, and eliminates the thieves and robbers of society by the force of his tactics and intelligence.

7. Yudhendro mahnā varivaścakāra devebhyaḥ satpatiścārṣaniprāḥ. Vivasvataḥ sadane asya tāni viprā ukthebhiḥ kavayo grṇanti.

Indra, lover and favourite of humanity, protector and promoter of truth, reality and the good people, with his fight and force of strength and intelligence does great good deeds for the noble powers of nature and humanity. And those great exploits of his, brilliant poets and scholars celebrate with their songs of homage, the waves and echoes of which rise and resound in the house of the sun.

Indra, O lord united with friends and devotees by continuous modes of protection, who rise by admirable acts of promotive generosity and advance in honour and reputation by greater and higher actions in one yajna after another, accept this praise and prayer for the gifts of success and acquisitions of value.

Indra, the somas, essences of energy and enlightenment, are distilled from the heavens by enlightened people for advancement of the honour and excellence of life, by which Rbhu, master of intelligence and expertise in social affairs, grows strong in every aspect of development and destroys the evil which must be destroyed.

Indra, lord ruler, drink of this powerful, inspiring, elevating vitality of strength and enlightenment, and hold and govern the elements under control for the protection, promotion and advancement of honour and excellence.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, drink of the soma and grow in honour and power. For sure, the somas distilled earlier as well as these new ones distilled today are yours. As you drank of the earlier ones, so drink the new ones today and protect the honour and excellence of life, admirable leader as you are.

Great, master of knowledge and power, overwhelming in the battle of life and lord of terrible splendour, Indra possesses and commands formidable prowess and heroism. Even the whole humanity on earth does not comprehend the grandeur of this wondrous power commanding the winds whom the creators of soma, light of the sun, beauty of the moon and fragrances of yajna inspire and enlighten.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, is great, illustrious, generous and gracious giver of honour and excellence of prosperity. He rises to valorous and virtuous action and achieves every success by the word and vision of Divinity. His lands, cows and lights of knowledge are creative and profuse, and his gifts are always blissful more and ever more.

Just as rivers originate and pursue their course to the sea, and as vapours rise to the firmament like chariots going by highways to their destination, so does soma mixed with milk and seasoned in sunlight offered in homage to Indra, supreme power of earth and heaven, inspires, and Indra sits over the assembly as first and presiding power, cream of the nation, bright as sunrays.

Just as rivers join the sea bearing distilled soma from the essences of nature for Indra, lord of the world, so do the performers of yajna, men of generous hands, joining the scholars of oceanic depth of learning, distil the soma vitalities of nature and, with hands full of fragrant offerings, sanctify the honey sweets of life with streams of pure and holy showers of piety for honour and glory.

Like lakes and mountain valleys are the generous treasure holds of the bearers of soma. Many are the yajnic processes of the creation and reinforcement of the soma nectars. Indra, lord of knowledge and brilliance, when he creates the first foods and nourishments for life and tastes and approves of these, then he, breaker of the clouds, selects soma as the first and most invigorating power.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence of prosperity, lover of purity and excellence of naturalness, ruler and protector of the world, give us abundance of the wealth of universal character and value. O lord of grandeur and handsomeness, bear and bring for us a full life of hundred years, and bless us with an unbroken line of brave progeny.

All the visionary sages realise and celebrate the one lord supreme, robed in his own glory, who pervades the world of existence. Great and glorious are his names and attributes: self-refulgent, omniform, generous and potent, life of life, who sustains the immortals of existence.

santi pūrvīḥ. Divo napātā vidathasya dhībhiḥ

Indra, first and eternal lord, supreme, generous and omnipotent, creates these forms of existence. These ancient forms of this world are life-inspired and life-giving. Two immortal powers, both ruling and brilliant, Indra and Varuna, Spirit and Energy, ruler and people, with their will and action from the light of heaven hold and sustain the divine yajnic order of nature and humanity and promote the light of knowledge.

6. *Trīṇi rājānā vidathe purūṇi pari viśvāni bhū-

O brilliant powers of divinity, Indra and Varuna, spirit and energy, ruler and the people, both of you sustain and adorn the three houses of the social order: Executive, Legislature, and Education (Rajarya Sabha, Dharmarya Sabha and Vidyarya Sabha), and you maintain all the various ancient values, forms and institutions of the society. Moving with thought and imagination here itself, I have seen the gandharvas, leaders gifted with speech and ideas flying on the wings of the winds, committed to the sanctity of duty in the holy social order of yajna, serving and sustaining the earth and her environment.

7. *Tadinnvasya vṛṣabhasya dhenorā nāmabhir-

Sages of vision and imagination measure and describe the nature, character and forms of the earth by the speech and words of this divine and generous Indra, lord of light and knowledge and speech. And these sages and poets, wondrous makers of forms in words and materials, watching the light and energy of divinity in different earthly forms, recreate and re-enact the forms in this social order on this earth.

No one can deny nor destroy the light and beauty of the golden gifts of this lord Savita, creator of this beautiful world, or of my recreation of it in word or material or institutional form. Whoever takes to it for support or sustenance wins the showers of universal joy from all pervading heaven and earth just as a young mother receives the pleasure and bliss of the birth of her baby.

Both of you, Indra and Varuna, Spirit and energy, power and justice, ruler and people, bring us straight that great and celestial gift of joy and well being which is the gift of tradition and eternity. May that great and heavenly joy be ours from all sides. Wonderful artists of word and form see and realise all the creations of the constant lord of infinite forms who is the protector of eternal speech and divine consciousness.

We invoke Indra, lord of power and majesty for protection and victory in this battle of life. Auspicious is he and blissful, and the best among men and leaders, for the achievement of food, energy and advancement of body, mind and soul for the individual and the nation. He listens. He rises lustrous and blazing at the call for defence and victory, destroys the demons of darkness, violence and poverty in the strifes, breaks the clouds of rain showers and collects the trophies of excellence and glory for his people.

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

इन्द्रं मतिहृद आ वच्यमाना च्छ पतिं स्तामतष्टा जिगाति ।
 या जागृविविदथ शस्यमानन्द यत्त जायत विद्धि तस्य ॥ १ ॥

1. Indram matirhṛda ā vacyamānā'cchā patim stomataṣṭā jigāti. Yā jāgrvivridathe śasyamāne-ndra yat te jāyate viddhi tasya.

The song that arises from the heart, which is composed and sung in honour of Indra, father protector and sustainer of the world, reaches him well and directly. Indra, lord of power, love and majesty, accept that song of adoration raised in full consciousness, inspiring in the yajna of life and knowledge, and know it is the song of a devotee.

Indra, O worshipful soul, know the nature, character and actions of the Lord Supreme by this song.

दिवश्चिदा पूव्या जायमाना वि जागृविविदथ शस्यमाना ।
भद्रा वस्त्राण्यजुना वसाना सयमस्म सनजा पित्र्या
धीः ॥ २ ॥

2. Divaścidā pūrvyā jāyamānā vi jāgrvirvidathe śasyamānā. Bhadrā vastrāṇyajarjunā vasānā seyamasme sanajā pitryā dhīḥ.

Coming from the light of Divinity, ancient and eternal, ever rising, ever wakeful and awakening the mind and soul into divine awareness, celebrated in yajna and the sacred ways of life, blessed and blissful, like the dawn, adorned in the purest garb of immaculate words and verses, coexistent with Divine consciousness and abiding with fatherly sages, may that holy light of the Vedic Word be ours.

यमा चिदत्र यमसूरसूत जिह्वाया अगं पतदा ह्यस्थीत ।
वपूंषि जाता मिथुना संचत तमाहना तपुषा बुध्न एता ॥ ३ ॥

3. Yamā cidatra yamasūrasūta jihvāyā agraṁ patadā hyasthāt. Vapūṁṣi jātā mithunā sacete tamohanā tapuṣo budhna etā.

Just as cosmic energy creates the twin lights of the sun and moon, and just as the sun radiates the circuit of light energy that creates the Ashvins, which then bring forth the dawn, which inspires the tip of the tongue in adoration, and the twin flow of light currents dispelling darkness serves to reveal the objects of the world, so does Indra, lord omniscient create the twins of Revelation, word and meaning of the Vedic speech, which both activate the tip of the tongue in spontaneous articulation and stay there. They both together, dispelling the darkness of ignorance in the light of knowledge, stay, serve the world of created objects and stay there in the memory.

4. Nakireṣāṃ ninditā matryeṣu ye asmākaṃ pitaro goṣu yodhāḥ. Indra eṣāṃ dṛmhitā māhināvā-nud gotrāṇi sasṛje daṃsanāvān.

None among living humanity is reviler and maligner of those who are our ancestors, parents and teachers, who are veterans, warriors, in the battles of speech, knowledge and wisdom. Indra, lord of majesty, power and generosity, hero of divine actions, strengthens them with firmness of will and action and creates fortifications for their traditions, institutions and familial lines.

5. Sakhā ha yatra sakhibhirnavagvairabhijñvā satvabhirgā anugman. Satyaṃ tadindro daśabhir-daśagvaiḥ sūryaṃ viveda tamasi kṣiyantam.

Where, in the human body, when the soul is anxious to know the mystery of truth and light divine, does it find the holy cows of the Lord Supreme, words and meanings of ultimate reality, the light? Surely then, there in the body itself, with nine friendly faculties of freshest powers (five pranic energies and mind, intellect, memory and self-awareness), and with another team of ten friends (five pranic energies and five senses), following the path of truth in meditation, the soul discovers the sun, Light Divine, self-refulgent, existing in the depth of the self, otherwise covered under existential darkness of ignorance.

6. Indro madhu sambhṛtamusriyāyām padvad viveda śaphavannāma goḥ. Guhā hitaṁ guhyaṁ gūḥampsu haste dadhe dakṣiṇe dakṣiṇāvān.

Indra, the soul in pursuit of knowledge and meditation, discovers the honey sweets of the mystery of existence revealed in the light of divinity in the cave of the heart and in the Voice Divine voluble in the folds of memory. It discovers the secrets of motion and velocity and of production and generosity in the Word and in the Light.

Let man bow in reverence, be humble and generous, and hold the secret, deeper than the deepest within, on the palm of the right hand. (No pride, no arrogance!)

7. Jyotirvṛṇīta tamaso vijānannāre syāma duritā-dabhīke. Imā girāḥ somapāḥ somavṛddha juṣasvendra purutamasya kāroḥ.

The man of knowledge discriminates and separates light from darkness. Let us be fearless, far from sin and evil. Indra, O man elevated by the light and inspiration of the spirit of divinity, O defender of truth and piety, listen and live by these words of the learned poet and artist.

ज्या॒र्तिय॒ज्ञाय॒ रा॒द॒सी॒ अनु॒ ष्या॒दा॒र स्या॒म दु॒रि॒तस्य॒ भूरः॑ ।

8. *Jyotiryajñāya rodasī anu ṣyādāre syāma duritasya bhūreḥ. Bhūri ciddhi tujato martyasya

Let there be light radiating from heaven to earth, and let the fragrance of fire rise from earth to heaven to join the three worlds for the yajna of human existence. Let us be far from sin prevalent around through the light of intelligence. And may the Vasus, sustainers of life on earth and the sages who command the light of knowledge as saviours and redeemers, be generous like celestial oceans with showers of bliss for the man of might and high charity.

9. Śunaṁ huvema maghavānamindramasmin bhare nṛtamaṁ vājasātau. Śṛṇvantamugram-ūtaye samatsu ghnantaṁ vṛtrāṇi saṁjitaṁ dhanānām.

We invoke Indra, generous lord of light and majesty, and best of men and leaders, for success in this battle of life. He listens to our call and prayer, rises lustrous and blazing, for our protection and progress, destroying the forces of darkness and winning us the wealths of light and prosperity in our struggles for excellence.

Indra, adorable lord giver of honour, excellence and prosperity, the motive powers of your chariot, mighty and harnessed together like fire and wind, impetuous forces of potent and generative nature, rise and fly to the heights of the sky, dividing the space, as if, into two. May these powers, well refined, reinforced and accelerated, complementarily exhilarated, carry you forward and transport you to our house of yajnic development.

Indra, lord of power and passion for life, drink of the potent soma created by the vibrations of generous nature and brought down from the sky by the eagle flights of your car for you, lord of love and ambition, for your people. It is in the ecstasy of soma that you inspire the children of the earth with energy, and it is in the ecstasy of that energy that the earth abides and turns round and round.

We invoke, invite and call upon Indra, lord creator and giver of knowledge, best of the leaders of humanity, in this battle between the learned and the ignorant, for success in discrimination between knowledge of truth and ignorance, for initiation and completion of our search for knowledge and in our battles between the good and evil forces. We call upon Indra, destroyer of conflict, winner of wealth and knowledge, sympathetic listener and lustrous lord of judgement and discrimination, and above all commander of wealth, power and honour for the good of humanity.

As a good cowherd protects and feeds the cows and guards the fodder for the cows, so do you, O man, protect and promote the yajna. And as the cows gain the food, and as the rivers and rivulets reach the sea for self-fulfilment, so would you enjoy the delicacies of life and reach the Lord, Indra, for self-fulfilment.

The newly risen sun, mighty generous and beautiful, protects the essence of food in order to sustain and promote it for life. Indra, O sun, drink first the good and delicious essence of soma mixed with milk as it suits your desire, and protect and promote the soma for life.

(The mantra also applies to the brilliant ruler of the social order, and every new authority of taxation and the defence, protection, promotion and development of the people and the order, the primary aim being happiness and progress of society with taxes as the means and not the end strictly, with reference to the needs of the system.

The mantra can also apply to the birth of human life, its growth and maturity. It can be applied to the birth of the sun itself in the process of creative evolution. In short, Indra should be interpreted as the sun, the human soul, i.e., jivatma, the creative energy and the ruler.)

for development and, drawing it in from nature, he drinks the soma from all sources of nature and humanity.

He listens to prayer for protection in battles and rises, a fierce fighter, destroyer of demons and dark clouds, and winner of the wealths of life.

Most potent is he and most determined, widest in reach and effect, and with his essential purity of mind and strength of character, he frustrates the life and age of the wicked to naught.

In this battle of existence, for the sake of success and victory, we invoke, invite and call upon Indra, best and highest of humanity, auspicious creator and commander of power, prosperity, honour and excellence of life. Blazing glorious is he, intent listener to prayers of his people, a fierce fighter for protection and progress, a destroyer of the demons of darkness, evil and poverty, harbinger of the showers of prosperity and a victor of trophies and treasures of corporate life.

He wields and sustains the river and the ocean, the flow of nature's energy as well as the ocean of nature's particles of matter and energy. And he watches all humans for what they do and what they ought to do. He is the friend and well-wisher of the world since he showers his gifts of generosity on all. Universal is his love since he blesses us with guides and teachers who know and show us the right ways of successful living.

bhirmaghavañchūra jinva. Yo no dveṣṭyadha-rah saspadīṣṭa yamu dviṣmastamu prāṇo jahātu.

Indra, potent lord of honour and prosperity, come to us today with ample modes of best and highest modes of protection and give us the joy of life. Whosoever hate us may, we pray, fall down, and whatsoever we all hate, that, we pray, may the breath of life forsake.

परशुं चिद्वि तपति शिम्बलं चिद्वि वृश्चति ।

उखा चिदिन्द्र यषन्ती पयस्ता फनमस्यति ॥ २२ ॥

22. Paraśum cid vi tapati śimbalaṁ cid vi vṛścati.
Ukhā cidindra yeṣantī prayastā phenamasyati.

Indra, lord ruler of the realm, just as the arm-smith heats the steel and tempers the axe, or the gardener plucks off the shimbala flower, or the boiling pan, bubbling over, throws out the froth and foam, so does the commander of the army throw out the enemies.

न सायकस्य चिकित जनासा ल्मथं नयन्ति पशु मन्यमानाः ।
नावाजिनं वाजिना हासयन्ति न गदुभं पुरा अश्वा ि-
यन्ति ॥ २३ ॥

23. Na sāyakasya cikite janāso lodhaṁ nayanti paśu manyamānāḥ. Nāvājinaṁ vājinā hāsayanti na gardabhaṁ puro aśvānnayanti.

The brave take no cognition of the pain of arrows. They lead the greedy opponent anywhere, feeling that he is just a human animal. They do not demean the weak foot-soldier by a bold horse-warrior, nor do they lead the horses by an ass in the forefront.

इम इन्द्र भरतस्य पुत्रा अपपित्वं चिकितुन पपित्वम ।
हिन्वन्त्यश्वमरणं न नित्यं ज्यावाजं परिणयन्त्याजा ॥ २४ ॥

24. Ima indra bharatasya putrā apapitvaṁ cikiturna prapitvam. Hinvantyaśvamarāṇaṁ na nityaṁ jyāvājaṁ pari ṇayantyājau.

Indra, these boys, followers of the veteran commander, know retreat as well as advance, spur on the horse like a spirit inspired and send out the twang of the bow string in battles and contests always without exception.

Mandala 3/Sukta 54

Vishvedeva Devata, Prajapati Vaishvamitra or Prajapatir Vachya Rshi

इमं मह विदुथ्याय शूषं शश्वत्कृत्व इड्याय प जभुः ।

1. Imam mahe vidathyāya śūṣam śaśvat kṛtvā īdyāya pra jabh-uḥ. Śṛṇotu no damyebhir-anīkaiḥ śṛṇot-vagnir-divyair-ajasrah.

The celebrants create and raise this inspiring song of praise again and again for all time in honour of the great adorable lord of mighty yajnic cosmic action. May Agni listen to our prayer with all the controllable blazing lights and forces. May Agni, eternal light of life, with all divine powers listen to us.

महि मह दिव अचा पृथिव्य कामा म इच्छञ्चरति

2. Mahi mahe dive arcā pṛthivyai kāmo ma icchāñ-carati prajānan. Yayorha stome vidatheṣu devāḥ saparyavo mādayante sacāyoḥ.

Offer ecstatic songs of celebration in honour of high heaven and vast earth. Knowing these, and desiring fulfilment, man goes forward for the light of heaven and dominion over the earth. Surely in the songs of heaven and earth, the divine powers of nature and the best of humanity join together and rejoice in the yajnic battles of life.

युवाऋतं रदसी सत्यमस्तु मह षु णः सुविताय प भूतम ।

3. *Yovorṛtaṁ rodasī satyamastu mahe ṣu ṇaḥ

pṛthivyai saparyāmi prayasā yāmi ratnam.*

O heaven and earth, may your universal law of divinity be realised in truth in our human world across the globe. Be good and kind to advance us to greatness and glory in comfort and well-being. Agni, O lord of the dominion, this song and yajnic offering is in honour of heaven and earth. I serve with the best of effort and thereby move on to the jewels of life.

उता हि वां पूव्या आविविद ऋतावरी रादसी सत्यवाचः ।

4. Uto hi vām pūrvyā āvividra ṛtāvarī rodasī satya-vācaḥ. Naraścid vām samithe śurasātau vavan-dire pṛthivi vevidānāḥ.

O heaven and earth, abiding in and by the universal law of existence, veteran sages of knowledge and voice of truth know you and obtain the fruit of their desire. O mother earth, the pioneers and leaders of humanity too, knowing both of you, in the battles of the brave and struggle for life's prizes, achieve the jewels of their heart's desire.

5. Ko addhā veda ka iha pra vocad devāñ acchā pathyā kā sameti. Dadṛśra eṣāmavamā sadāmsi pareṣu yā guhyeṣu vrateṣu.

Who knows here for certain, who can say, which path for sure leads to the lights of the Divine? (He knows.) Who can divine into the secret laws of the farthest mysteries? Who actually see even the nearest and closest operations of these? (He.)

6. Kavirṇṛcakṣā abhiṣīmacaṣṭa ṛtasya yonā vighṛte madantī. Nānā cakrāte sadanaṁ yathā veḥ samānena kratunā saṁvidāne.

The one omniscient poet creator watching the entire world of humanity comprehends, illuminates and oversees the two worlds of heaven and earth, both rejoicing in accord yet sustained apart by one law of existence, in the cosmic womb of nature's divinity, making one but various home as the birds' on the same one tree.

7. Samānyā viyute dūre ante dhruve pade tastha-turjāgarūke. Uta svasārā yuvatī bhavantī ādu bruvāte mithunāni nāma.

Alike yet apart far off at the end, they abide in orbit ever awake and youthful, strong and stable, and moreover they are called twin sisters since their very birth, dyava-prthivi, heaven and earth, by name.

विश्वद॒त ज॒नि॒मा॒ सं वि॒वि॒क्ता म॒हा द॒वा॒न्बि॒भ॒ती न व्य॑थत ।

8. Viśvedete janimā saṁ vivikto maho devān bibhraṭī na vyathete. Ejad dhruvaṁ patyate viśvamekaṁ carat patatri viṣuṇaṁ vi jātam.

These two, heaven and earth, one together for sure, yet separate and distinct in identity, holding and sustaining all the great earthly and celestial created objects, do not deviate from their orbit. Vibrating yet constant and stable, the one universe, existence born in all its variety, moving, flying, expanding all round, is sustained (by its sole lord and master creator).

9. *Sanā purāṇam-adhyemyārān-mahaḥ piturjan-

I study the ancient and eternal, yet ever new, heaven and earth, twin creation of our great father creator, just like our brother and sister, wherein brilliant forces of nature, celebrants of the Divine creator, with their powers and attributes abide and operate in the wide open paths of space in existence.

10. Imaṁ stomaṁ rodasī pra bravīmṛdūdarāḥ śṛṇavannagnijihvāḥ. Mitraḥ samrājo varuṇo yuvāna ādityāsaḥ kavayaḥ paprathānāḥ.

O heaven and earth, I sing this song of divine praise and celebration for you. May simple and noble hearted people of natural truth and honesty, Mitra, universal friends, brilliant rulers and administrators, Varuna, powers of justice and discrimination, youth, Adityas, enlightened people of blazing genius, and poets of open and expansive mind and intelligence may hear this and proclaim the truth with a tongue of fire.

11. Hiranyapāṇiḥ savitā sujihvastrirā divo vidathe paryamānaḥ. Deveṣu ca savitaḥ ślokamaśre-rādasmaḥbyamā suva sarvatātim.

Savita, creator and giver of light and life, lord with the golden arms of sunrays and a noble tongue of fire, descends from the heavens thrice, protecting, sustaining and advancing us in our yajnic programmes of life. O lord of light, Savita, hear our song of celebration and exaltation, diffuse the light, sweetness and fragrance among the nobilities of humanity over earth and divinities of nature in space, and create and then bring us all round prosperity and well being.

12. Sukṛt supāṇiḥ svavāñ ṛtāvā devastvaṣṭāvase tāni no dhāt. Pūṣaṇvanta ṛbhavo mādayadhvamūr-dhvagrāvāṇo adhvaramataṣṭa.

May the brilliant Tvashta, divine creator and maker of forms and institutions, noble of action and generous of hands, self-possessed of light and wealth, and keeper and observer of the laws of truth and science of yajna, bring us all those gifts of prosperity and well being for our protection and advancement. Rejoice ye Rbhus, experts of yajna, and yajakas rich with food and fragrance for nourishment. The clouds on high, the mighty mountains and the soma stones are up and ready, the yajna is organised, conducted and accomplished.

13. Vidyudrathā maruta ṛṣṭimanto divo maryā ṛtajātā ayāsaḥ. Sarasvatī śṛṇavan yajñiyāso dhātā rayim sahavīraṁ turāsaḥ.

Stormy troops of Marut commandos riding electric chariots, strongly armed, brilliant, mortal fighters, truly disciplined, prompt and powerful, worthy of honour and reverence, lightning smart, and mother Sarasvati, mother of knowledge and language of command, may, we pray, listen and bring us wealth alongwith brave progeny.

14. Viṣṇuṁ stomāsaḥ purudasmamarkā bhagasyeva kārīṇo yāmani gman. Urukramaḥ kakuho yasya pūrvīrna mardhanti yuvatayo janitrīḥ.

May our songs and yajakas, following the divine path of the creator of life's honour and excellence, reach Vishnu, omnipresent lord of marvellous actions. Great is he, mighty his deeds and gifts. Even heaven and earth, dyavaprthivi, ancient and eternal, ever youthful mothers of life, cannot violate him.

Indra, sustaining and preserving both heaven and earth with universal vitalities like a father and guardian, pervades and fills both with his divine power. O lord commander of terrible forces, breaker of clouds and destroyer of darkness, shatterer of enemy forts, create and develop a lot of wealth and bless us all with that wealth, power and honour.

16. Nāsatyā me pitarā bandhupṛcchā sajātyamaśvinoścāru nāma. Yuvaṁ hi stho rayidau no rayiṇām dātram rakṣethe akavairadabdhā.

Ashvins, imperishable complementarities of nature and humanity such as heaven and earth, sun and moon, heat and cold, father and mother, working in cooperation, together as in a circuit of energy, are my sustainers like parents and care givers like brothers and sisters. Their kinship itself by birth and nature is worthy and venerable.

Ashvins, you always abide strong and stable as givers of our wealth, honour and fame and, intrepidable as you are, you protect and promote the gift and the giver by acts and means which are not selfish nor ungenerous but which are liberal and philanthropic.

7. Mahat tad vaḥ kavayaścāru nāma yaddha devā bhavatha viśva indre. Sakha ṛbhubhiḥ puruhūta priyebhirimāṁ dhiyaṁ sātaye takṣatā naḥ.

Poets, scholars and visionary sages, great and auspicious is that name and reputation of yours since you rise to be world renowned celebrities in the roll of honour of the social order of Indra. O lord, Indra, approved, invited and invoked by many, friends with these dear enlightened experts and sagely scholars, refine this corporate intelligence and sharpen this vision of ours for common progress and prosperity of the nation of humanity.

18. Aryamā ṇo aditiryajñiyāso'dabdhāni varuṇasya vratāni. Yuyota no anapatyāni gantoḥ prajāvān naḥ paśumāñ astu gātuḥ.

May Aryama, lord of justice, Aditi, unimpaired fertility of Mother Nature, and sages dedicated to yajna protect and promote our vows of the discipline of Varuna, lord of rectitude, intact and unviolated. O Spirit of Divinity, ward off the causes of childlessness and sterility from our path of life so that our course of home life may be blest with progeny and cattle wealth.

19. Devānām dūtaḥ purudha prasūto'nāgān no vocatu sarvatātā. Śṛṇotu naḥ prthivī dyaurutāpaḥ sūryo nakṣatrairurvantarikṣam.

Agni, messenger of the devas, i.e., vibrations of the forces of nature and voice of the visionary teachers of the wisest of humanity, arisen many ways and bearing all-round knowledge, may speak to us in our state of open, uncoloured and unvitiated mind and bring us the tolerance and forgiveness of the earth, enlightenment of heaven, peace and coolness of waters, light and life giving vitality of the sun, and the vastness of expansive space with stars and planets. And may all these forces and personalities listen and perceive our signals and be in contact with us.

Let the raining clouds, mighty mountains and constant stars at peace, ecstatic participants with the earth and cosmic energy, receive our signals. Let the constant inviolable energy of the cosmos with light of the stars radiate and reach us. Let the winds provide us the joy of well being and peaceful shelter.

May the path be straight and clear, full of wealth and prosperity. O brilliant and generous powers of nature, fill the herbs with honey to the full. Agni, brilliant and generous power, may honour and prosperity forsake me never, nor my friends, during our friendship that is abiding. And may I be blest with wealth and a house of plenty and generosity.

Agni taste and relish the oblations offered, shine and illuminate knowledge and energy all together, and let food, energy and knowledge flow towards us. You win all those, and those enemies in battles for victory. Be happy and kind at heart and let all the days of life be bright for us.

Mandala 3/Sukta 55

Vishvedeva Devata, Prajapati Vaishvamitra or Prajapati Vachya Rshi

उषसः पूवा अध यद व्यूषुमहद्वि जज्ञ अ रं पद गाः ।

1. Uṣasaḥ pūrvā adha yad vyūṣurmahad vi jajñe akṣaram pade goḥ. Vratā devānāmupa nu prabhūṣan mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Before the dawns of primeval time, which arose and shone bright, later reflecting and illuminating the ordained tasks of the forces of nature, arose Mahat, the first manifest principle of imperishable Prakṛti in the depth of oceanic space. Great and One is the living spirit and glory of the divine refulgent forces of the universe.

2. Mo ṣū ṇo atra juhūranta devā mā pūrve agne pitarah padajñāḥ. Purāṇyoh sadmanoh keturan-tarmahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Agni, lord and light of the world, in this universe and its business of knowing and doing, we pray, may the brilliant forces of nature and humanity never oppose and hurt us, may the primal pranic energies of parental sustenance never neglect and damage us, may the one great principal bright and breathing spirit in the primal forms of existence never hurt us. Great and one is the life and glory of the multiple divinities of the universe.

3. Vi me purutrā patayanti kāmāḥ śamyacchā dīdye pūrvyāṇi. Samiddhe agnāvṛtamid vadema mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

My desire and ambitions are great and many, they soar high and far in search of holy fulfilment. I pray I may realise them well in solemn yajnic action, shine myself and illuminate the ancient traditions. Let us all speak the truth, sing songs of Divinity when the fire is rising in flames of yajna, and let us exalt the universal law of Divinity operative in the universe. Great, glorious and one is the life and spirit of the life and spirit of the divinities of natural force.

4. Samāno rājā vibhṛtaḥ purutrā śaye śayāsu prayuto vanānu. Anyā vatsaṁ bharati kṣeti mātā mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

One self-refulgent ruler, constant and unvariable spirit and presence pervades the inexhaustible forms of Prakṛti, dormant in inert matters and energies, and moving and extending with waves and currents of water, light and other energy forms to the sunrays and green forests. One mother Prakṛti, bears the individual form such as the baby, the other, Divine Spirit, rules and sustains it. Great and glorious is the one living, breathing, omnipresent and omnipotent spirit of the inexhaustible variations of nature's divinities.

5. *Ākṣit pūrvāsvaparā anūrut sadyo jātāsu taruṇi-

Life abides in the ancient forms and in others, later ones, asserting with the desire to be, in the new born ones and in the mature youthful ones, and fertilising the unfertilised. Great is the glory of the generous and refulgent powers of nature's Divinity, one and only one.

6. *Śayuh parastādadha nu dvimātā'bandhan-

Agni, vital heat of life, pervades far and farthest, dormant or manifest, child of two mothers, akasha and vayu, space and cosmic energy, moving and operating freely without bonds, by itself, All this is within the laws of the one supreme lord, universal friend and controller of the universe. Great and glorious is the life and action of the living forces of nature, one and indivisible.

7. Dvimātā hotā vidatheṣu samrāḷanvagraṃ carati kṣeti budhnaḥ. Pra raṇyāni raṇyavāco bharante mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Agni, self-refulgent child of two mothers, cosmic space and cosmic energy, universal yajaka in cosmic yajna and, on the seats of yajna such as earth, moves on in its orbit fixed by the Divine and shines and abides in the vast space. Happy celebrants bear and offer joyous songs of homage to the sun and the cosmic energy of Agni. Great and glorious is the life and refulgence of the divinities of nature, one and only one.

8. Śūrasyeva yudhyato antamasya pratīcinam dadṛśe viśvamāyat. Antarmatiścarati niṣṣidham gormahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

All that comes into the light of the brave refulgent sun ever on the move and striking everything at the closest and farthest seems on the left side of the light, inferior. Source of light and intelligence for the world, it moves through and across the objects in the womb of cosmic space. Great and glorious is the life and vital power of the divinities of nature, one and only one.

9. Ni veveti palito dūta āsvantarmahāmścarati rocanena. Vapūṁṣi bibhradabhi no vi caṣṭe mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

He that pervades all, ancient and eternal self-refulgent creator and harbinger of light and knowledge, great and glorious, vibrates wide awake in all these modes of Prakṛti by his beauty and majesty. Wielder and sustainer of all forms and institutions, ever manifest and eloquent, speaks to us in the soul, that is the great and glorious life breath of all the divinities of nature and humanity, one and absolute without a second.

10. Viṣṇurgopāḥ paramam pāti pāthaḥ priyā dhāmānyamṛtā dadhānaḥ. Agniṣṭā viśvā bhuva-nāni veda mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Vishnu, lord omnipresent, all pervasive, all protective, wielding and sustaining all the dear immortal homes of existence, preserves and promotes the highest food and agents of life such as heat, water, air and the earth. Agni, vital heat and light of life's vitality, knows, reaches and maintains all the regions of the universe. Great is the glory of the life breath of the divinities of nature and humanity, one and only one.

Two twins, night and day, manifest in many forms and reveal all those many forms. One of them shines bright, the other is dark. The dark one and that which is bright are sisters. Great is the glory and power of the divinities of nature, one and undivided.

12. Mātā ca yatra duhitā ca dhenū sabardughe dhāpayete samīcī. Ṛtasya te sadasīḷe antarmahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Where mother and daughter, day and night, heaven and earth, generous as cows, yielding nourishments sweet as nectar, together feed each other, there I offer worship, O lord ruler of the world, to you in the house of universal truth and law. Great and glorious is the life and action of the divinities of the universe, one, undivided and absolute.

Kissing and caressing the other's child, i.e., the cloud, which is a concentration of vapours from the earth, the mother sky waxes with joy and laughs with thunder. By which process of nature's, by which region of space, does she hold the milk of life in the breast? She receives it from the waters of the universal order and waxes, and the earth grows with nourishment from the nectar waters of the sky. Great and one is the glory of the divinities of nature.

(The earth too, as one of the mothers, kisses and caress the heavens' child, sunlight, and waxes with joy. She fills her breasts with nourishment with rain from the skies and feeds both human life and nature. The vapours then rise and shower down, completing the cycle of nature's law.)

The earth bears and sustains many forms of innumerable variety. The high heaven, caressing the sun, sustainer of the three regions of the earth, middle region and the region of light, stays above. Knowing this, I move freely in the house of Rtam, the cosmic order. Great is the glory and one the variety of the Lord's omnipotent Infinity.

Positioned both inside the same one wonderful house of space, one of them is hidden in the dark, the other is manifest in open day light. Their path of movement and their goal is one and the same, universal, and yet it is different and separate, (they meet and yet they never meet). Great is the glory of the Infinite Divine, one and yet different.

Let the 'cows', day and night, heaven and earth, stars and planets, move and shake and shower the nectar milk of light and life, vibrant and full, abundant and inexhaustible, like youthful maidens ancient yet ever fresh anew. Great is the glory and gifts of Divinity, various, infinite, yet one, undivided, indivisible.

The one omnipotent lord, sun and shower of the days and nights, roars with creative passion in all regions and directions of skies and space, and he plants the seed of life in the multitudinous variety of the forms of the other, Prakṛti. He alone is the beauty and majesty of the nights as the moon, he is the blazing splendour of the day as the sun and the ruling law and lord of the universe. Great is the glory and life breath of the inexhaustible divinities of nature, one, inviolable, absolute.

Come ye all people, let us sing and celebrate the wondrous valour and vibrancy of this great hero, Indra, the soul. Sages and scholars know of him. Six and six, five and five horses draw his chariot, (these being five perceptive faculties and one intellect, five volitional faculties and one mind, five principal pranic energies and five subordinate pranic energies). Great is the glory and majesty of the lord of divine variety, one and only one.

Self-refulgent and generous lord of existence as Tvashta, maker of forms, and as Savita, generator and giver of light and vitality, inspiring and pervading the universe, creates, nourishes and sustains his children and all these worlds of the universe in many ways and thus manifests himself in infinite forms and ways. Great is the glory and unity of the divine forms of his creation and of the divine breath of life in them.

Indra, omnipotent lord creator, inspires the great and united heaven and earth with light and life, and they both are blest with the splendour and generosity of this lord. And I, brave and free, blest with honour and prosperity of the divine gifts of heaven and earth, hear of the glory and generosity of the lord. Great is the glory and great the gifts of the lord's divinities, all one and united.

Like a brilliant ruler who is a benevolent friend of his people, and like the warlike heroes, leaders, pioneers and citizens who bring victory and prosperity to their motherland, Indra, omnipotent lord creator, abides by the heavens and by this mother earth of ours which contains all our wealth and sustains all her children. Great is the glory and great the gifts of the lord's divinities, all one and united.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, auspicious and generous is the world of your creation, soothing are the herbs, energising the waters, wondrous the wealth earth bears and sustains. O lord of beauty and majesty, let us be friends with you, sharers of your honour and excellence. Great is the glory, one the spirit, and absolute the power and spirit of your divine manifestations. Let us be one with glory and divinity.

Mandala 3/Sukta 56

Vishvedeva Devata, Prajapati Vaishvamitra or Prajapati Vachya Rshi

न ता मिनन्ति मायिना न धीरा व्रता दवानां पथमा ध्रुवाणि ।

1. Na tā minanti māyino na dhīrā vratā devānām prathamā dhruvāṇi. Na rodasī adruhā vedyā-bhirna parvatā niname tasthivāṁsaḥ.

Original and inviolable are the laws and observances of divine forces in nature and in humanity. Enchanters cannot transgress them, wise men of steady mind do not violate them. Neither heaven and earth, nor scholars free from hate and jealousy with all their knowledge, nor the fixed mountains can break or bend the strong and resolute.

2. Ṣaḍ bhārāṅ eko acarān bibhartyṛtaṁ varṣiṣṭha-mupa gāva āguḥ. Tisro mahīruparāstas-thuratyā guhā dve nihite darśyekā.

One constant and unmoving bears six burdens. The moving ones go round the one which is sun and shower and the universal law. Three great regions go round in space in constancy. Two remain hidden in the cave of mystery. One is apparently seen.

(The one unmoving is Ishvara who creates Mahat and five elements from Prakṛti. Three great ones are Bhu, earth, Bhuvah, the middle region of the sky, and Svah, the region of light, of which the higher two are unseen while the earth is seen. Another interpretation is that the one unmoving is the sun, the six are the seasons. The one constant can be interpreted as Prakṛti also which bears Mahat and the elements and the three greats as sattva, rajas and tamas. The mantra is mystical and mysterious and the beauty is deep in mystery.)

3. Tripājasyo vṛṣabho viśvarūpa uta tryudhā purudha prajāvān. Tryanīkaḥ patyate māhināvāntsa retodhā vṛṣabhaḥ śaśvatīnām.

The sun and shower and the Law is lord of three worlds, bears the forms of the universe, feeds the three worlds like the mother cow, sustains all and fathers the children of existence. Three are his beautiful forces, sattva, rajas and tamas. Lord of highest power, he rules and sustains all. Lord of power, sun and shower, he bears the seed of all the universal forms of existence.

4. Abhika āsām padavīrabodhyādityānāmahve cāru nāma. Āpaścidasmā aramanta devīḥ pṛthag vrajantīḥ pari śīmavṛñjan.

Immanent in these stages of the evolution of forms such as stars and living beings, the lord knows them all and I, in love and devotion, invoke and chant his gracious name. The celestial currents of water and energy love to flow for him, each in its separate path, to him and from him.

5. Trī ṣadhashthā sindhavastriḥ kavīnāmuta trimātā vidatheṣu samrāt. Ṛtāvarīryoṣaṇāstisro apyāstrirā divo vidathe patyamānāḥ.

Self-refulgent creator is the ruling lord of light and life in all cosmic acts of creation and sustenance. Three are the rolling floods of light, air and waters, in heaven and skies and on the earth. Of the vision, thought and expression of the sagely poets and Rshis, he is the origin and inspiration. Three are the streams of causal, subtle and physical energy with cosmic truth and law flowing to the life on earth like youthful maidens rushing to meet their lover. Three are the regions and three the lights, agni (fire) on earth, vayu (air and electricity) in the sky, and aditya (light) in heaven, sustaining life in the cosmic yajna in three sessions.

6. Trirā divaḥ savitarvāryāṇi divediva ā suva trirno trātardhiṣaṇe sātaye dhāḥ.

Savita, lord creator and giver of light and life and inspiration, bring us three of the choicest blessings of wealth and excellence day by day in three sessions of daily yajna. Create and give us the wealth of three metals of excellent order. O lord of honour and excellence, saviour and sustainer, O heaven and earth, O mother Sarasvati, bear and bring us the patience, courage and fighting strength for winning the victories of life.

7. Trirā divaḥ savitā soṣavīti rājānā mitrāvaruṇā supāṇī. Āpaścidasya rodasī cidurvī ratnaṁ bhikṣanta savituh savāya.

Thrice does Savita shower us with inspiration and energy from the light of heaven, so do Mitra and Varuna, refulgent powers of nature and humanity, friendly, just, and generous of hands. Indeed, the flowing waters, heaven and earth and the wide firmament, all pray for the gifts of light, wealth and power from this lord Savita for yajnic advancement in life.

8. Triruttamā dūṇaśā rocanāni trayo rājantya-surasya vīrāḥ. Ṛtāvāna iṣirā dūḷabhāsastrirā divo vidathe santu devāḥ.

Three are the best and highest lights, formidable and indestructible: fire, electricity and the solar energy. These three brave and heroic powers of the lord of light and life's energy shine in the world. Heroes of truth and cosmic law and the fluent light of rectitude, vibrant and tempestuous, blazing brilliant far and wide, may, we pray, shine like divinities thrice and threefold in the yajnic battles of life by virtue of the lights of heaven.

1. Pra me vivikvāñ avidanmanīṣāṁ dhenum carantīm prayutāmagopām. Sadyaścid yā duduhe bhūri dhāser-indras-tadagniḥ panitāro asyāḥ.

Let the man of discrimination know and appreciate my language and intelligence, rich and versatile, freely moving like a cow over the wide wide pasture, i.e., field of knowledge, which always readily yields the abundant milk of knowledge. Agni and Indra, the powerful and the brilliant, are great admirers of this understanding and language of knowledge.

Indra and Pusha, the power and the pranic energy of divine nature, generous and inexhaustible with open hands like happy friends, shower the gifts of the light of heaven and reveal it in the language of divinity. Brilliances of the world rejoice in the acquisition of this light of knowledge and language. O Vasus, scholars of the first order, I wish and pray I may benefit from the pleasure and peace of your gifts of light, knowledge and the language of divinity.

3. Yā jāmayo vṛṣṇa icchanti śaktim namasyantīr-jānate garbhamasmin. Acchā putram dhenavo vāvaśānā mahaścaranti bibhrataṁ vapūṁṣi.

Those young women who love and desire the virility and vitality of a youthful husband, knowing that they have come to maturity and there is full vitality of impregnation therein, approach the man in marriage with reverence and love in a graceful manner and, like cows in season, receive and bear and rear the great gift of a baby having a handsome body of full and perfect parts.

(The image in this mantra describes not only the relationship of man and woman in married life but also the relationship of heaven and earth and the rain of fertility from the clouds in the process of natural procreation.)

4. *Acchā vivikmi rodaśī sumeke grāvṇo yujāno

O men and women abundant and generous as clouds, joined together in home yajna, with the best of mind in the best of words, I revere and celebrate heaven and earth, man and woman joined together with heart and mind in marriage as two-in-one. O men, these women are showers of love and joy and prosperity for you. They rise high, sweet and soothing and beautiful, equal partners in the family yajna and divine procreation, worthy of respect and reverence as the flames of yajna fire.

5. *Yā te jihvā madhumatī sumedhā agne deveṣūcyata

O Agni, fire of home yajna, gracious lady of the house, honey sweet is your tongue like the beautiful flame of light which radiates intelligence and wisdom far and wide and wins admiration among the noblest people. With this sweetness and light of speech and grace of manner, bring in on the vedi of home yajna all the sagely souls worthy of reverence and let them drink of the nectar sweets of a blessed home.

(The mantra also implies the women's contribution to the material prosperity and cultural grace of a happy home.)

6. Yā te agne parvatasyeva dhārāsaścantī pīpayad deva citrā. Tāsmabhyam pramatiṁ jātavedo vaso rāsva sumatiṁ viśvajanyām.

Agni, presiding power and light divine of the yajnic home, wonderful is the flame and fragrant flow of your generosity which swells and showers like the streams of a cloud without reserve or fear or favour. With that same abundant flow, pioneer intelligence, noble wisdom and universal mother fertility, O treasure home of prosperity and power omniscient and omnipresent, we pray, bless us.

1. Mitro janān yātayati bruvāṇo mitro dādadhāra prthivīmuta dyām. Mitraḥ kṛṣṭīranimiṣābhi caṣṭe mitrāya havyam ghṛtavajjuhota.

Mitra, Lord omnipotent, self-refulgent sun, speaking to people, and directing them through their direct experience, inspires and moves them to act and exert. Mitra holds and sustains the heaven and earth and the children of the earth. Mitra fully watches the people and their actions without a wink of the eye.

Mitra, lord of universal love, Aditya, lord self-refulgent, may that person be active and alert in action, blest with ample food and drink and the joy of life who abides by your divine law and learns and makes others learn the ways of divine discipline and action. O lord, the person under your gracious protection is neither conquered nor killed by any mortal. Sin and evil reach him not, much less touch and pollute, either from far or from near.

Agni, light and fire of life, brilliant and impassioned people always kindle you to action. Quick, relentless and refulgent, a very home of rest and peace and light as you are, they kindle and raise you with their best and noblest effort and action. O men, join, honour and respect this divine and imperishable power among humanity to full force of illumination, generate this holy power, intelligent, universal and living light for all, generate and develop it to full beauty and delight over the wide earth.

And O light and fire of life, Agni, bring in your brother and complementary power, Varuna, the very spirit of cool, peace and justice of life, and direct him toward the noble and brilliant performers of yajna. Bring him well with best thoughts and intentions, bring the lover of yajna, highest and most venerable, partner in social organisation, observer of the laws and operations of universal truth and goodness, refulgent as the sun, sustainer of humanity, brilliant ruler, universally accepted and consecrated by the people.

Agni, O friend, loving and gracious, destroyer of enemies, just as a swift horse by a fast moving chariot on the highway and the wheel of Time drives the master to the destination, so come, hasten your friend Varuna, power of peace and justice, to us. O refulgent master of knowledge, being friends with Varuna, the winds and the solar lights of the world, the people and brilliant eminences of the world, reach us, bring us the peace and joy of life. Blazing brilliant and gracious, bring peace and well-being for our children and grand children. O lord of light and knowledge, love and justice, peace and beauty, destroyer of evil, bring us peace, beauty and the graces of life.

Agni, O lord and master of knowledge and enlightenment, we pray, you keep off from us the displeasure of Varuna, highest authority of justice. Lord blazing brilliant and purifying power worthy of invocation, harbinger and disseminator of divine gifts and fragrances, ward away from us the entire hate and enmity the world might have toward us.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and power, pray be our first and last preserver and protector, closest at this rise of the glorious dawn. Delighting, rejoicing and giving, join Varuna at the yajna and bring us peace and joy. Noble yajaka, responsive to our call, come and bless us with goodwill and well-being.

Open, highest and most wonderful among mortals are the gifts and actions of this brilliant, generous and glorious ruler, pure and bright like the heated clarified ghrta of the inviolable cow, lovely and profuse like the liberality of the abundant cow, mother earth, and the inexhaustible speech of self-refulgent lord of omniscience. He watches all and his gifts are directly visible.

7. Trirasya tā paramā santi satyā spārḥā devasya janimānyagneḥ. Anante antaḥ parivīta āgā-cchuciḥ śukro aryo rorucānaḥ.

Three are the supreme manifestations of the generous refulgent Agni, true, lovely and universally cherished which arise and shine. Pervasive everywhere in endless space in the presence of the infinite divine lord of the universe, he shines pure, refulgent, generous and beautiful.

(This mantra refers to the various manifestations of cosmic energy which is the existential potential of the Supreme Lord Creator operating at different levels in different modes. In other words, we may call it the manifestations of Adi-Shakti, the Lord's consort Prakrti, originally manifesting as sattva, rajas, and tamas.

On earth, Bhuloka, it is fire and magnetic energy, which is agni. In the middle regions of the sky, Bhuvahloka, it is electrical energy, which is vayu. In the higher regions of light, Svahloka, it is aditya, solar energy. The sun too manifests in three different phases, at dawn, at noon and in the evening when it is setting. The efficacy of the sun in these three phases is different.

At the individual human level, it is physical energy, mental energy and spiritual energy. In yet another way it is the vital heat which maintains the physical body, i.e., annamaya kosha; it is pranic energy which maintains the pranamaya kosha and the manomaya kosha; and it is the higher psychic energy which maintains the vijñanamaya kosha and the anandamaya kosha. Of these three, one feeds, the other energises, and the third illumines.

However, mantras such as this have to be interpreted in a state of meditation, and since meditation is the birth-right of every human being, we are free to divine into the mystery of the mantric vision in our experiential way.)

8. Sa dūto viśvedabhi vaṣṭi sadmā hotā hiraṇyaratho raṁsujihvaḥ. Rohidaśvo vapuṣyo vibhāvā sadā raṇvaḥ pitumatīva saṁsat.

That Agni, harbinger of light and warmth of life, destroyer of darkness and evil, loves, pervades, illuminates and rules over all the forms and places of the world. He is the yajamana, receiver and giver of sweets and fragrances. Riding a golden chariot drawn by ruddy horses and waves of light, delightful of tongue as well as flames of fire, majestic in body form, always rejoicing and emanating joy, he is a very treasure home of prosperity, happiness and excellence like an assembly house of power, governance and wealth of a nation in symbolic form.

9. Sa cetayanmanuṣo yajñabandhuḥ pra taṁ mahyā raśanayā nayanti. Sa kṣetyasya duryāsu sādhan devo martasya sadhanitvamāpa.

A brother yajaka on the yajna vedi of creation and governance, he awakens and enlightens the people. To him they move on to consecrate him in the seat of power and yajna with a long rope of powers, obligations and controls for balance. He abides in the seat of governance and justice fulfilling his roles, generous and brilliant, achieving the dreams and realities of the nation's imagination.

10. Sa tū no agnirnayatu prajānannacchā ratnaṁ devabhaktaṁ yadasya. Dhiyā yad viśve amṛtā akṛṇvan dyauspitā janitā satyamukṣan.

And may that Agni, leader and lord ruler, knowing everything full well, lead us to that valuable jewel wealth of this world, loved, coveted and enjoyed by the brilliant divinities which the immortals of all the world with their skill and intelligence created and which the heaven and father creator showered and consecrated as real and true.

11. Sa jāyata prathamahḥ pastyāsu maho budhne rajaso asya yonau. Apādaśīṣā guhamāno antā' - yoyuvāno vṛṣabhasya nīle.

That Agni, which brings us the jewel wealth of the world, first arises from its original cause in the Mahat-tattva, the first existential evolute of Prakṛti. Then it manifests in the sun as light, and then in the middle regions of space as vayu, electricity. Moving without head and feet, concealed yet joining youthfully the inmates of various regions, light in the sun, cloud in the sky, homes of people and depth of the earth, it operates everywhere.

12. Pra śardha ārta prathamam vipanyāñ ṛtasya yonā vṛṣabhasya nīle. Spārho yuvā vapuṣyo vibhāvā sapta priyāso'janayanta vṛṣṇe.

With study and appraisal discover and find energy and power in the original source of cosmic waters and the abode of fire, i.e., the solar energy, currents of wind in the sky and magnetic energy of the earth, energy and power which is lovely, youthful and unaging, energising body systems and giver of beauty and joy. For the generous human soul, seven darling yajakas, i.e., five pranas, mind and intellect create this vital energy in the body.

Here in our human world, in this programme of energy discovery, our parental seniors and thinkers dedicated to the yajna of natural and psychic energy sit at peace in a state of tranquillity, searching and invoking the light of the dawn and discover and open out the showers of energy waves locked up inside the clouds and mountains.

14. *Te marmṛjata dadṛvāṁso adriṁ tadeṣāmanye

Those parental seniors and researchers, breakers of the clouds and shatterers of the mountain caves break open the treasures of energy and refine and intensify the power. Others who watch them and their programme fully describe their achievement how, equipped with practical apparatuses, dedicated to their mission, they discover the light and thus, with their intelligence and sentiment, strengthen and do good to humanity.

They, best of men, leaders and impassioned pioneers, with a searching mind pursuing the light concentrate and meditate on the sun, all pervasive, ocean deep, strong and bottomless treasure hold of infinite light, language and knowledge, holding and at the same time controlling and directing the radiation of light rays, and they, with words of divine vision and mysterious meaning open up and reveal the wealth of light, word and knowledge.

16. *Te manvata prathamam̐ nāma dhenostriḥ sapta

First they study, reflect and meditate on the seven ultimate forms of mother speech and thus realise and know it in the essence through word, meaning and the self-existent reality behind the word. And having realised the content of divine speech, they celebrate the red lights of the dawn bearing and revealing that lord of speech manifesting by the splendour of the dawn of knowledge.

The dense darkness of the night is dispelled, the solar region shines and the light of the dawn ascends in all her splendour. The sun rises and shines on over the fields and plains of the wide world, watching the acts and ways of right and wrong among the mortal inhabitants of the earth.

And then men of vision, wisdom and knowledge light, celebrate and proclaim the might and splendour of Agni, bearing and enjoying the jewels of wealth gifted by the light and energy of the sun, fire and electricity. May all the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, and Mitra, the sun, friend of life, and Varuna, the spatial waters, givers of love, peace and justice, be good and true to the wish and desire and intellectual efforts of humanity in all homes and over all the paths of life.

Let us sing and celebrate Agni in hymns of praise, Agni bright and pure and purifying, yajaka who invokes and awakens the bounties of nature for us, sustains the world and is most worthy of love and reverence, who fills the udder of the cows with milk without injury and augments the holy acts of humanity like the food purified and sanctified by the sun.

Like the indivisible and inviolable sky for all the performers of yajna, like the welcome guest for all the householders, Agni, universal light and lord omnipresent and omniscient, may, we pray, taking up the protection and promotion of noble humanity and renewal and refreshment of the environment, be the harbinger of peace and prosperity for children of the earth. (So may be the teacher and the scholar.)

Mandala 4/Sukta 2

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

या म॒त्य॑ष्व॒मृतं॑ ऋ॒तावा॑ द॒वा द॒वष्व॑र॒तिनि॒धायि॑ ।

1. Yo martyeṣvamarṭa ṛtāvā devo deveṣvaratirni-dhāyi. Hotā yajīṣṭho mahnā śucadhyai havyai-ragnirmanuṣa īrayadhyai.

Agni which is immortal among mortals and refulgent among divinities of world and nature, itself ever true and dynamic destroyer of evil, is fixed in the cosmic order of law and rectitude. By virtue of its own greatness it is the invoker and harbinger of natural bounties, most worthy of reverence with homage of oblations for the purification, illumination and inspiration of mankind. And Agni is held, recognised and realised in the heart.

Agni, lord giver of light, child of omnipotence, great and sublime, giver of mighty strength, here in this world of ours, risen today to full glory among both divines and humans born and initiated, you move as the light and energy of yajna, carrying the fragrance, inspiring and engaging all who are pure and generous and move by the brilliant paths of nature and rectitude.

Agni, light of the world, I know and realise your waves of cosmic energy ever moving in circuit at the fastest with the energy of the cosmic mind, creating and increasing, sprinkling and showering with water and energy of ghrta, red as rays of the dawn, blazing as the sun, with which you move across the world of existence, inspiring and engaging the mortals, immortals and the human children of the earth.

4. Aryamaṇaṁ varuṇaṁ mitrameṣāmindrāviṣṇū maruto aśvinota. Svaśvo agne surathaḥ surādha edu vaha suhaviṣe janāya.

Agni, lord of light and power, commanding instant waves of communication, fastest modes of transport, immense wealth and infrastructure for development and prosperity, come and, for these people dedicated to the yajna of corporate programmes of common development and progress, bring Aryaman, power of justice, Varuna, spirit of freedom, choice and excellence, Mitra, love and friendship for all these people, Indra, energy of the clouds and electricity, Vishnu, universal spirit of cosmic unity, Maruts, energy of the winds, and the Ashvins, light of the sun and soothing beauty of the moon.

5. Gomāñ agne'vimāñ asvī yajño nrvatsakhā sadamidapramṛṣyah. Ilāvāñ eṣo asura prajāvān dīrgho rayiḥ pṛthubudhnaḥ sabhāvān.

Agni, giver of light, power and prosperity, peace and justice, commanding wealth of cows, sheep and goats, horses, and unity and productive cooperation in yajna you are friend of the people, leaders and pioneers, blest with lands, knowledge and holy speech of divinity, possessed of vital strength, destroyer of the wicked, supported by the people and assistants. Presiding over the assembly, you know great and long lasting is this wealth of the nation, broad based and rising high and vast. Come, take over the house of government which is beyond pollution, corruption and destruction.

Whoever bears the sacred fuel for your fire of yajna by the sweat of his brow, or tires himself out, not sparing himself while coming to you to serve, Agni, come to your own, and rising, be the protector of his land and person against all violent bullies and sinners.

7. Yaste bharādanniyate cidannaṁ niśiṣanma-ndra-matithimuḍīrat. Ā devayurinadhate duroṇe tasmin rayirdhruvo astu dāsvān.

Agni, giver of light and wealth, ruler of the world, in the home where the generous house holder spares food and bears it to you for the hungry, where he welcomes, appreciates and regales the happy guest, where, dedicated to the divinities and brilliant people, he lights the fire and worships Ishwara in full faith, in that house, O lord, let there be abundant wealth, peace and stability.

Whoever sings in praise of you night and day, who with gifts in homage does you proud with things dear to you, save that man of generosity in his home from sin, come like a knight of golden horse and rescue him from evil.

9. Yastubhyamagne amṛtāya dāśad duvastve kṛṇvate yatasruk. Na sa rāyā śaśamāno vi yoṣa-nnainamañhaḥ pari varadaghāyoh.

Agni, giver of light and wealth of life, whoever offers you honour and service in faith, ever ready, holding up the ladle full of holy ghrta and offering oblations to the imperishable fire, overflows with wealth without fear of deprivation, and the sin of the evil doer too can never pollute him.

10. Yasya tvamagne adhvaram jujoṣo devo martasya sudhitam rarāṇaḥ. Prītedasaddhotrā sā yaviṣṭhā 'sāma yasya vidhato vṛdhāsaḥ.

Agni, youthful light of yajnic human action, brilliant and generous giver as you are, whatever mortal offers you the yajna of service, with spirit of sacrifice, love and non-violence, well performed with reverence and faith, you accept and enjoy. May that service and spirit of charity bring him the grace of heaven. May we too be performers and promoters of that yajna, and may that grace be ours too.

11. Cittimacittiṁ cinavad vi vidvān prṣṭheva vītā vṛjinā ca martān. Rāye ca naḥ svapatyāya deva ditim ca rāsvāditimuruṣya.

Let the man of knowledge and discrimination distinguish between sense and wisdom on the one hand and non-sense and ignorance on the other, between the broad open paths of right living and the covert ways of wickedness, and between mortals and mortals. And O giver of knowledge and light of discrimination, Agni, for the sake of honour and well being and for our children give us worldly wealth and liquid assets and protect our immortal merit of rectitude.

Wise visionaries, bold intrepidable scholars and sagely teachers, maintaining the inmates, disciples and seekers of knowledge in their home schools, teach them the knowledge and discipline of life. Therefore, O master and ruler, Agni, by practical steps you go, observe and assess these wonderful schools and their people. They are all open and worth seeing.

13. Tvamagne vāghate supraṇītiḥ sutasomāya vidhate yaviṣṭha. Ratnaṁ bhara śaśamānāya ghrṣve prthuś-candram-avase carṣaṇiprāḥ.

Agni, giver of light, knowledge and power, ever fresh and youthful, noble guide in proper ways of living, ruler of the wide world, friend of the people, bear and bring the beauty, peace and jewel wealth of life for the protection and advancement of the intelligent admirer who has distilled the soma of life's joy, confidently conducts the business of life to success, conquers suffering unto overflowing happiness and refines the manners and graces of life.

And Agni, O ruler of the world, as we, dedicated to you, work for you with our hands and feet and indeed with our body and soul, so may all the intelligent people, cooperating with you with the work of their dexterous hands, move together as by a chariot car and take you and all to the destination of truth and rectitude toward perfection.

And then, like the seven rainbow colours of the lights of mother dawn, let us raise ourselves to seven classes of intelligent and dynamic functionaries: ruler, presidents of councils, army, commanders, people, services and ancillaries. Let us create leaders and visionary pioneers of knowledge and education. Let us all rise to be the children of light, dexterous as divine architects, dear as vital breath of life, and then, cleansing and brightening up the well provided prosperous people who are wealth of the motherland, let us break the clouds for rain and shatter the mountains of difficulty converting them to opportunities.

Agni, ruler of light and humanity, let us all together, dedicated to truth and rectitude, rise and shine as did our forefathers, earliest and later ones, and pure and sanctified, singing songs of divine praise, breaking new ground upon the earth, let us rise to the heights of power and discover new lights of existence, and so may rise our future generations too.

Brilliant people of noble action, deeply committed to holy pursuits and aspiring to rise to the stars, fanning their life to light and purity in the crucibles of knowledge and experience as they refine gold and temper steel in the furnace, raising the flames of fire and exalting the honour and excellence of the nation, sitting and discussing in conferences, extend the bounds of terrific energy and knowledge of the earth and skies unto the stars.

As the master proclaims the material wealth of his house of prosperity, as the commander proclaims the forces under his command, so do you, O lustrous ruler, reflect the presence around you of noble and brilliant leaders and scholars. And thus do the multitudes of people, like the rise of dawns, plan and prepare for the rise and progress of the land just as the producer master prays for the generous cloud and wishes for the health and age of life's longevity.

We act in service to you, O Lord Agni, giver of light and life to the world, by which alone we can be called good performers. The brilliant dawns, wearing the divine mantle of truth and showers of light, perfectly and variously adorn the fire-divine, perfect and glorious eye of the self-refulgent Lord of the universe, which is the sun.

poets speak for you, Lord Omniscient Agni. Please to accept these, consider, shine and rise to reveal the light of your glory to our vision. Make us rich with the wealth of divinity. Lord universal friend of the many who choose, lead us to glorious honour and excellence in existence.

Mandala 4/Sukta 3

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

आ वा राजानमध्वरस्य रुद्रं हातारं सत्ययज्ञं रादस्याः । अग्निं

1. Ā vo rājānam-adhvarasya rudraṁ hotāraṁ satya-yajam rodasyoḥ. Agniṁ purā tanayitnora-cittāddhiranyarūpam-avase kṛṇudhvam.

All ye people of the land, before the unexpected and inconceivable thunder and lightning, light the fire and, for the protection and advancement of your peaceful, non-violent yajnic social order in the midst of heaven and earth, appoint the golden gloried ruler, a very Rudra, saviour of the good, a terror for the evil, hota, a yajaka and not a grabber or hoarder, but one inviolably dedicated to truth and Dharma.

अयं यानिश्चकृमा यं वयं तं जायव पत्यं उशती सुवासाः ।

2. Ayam yoniścakṛmā yaṁ vayaṁ te jāyeva patya uśatī suvāsāḥ. Arvācīnaḥ parivīto ni ṣīdemā u te svapāka pratīcīḥ.

This is the seat of office we create and offer to you. It is offered as a young loving wife dressed in her best finery offers her love to her husband and protector. O ruler most modern, all round well provided, self made and self prepared, take this seat and see these are the people looking up to you.

आशृण्वत अदृपिताय मन्म नृच िस सुमृळीकाय वधः ।

3. Āśṛṇvate adr̥pitāya manma nṛcakṣase sumṛṭīkāya vedhaḥ. Devāya śastim-amṛtāya śaṁsa grāveva sotā madhuṣud yamīle.

I offer a hymn of praise and appreciation as an expression of my thought, O wise and virtuous ruler of the world, to you, brilliant, immortal and divinely blissful, who listen attentively and politely without pride and arrogance, watching the human situation all round in the interest of common good. Accept and approve of the hymn I present, be gracious as a cloud of showers, a maker of soma and a creator of honeyed joy.

4. Tvaṁ cinnaḥ śamyā agne asyā ṛtasya bodhy-ṛtacit svādhīḥ. Kadā ta ukthā sadhamādyāni kadā bhavanti sakhyā gr̥he te.

Agni, ruler of humanity, you know the truth and law of existence, you think freely and rightly too. Know the truth and character of this nation of ours. Let them know too of the truth and law of right knowledge and conduct for the sake of right action. When will there be proper and friendly discussions of yours and assemblies in your yajnic house of law and government?

5. Kathā ha tad varuṇāya tvamagne kathā dive garhase kannā āgaḥ. Kathā mitrāya mīlhuṣe pṛthivyai bravah kadaryamṇe kad bhagāya.

“What is our sin, or crime or misconduct?” Agni, ruler of the world, when and why would you speak thus to Varuna, lord of justice and rectitude? to the lord of light and knowledge? to the bountiful? to the earth and the dear motherly woman? to the chief of law? to the man of power and prosperity?

6. Kad dhiṣṇyāsu vṛdhasāno agne kad vātāya pratavase śubhamye. Parijmane nāsatyāya kṣe bravah kadagne rudrāya nṛghne.

Agni, ruler of the world, when would you be growing with and among the intellectuals? And growing with and among them, when would you speak to and about the eminent in knowledge, strength, peace and good will, all round goers, truthful and the landed farmers? to the chief of justice about the killers of humanity?

7. Kathā mahe puṣṭimbharāya pūṣṇe kad rudrāya sumakhāya havirde. Kad viṣṇava urugāyāya reto bravah kadagne śarave brhatyai.

Agni, when and how would you speak to and about the great creator and producer for nourishment and growth, Pushan, to and about Rudra, destroyer of enemies, the generous yajaka, the giver of holy materials for yajna? How would you pray to Vishnu, universally celebrated lord sustainer of the world? Lord generous and peaceful at heart, how would you speak to and about the great forces of defence against violence and destruction?

Agni, O Jataveda, lord ruler and master of knowledge of things in existence, how would you speak to and about the sacred law of truth, about the forces swift as the winds? And when asked, what and how would you speak about the mighty great leaders bright as the sun among people? How would you speak to and about the excellent, abundant and inviolable sky? O master of knowledge, rising higher and higher in awareness, achieve the light, reaching unto the solar regions.

9. Rtena ṛtaṁ niyatamīḷa ā gorāmā sacā madhumat pakvamagne. Kṛṣṇā satī ruśatā dhāsinaiṣā jāmar-yena payasā pīpāya.

Agni, O lord giver of the light and life of the world, I honour and respect the truth and law of existence by observance of the truth and law of life on earth as required and determined by the demands of life on earth and set out in the language of the earth, while I live on earth one with the honey sweets of the ripe and raw treasures of the earth. May the mother earth, being green and bright with nourishments, grow with food and drink for the sustenance of her children by the efforts of her children.

10. Ṛtena hi śmā vṛṣabhaścidaktaḥ pumāñ agniḥ payasā prṣṭhyena. Aspandamāno acarad vayodhā vṛṣā śukraṁ duduhe prśnirūdhaḥ.

Sustained in tune by the truth of life and law of existence, nourished on food and drink from spaces above, the virile bull, manly man and lustrous Agni, creator of light and life on earth, ruler of the world, moves around with majesty, unagitated, bearing the dignity and vitality of health and age, replete with energy and generosity like the cloud, and distils the fire and lustre of life from the skies as milk from the mother cow.

11. Ṛtenādrim vyasan bhidantaḥ samaṅgiraso navanta gobhiḥ. Śunaṁ naraḥ pari ṣadannuṣāsa-māviḥ svarabhavajjāte agnau.

Ye leaders of the world, by the force of Rtam, nature's law, when the cosmic fire of energy is awake, then the roaring winds, breaking the cloud with their currents, rain down the showers, mankind on earth find peace and prosperity, and the light, riding the dawn, rises to view as the radiant sun.

12. Rtena devīramṛtā amṛktā arṇobhirāpo madhumadbhiragne. Vājī na sargeṣu prastubhānaḥ prasadamit sravitave dadhanyuh.

Agni, light of life, ruler of the world, by Rtam, force of eternal truth and nature's law, do the celestial waters of life, immortal, unhurt, with currents of spatial oceans bearing honey sweets of life's energy, ceaselessly flow on like a war horse flying on to battles, in order to move life on and on with energy without end or exhaustion.

13. Mā kasya yakṣaṁ sadmiddhuro gā mā veśasya praminato māpeḥ. Mā bhrāturagne anṛjorṇaṁ vermā sakhyurdakṣaṁ riporbhujema.

Agni, giver of the light of intelligence, let us not go to the meeting place of a deceitful person, nor to the door of a violent grabber, nor take the debt or obligation of a crooked brother, and may we, we pray, never try to benefit from, much less depend on, the strength and expertise of an enemy in the garb of a friend.

Agni, ruler of the earth, blissful giver of happiness, all protector, presiding genius of yajna, social justice and noble conduct, protect us with all your methods and forces of protection and defence, shine and inspire us to good action, eliminate the blackest sin and hardest crime, destroy the wicked, even powerful ones and on the increase.

Agni, giver of light and life, with these songs of prayer and these learned devotees, be pleased and happy at heart. Accept and approve of these dedicated people of thought and action. Brave and heroic leader dear as breath of life, accept and enjoy these gifts of homage and reverence. May this song of praise offered by the holy celebrants be pleasing to you and exalting.

Agni, giver of life and light, lord of knowledge, vision and wisdom, leader, ruler, pioneer, all these songs of adoration, creative, deep and grave, meaningful and fruitful, fluent and poetic, are sincere expressions of the heart which I, inspired and moved to ecstasy, present to you, poet and scholar, with divine hymns of holiness in the company of the wise and dedicated celebrants.

Agni Rakshoha Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

कृणुष्व पाजः पसितिं न पृथ्वीं याहि राजवामवाँ इभन ।

Arise, be strong and brilliant, go over and round the earth in orbit, spread your network over the dominion and, firm and powerful, move as a king by the elephant. Impetuous and terrible, shoot like a rocket all round wherever needed for thirsting and ensnared earth as it could be, and, like an archer as you are, fix the demons of violence with your blazing arrows.

2. Tava bhramāsa āśuyā patantyanu spṛśa dhr̥ṣatā śośucānaḥ. Patūṁṣyagne juhvā pataṅgānasam-dito vi sṛja viṣvagulkāḥ.

Your roving rockets whirl round impetuously. Shining and blazing with power and force, strike off the enemies wherever they be. Unhurt, whole and unopposed, shoot out all round burning rockets of defence like sparks of fire fed on ladlefuls of ghrta offered into the fire of the vedi.

Agni, brilliant ruler and blazing power, shoot out detectors, appoint detectives and spies, and send out ambassadors, be swift in action and response, and, bold, unhurtful and undeceived, be the protector and sustainer of this human nation, and whoever be the sinner or supporter of the wicked far or near us must not insult, impair or violate your rule and order.

Agni, mighty and brilliant power, rise in flames and shine on, let the light spread around. O wielder of blazing weapons, burn off the unfriendly and the enemies. Shining and rising power, whoever creates enemies and causes adversity, burn down like a dry fibre of flax.

Rise high and shine there, having fixed the enemies far from us, and thus reveal the divine actions of your own and of the enlightened. Loosen and reduce the firm establishments of the gate crashers and the go-getters whether related or unrelated, and destroy the enemies of the order of enlightenment.

Agni, refulgent lord ruler of the world, he would be highly prosperous and generously charitable who loves to serve you with unfailing oblations of havi and songs of praise and prayer. And surely for such a person, in his own life, within his own home, all his days would be happy and his yajna and all desired acts would be fruitful.

Agni, mighty ruler of the world, I pray for your favour and blessings of love and good will. May these words of my favourite voice address you and this adoration of mine glorify you. Blest with noble horses and beautiful chariots, may we exalt you, and may you, day by day, hold and sustain our social order and its systems of governance and administration.

Let man amply and wholly serve you, refulgent ruler of the world, sincerely by heart and soul, day and night, day after day. Let us all, guardians of the total wealth and honour of the people, rejoicing at heart as playing with arms for defence of the nation, serve Agni, father protector of humanity.

Whoever possessing noble horses and golden gold approaches you by a chariot loaded with treasures of wealth, and offers service and hospitality readily and ceaselessly without reserve, without question, you accept and own as a friend, protect him as a guardian and save him as a redeemer.

I shatter great evils and open deep mysteries by kinship with Divinity and words of eternity which I inherit from my father guardian who commands all knowledge of existence and the language of omniscience. Agni, cosmic yajaka, ever youthful light, master of universal dynamics, self controlled controller, give us the vision and knowledge of the ultimate reality and the Word imperishable.

Agni, life of life, light eternal, universal intelligence, your streams of life, your rays of light and waves of cosmic energy, sleepless, continuous, gracious, relentless, inviolent, and indefatigable, which ever flow integrated and together may, we pray, bless our yajnic home and give us a fresh lease of life every moment.

Agni, lord of universal knowledge and power, all those defensive powers of yours which, ever watchful and protective, save people from sin and protect them from evil and crime as their own kith and kin who cannot by themselves see, all those holy yajnic powers of noble action, O lord, protect and promote, so that the repressive enemies may not be able to terrorise the poor and the ignorant.

Guide aright, order and control both the eulogiser and the calumniator far and near, and, with appropriate measures, take us out of timidity and make us bold in defence of truth and rectitude without embarrassment or hesitation.

Agni, greatest friend, adorable lord and ruler of the world, with this lighted fuel and enlightened contribution to the yajna of the social and cosmic order, we offer the song of homage to you. Be gracious to accept it. Burn down the revilers and the evil perpetrators of destruction and protect us against the jealousy, calumny and scandalous actions of the enemies.

How shall we, in accord with Agni, happy and rejoicing, offer homage, service and support to the great, generous Vaishvanara Agni, vital fire sustaining the earth, leader and ruler of humanity who, with his awful might and unbounded reach, mighty lustrous as he is, holds up this vast world like a column bearing the burden of a mighty structure.

2. Mā nindata ya imāṁ rātiṁ devo dadau martyāya svadhāvān. Pākāya gr̥tso amṛto vicetā vaiśvānaro nṛtamo yahvo agniḥ.

Never blame, censure or revile Vaishvanara Agni, self-refulgent and generous self-existent lord of his infinite wealth and power, who has given us this great gift of food, energy and wealth of abundant nature for the simple, growing, maturing world of mortal humanity, Agni, who is self-revealing through the beauty of his own creation, immortal, omniscient teacher, best leader of men and awfully great.

Agni, refulgent lord immanent in earth and heaven, commanding blazing heat and light, abundant a thousandfold, generous and virile as sun and cloud, mighty powerful, master of knowledge, may, we pray, speak to me of the great and deep knowledge and karma pertaining to earth and heaven, body and soul, deep as the mystery of sun and stars.

4. Pra tāñ agnirbabhasat tigmajambhastapiṣṭhena śociṣā yaḥ surādadhāḥ. Pra ye minanti varuṇasya dhāma priyā mitrasya cetato dhruvāṇi.

May Agni, blazing lord of power and stern rule of law, commanding the wealth, power and prosperity of the world with his splendour and magnificence, crush with the heat of his power and force of his justice the dear favourites and strongholds of those who sabotage and destroy the stability of the systems and institutions of the noble and friendly powers of enlightenment, justice, peace, unity and cooperation.

5. Abhrātaro na yoṣaṇo vyantaḥ patiripo na janayo durevāḥ. Pāpāsaḥ santo anṛtā asatyā idaṁ padamajanatā gabhīram.

As maidens without brothers and guardians to care for them, as wives who deceive their husbands, go astray from the right path and follow a wrong course of life, so the misguided people, self-deceived evil doers, false and untrue, go astray and, following the wrong course, create this hellish state of life in society.

6. Idaṁ me agne kiyate pāvakā'minate gurum bhāram na manma. Bṛhad dadhātha dhṛṣatā gabhīram yahvaṁ prṣṭhaṁ prayasā saptadhātu.

Agni, master of knowledge and power, purifier of body, mind and soul, I pray, bear and bring for me sevenfold knowledge of matter, mind and motion, knowledge which is universal, deep and grave, greatly powerful and wide in range and application. Bless me with the knowledge along with the gift of love and courage as a burden of great responsibility. I assure you I am a humble seeker and I shall bear the burden well without arrogance and violence.

That equal, beautiful, constant and vital zone of light and heat of Vaishvanara Agni fixed round and over the surface of the dormant and colourful earth, separated and condensed from the solar sphere in earlier times before life emerged, may our noble intelligence, purifying and sanctifying us by the light of the Lord, reach and reveal through our holy acts of study, prayer and holy action.

What is worthy of being proclaimed, hidden in the secret cave of this word of mine, and what the scholars and visionaries, purifying and sanctifying, mysteriously whisper closely to you is That Orb of light and heat which, like a liquid zone of vapours, covers, vitalises, sustains and reveals the dear, first, highest life and beauty of the dawn, of cows and the flying earth.

This same orb of light and zone of vitality, greatest of the great, glorious, ancient and eternal, blazing over the regions of the waters of space and the facts and laws of existence, which the productive earths serve and follow and join as partners of the system, which vibrates in the depths of the heart and vibrates in the depths of the soul, I know, you know, all perceive.

10. Adha dyūtānaḥ pitroḥ sacāsā'manuta guhyam cāru pṛśneḥ. Mātuṣpade parame anti ṣad gorvṛṣṇaḥ śociṣaḥ prayatasya jihvā.

And the light shines between heaven and earth, one with all, vibrating in the highest regions of Mother Nature at the closest and within, directly watching and knowing the raining clouds, the blazing sun, and the blowing wind and flowing waters. All ye men and women, know that lovely and wondrous mystery of the spirit of colourful reality of existence hidden in the cave of the heart.

11. Ṛtaṁ voce namasā pṛchhyamānastavaśasā jātavedo yadīdam. Tvamasya kṣayasi yaddha viśvaṁ divi yadu draviṇaṁ yat pṛthivyām.

O Jataveda, omniscient and omnipresent Agni, if I were asked, I would speak the truth in all humility by your grace: All this that is, all that exists in heaven, all that is in and on earth, all that is the wealth, power and excellence, all is yours, it abides in you, you pervade it all, you govern it all and, ultimately, you absorb it all by drawing in and reducing it to the point of zero.

12. *Kim no asya draviṇaṁ kaddha ratnaṁ vi no voco

O Jataveda, you know all and everything in existence. Speak to us and guide us: Of all this world, what wealth is ours? What jewels? Speak to us of that, so that going by the light of divine vision and intelligence we may achieve the best and reach the highest goal that is ours, and we at the end don't have to go empty handed, reviled and exposed.

13. *Kā maryādā vayunā kaddha vāmamacchā

What are the rules of the game of karma? What ultimate bounds? Speak to us, enlighten us: When could we, racing like a courser, moving like waves of energy, creditably reach our cherished goal? When would the sun, the dawns and the celestial vibrations of immortality like life-giving nurses inspire us with light and lustre to rise to perfection?

Agni, light and spirit of knowledge and master of the language of knowledge, listeners remain unsatisfied, their thirst for knowledge unquenched, with lifeless, unsubstantial, ambiguous and deficient words. Then what do the speakers speak of you, or to you, or about you, here? Being like warriors without arms, they should come to you, speakers as well as listeners, for light, knowledge and words for effective and living communication.

For the expression of the grace and majesty of this Agni, lord of light and ruler of the world, bright and blazing, generous, home and haven of all like mother earth, his force and splendour shines in his home. And he himself, refulgent giver of radiance, magnificent in form, treasure home and universal giver of heavenly and earthly gifts for all, shines with regal magnificence and wealth of the world like mother earth shining with the greenery of her abundance and generosity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 6

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

ऊ॒र्ध्व ऊ॒ षु णा॑ अध्वरस्य हातरग्र॒ तिष्ठ॑ द॒वता॑ता॒ यजी॑यान ।

1. Ūrdhva ū ṣu ṇo adhvarasya hotaragne tiṣṭha devatātā yajīyān. Tvam hi viśvamabhyasi manma pra vedhasaścit tirasi manīṣām.

Agni, lord of light, ruler of the world, cosmic yajamana, sit on top of our yajna of love and non-violence among the divine yajakas of nature and humanity. You alone know the world and all our thoughts, intentions and will, and you, at the heart of all performers, comprehend and transcend the knowledge, intelligence and awareness of the scholar.

2. Amūro hotā nyasādi vikṣvagnirmandro vidatheṣu pracetāḥ. Urdhvaṁ bhānuṁ savitevāśrenmeteva dhūmaṁ stabhāyadupa dyām.

Agni, all wise, universal yajamana, receiver and giver, creator of joy, brilliant in knowledge, sits and abides among the people in their yajnic social endeavours, diffuses the light and fragrance of yajna above close to the heavens like the sun and, like a builder and a column, holds the dark away.

3. Yatā sujūrñī rātinī ghṛtācī pradakṣiṇid devatā-timurāṇaḥ. Udu svarurnavajā nākraḥ paśvo anakti sudhitaḥ sumekah.

The night is come on her round vibrating with the wealth of rest and peace, applying a soothing balm to the hours of holy time and ushering in the approach of dawn, and the sun, harbinger of fresh energy, new born like a baby, self-proclaiming and enlightening the world, rising fast, watching all, shining beautiful, showering the nectar of soma, anoints the morning time of the day.

4. Stūrṇe barhiṣi samidhāne agnā ūrdhvo adhvaryur-jujuṣāṇo asthāt. Paryagniḥ paśupā na hotā triviṣṭyeti pradiva urāṇaḥ.

The sacred grass is spread over the vedi, the fire is lit and rises, the adhvaryu, chief priest organiser, is up and doing, having started the yajna. Agni, the sun, like the shepherd of the waking world, celestial yajaka, goes over the three regions of heaven, earth and sky radiating the light and illuminating the world.

5. Pari tmnā mitadrureti hotā'gnirmandro madhu-vacā ṛtāvā. Dravantyasya vājino na śokā bhayante viśvā bhuvanā yadbhrāt.

Agni, performer of yajna, happy and exhilarating, honey sweet of expression, moves and expands at its own self-controlled speed and will, keeping within the laws of existence. The rays of its light and the flames of fire rise and radiate like the waves of energy, and when it shines and blazes, all the worlds in existence feel the pressure of its force and power.

6. Bhadrā te agne svanīka saṁdṛg ghorasya sato viṣuṇasya cāruḥ. Na yat te śocistamasā varanta na dhvasmānas-tanvīrepa ā dhuḥ.

Agni, lord blissful of light, love and justice, commanding divine force and power, fearsome, eternally true and manifesting in infinite variety of the world of change, equal, kind and gracious is your eye by which you watch every living being. No evil forces can cover with darkness the light that is yours, nor can any devil and destroyer attribute any sin or smear or partiality to your body of law and justice.

7. Na yasya sāturjanitoravāri na mātārāpitarā nū cidiṣtau. Adhā mitro na sudhitaḥ pāvako'gnir-dīdāya mānuṣīṣu vikṣu.

Agni is the generous giver whose gifts cannot be denied or hidden as the gifts of father and mother, too, toward fulfilment of life's desire cannot be denied since Agni as a friend, blazing with light and glowing with generosity, blissful and sanctifying, shines among the people over everything that concerns humanity.

8. Dviryam pañca jījanantsamvasānāḥ svasāro agniṁ mānuṣīṣu vikṣu. Uṣarbudhamatharyo na dantaṁ śukraṁ svāsaṁ paraśuṁ na tigmam.

Twice do the five classes of people among all human communities, living happily together, moving on together like running streams and working together like fingers of the hand, kindle and raise Agni, vital energy waking up at dawn, voracious, blazing bright and beautiful, and thunderous as a bolt against darkness and suffering.

9. Tava tye agne harita ghr̥tasnā rohitāsa ṛjvañcaḥ svañcaḥ. Aruṣāso vṛṣaṇa ṛjumuṣkā ā devatātimahvanta dasmāḥ.

Agni, ruling power of light and liberality, those rainbow colours of your light and seven streams of energy are replete with the grace and power of ghr̥ta, red with the passion of life, straight and simple, natural and free, bright, generous, strong and right, destroyers of evil and harbingers of the benedictions of Divinity.

10. Ye ha tye-te sahamānā ayāsas-tveṣāso agne arcayaścaranti. Śyenāso na duvasanāso arthaṁ tuviṣvaṇaso mārutaṁ na śardhaḥ.

Agni, ruling power of the world, your flames of fire, blazing rays of light and electric waves of energy are patient and forbearing, yet challenging and victorious, awful and deeply perceptive and penetrative. Instant in action, they fall upon their object like falcons from the sky, and their force is like that of a roaring storm of wind shears.

Sung is the song of prayer and praise for you, O lord refulgent, the yajaka raises his voice in adoration which, pray, graciously accept for the good of the devotee, and bring him the object of his desire. Let people, loving and inspired, bearing fragrant homage with humility, come and sit round the vedi in worship of Agni, universal yajamana, loved and admired by humanity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 7

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

अयमिह पथमा धायि धातृभिहाता यजिष्ठा अध्वरष्वीड्यः । curvaneṣu citraṁ vibhvaṁ viśeṣe.*

This Agni here is the first and foremost power felt, lighted, installed and glorified by the pioneers of knowledge and yajnic action. It is the first performer of the cosmic yajna of creation, most adorable, worshipped in yajnas and all other programmes of love and non-violent development. The same wonderful and all embracing light and power, men of science and Divinity blest with descendants and disciples develop and glorify in the forests and every household for the benefit of every community.

2. *Agne kadā ta ānuṣag bhuvad devasya cetanam.
Adhā hi tvā jagṛbhire martāso vikṣvīdyaṁ.*

O Lord, when would people be in tune with the divine light, omniscience and generosity of yours in their consciousness? And when would the mortals hold your presence as adorable in every moment, in every thought and action, in every home?

ऋतावानं विचतसं पश्यन्ता द्यामिव स्तुभिः ।

3. *Ṛtāvānaṁ vicetasam paśyanto dyāmiva str̥bhiḥ.
Viśveśāmadhvarāṇāṁ haskartāraṁ damedame.*

When would the mortals in every home adore the universal Agni, watching and realising in yajna the presence of the lord of the order of universal law, commanding the cosmic intelligence of existence and lighting up all the yajnas of the world in evolutionary development with vital fire as he lights up the heavens with stars?

आशुं दूतं विवस्वता विश्वा यश्चर्षणीरभि ।

4. Āśum dūtam vivasvato viśvā yaścarsaṇīrabhi.
Ā jabhruḥ ketumāyavo bhṛgavāṇam viśeviśe.

The one that sustains all people of the world, that vital fire, instant carrier of sunlight, the very sign of life, maturing everything existent, the people of the earth and their descendants, when would it be received and installed in every home?

तमीं हातारमानुषक्चिक्त्वांसं नि षदिर ।

5. Tamīm hotāramānuṣak cikivāṁsam ni ṣedire.
Raṇvam pāvakaśociṣam yajiṣṭham sapta dhāma-

Fully and appropriately they install, maintain and sit by that Agni, receiver and giver of gifts in yajna, enlightening, bright and happy, drying, maturing and vitalising things like light and fire, most lovable and adorable. They maintain, serve and benefit from it seven ways through five senses, five pranas, and mind and intellect, and worship the power in every home of every community.

6. Tam śasvatīṣu mātṛṣu vana ā vītamaśritam. Citraṁ santaṁ guhā hitaṁ suvedaṁ kūcidarthinam.

That Agni, present in permanent sources, in forests, immanent everywhere, independent and free, wonderful as hidden in a cave, knowledgeable and deeply meaningful, they maintain and serve.

7. Sasasya yad viyutā sasminnūdhanṛtasya dhāman raṇayanta devāḥ. Mahāñ agnirnamasā rātahavyo veradhvarāya sadamidṛtāvā.

Far from sleep, the bounties of nature rejoice in the entire spaces of the skies and over the celebrations of yajna. We pray that the great Agni, light and lord of yajna, fed on offerings and rich in gifts, commanding the laws of truth and showers of bliss may pervade our home for the performance and completion of yajna.

Veradhvarasya dūtyāni vidvānubhe antā rodasī saṁcikitvān. Dūta īyase pradiva urāṇo viduṣṭaro diva ārodhanāni.

Agni, omnipresent lord of yajna fire, you know the motions and vibrations of yajna rising and pervading in both earth and skies since, being carrier of the fragrance, ancient and all mobile, inviolable and unconquerable, you rise and reach even the heights and caverns of secret heavens.

9. *Kṛṣṇaṁ ta ema ruśataḥ puro bhāś-cariṣṇav-

Let us know the motive force and paths of your brilliant light, both centripetal and centrifugal, the light and fire moving ahead, all round, blazing bright, unique among all forms of light. Just as an unpregnated female receives and carries the new embryo, so held in the unkindled vedi you light up immediately on ignition and rise to the heights as carrier of flames and fragrance.

10. *Sadyo jātasya dadṛśānamajo yadasya vāto

The light and lustre of the flames of this Agni instantly risen becomes worth seeing when the wind fans its flames and spreads the blaze into the forests and uproots strong and firm trees and, with the flames as jaws it crushes and devours the strong as food. And when with the breeze and vital heat it fans the vegetation with its currents, it protects, matures and provides the foods for life.

Mighty Agni, fire and energy, fast and quick, speedily bears and brings food, and functions as instant carrier of communications. Running and rising fast, it joins the company of the winds and, like a galloping horse and current of energy, it travels over vast distances. I invoke Agni (for light, food and communications).

Mandala 4/Sukta 8

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

दूतं वा विश्ववदसं हव्यवाहममत्यम ।
यजिष्ठमृञ्जस गिरा ॥ १ ॥

1. *Dūtaṁ vo viśvavedasaṁ havyavāhamamartyam.
Yajiṣṭhamṛñjase girā.*

O scholar and master of the science of fire and energy, with your words and thought you study and develop the power of Agni, carrier of communications, all round operative in the universe, bearer of food and fragrances, imperishable, and most creative, productive, cooperative and valuable catalytic agent of the natural and human world. O men and women of the world, the scientist develops it for you all.

2. *Sa hi vedā vasudhitim mahāñ ārodhanaṁ divaḥ.

Ye men and women of the world, that knower alone knows Agni, treasure hold of heavenly light and divine beneficence of universal wealth. That Agni is great, that alone brings us here the light and graces of nature and divinity.

3. *Sa veda deva ānamam devāñ ṛtāyate dame.

That brilliant scholar knows the operative powers of nature and knows how to respect and value them. He inspires the learned and noble people, and he energises and moves nature's gifts for the creation of wealth and power in the house of yajna. Agni thus bestows the cherished gifts of wealth and comfort for the good life.

4. *Sa hotā sedu dūtyam cikitvāñ antariyate.

5. *Asya ghā vīra īvato' gnerīśīta martyaḥ.

Only that brave man among mortals can command the wealth and power of the world who is a yajnic follower of this Agni, dynamic leader, generous giver and unflinchingly just and powerful.

Neither well informed nor inspired nor fully prepared as I am, may the youthful Agni, companion power of divinity, awaken and inform me by the gifts of Ashvins, light and knowledge of the teacher and the preacher, breath and beauty of nature and the light and fragrance of yajna.

I readily accept the breath and beauty of nature and the light and fragrance of yajna, gifts of the Ashvins, teachers and preachers, adorable messengers of life coming from Agni, youthful brilliance of Divinity.

Divine Ashvins, messengers of the light of Divinity, brilliant and generous teachers and preachers, both of you bless this youth, devotee of Divinity, with long life.

Mandala 4/Sukta 16

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

आ सत्या यातु मघवाँ ऋजीषी दवन्त्वस्य हरय उप

1. *Ā satyo yātu maghavāñ ṛjīṣī dravantvasya haraya

hābhipitvaṁ karate gṛṇānaḥ.*

May Indra, lord ruler of the world, ever true, mighty bounteous and ever righteous in natural ways, come to us. May his men and powers hasten to us to help and bless. For his sake we produce energising food and distil exciting soma. Praised and appreciated and praising and appreciating, he provides us all with sustenance and protection in this world order.

अवस्य शूराध्वना नान्तस्मि ता अद्य सर्वन मन्दध्य ।

2. Ava sya śūrādhvano nānte'smin no adya savane mandadhyai. Śaṁsātyukthamuśaneva vedhā-ścikituṣe asuryāya manma.

Indra, such as you are, guard us in this yajnic programme of holy living so that we may enjoy life and you too be happy with us. Guard us, pray, O Ruler, as you would the boundaries of the path of progress. Forsake us not till the end. The wise celebrant like a poet and lover sings songs of adoration and speaks words of wisdom to enlighten the simple innocents eager to learn and pray.

कविन निष्यं विदथानि साधन्वृषा यत्सकं विपिपाना

3. Kavirna niṣyam vidathāni sādhan vṛṣā yat sekam vipipāno arcāt. Diva itthā jījanat sapta kārū-nahnā ciccakrurvayunā grṇantah.

The generous man of might and vision accomplishing the performance of various yajnas of science, like a poet, receiving mysteriously but surely the shower of light from above, preserving it with reverence and advancing it, creates knowledge from the light above, and then the scholars, admiring and pursuing it further by day, create seven kinds of science and technology and raise seven orders of scientists and technologists. (The mantra suggests the science of spectrum and development of light technology.)

4. *Svaryad vedi sudrśīkamarkairmahi jyotī ruru-

The heavenly light and paradisaal bliss that is revealed by the reflections of knowledge and radiations of the sun, the greatness and sublimity of ultimate reality that is revealed and shines as the dawn of the day, the impenetrable layers of darkness that are laid open and bare, all that, Indra, the best of men and highest of leaders and divinities, does for the sake of humanity for their highest good so that all may see and admire.

5. Vavakṣa indro amitamṛjīṣyubhe ā paprau rodasī mahitvā. Ataścidasya mahimā vi recyabhi yo viśvā bhuvanā babhūva.

Indra, lord supreme of nature and Rtam, the law of nature, wiolds and sustains both heaven and earth, immeasurable though they are. He pervades both and transcends them with his power and grandeur. For this very reason, his power and grandeur too exceeds everything else of the universe since he pervades, transcends and presides over all the regions of the universe in existence.

bhir-nikāmaiḥ. Aśmānaṁ cid ye bibhidurvacobhir-vrajaṁ gomantam-uśijo vi vavruḥ.*

Indra, world ruler, commanding knowledge and power, exhausts all the possibilities of human action with his dedicated friends who, even with words of command, break down adamant resistance and, passionate for action, open up and reveal the hidden treasures of wealth and energy of nations, like cowherds releasing cows from the stalls or winds breaking the clouds and releasing the waters.

yāṇyainoḥ patirbhavañchavasā śūra dhṛṣṇo.*

Indra, ruler of the world, just as, when thunderous rays of the sun break the dark cloud holding waters of rain, the earth rejoices and rivers flow to the sea, so O mighty one, all-aware and intrepidable hero, be the master protector and promoter ruler with your strength and power and, by virtue of the centrifugal force of your power and law, break open the dark strongholds of energy and action, and let the freedom and vitality of humanity flow in action unto the ocean of eternal Divinity.

8. Apo yadadriṃ puruhūta dardarāvirbhuvat saramā pūrvyam te. Sa no netā vājamā darśi bhūri gotrā rujann-aṅgirobhir-grṇānah.

Indra, universal celebrity, when you break the cloud of hoarded potentials and your simple and straight policy of governance and administration comes into full view on earth, then you, such leader and commander of ours, sung and celebrated by scholars and scientists, manifest your power and policy further and break open the many centre-holds of human intelligence and social energy.

9. Acchā kavim nrmaṇo gā abhiṣṭau svarṣātā maghavan-nādhmānam. Ūtibhis-tamiṣaṇo dyumnahūtau ni māyāvānabrahmā dasyurarta.

Indra, winner of the light of heaven and harbinger of light on earth, lover of humanity, lord of glory, for the sake of desired goals and for the achievement of honour, wealth and excellence, inspire the poet, promote language and education, advance the seeker, scientist and researcher, with protection and incentive, and whoever be the clever exploiter opposed to knowledge, social good and general well being, let him be defeated.

10. Ā dasyughnā manasā yāhyastam bhuvat te kutsaḥ sakhye nikāmaḥ. Sve yonau ni śadataṁ sarūpāvi vām cikitsadṛtaciddha nārī.

O destroyer of the wicked, come home to your own with your heart and soul. May the sage and the warrior be eager for your friendship. May both of you, being of equal mind, sit together in the home. May the woman, discriminative and expert in the sacred law of Dharma, know you well and cooperate.

11. Yāsi kutsena sarathamavasyustodo vātasya haryorīśānaḥ. Rjra vājam na gadhyam yuyūṣan kaviryadahan pāryāya bhūṣāt.

You advance with the thunderbolt, O protector of the people, destroyer of enemies, riding the chariot, commanding the house like currents of the winds, a very team of energy and velocity in hand, the lord of vision and creation who destroys the wicked and wins the glory of victory.

12. Kutsāya śuṣṇamaśuṣam ni barhīḥ prapitve ahnaḥ kuyavam sahasrā. Sadyo dasyūn pra mṛṇa kutsyena pra sūraścakraṁ bṛhatādabhīke.

For the sake of the wise and discriminate, you root out persistent want and drought. On the rise of the day you overthrow a thousand forms of pettiness and stinginess. You destroy the evil and the wicked by your thunderous force and, like the solar orb, scatter the enemy forces all round.

For the sake of the man of rectitude and continuance of law abiding generations of the pious yajniks, you subdue the swollen and wide spread wastours, hunters of forest wealth and destroyers of social good. Create a new force of fifty thousand warriors and like a storm of wind blow off the enemy strongholds, changing the old outmoded forms for the new.

14. Sūra upāke tanvaṃ dadhāno vi yat te cetya-mṛtasya varpaḥ. Mṛgo na hastī taviṣīmuṣāṇaḥ sinho na bhīma āyūdhani bibhrat.

Indra, warrior hero blazing as the sun, around you the new form of your immortal self manifesting a new character wielding new arms appears like a mighty elephant, a ferocious lion, awfully burning off the lustre of enemy forces.

इन्द्रं कामा वसूयन्ता अगमन्त्स्वमी ह न सर्वन चक्रानाः ।

15. Indraṁ kāmā vasūyanto agmantsvarmīlḥe na savane cakānāḥ. Śravasyavaḥ śaśamānāsa ukthairoko na raṇvā sudṛṣṭiva puṣṭiḥ.

Those who love life, wish for the wealth of life, strive for the bliss of heaven on earth through yajnic action, desire for food, energy and victory in the battle of living, and with songs of praise and faith wish to achieve delightful health and nourishment in a paradisaal home, all should go and join Indra, brilliant and potent ruler of the world.

16. Tamidva indraṁ suhavaṁ huvema yastā cakāra naryā puruṇi. Yo māvate jaritre gadhyaṁ cinma-kṣū vājaṁ bharati spārharādhāḥ.

For sure that Indra, holily invoked and honoured, we invoke, join and celebrate, Indra who does all those many wondrous things for humanity, who, for the celebrant like me, bears and provides all the many desired kinds of food, energy and victory, and who is the source giver of things we love for all mankind.

17. Tigmā yadantaraśaniḥ patāti kasmiñcicchūra muhuke janānām. Ghorā yadarya samṛtir-bhavā-tyadha smā nasthanvo bodhi gopāḥ.

Indra, lord of excellence and glory, mighty brave hero, if a blazing thunderous missile falls like lightning upon the people in the midst of some battle, or, O celebrated lord, some terrible battle conflicts arise on the earth, then you alone, O world ruler, are the protector of our body of humanity you know.

18. Bhuvo'vitā vamdevasya dhīnām bhuvah sakhā-vṛko vājasātau. Tvāmanu prmtimā jaganmoru-śaṁso jaritre viśvadha syāḥ.

Indra, ruler of the world, be protector of the holy and graceful scholar and promoter of arts and sciences. Be our friend and supporter, free from greed and violence in the battles of life for victory so that, O lord universally celebrated, we may follow our good sense and your guidance. Be the bearer and giver of the world's wealth for the faithful celebrant.

19. Ebhirnṛbhirindra tyāyubhiṣṭvā maghvadbhir-maghavan viśva ājau. Dyāvo na dhumnairabhi santo aryah kṣapo madema śaradaśca pūrvīḥ.

Indra, lord of glory, commander of the world's honour and excellence, lord of wealth and grace, with all these leaders of men, your lovers and celebrants all, wealthy, powerful and honourable, and with all our wealth and power, we pray, let us all shine being brilliant as sunrays in the battle of life and let us enjoy and celebrate life and the lord all nights and days and seasons all the year round on top of the world.

Thus for Indra, lord of glory, virile and generous, let us create wealth and offer songs of homage and celebration just as the Bhrgus, scientists and engineers, create and offer the chariot, so that he may not forsake us but firmly retain our friendship, and, bright and blazing as he is, he may continue to be our protector and saviour of our body and the social order.

Indra, appreciated, praised and worshipped, appreciating, approving and praising your devotees, create and give ample food and energy to the celebrants, like rivers flowing and swelling with waters. O lord of speed and transport, with the best of our intellect and imagination, the new homage and new song is created and offered to you. And, we pray, with the same intellect and imagination may we be chariot champions blest with divine gifts of prosperity and spirituality.

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

त्वं म॒हाँ इ॒न्द्र तु॒भ्यं ह॒ ॥ अ॒नु॒ । त्रं म॒ह॒ना॒ म॒न्य॒त॒ द्याः ।

Indra, lord ruler of the world, you are great and glorious. The earths do homage to your divine order as do the heavens. By virtue of your glory alone are the earths and heavens revered as great. By your power and prowess you break the cloud and release the floods of water locked up and devoured by the dark and deep of the clouds.

By your blazing glory, O lord manifest, does the heaven shine and dazzle. By force and fear of your essential law and power does the earth move in order and the deep clouds and mighty mountains, excellent all bound in law, shower rain on deserts and make the floods of water flow.

3. Bhinadgirim śavasā vjramiṣṇannāviṣkṛṇvānaḥ sahasāna ojaḥ. Vadhīdvṛtram vajreṇa manda-sānaḥ sarannāpo javasā hatavṛṣṇīḥ.

Indra, hero bold and invincible, happy and joyous, striking thunder and lightning with his mighty force, thereby manifesting his lustrous blaze of power, destroys the cloud of darkness with the thunderbolt, making the floods of water flow with rapidity after the vapours have been unlocked and released.

(The mantra is a metaphor of the energies of life, of nature as well as of humanity, being unlocked and released by the ruling power with a strike of the force of law and justice against the strongholds of darkness, evil and selfishness which lock up those energies and prevent them from flowing into channels of progress and evolution.)

4. Suvīraste janitā manyata dyaurindrasya kartā svapastamo bhūt. Ya īm jajāna svaryam suvajra-manapacyutam sadaso na bhūma.

Magnificent and brave is your creator, your maker, to be honoured with reverence and awe, and let the creator, maker, of Indra, the ruler, be brilliant, the very light of the world, doer of great and holy deeds, the very epitome of the world, who gives rise to the great, omnificent, heavily armed and excellently empowered ruler, unswerving and unrelenting from his position, powers and obligations.

5. Ya eka iccyāvayati pra bhūmā rājā kṛṣṭīnām puruhūta indrah. Satyamenamanu viśve madanti rātiṁ devasya grṇato maghonaḥ.

The ruler of the people, Indra, invoked and celebrated by many, all by himself, alone, shakes and stirs many a great one, and surely all his admirers, in response to the munificence and generosity of the brilliant lord of magnificence and majesty, approve and support him, celebrate and rejoice with him.

May all the members and sessions of his assembly be good and true and successful. May all the sessions of the joyous celebrations of this great ruling order be happier than the happiest. Indra, O ruling lord president of the wealth of nations, be true to the entire body of people in the state of prosperity and rule with a mind above everything you rule and possess.

Indra, lord ruler of the world and destroyer of evil and ignorance, rising high as the first born of the home land, you take over the entire body of the people as presiding power, and then the lowest sections of the people and the sleeping sloth of the population, and then, O lord of fire and power, strike and shake up the sleeping giant with the thunderbolt and root out the serpentine ignorance and darkness.

Accept, honour and exalt Indra, ruler of the world, destroyer of untruth by the rule of truth and righteousness, bold, inspiring, great, unbounded, mighty generous, wielder of the thunderbolt of law and force, who is destroyer of the dark cloud of evil and selfishness, provider of food, energy and advancement, giver of honour and excellence, magnanimous and all-ways successful achiever of glory.

This ruler, elected, accepted and exalted, inspires and enlightens, he stirs and moves and leads trained armies to the battles of life, is excellent and magnanimous, listens to people and wins fame, and decides and acts with unique self-confidence. He creates and bears food and energy and leads forward in progress whoever approaches and cooperates with him. Let us all be friends with him and win his love and confidence.

This ruler is Indra, of resounding fame is he, winner of victories, destroyer of the killers and destroyers of the world, fights, and by fighting expands the lands of noble rule by the laws of peace. And when he expresses his righteous anger in action against misrule, the entire world, whether firm or unsettled, fears and shakes in awe.

By his strength and nobility, Indra wins over lands rich in the wealth of cows, precious gold and noble horses. Liberal and excellent he is and wins over the people ancient and far off who may be. And with these best of men and leaders, and by the power and talent of these, while he shares the gains of expansion with others, he also continues to wield and command the wealths of the world.

How far does Indra reflect on the debt he owes to his mother? How far on that he owes to his father? How does he gratefully acknowledge the gift of his makers? He who refreshes and renews his power and influence repeatedly by virtue of these makers and rejuvenators and moves on like the wind pressed on with thundering clouds?

13. Kṣiyantaṁ tvamakṣiyantaṁ kṛṇotīyarti reṇuṁ maghavā samoham. Vibhañjanuraśanimāṇ iva dyaauruta stotāraṁ maghavā vasau dhāt.

Indra settles the unsettled, gives a home to the homeless. Commanding power and glory, wielding thunder and lightning like radiance of the sun, he advances to battle and crushes the enemy to dust. And commanding wealth and honour of the world, he establishes the celebrant in a state of excellence and prosperity.

14. Ayam cakramiṣaṇatsūrysya nyetaśaṁ rīramatsasṛmāṇam. Ā kṛṣṇa īm juhurāṇo jigharti tvaco budhne rajaso asya yonau.

This Indra, lord ruler of cosmic energy, moves the wheel of the sun in orbit and then stops the continuance of the day's activity for rest. By virtue of the same energy the dark cloud in its tortuous motions holds and releases the waters to shower and flow. And the same Indra holds the great defining dark concentrations of energy in its cosmic womb at the deepest.

असिकन्यां यजमाना न हाता ॥ १५ ॥

15. Asiknyām yajamāno na hotā.

In the great dark night of the universe, Indra is the yajamana of creation, the clarion call as well as the performer, preserving the fire eternal.

Desirous of cows, horses, speed and energy, science and progress, and the love of our mates, we, scholars, sages and intelligent people exhort and move Indra for friendship, hero brave and generous, giver of birth and progeny and unfailing provider of protection and well-being. We move and exhort him as we lower a bucket into a well, shake it, fill it up with water and draw it up for our benefit.

17. *Trātā no bodhi dadṛśāna āpirabhihkyātā marḍitā

Know that, O people, who is our saviour and protector, ever watching, always present with us as brother, teacher and benefactor of loving peaceful devotees, friend, father and progenitor of our forefathers and sustainer guardians, all doer and all giver of life, health and age to the lovers of life on earth.

18. *Sakhīyatānavitā bodhi sakhā grṇāna indra

Indra, friend and protector of friends you are, know us and enlighten us. Lord admired and celebrated, bless the devotee with health, wealth and long age. Lord of power, honour and excellence, Indra, with all our limitations, we admire, honour and celebrate you only, exalting you with these our acts of love, devotion and worship.

19. *Stuata indro maghavā yaddha vṛtrā bhūrīṇyeko

Indra, lord of honour, power and excellence, ruler of the world, admired and worshipped, is the one who all by himself breaks and destroys many irresistible clouds of vapours, darkness and evil. Whoever is dear to him, a celebrant of this lord, and takes shelter under his protection, no one, no human or divine, can obstruct or oppose.

Thus does Indra, lord of wealth, power and excellence, free and irresistible, abounding and generous sustainer of the people, do and achieve what is good and true for the world. O lord of light ruling over the living beings, who create and bear great food, sustenance and honour for the celebrant, the same honour and excellence, pray, create and give for us all and bless us.

21. Nū ṣṭuta indra nū gṛṇāna iṣaṃ jaritre nadyo na pīpeḥ. Akāri te harivo brahma navyaṃ dhiyā syāma rathyaḥ sadāsāḥ.

Indra, lord supreme of honour and excellence, praised and worshipped in holy voice, create and augment food, energy and sustenance for the celebrant like streams overflowing with water for all. O lord omnipresent, moving yet unmoving, we create and offer ever new songs of praise and homage in your honour, and pray, give us the will and intelligence by which we may be masters of chariots and be thankful and obedient servants of Divinity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 18

Indraditi Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

अ॒यं प॒न्था॒ अनु॑वित्तः पुरा॒णा यता॑ द॒वा उ॒दजा॑यन्त॒ विश्व॑ ।
अत॑श्चि॒दा ज॑निषीष्ट॒ पवृ॑द्धा मा मा॒तर॑म॒मुया॑ प॒त्तव॑ कः ॥ १ ॥

1. Ayaṃ panthā anuvittaḥ purāṇo yato devā udajāyanta viśve. Ataścādā janiṣiṣṭa pravṛddho mā mātaramamuyā pattave kaḥ.

This is the path ancient and eternal, known and followed, by which all saints and sages and divine facts and forces are born to grow and rise, from which the whole world comes into being and evolves to greatness and grandeur. Therefore, do not do anything by that way to insult or desecrate the mother, nature, earth, human mother or animal, or any source of generation.

नाह॑मता॒ निर॑या दु॒ग्ध॒हृत्ति॑र्श्चता॒ प॒श्वानि॑ ग॒माणि॑ ।

ब॒हूनि॑ म॒ अकृ॑ता॒ क॒त्वानि॑ यु॒ध्य॒ त्वन् सं त्व॑न पृ॒च्छ ॥ २ ॥

2. Nāhamato nirayā durgahaitat tiraścatā pārśvā-nnirgamāṇi. Bahūni me akṛtā kartvāni yudhyai tvena saṁ tvena prcchai.

This path is dark and deep, unfathomable, yet it is unavoidable. Therefore, I won't evade it, nor trespass it either by another tortuous route or by a wayside alley. Many are my jobs yet unaccomplished, many the battles to be fought by many, many the questions to be asked of many.

परायतीं मातरमन्वचष्ट न नानु गान्यनु नू गमानि ।

3. *Parāyatīṁ mātaramanvacasṭa na nānu gānyanu nū gamāni. Tvaṣṭurgrāhe apibat somamindrah

I see the mother passing away, neither anyone going with nor anyone following after. Indra, the spirit of life, by itself in the house of Tvashta, divine artificer, receives a hundredfold joy of earthly form and drinks the soma of the ecstasy of living in the cup of existence fashioned by the maker.

किं स ऋधक्कृणवद्यं सहस्रं मासा जभारं शरदश्च पूवीः ।

4. Kim sa ṛdhakkṛaṇavadyaṁ sahasraṁ māso jabhāra śaradaśca pūrvrīḥ. Nahī nvasya pratimānamastyantarjateṣūta ye janitvāḥ.

What would he do in truth singly, particularly or distinguishably, whom uncountable months and seasons and years have earlier borne, supported and cherished a hundred times? And for sure there is none exactly like or equal to him, no copy, either among those who have been born so far or among those who would be born in future.

अवद्यमिव मन्यमाना गुहाकरिन्दं माता वीर्यणा न्यूष्टम ।
अथादस्थात्स्वयमत्कं वसान आ रादसी अपृणाज्जाय-
मानः ॥ ५ ॥

5. Avadyamiva manyamānā guhākarindram mātā vīryeṇā nyr̥ṣṭam. Athodasthātsvayamatkaṁ vasāna ā rodasī apraṇājāyamānaḥ.

The mother, worthy of reverence and full of the pride and joy of motherhood, bears Indra, living foetus, in the womb as a silent secret nourished with her vital blood. This Indra, nestled by itself as a living form, nourished, growing and wearing its own form as a garment, abides, and when it is born it fulfils the purpose of heaven and earth (as it fulfils the purpose of father and mother).

एता अषन्त्यललाभवन्तीऋतावरीरिव संकाशमानाः । एता

6. Etā ar̥ṣantyalalābhavantīr̥ratāvarīriva saṁkrośamānāḥ. Etā vi pṛccha kimidaṁ bhananti kamāpa adriṁ paridhiṁ rujanti.

These streams of water, flowing, murmuring, ecstatically singing, rush on like beauteous rays of the dawn. Ask them what they say thus, what mounts they strike and circle, what banks they overflow, what limitations they overcome, what clouds they touch.

किमु ध्विदस्म निविदा भनन्तन्दस्यावद्यं दिधिषन्त आपः ।
ममतान्पुत्रा महता वधन वृत्रं जघन्वाँ असृजद्वि सिन्धून् ॥ ७ ॥

7. Kimu śvidasmai nivido bhanantendrasyāvadyaṁ didhiṣanta āpaḥ. Mamaitān putro mahatā vadhena vṛtram jaghanvān asṛjadvi sindhūn.

What do the ripples, murmurs and songs of excitement of the streams, imaging the immanent power of Indra, say to the mount they hit, the cloud they touch and to this humanity? They speak for Mother Nature, Aditi: My son Indra, breaking the cloud with the mighty thunderbolt of solar energy released the waters and made the streams to flow.

ममच्चन त्वा युवतिः पुरासु ममच्चन त्वा कुषवा जगार ।
ममच्चिदापः शिशव ममृड्युममच्चिदिन्दुः सहसाद-

8. Mamaccana tvā yuvatiḥ parāsa mamaccana tvā kuṣavā jagāra. Mamaccidāpaḥ śīśave mamṛḍyur-mamaccidindraḥ sahasodatiṣṭhat.

Once Mother Nature, a youthful female, in a state of passion conceives you and brings you to life and birth. Then another, a voracious raging demoniac swallows you. Yet another, cool and kind, overflowing with love, caresses and comforts you as a child. And then Indra, grown mature as a new born soul, arrives with his own essential strength.

ममच्चन तं मघवन्व्यंसा निविद्विध्वाँ अप हनू जघान । अथा

9. Mamaccana te maghavanvyaṁso nivividhvān apanhānū jaghāna. Adhā nividdha uttaro babhūvāñchiro dāsasya saṁ piṇagvadhena.

Maghavan, lord of might and excellence, when the self-deluded fool, though arms and shoulders broken, in a state of madness, striking right and left attacks your forces, then though attacked, recover, rise later higher and crush the head of the wicked opponent with a deadly strike of the thunderbolt.

गृष्टिः संसूव स्थविरं तवागामनाधृष्यं वृषभं तुममिन्दम ।

10. Gṛṣṭiḥ sasūva sthaviraṁ tavāgāmanādhṛṣyaṁ vṛṣabhaṁ tumramindram. Ariḷhaṁ vatsaṁ carathāya mātā svayaṁ gātuṁ tanva icchamānam.

Just as a young cow gives birth to the calf, so does the mother, Mother Nature, give birth to Indra, jiva, the blessed soul, essentially a lover of life, inspired with the will to love and live, to act, to move around and to know the Divine Word. A divine child is man, strong, unshakable, intrepidable, generous, inspiring, lover and winner of honour and excellence, and invincible, blest with the human body.

उत माता महिषमन्ववनदमी त्वा जहति पुत्र द्वाः ।
अथाबवीद वृत्रमिन्दा हनिष्यन्त्सख विष्णा वितरं वि-

11. Uta mātā mahiṣamanvavenadamī tvā jahati putra devāḥ. Athābravīd-vṛtrmindro haniṣyan-tsakhe viṣṇo vitaraṁ vi kramasva.

Then (having given birth to the soul) Mother Nature (inspired with divinity), loving, longing and yearning for the well being of the child, softly speaks, warning the great off-spring: Dear child, the devas, senses, mind and all, are neglecting, forsaking, misleading you (in your state of darkness, ignorance and unawareness). Indra, the born soul, dispelling darkness and destroying Vrtra, demon of ignorance, speaks loud and bold to Vishnu, intelligent spiritual self: Dear friend, arise and act for self redemption (through existence with the devas, senses, mind and the discriminative intelligence).

कस्त मातरं विधवामचकच्छयुं कस्त्वामजिघांसुच्चरन्तम ।
कस्त द्वा अधि माडीक आसीद्यत्पाणि णाः पितरं पाद-

12. Kaste mātaraṁ vidhavāmacakracchayum kastvā-majighāmsaccarantam. Kaste devo adhi marḍika āsīd yatprākṣiṇāḥ pitaraṁ pādagrhya.

Indra, obedient soul, holding on to the feet of the father, who can render your mother a widow? Who can hurt you while asleep or moving about? What is that supernormal power over and above your state of grace which can corrupt you? (Answer: None.)

अवत्या शुन आन्त्राणि पच न द्वेषु विविद मडितारम ।
अपश्यं जायाममहीयमानामधी म श्यना मध्वा जभार ॥ १३ ॥

13. Avartya śuna āntrāṇi pece na deveṣu vivide marḍitāram. Apaśyaṁ jāyāmamahīyamānā-madhā me śyeno madhvā jabhāra.

At peace beyond fluctuations of the mind, I ripen and refine the inner visions. I see no saviour either in the experience of the senses or among the external powers of nature. Indeed, I have seen even Mother Nature insulted and desecrated. Ultimately it is the bird of heaven that brings me the divine message, nectar sweets of the honey of real life.

Mandala 4/Sukta 19

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

ए॒वा त्वा॒मि॒न्द व॒जि॒ । त॒त्र वि॒श्वं द॒वा॒सः सु॒ह॒वा॒स ऊ॒माः ।

1. Evā tvāmindra vajrinnatra viśve devāsaḥ suhāvāsa ūmāḥ. Mahāmubhe rodasī vṛddhamṛṣvaṁ nirekamid vṛṇate vṛatrahatyē.

Indra, lord ruler of power and excellence, wielder of the thunderbolt of law, justice and protection, all the scholars of the world, nobles and divines, defenders, holy yajakas and both earth and heaven elect and invite you alone, great, vast and high in grandeur, lord sublime, unique and incomparable. They invoke you for the destruction of Vrtra, demon of darkness, ignorance and selfishness.

अ॒वा॒सृ॒जन्त॑ जि॒व॒या न॒ द॒वा भु॒वः स॒माळि॑न्द स॒त्यया॑निः ।

2. Avāsṛjanta jivrayo na devā bhuvaḥ samrāḍindra satyayoniḥ. Ahannahim pariśayānamarṇaḥ prartanīrarado viśvadhanāḥ.

Indra, lord of the world, men of age, experience and wisdom, firm in their values and conduct of life, as also the brilliant nobles and divines of the world, create and consecrate the ruler of the earth dedicated to truth as the very being and purpose of his existence. And like the sun, light of the world dedicated to his eternal task and nature, breaking the cloud sleeping over the locked up vapours, and releasing the streams of water to flow and feed the world, the ruler destroys the demons of darkness and their strongholds to make the waters of life to flow and give new energy and freshness of life to the people.

3. Atr̥p̥ṇuvantaṁ viyatamabudhyamabudhyamānaṁ susupāṇamindra. Sapta prati pravata āśayānamahiṁ vjreṇa vi riṇā aparvan.

Indra, lord of light, power and excellence, ruler of the world, with a stroke of the thunderbolt destroy without relent the serpentine demon, Vrtra, insatiable, uncontrollable, unawakened, incorrigible, inebriated, blocking up and sleeping over seven streams of the onward flow of life.

4. Akṣodayacchavasā kṣāma budhnaṁ vārṇa vātastaviṣībhirindraḥ. Dr̥ḥhānyaubhnādu-śamāna ojo'vābhinat kakubhaḥ parvatānām.

Indra, with his own strength and courage and by his blazing forces, shakes the earths and skies just as the winds beat and shear the currents of water flows and concentrations of vapour. Lustrous, passionate and inspired, he crushes mighty strongholds of the enemy and breaks down the peaks of mountainous adversaries.

5. Abhi pra dadrurjanayo na garbham rathā iva pra yayuḥ sākamadrayaḥ. Atarpayo visṛta ubja ūrmīntvaṁ vṛtāñ ariṇā indra sindhūn.

As mothers rush to the child to protect it, so do the multitudinous armies rush forward to defend you alongwith the chariots. You break the clouds, fill the rivers with water and make them flow and thus, O lord Indra, you set the locked up seas rolling.

त्वं म॒ही॒म॒व॒निं वि॒श्व॒ध॒नां तु॒वी॒त॒य व॒य्या॒य॒ र॒न्ती॒म ।

6. Tvaṁ mahīmavanīm viśvadhanāṁ turvitaye vayyāya kṣaranīm. Aramayo namasajadaraṇaḥ sutaraṇāñ akrṇorindra sindhūn.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, with thanks and homage to nature and her maker, serve the earth, great protective mother of her children, universal sustainer of life overflowing with nourishment for the defender of humanity and destroyer of enmity for the sake of peace and well being of all. Fill the earth with food and plenty, make her a lovely place for living, let the streams ripple and flow, make the seas roll, inviting all to surf and swim and navigate, and cross the storms of existence.

7. Prāgruvo nabhanvo na vakvā dhvasrā apinvad-yuvatīrṛtajñāḥ. Dhanvānyajrāñ aprṇakṛṣā-ṇāñ adhogindraḥ staryo damsupatnīḥ.

Like the winding streams of rushing waters, let Indra, ruler of the world, develop the fatal armour as the destructive and defensive force. Let him enlist young and intelligent women dedicated to truth and progress. Let him plan and provide irrigation projects for the desert lands to restore their fertility. Similarly let him develop the cattle wealth and take care of the wives of the warriors and make them play a creative role in development.

Just as the sun causes the ancient dawns to rise and moves the cycle of the seasons such as winter and others and move them on and on, and just as solar energy breaks the clouds and makes the rivers flow, so let Indra, ruler of the world, break open the locked up energy of still waters and make it flow in streams for the development and progress of the earth and her children.

9. Vamrībhiḥ putramagruvo adānamniveśanād-dhariva ā jabhartha. Vyandho akhyadahimādadāno nirbhūdukhacchit samaranta parva.

Indra, master of motive energies and controller of the speed and direction of resources, by rising hills hold the unused and unusable water of the streams emerging from the source from further flow, collect and lift the flows together, redirect the water so that the fields and crops receiving the water proclaim the gift as it flows out from the reservoir filling the canals.

Rajan, glorious ruler of the world, the deeds of ancient and eternal value you have done, the programmes you have accomplished, and the self-proclaiming acts of generosity and noble adventures you have performed, the noble scholar and poet sings and celebrates in your honour, O wise leader and master, exactly as you have performed in the interest of humanity.

Sung and celebrated thus, Indra, O ruler of the world, create, bear and bring food, energy and knowledge for the celebrants just as the rivers flow for us all. And thus, this the latest song of homage and adoration is offered to you to the best of our knowledge and intelligence. Bless us, we pray, with intelligence and knowledge so that we may be warriors of the chariot in the service of Divinity and humanity.

May Indra, strong and blazing hero, impetuous and impassioned warrior of the arms of thunder, ruler and sustainer of the people, harbinger of the cherished fruits of noble desire and peace, come to us from far and near for our defence and protection. Lovers of the battles of life as we are, join us in our heats and meets and battles of action for progress with the most powerful weapons and warriors of the time.

May Indra, lord great and glorious, commanding wealth, honour and excellence, wielding thunderous arms of latest design and power, come to us with his forces, come well at the fastest for our protection and all round success, and may he, we pray, stand by us in the conduct of this yajna of ours for victory in our battle of peace and progress in the field of production, development of energy, and advancement in arts and sciences.

3. Imaṁ yajñam tvamasmākamindra puro dadhat-saniṣyasi kratum naḥ. Śvaghnīva vajrintsanaye dhanānām tvayā vayamarya ājim jayema.

This yajna of our social order, Indra, lord commander of wealth and power, honour and excellence, ruling, guiding and sharing the governance of our cities, you would join and share with us in our plans and discussions throughout the holy programme of ours. And we hope, O wielder of the thunderbolt, that with you as the leader and pioneer we shall fight like hunters of the wild and win the battle for the achievement of the wealth and values of the good life.

Indra, brilliant ruler, wielding your own essential wealth and strength and power, glowing with love and kindness for us, happy and joyous at heart close by us, preserve, protect and promote the plenty and prosperity of the nation's honour fought for and won for every partner and then, after the battle and struggle, enjoy the honey sweets of life with a taste of the food and pleasure of peace and progress.

Mighty and full abundant is Indra who is praised and celebrated by the latest sages and scholars like a tree laden with ripe fruit, like a victor putting the enemy to flight. Like a man loving and honouring his beloved, knowing, loving and respecting Indra at the closest and highest, I too celebrate and exalt Indra invoked and glorified by the whole humanity.

Inherently mighty like a cloud and a mountain, dynamic and sublime, Indra is blazing glorious, ever known for his power and patience, destroyer of enemies, thunderous of arms, awful as an invincible warrior, abundant as the sea and overflowing with the wealth of life.

By birth and by nature, there is none to resist him and to turn his back, none to destroy the wealth and power of his glory and majesty. Ever pouring forth the showers of favours, blazing with forces under command, O lord of might and passion, universally invoked and exalted, bear and bring for us the wealths and honours of the good life.

I see you watch over the treasures of the wealth and home of the people and open up the treasures of the languages and learning of the earths. You are the leader of knowledge and education, warrior and victor of wars, and director of the circulation of the collective wealth and assets of the world in many ways.

What is that knowledge and expertise, what sort after all, by which, let me hear, you, mighty majestic and most versatile, somehow achieve success and victory again and again, and by which, being the greatest breaker and destroyer of sin and evil and crime, you bear and bring plenty of wealth for the generous celebrant?

Indra, lord of majesty and generosity, we pray, forsake us not, bear and bring and give us that plenty and variety of wealth which is yours meant for a gift to the generous devotee in this new, productive, admirable and well directed yajnic song of celebration in your honour, and may we, we pray, continue to speak and sing in praise of your glory.

Indra, generous lord of knowledge, wealth, honour and excellence, sung and celebrated thus by the devotees, bear and bring and increase your gift of the wealth of food, energy and knowledge of arts and sciences for the celebrants like the overflowing streams of water across the earth. This new homage of song and adoration is created and offered to your honour so that, O lord of horse and armour, we pray, we may rise as a nation of chariot warriors, generous and obedient to Divinity.

May Indra, ruler and protector of the people, come here to us for our protection and advancement and, praised and sung, may the brave hero share our joy of celebration. Exalted and ascending he is, time tested his forces, bright and blazing as light of the sun. May he, we pray, strengthen our social order and raise it to the heights of prosperity.

Here on this earth praise Indra, celebrate his acts of bravery and generosity, appreciate and honour the leaders and commanders of the mighty and majestic glorious achiever, whose yajnic rule over the social order is worth knowing and holy as an umbrella over the people like the cover of universal and effulgent sunlight, challenging, fighting, winning, forbearing and redeeming.

3. Ā yātvindro diva ā pr̥thivyā makṣū samudrāduta vā purīṣāt. Svarṇarādavase no marutvān parāvato vā sadanādṛtasya.

Let Indra, with vision, power and energy to rule, come instantly from the heavens, from the earth, from the sea or from the orb of the sun and from the ethereal spaces for our protection and promotion. Let the lord of the winds come from afar or from the vedi of cosmic yajna and from the centre of truth and rectitude.

4. Sthūrasya rāyo br̥hato ya īśe tamu ṣṭavāma vidatheṣvindram. Yo vāyunā jayati gomatiṣu pra dhṛṣṇuyā nayati vasyo accha.

In the holiest programmes of our daily business of life, we honour and celebrate Indra who rules the great and permanent assets of the nation, who wins victories by the winds in the battles of the lands and movable wealth and who, with bold and intrepidable confidence and initiative, wholly and faultlessly directs the circulation of the nation's wealth for development.

He who moves forward, who creates and holds food stocks for the sake of consumption in emergency and establishes courtesy and mutual respect as a value of social culture, who creates and uses the language of cooperation and social cohesion for the unity and cooperation of the common wealth of order, who is accepted and celebrated by many many people with words of reverence, and who, by all these ways, creates honour and prestige for the nation of humanity, calls for the shots in world assemblies and rises higher as ruler, as Indra above all.

If the wise people sitting in the house of a loving and nobly ambitious man of yajna, were to do homage with their intelligence and wisdom to the generous giver and yajaka and to those who are realised souls worthy of company, then the one, Indra himself, really great, beyond anger and fear, would come and join there as the leader and high priest, as indeed the very fire, winner and carrier of fragrance, in the battles of life in the house of the yajamana taking it as his own affair in his own house.

When truly in yajnic session in honour of the lord sustainer of humanity, Indra, the light and power of the generous lord showers upon the celebrant for his fulfilment, then the hidden wealth and potential in the mind and home of the loving and faithful yajamana blooms forth for the fruition of his intelligence, advancement and life's joy.

When I open the flood gates of the cloud and break open the path of the mountain, I augment the flow of the rivers with fresh reservoirs. And then the wise pioneers diving deep and reaching the depths of the brilliance and generosity of nature's resources carry on researches for the food, energy and speed of life's progress.

Noble are your arms, O lord Indra, as instruments of noble deeds, gracious your hands generously giving the wealth of life to the celebrant. What and where is the seat of your dispensation? Why not bless us with joy? Why not rejoice and give us the thrill and the ecstasy?

Thus does Indra, ruler of the world, brilliant and ever true, destroyer of the demons of darkness and enmity, give us abundant wealth for the devotee. O lord praised and universally celebrated, give us the wealth of the world by virtue of noble and creative actions. Pray give us the privilege of your divine protection so that we may enjoy the gift of life.

Indra, lord of knowledge, honour and excellence of wealth and well being, praised and celebrated, bear and bring the wealth of food, energy, knowledge and progress for the devotee like the flowing streams of living waters. This new song of homage is offered to you, O lord of speed and advancement, so that with action and intelligence we may be masters of chariots and noble servants of Divinity.

1. Yanna indro jujuṣe yacca vaṣṭi tanno mahān karati śuṣmyā cit. Brahma stomaṁ maghavā somamukthā yo aśmānaṁ śavasā bibhradeti.

Indra, lord of light and power, supreme ruler of the world, commanding honour and majesty, who is ever with us as a friend, who loves us, who does great things for us and, bearing the awful might of thunder and generosity of the cloud, and bestowing on us food, energy and knowledge, honour and fame, greatness of wealth and grandeur, peace of mind and joy of health, and admirable art and poetry, goes on and on with his glory and majesty.

Indra, brave and generous, fierce and mighty brilliant but kind and generous, best and highest of leaders, blazing with his majesty and shooting out the vibrations of his four-winged forceful power of thunder directed all round by his arms of protection and progress, interweaves the harsh and variegated regions of the earth into a unified pattern under the warm cover of a single umbrella for the sake of mutual harmony and beauty of life.

3. *Yo devo devatamo jāyamāno maho vājebhir-

Indra is the leader who, brilliant ruler, most majestic among brilliant ones, newly rising, great, wielding the blazing thunderbolt in hands, makes the earth and skies shine with his grandeur, and, with his great forces and dynamic intelligence, makes the proud and passionate tremble and the loving and shining ones shine more brilliant.

All the solid spheres and mountains of the world, the floods and waves of liquid motions, the regions of light ancient as time, the earths, all born of the dynamics of Prakṛti, the source mothers of the earth such as heat and water and oceans of space, or the roaring winds of the interspaces, all these like the world of humanity, the lord of omnipotence, Indra, bears, moves and sustains.

Indra, lord and presence omnipotent, invincible and intrepidable, those acts of yours greater than the greatest are worth admiration and exaltation in all celebrations of the world which, with your might, bearing and sustaining the fixed stars and moving forces of the universe, you perform with your power and force of thunder to break the clouds holding up the process of evolution.

Indra, lord of great valour and magnificence, generous as rain showers and magnanimous at heart, all those universal acts of yours are great and true. The cows, the earths and the words of vision stream forth with nourishment, energy and inspiration. And by your fear and force of law the rivers rush on with rapidity and the seas roll round with awe.

7. Atrāha te harivastā u devīravobhirindra stavanta svasāraḥ. Yat sīmanu pra mucā badbadhānā dīrghāmanu prasitiṁ syandaya-dhyai.

And surely, O lord of horse and armour and speed of progress, Indra, those sisterly and forward looking dynamic forces of yours in the land, noble and brilliant all, managing the resources along disciplined and determined lines, forces which you released to move forward at freedom on the long and high road to their goal, rush on with pleasure, favour and hopes for protection and exhort and exalt you.

Distilled is the soma of exciting joy of life's action as homage to you. May it reach you like the sea.

And O lord, bring us the peace and power of the omnipotent and self-refulgent Divinity at the fastest like a driver controlling the reins of a tempestuous courser.

O lord of peace, patience, power and victory, bless us with all those gifts of yours which are permanent, challenging, highest and most generous. For us, destroy the demons of darkness and enmity which deserve to be destroyed, and ward off and annihilate the onslaughts on the worshipful humanity.

Indra, ruler of the world, commanding wealth and valour and honour, giver of the speech of wisdom, lands and cows, listen to our voice, measure, mark out, plan, and apportion for us vast and wondrous successes in the field of food, energy and victory. Inspire us with all the possibilities of intellectual and scientific achievement, and let us awake into a heaven of light and freedom.

Thus faithfully praised, celebrated and worshipped in song, O lord of power and progress, Indra, bless the supplicant worshipper with food, energy and advancement like the streams that flow abundant. This homage of worship is created and offered with the best of our intention and intelligence praying that with the divine gift of latest genius we may be warriors of the chariot and obedient servants of Divinity.

1. Kathā mahāmavṛdhatkasya hoturyajñaṁ juṣāṇo abhi somamūdhah. Pibannūśāno juṣam-āṇo andho vavakṣa ṛṣvah sucate dhanāya.

How to evolve and exalt the grandeur of life? Which creative yajaka's holy programme of yajnic instruction and evolution to join? Which milky drink of soma to drink from the mother's breast?

The great, generous and protective lord of sublimity, Indra, commanding knowledge, wealth, honour and excellence, loving and owning up the devoted disciple supplicant, cherishing his offer of homage, blesses him with the gift of refinement and exaltation of his innate wealth of honour and grandeur.

Who is the brave who reaches the ecstasy of the lord's company? Who attains to him and shares the manifestations of his vision and intelligence? When does he know and realise the wonder and variety of this lord's benediction? When does the lord's grace flow for the protection and advancement of the supplicant in yajna?

When does Indra listen to the supplicant? And while he listens, when does he grant that the time for his liberation and ultimate protection is come? What are, for sure, the ultimate bounds (if any) of the lord's gifts of grace? How do the celebrants sing of the gracious lord for the supplicant?

When does the supplicant, though bound in his limitations yet intent upon his search for Divinity, attain to the wealth of the lord's grace?

When the lord self-refulgent and infinitely generous becomes cognizant of my yajnas of service and devotion, accepts my offers of food and fragrance in the vedi, and owns me as his child and disciple in faith, then does his grace shower on me.

When would his love and friendship extend to the human friends who in this yajna of love and covenant extend their love and ambition over practical work in divine service?

O lord, when and how shall we describe your firm and protective love and friendship and your brotherly affection to our friends?

The cosmic body of this gracious lord and the various stages of his creation are for the beauty and glory of existence, blissful as heaven, various and most wondrous. So also are the beauties and generousities of the sun for the love and sustenance of life.

Keen to eliminate the hateful, destructive and rebellious elements, Indra sharpens his blazing armies to greater force, and where the existing forces thus grow fiercer, our ruler, awesome and bold as terror, like a man under pressure of an obligation, wipes out unknown fears like the dawns dispelling darkness.

awakening and brightening up the man who hears, giving him the light of Divinity.
